Head Coach
SARAH DAWSON

Louisiana Tech head coach Sarah Dawson believes that her players should be the best they can be on and off the playing field.

That philosophy has started paying dividends for Dawson and Tech as the Lady Techsters captured the 2008 WAC Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1995.

Dawson, now 10 years removed from her playing days where she was an All-American pitcher at Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe), works tirelessly as a head coach to help mold her players into great softball players, top-notch students and first class citizens.

Part of Dawson's philosophy involves getting her players actively involved in service projects so they learn how to be an integral part of their community. During this past fall quarter, Dawson's players earned over 150 hours of community service, ranging from visiting nursing homes, working with area churches and helping with the Louisiana Tech student-athlete Halloween carnival.

In addition to community service projects, Dawson incorporates the NCAA's CHAMPS/Lifeskills Leadership Program on a regular basis with her team. Throughout the school year, Dawson arranges speakers to talk to her players about such topics as domestic violence, drugs and alcohol, sexual responsibility, interviewing skills, and other areas that will impact their lives.

Dawson and her coaching staff along with the players instituted a recycling program in the Louisiana Tech Athletic Department.

The Alpine, Calif., native also emphasizes education, and it has paid off during her tenure at Louisiana Tech. During her previous five years as Tech, 33 of her players have earned Academic All-Western Athletic Conference honors, ranking among the most in the league during that time.

Dawson, who has compiled a 136-220 record at Tech in her six years, has also had plenty of positive affect on her players on the playing field during her time at Louisiana Tech. Dawson's competitive spirit rubs off on her players.

She brings that competitiveness and dedication that helped her garner success as a collegiate and professional player to the Louisiana Tech program. Over the past six years her teams have set numerous records, including the four top single season hit performances (Amberly Waits, 73 in 2008), Amber Miles, 68 in 2004, and Emma Barnes, 67 in 2007 and 64 in 2008) and single season home runs (Ashley Cameron, 10 in both 2005 and 2006).

Some of Dawson's teams have also set team single season marks, including RBI in a season (2006, 204), home runs in a season (2007, 32), batting average (2006, .284). In fact, Dawson's last three teams rank first, second and third in single season home runs.

Eighteen of her players have earned all-Western Athletic Conference honors, including at least one every year and a program-record four in 2004, 2006 and 2008. Dawson has also had 10 of her players named to the Louisiana Sports Writers Association all-state team, while outfielder Emma Barnes was named the state Freshman of the Year in 2006.

And on numerous occasions, she has led her team to upsets of Top 20 teams, including five wins over Top 25 teams in 2008, including four straight during the run to the 2008 WAC Tournament title.

Dawson's effect on her players can be seen in a number of different ways, including their lives following college. Three of her former players are currently coaching in the Division ranks including current Tech assistant Amber Miles as well as Marla Pinkston and Eric Chernicky.

Prior to coming to Louisiana Tech in 2000, Dawson served as an assistant coach at UL-Monroe from 2000 through 2002 and at Marshall University in 1999.

During her four years on the mound at UL-Monroe, she produced some incredibly impressive numbers that still rank on the NCAA Division I all-time single season and career records list.

In her career, Dawson amassed a record of 120-56 while registering 151 complete games, 1,242.1 innings pitched, 1,280 strikeouts and 74 career shutouts. Her complete games, innings pitched, strikeouts and career shutouts all rank in the top 10 in NCAA Division I history while her 120 career wins rank No. 6.

In 1997 during her senior season at UL-Monroe, Dawson earned a spot on the Louisville Slugger NCAA Division I All-American first team. During that year Dawson registered 446 strikeouts in 400.2 innings while recording 50 complete games in only 54 starts and amassing a record of 45-10.

She still holds the school record for career victories, lowest earned run average (0.69), inning pitched, strikeouts, shutouts, games pitched, games started and complete games.

She continued to be successful after her collegiate career, joining the Women's Professional Fast-pitch League in the summer of 1997, where she earned the first year league's inaugural Most Valuable Player award.

Dawson earned her bachelor's degree in finance from UL-Monroe in 1998.

It's a Small World: There are a number of interesting ties between Louisiana Tech and the other three teams in this weekend's College Station Regional, some softball related and some not.

Bill Galloway: The Hall of Fame softball coach came to Louisiana Tech in 1981 after leading Texas A&M for three years (1978-1981) where he compiled a 208-48 mark with the Aggies and three Top 5 finishes in the AIAW national tournament. Galloway led Tech for 21 seasons, recording a 723-360-2 mark and taking the program to eight NCAA Tournaments and three College World Series.

Spring (Texas) High School: Louisiana Tech sophomore Jessica Kirby and Texas A&M senior Megan Gibson were both teammates at Spring High School in Texas.

Gary Blair: Texas A&M head women's basketball coach Gary Blair was an assistant coach at Louisiana Tech for five years in the early 80s where he helped lead the program to four Final Fours and two national titles. Ironically, Blair also spent eight seasons at Stephen F. Austin as the head women's coach where he recorded a 210-43 mark.

Nell Fortner: Auburn head women's basketball coach Nell Fortner was an assistant coach at Louisiana Tech for five seasons (1991-95) while advancing to five NCAA Tournaments and one Final Four (1994).

Vista Ridge High School: Tech signee Allie Geisler and SFA signee Amber Price are both teammates at Vista Ridge High School in Texas.

Texas Connection: When the Lady Techsters found out they were headed to College Station for this weekend's regional, they were thrilled. Tech boasts eight players from the state of Texas and all five of its incoming freshmen next year hail from Texas.

Error Prone: Louisiana Tech's biggest Achilles heal this season has been inconsistent defensive play as the Lady Techsters have committed 90 errors in 62 games. Tech went only 17 games without making an error this season (10-7 record). Ironically, Tech made a season-high five errors this year in a 5-4 win over Ole Miss May 2.

Improvement Glove Work: In its title run at the 2008 WAC Tournament, Tech committed only three errors in its four games and allowed only one unearned run. During the regular season, Tech's 87 errors led to 62 unearned runs -- more than one unearned run per game.

Explosive Bat: Sophomore Jessica Kirby didn't see much playing time as a freshman, appearing in only nine games and totalling 18 at bats. However, Kirby has come on strong in year No. 2 and has proven to have an explosive bat. Kirby registered Tech's only 5 RBI game of the year when she went 4-for-4 with two home runs in a 12-4 win at Las Cruces April 4. The four hits and two home runs were also season highs for a Tech player. She also recorded Tech's only four RBI performance of the season when she was 2-for-4 with a double and a home run in an 8-6 win over North Texas Feb. 13.

Streaking, or Not: On its way to a mark of 35-27, Louisiana Tech has not been a streaky team. The Lady Techsters longest winning streak on the season was five games and its longest losing streak was three games (twice). Tech also won four games in a row twice, including its current streak. Other than the four and five-game winning streaks, Tech never won more than two in a row.

Senior(itis): Louisiana Tech catcher Regan Clark is the lone senior on this year's Lady Techster softball team. The Hesperia, Calif. native has started all four years for Tech and will end her career ranking in a number of offensive statistically categories. Heading into the WAC Tournament, Clark ranks:

Home Runs	3rd (15)
RBI	3rd (107)
Hits	4th (189)
Doubles	3rd (44)
At Bats	4th (670)
Total Bases	4th (278)

Bounce Back Season: Senior catcher Regan Clark had a bounce back season this year. After earning first team all-WAC honors as a sophomore while hitting .356 with 35 RBI, Clark struggled during her junior campaign as her numbers fell drastically to .236 with 15 RBI. However, she came back strong this year, batting .292 with 38 RBI for the Lady Techsters.

Year	Avg.	2B/HR	RBI	Runs
FR	.255	15/3	19	13
SO	.356	7/5	35	21
JR	.236	8/4	15	7
SR	.291	14/3	38	14

Young Guns: Louisiana Tech has one of the youngest teams in the Western Athletic Conference as the Lady Techsters boast only one senior. Tech's roster is made up of one senior, four juniors, seven sophomores and seven freshmen.

Seniors (1)	Regan Clark
Juniors (4)	Emma Barnes Lyndsey McIlwain Krissi Oliver Danielle Sheridan
Sophomores (7)	Mandi Bertsch Elizabeth Franklin Jessica Kirby Sarah Offutt Amberly Waits Summer Young Kylie Bassett
Freshmen (7)	Heather Doiron Claire Gibson Mandy Granger Megan Granger Meghan Krieg Wanda Malone Jordan Simmons

Seeing Double: Louisiana Tech freshmen Mandy and Megan Granger are hard to tell apart if you don't know them. The Parks, La., natives are twins and are both freshmen on this year's team. Mandy wears No. 19 and plays first base while Megan wears No. 26 and plays shortstop.

How Sweet It Is: Entering the 2008 NCAA Tournament, Louisiana Tech has assured itself of its first winning season since 1999. Tech is 35-27 heading into the double elimination regional tournament. Tech's last winning season came in 1999 when the Lady Techsters were 34-18 under head coach Bill Galloway. The 35 wins are also the most for head coach Sarah Dawson whose previous high was 27 in 2004 (27-33).

Oliver Makes Improvement: Junior hurler Krissi Oliver has made some giant strides in her performances during her first three years in the circle for the Lady Techsters. Oliver's 2.34 earned run average and 18 wins are career bests as the Glendale, Arizona, native has become the ace for Tech. Oliver has more than cut her 4.79 earned run average from her freshman season in half.

Year	W/L	ERA	K/BB	Opp. BA
Freshman	11-14	4.79	56/39	.345
Sophomore	17-27	3.09	133/83	.290
Junior	18-13	2.34	99/30	.275

Multi-Dangerous: When junior Krissi Oliver isn't in the circle, she can usually be found in right field as she has started 59 of 62 games this season. Oliver has started 22 games in right field, 34 games in the circle and three as the designated player for Tech.

Shutout City: Louisiana Tech more than doubled its total shutouts from last year as the Lady Techsters blanked their opponents 13 times this year (compared to only six times in 2007). Krissi Oliver led the way with six complete game shutouts while also being a part of two more combined shutouts.

One-Run Fun: Louisiana Tech won 14 one-run games this year while posting an overall mark of 14-7 in games decided by one run. Tech won four games by one run on its way to the 2008 Western Athletic Conference Tournament title.

Extra Inning Blues: Despite the Lady Techsters success in one-run games, Tech had very little success in extra innings. The Lady Techsters were only 2-4 in extra inning games this year although Tech has won its last two extra inning games -- 5-4 over Ole Miss and 3-2 over #10 Fresno State.

Balanced Offensive Production: The Lady Techsters boast six different players who have recorded at least 20 RBI on the season as Amberly Waits, Regan Clark, Jessica Kirby, Krissi Oliver, Kylie Bassett and Danielle Sheridan have all been consistent run producers. Tech has scored 236 runs on the year (the program record is 240 in 1998). Five of the six players have recorded career highs in RBI while Danielle Sheridan are two RBI behind their career-highs.

Jessica Kirby	28 RBI*

Danielle Sheridan	20 RBI

Pitching Depth: Perhaps the biggest reason for Louisiana Tech's success this season is the Lady Techsters pitching depth as head coach Sarah Dawson's team has more than just one arm in the pen. Tech boasts three arms in the pen that has registered a 2.50 ERA or better this season and two more arms that have also provided some solid innings.

Player	W-L	ERA	IP

Mandi Bertsch	8-8	2.43	72.0
Wanda Malone	0-0	3.05	36.2
Jordan Simmons	1-3	4.67	36.0

Pitching Staff Improvement: One season after recording a team earned run average of 4.17, Louisiana Tech's staff has made a significant improvement this season with a 2.51 earned run average. Tech allowed 231 earned runs in 2007 but has cut that down to 148 this year. The 2.51 ERA is the lowest by a Tech team since 2004 when it was 2.42.

Barnes on the Base Paths: Junior Emma Barnes continues to move her way up the list for career stolen bases as her 18 stolen bases this season give her 52 for her career. Barnes currently ranks ninth in Tech history, one stolen base behind Martha Olow who ranks eighth with 53. Even more impressive is the fact Barnes has only been caught four times in her career (52-56).
