CARDINALS WRAP UP 2013-14 SEASON

The Lamar Cardinals wrapped up the 2013-14 season with a 4-26 (.133) overall record, and finished 11th in the Southland Conference standings with a 3-15 (.167) league mark. The Cardinals ended a 13-game skid midway through by knocking off Abilene Christian on the road. Lamar battled through a late season seven-game losing streak that ended with a 17-point thumping of New Orleans in the final week of the year. Tic Price was named interim head coach with five games remaining, and although Lamar finished the year going 1-4 (.200), there was a renewed sense energy on the court that saw Lamar in every contest to the final horn - falling by single digits in the four setbacks.

SAYING SO LONG TO THE SENIOR CLASS

Senior Amos Wilson was the team's lone senior. He played in 57 games, earning 52 starts during his two years on campus. A preseason All-Southland Conference selection, Wilson averaged better than 11 points and nearly six rebounds per game for the red and white. He scored at least 10 points 30 times during his career, including four games of at least 20 points. Wilson finished his career with three double-doubles, all coming during his senior year, including one in his final game.

ALL-SOUTHLAND CONFERENCE

Junior Nimrod Hilliard was one of the Southland Conference's top newcomers during the 2013-14 season. The Madison, Wis. native, was named honorable mention All-Southland Conference by the league coaches and media relations directors following the season. Hilliard led the team, and finished 13th in the Southland averaging 14.1 points per game. He hit double figures 27 times as a junior, including four 20-point outings. Hilliard's career high came at Northwestern State where he poured in 29 points against the Demons. He was also one of the league's top assist-men finishing third in the Southland in assists (4.9 pg), and fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio.
