Strength and Conditioning

The mission of the Long Beach State Strength and Conditioning Program is to assist our student-athletes in achieving their athletic goals by providing evidence-based/research-based programming in a safe, positive and supportive environment.

Nutrition

Athletic performance and recovery from training is enhanced by attention to nutrient intake. Optimal nutrition for health and performance includes the identification of both the quantity and quality of food and fluids needed to support regular training and peak performance. For more information, please read the following manual: Long Beach Strength and Conditioning: Nutritional Information for Athletes.

Policy & Procedures

To optimize the training environment, the rules, regulations and etiquette outlined in this document must be followed.

Athletes should approach their strength and conditioning (S&C) just as they would a practice - with the same mental intensity and competitiveness.

The S&C Staff maintains the authority to enforce the rules and regulations below - an athlete's failure to abide by them may result in a loss of program privileges.

General Rules

1. Foul language and horseplay is prohibited in the Strength Complex. Between sets of exercises, 49er Athletes rest/recover and encourage fellow athletes while mentally preparing for their next set.
2. Return all free weights (dumbbells, weight plates), medicine balls, and other equipment to the proper storage place after use.
3. Athletes' use of cellular telephones is not permitted in the weight room and ringers should be turned off. Prior to the workout, athletes may arrange phone usage if expecting an extremely urgent call.
4. The S&C Facility is to be used for training only. Athletes are not allowed to visit the Strength Complex to socialize with friends, study etc.
5. Use of personal music devices is prohibited in the Strength Complex.
6. Sick athletes are not permitted in the weight room. Injured athletes are still expected to attend their Strength and Conditioning sessions. The Strength and Conditioning Staff will work together with the Athletic Training (AT) Staff to modify programs for injured athletes as necessary.
7. Appropriate workout attire, including shirt and covered shoes, must be worn in the Strength Complex at all times. Long Beach State 49er apparel is strongly encouraged. Clothing or hats representing other universities is not allowed. Any jewelry (including watches) that impedes normal lifting or conditioning performance must be removed. Athletes are responsible for storing and securing their own items.

8. When not lifting, place yourself in a safe area, PREFERABLY OFF THE PLATFORM that does not disturb those who are lifting (lifter). Be in the habit of never turning your back on a lifter. NEVER walk or stand directly in front of a lifter.
9. Any time you feel pain while lifting, stop immediately and report to the Strength and Conditioning Staff.
10. Only encouraging, motivating comments or actions are acceptable in the Strength Complex. Non-serious comments or actions intended to distract other athletes are grounds for immediate dismissal.
11. Socializing is acceptable as long as it's kept to a minimum, is appropriate for the Strength Complex and does not detract from the training atmosphere. [Note: If you have enough energy to socialize between sets, are you working hard enough? If you're socializing, are you focused? Lack of focus = unproductive training and increases injury potential!!!]
12. It is absolutely unacceptable to carry on a conversation while performing an exercise, or to converse with an athlete who is. Failure to abide by this rule may result in your immediate dismissal. [Note: Rule # 12 does not include encouraging other athletes performing a heavy lift (this is desirable) or communication with a fellow athlete suspected of performing an exercise improperly.]
13. 49er student-athletes are welcome to perform other exercises after they have completed the workout prescribed by the Strength and Conditioning Staff. Athletes wishing to substitute a non-prescribed exercise for a prescribed one must consult with the Strength and Conditioning Staff before doing so.
14. 49er student-athletes are permitted to bring nutritious food and/or drink into the Strength Complex as long as any trash or mess is not left behind.
15. Athletes are not permitted to instruct other athletes in the Strength Complex. Athletes concerned about another athlete's lifting technique should ask them to stop immediately, then asking a Strength and Conditioning Staff member for help.
16. Athletes are encouraged to wash their hands immediately upon finishing their workout.
17. 49er student-athletes must successfully complete the Mandatory Strength and Conditioning Orientation prior to full participation.

18. Athletes are required to wipe down lifting benches after each use.
19. Student-athletes may only train in the Strength Complex under the supervision of a Strength and Conditioning Staff member. Sport coaches may supervise workouts under special conditions in which a S&C Staff member is not available.

Weightlifting Platform Rules/Etiquette

1. The weightlifting platforms are intended for free-standing, full-body lifts (i.e. snatch, clean & jerk, push press/jerks, squats, dead-lifts etc...). Small muscle-mass exercises should be performed off the platforms.
2. Always use the least amount of small plates (1.25, 2.5 or 5 Kilogram) possible. Whenever possible, move up in weight by adding bumper plates.
3. Never load more than a 5Kg plate/side to a bar loaded only with 10Kg bumper plates.
4. Extra weight plates, collars or bars should be stored, or kept a safe distance from the immediate lifting area.
5. Always maintain a safe distance from those who are lifting. When not lifting, the safest place to be is off the platform.
6. Be aware. Stand to the side, or at an angle while facing the lifter whenever possible.
7. Never stand, or walk in front of a lifter.
8. Only bars loaded with bumper plates may be dropped (from waist height) on the platform.
9. Weight plates should never touch the wood. Be sure to center yourself on the wood during each lift.
10. Dumbbell exercises should only be performed on a rubber surface.
11. Always help to load/unload the bar when working with another athlete.
12. Athletes wishing to attempt heavy lifts must be skilled at properly using heavy lifts. It is the athlete's responsibility to understand all the risks involved with every exercise and how to minimize them.

Student Athlete Surveys & In person Exit Interview

In order to improve the quality of our program, the Athletics Department seeks constructive feedback from the student-athlete. This is done with two different forms of feedback 1) In person Exit interviews with seniors and non-returning student-athletes 2) Student-athlete questionnaire administered to all student athletes during the year. This feedback provides the department with information which may be useful to coaches and administrators.

Each student-athlete is asked fill out this questionnaire. The responses to questions on this assessment will remain anonymous (coaches will see information in aggregate form only).

The actual responses on the exit interviews will be kept confidential to be read only by the Director of Athletics, Sr. Associate AD/SWA, Associate Athletics Director for Compliance Director and the Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR).

The questionnaire is administered at or near the conclusion of the championship segment of that team's season.

Constructive feedback is always welcome, and student-athletes need not wait until the end of their season, year or athletic career to offer suggestions or express concerns. The Athletic Administration at Long Beach State believes in an open door policy to enhance lines of communication.

Along with the computerized survey those student athletes completing their eligibility or student athletes who are not returning to the athletic program will be randomly selected to do an in person interview with an athletic administrator.

Missed class time

Student athletes are to notify their professors on the first day of class by taking a letter from the BAC to the instructor notifying them of the missed class time due to competition. It is the responsibility of the student athlete to work with the professor to make up any assignments.

The University has a policy to excuse absences if a student is representing the University for sanctioned or approved activities including:

1. Illness or injury to self or death, injury, or serious illness of an immediate family member
2. Religious reasons
3. Jury duty
4. University sanctioned activities such as artistic performances, intercollegiate athletic activities, student government etc.

In such cases, the student is responsible for informing the faculty member of the reason for the absence and for arranging to make up missed assignments, tests, quizzes, and class work insofar as this is possible.

Pregnancy Policy

The Long Beach State Department of Athletics is committed to the personal health and development of all of our student athletes. We strive to provide an environment that respects all pregnancy and parenting decisions and urges all participants to work cooperatively toward protecting the student athletes' physical and psychological health. The procedures outlined below will allow the student athlete and the athletic medicine staff to make the best decision related to participation in athletic related exercises.

Long Beach State Student-Athlete Handbook

PROCEDURE:

The student-athlete should inform a member of the athletic training staff at the earliest known date of pregnancy or suspected pregnancy. The athletic trainer will notify the team physician and, if appropriate, an administrator and/or support staff. Confidentiality between these parties will be maintained unless cleared by the athlete prior to notification. The athlete's participation status will be based on the following:

1. The recommendation of the student athlete's personal physician or OB/GYN.
2. The recommendation of the Long Beach State Team Physician(s).

The student-athlete MUST be cleared by BOTH of the physicians listed above and activity levels will be based on their recommendations. Participation status will be monitored and altered based on the progression of the pregnancy and/or signs and symptoms that may arise. The decision of the Long Beach State Team Physician(s) will ultimately determine a student-athlete's ability to participate in Long Beach State Athletic related activity.

- Dizziness
- Headache
- Preterm Labor

Player Guest tickets at NCAA Championships

The athletic department will determine the number of player guest tickets to be allocated. Since there are no complimentary tickets to NCAA Championship events these tickets must be purchased by the department. Coaches will be notified of the allocation and will then let the student athletes know the number and procedure for signing up for the player guest tickets.

All recipients must show valid photo identification and sign the designated ticket form when signing in onsite of the championship.

Social Networking Guidelines and Safety

Social Network sites such as My Space, Facebook, Twitter and other types of digital platforms are great ways to keep in touch with other students and friends. Although these networks have a tremendous positive appeal, it is important to keep in mind the potentially negative consequences involved in their use. Following are a list of suggestions to help keep your personal information safe:

- Profiles you create for social sites should always be private. In other words only your friends should be able to view them.
- Make potential viewers (who aren't your friends) ask your permission before allowing them to view your content.
- Never include all your personal information i.e. full name, birth date, and year of birth on your profile. This could make you the target of identity theft.
- Ask yourself these questions before posting a picture of yourself.
 - Is this the image I would like to present to my coach, acquaintances, and potential employers?
 - If someone other than my friends sees this, will I be embarrassed?
 - Does this picture portray behavior that is illegal?
- Always consider whether your language or behavior on a web site conflicts with your LBSU student-athlete code of conduct.
