BEACH CONCLUDES SECOND-STRAIGHT 20-WIN SEASON AT 24-9

Last year, the Long Beach State women's basketball team had one of the best campaigns in recent history as it recorded its first 20-win season in 15 years (22-10). The Beach proved that wasn't a fluke as it continued to build on its success in 2015-16, where it went 24-9 overall, tied for second in the Big West and made its second-straight WNIT appearance. LBSU's 24 victories were its most since 1990-91.

QUICK HITS

- Long Beach State made its fourth WNIT appearance and third in the last four years.
- The Beach tied for second in the Big West regular-season standings, its best finish in 10 years.
- LBSU's 12 league wins were also the most since it went 13-5 in 2004-05.
- The 49ers swept six of their eight conference opponents with their only losses coming to Hawai'i and UCR.
- Long Beach State's 24 victories were its most in a season since going 24-8 in 1990-91.
- The Beach ranked first in the Big West and 10th in the country with 21.2 turnovers forced per game.
- LBSU forced 20 or more turnovers in 12 of its last 16 outings.
- The 49ers are two victories away from the program's 900th win.

BEACH PLACES THREE ON ALL-BIG WEST TEAM

Long Beach State had three players named to the 2015-16 All-Big West Women's Basketball Team. Junior Raven Benton was a first-team selection, while classmates Anna Kim and Jewelyn Sawyer garnered honorable mention recognition. Sawyer was also tabbed the Big West Defensive Player of the Year, marking the third time in program history, and first since 2003, a 49er has won the award.

WNIT RECAP

The Beach put up a fight but Pac-12 member Oregon was able to pull away late as the 49ers dropped an 84-76 decision in the first round of the WNIT at Matthew Knight Arena on March 17.

"We've won more games than we ever have with our staff in the last seven years," head coach Jody Wynn said. "I'm so proud of all of our players and how they've battled and been resilient all season long."

LBSU shot 45.2 percent from the field, but the Ducks were slightly better at 50.9 percent and got hot from beyond the arc where they were 14-of-30. Long Beach still forced Oregon into 20 turnovers, marking the 21st time the 49ers pressured their opponent into at least 20 miscues.

Junior Raven Benton led Long Beach State with 22 points, eight rebounds, five assists and two steals. It was her second-straight 20-point game and the 12th of her career. Junior Anna Kim and sophomore Gigi Hascheff added 12 points each, while sophomore Jessica Gertz finished with 11, matching her career high with three 3-pointers. Freshman Chanterria Jackson also went 4-for-6 from the floor for nine points.

A LOOK BACK AT THE BIG WEST TOURNAMENT

Junior Raven Benton hit the game-winner with 0.6 seconds left to lift third-seeded Long Beach State to a 54-52 win over No. 6 seed Cal Poly in the Big West Tournament quarterfinals at the Bren Events Center in Irvine. After the Mustangs sank a pair of free throws to tie it up at 52-52 with 19 seconds remaining, the Beach called a timeout and advanced the ball to the front court. With the time winding down, Benton got open and junior Jewelyn Sawyer found her for a buzzer-beating 18-foot jumper. Benton finished the night with 11 points, while junior Anna Kim had a team-high 15 points to go along with six rebounds.

LBSU moved on to the semifinals for the first time since 2012, but was unable to get past eventual champion Hawai'i as the 49ers fell, 76-60. Benton led all players with 27 points and was named to the Big West All-Tournament Team. Sawyer added 10 points, while junior Madison Montgomery finished with eight points, four rebounds, three steals and two blocks.

HARD TO BEAT

The Beach was hard to beat this year, finishing with a .727 win percentage, its best mark since going 24-8 (.750) in 1990-91. The 49ers' nine losses came to only six teams. Three of those setbacks were to Big West Tournament champion and NCAA Tournament participant Hawai'i, while two came at the hands of undefeated Big West regular season champion UC Riverside. The Beach also fell to West Coast Conference Tournament champion San Francisco, SEC member LSU and Pac-12 schools USC and Oregon (WNIT semifinalists).

1,000 AND COUNTING

Raven Benton surpassed 1,000 career points in a 61-56 win at Cal Poly on Feb. 24, and went on to increase her total to 1,112, which puts her at No. 18 on LBSU's all-time scoring list. She was the 24th player in program history, and the fourth in head coach Jody Wynn's tenure, to reach the milestone. The Tacoma, Wash., native needed only 83 games to accomplish the feat, making her the 12th-fastest 49er to hit 1,000. Benton also has 463 career rebounds, giving her a chance to become Long Beach State's 13th player in the elite 1,000-point and 500-rebound club.

BEACH FOR THREE

Long Beach State ranked first in the Big West with 215 3-pointers made. Every 49er connected from long distance with nine hitting at least 10 triples, including team leaders Jessica Gertz (42) and Raven Benton (36). The Beach made at least five threes in 24 games and went off for a Big West-record 20 at Cal State Fullerton on Jan. 9. Their 20 3-pointers also shattered the previous program record of 13, which they established earlier in the year vs. Portland State (Nov. 15). Nine of LBSU's 11 players drained a shot from behind the arc with seven making multiple treys against the Titans.

SCORING MACHINE

Raven Benton, who averaged a team-best 13.5 points per outing, reached double digits in scoring 23 times this season and 57 times in her career. The first-team All-Big West selection netted a career-high 31 in a non-conference win over UNLV on Dec. 20, marking LBSU's first 30-point performance in five years. Benton also finished with 27 at CSUN, 27 vs. Hawai'i in the Big West Tournament, 23 in a regular-season meeting with the Rainbow Wahine, 22 vs. Cal State Fullerton and 22 at Oregon. She now has 12 career games with 20 or more points.

BENTON ON FIRE

After making just seven of her first 37 3-point field goal attempts (18.9 percent), Raven Benton turned the corner vs. UTEP on Dec. 18, when she drained a couple of threes. She proceeded to connect for 29 of her 36 triples and shot 39.7 percent (29-73) from beyond the arc over the remainder of the season. Benton made a career-high five 3-pointers at Fullerton on Jan. 9. She also ranks fourth in school history with 348 career free throws made and etched her name in the single-game record books with a 15-for-20 performance from the charity stripe at CSUN on March 5. Her 15 FTs are tied for third and the 20 attempted are tied for second.

SHE CAN DISH IT TOO

Benton has been the leading scorer in each of her three years at Long Beach State, but this season she was also tops on the team with 82 assists (2.5 apg). She more than doubled her previous single-season best of 35, which she established as a sophomore. Benton dished out at least three helpers 14 times, including a career-high nine in a 75-62 win at UC Davis.

SWAT TEAM

Junior Madison Montgomery (Englewood, Colo.) tied for fifth in the Big West with 1.1 blocks per contest. She had a streak of eight games with at least one block from Dec. 13-Jan. 9, and led the team with 37 total blocked shots. Montgomery, who recorded multiple blocks 12 times this year, finished with a season-high three at Pacific, at Denver and vs. Hawai'i. The 6-foot-1 forward also averaged a career-best 8.6 points and 4.4 rebounds per outing. This season, Montgomery posted career highs of 22 points at CSUN, 13 rebounds at Pacific and five assists at Seattle U. She added 11 points against the Tigers for her third career double-double.

JEWELYN SHINES

Junior Jewelyn Sawyer emerged as one of Long Beach State's top players in 2015-16. Sawyer reached double figures in scoring 14 times, led the Beach in rebounding on 16 occasions, and accounted for three of LBSU's five double-doubles. On the season, Sawyer registered 9.0 points and a team-best 6.0 rebounds per game, marking a significant improvement from her first two years where she averaged 3.5 points and 3.9 boards.

Sawyer started her breakout campaign by netting a career-high 20 points against San Diego State. She was the first 49er to hit 20 in a season opener since Karina Figueroa (23) and Lauren Sims (20) both accomplished the feat in 2009. The Paramount, Calif., native later matched her career best with 20 points at USC, while also finishing with 16 at Seattle and UC Davis. In addition, Sawyer finished second on the team with 47 steals. The 2016 Big West Defensive Player of the Year had a steal in all but one of the 14 conference games in which she played, and totaled a career-high five takeaways in both meetings with Cal Poly.

BACK ON TRACK

Junior Anna Kim started the season making 66.7 percent (6-of-9) of her 3-point attempts, including a perfect 4-for-4 performance from long distance at Houston on Nov. 19. In the following game at LSU, Kim suffered an elbow injury that affected her shot as she went 2-of-19 from behind the arc over the next nine outings. The Fullerton, Calif., native got back on track with a three at Denver (Dec. 28), marking her first triple since Nov. 27. She continued to roll at Seattle U with two threes and 15 points, and went on to make four of her five 3-point attempts for a season-best 18 points at UC Davis. Kim ended up making 23 treys over the final 20 games. She ranks eighth in school history with a career 3-point field goal percentage of 36.1. The All-Big West honorable mention selection also led the team with 51 steals and was second with 72 assists.

AT THE LINE

Sophomore Jessica Gertz made the first 20 free throws of her young 49er career and was 16-of-16 this season before her first miss in the second quarter of a 62-57 victory over Cal State Fullerton (Jan. 20). Gertz - who is now an 84.8 percent career free-throw shooter (28-for-33) - had two games with at least five FTs made, going 5-for-5 in a win over Northwestern State and 7-for-7 in a road victory at UC Irvine. The Oregon City, Ore., native finished with a then career-high 13 points against the Anteaters before topping that performance with 14 points vs. UC Davis. Gertz was also sharp from the perimeter as she led the team with 42 3-pointers. She made eight of her final 11 attempts from behind the arc and had a streak of 10-straight games with a three snapped in the Big West semifinals on March 11 as she did not take a shot in 10 minutes played against Hawai'i.

OFF THE BENCH

Long Beach State scored more than 20 bench points 16 times this year. Against UC Riverside (Jan. 13), LBSU's second unit registered a season-high 42 points. Leading the way was sophomore Gigi Hascheff, who after missing the first four games with an ankle injury, became a consistent force for the 49ers. She reached double figures in scoring seven times, including a season-best 16 points on a 5-for-8 shooting performance (4-of-5 3FG) at UC Davis. In addition, the versatile 5-foot-7 guard pulled down at least three rebounds on 15 occasions. Hascheff averaged 6.2 points, 2.7 boards and 1.8 assists per game.

HELLO, MS. JACKSON

Freshman Chanterria Jackson (McKinney, Texas) made an immediate impact in her first year at Long Beach State. The 6-foot-1 forward started her collegiate career by making nine-straight field goals, before her first career miss with 28 seconds left in the second quarter vs. Portland State on Nov. 15. She kept up her efficiency, leading the Beach on the season in field goal percentage (55.1) and 3-point field goal percentage (43.5). Jackson, who had seven double-figure scoring games, converted on two four-point plays and finished with a season-best 17 points in 17 minutes against UC Riverside on Jan. 13.

TURNOVER TREND

Long Beach State led the Big West and ranked 10th in the nation with 701 turnovers forced (21.2/game). The 49ers pressured 21 teams into 20 or more turnovers this season, including Portland State, which committed a season-high 30 miscues. LBSU also wreaked havoc on Oregon (20), Hawai'i (21), San Diego State (21), UC Davis (21/23), Colorado (22), Denver (23), UC Santa Barbara (23), Houston (24), UC Irvine (24/25), LSU (26), UTEP (26), Northern Arizona (27), Cal State Fullerton (27/23), CSUN (27/23) and Cal Poly (29/23). Since head coach Jody Wynn's first year at the helm of the program in 2009-10, the Beach has forced 19.2 turnovers per game.

DEFENSIVE MINDED

The Beach allowed more than 60 points only 15 times this season, and gave up more than 70 six times, one of which was an overtime game. Six of Long Beach State's adversaries failed to reach the 50-point mark, including Pac-12 member Colorado (42) and previously unbeaten UTEP (40). Both of those teams hit 90 at least once this year and averaged 61.9 and 71.1 points per game, respectively. One of UTEP's five losses on the season came at the Beach on Dec. 18. The 49ers kept their opponents to single-digit scoring in a quarter 13 times.

ON THE OTHER END

Long Beach State scored 70 or more points nine times with a season-high 89 against Portland State on Nov. 15. The Beach put together 29 quarters with at least 20 points, and had seven games with multiple 20-point periods.

FIRST & THIRD

Long Beach State led after the opening 10 minutes in 15 games, and held a double-digit advantage in seven of those contests. Against Portland State, they scored a season-best 39 points in the first period, which is tied for the third-most in a quarter by an NCAA Division I team. Central Michigan had the top scoring quarter with 45 in the first frame of a win at Oakland on Nov. 15, while UConn finished with 41 against Robert Morris in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Beach also trailed at the half 17 times this year and on eight occasions responded with a big second half to spark a comeback win.

TWENTY-TWENTY

LBSU picked up its 20th win of the season at Cal Poly on Feb. 24, marking the 49ers' first back-to-back 20-win campaigns since 1990-91 and 1991-92. Over the last two years, they own an impressive 46-19 record (.708).

STARTING FIVE

The Beach used only five different starting lineups this season. Anna Kim started every game, while Madison Montgomery earned the nod in 32 of LBSU's 33 contests. Jewelyn Sawyer (30), Raven Benton (28), Cecily Wilson (23) and Chantel Dooley (17) also made multiple starts.

COMEBACK KIDS

They didn't have to play catch-up very often, but when the 49ers found themselves down, they were never out, coming back from a double-digit deficit five times this year (LSU, Northwestern State, Seattle, UC Irvine and Cal Poly). Their biggest come-from-behind win was against Northwestern State where they erased an 18-point deficit to emerge with a 60-59 victory.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Raven Benton (Dec. 21) and Jewelyn Sawyer (Dec. 7) were both named the Big West Player of the Week this season. Benton was recognized for her effort at the Beach Classic where she averaged 22.0 points and 6.5 rebounds in wins over UTEP and UNLV. The 5-foot-10 guard, who was named the tournament MVP, scored a career-high 31 points on only 14 shot attempts in a 67-63 victory against the Lady Rebels. She was 10-of-14 from the field, 2-of-3 from behind the arc and 9-of-10 from the free throw line. She also pulled down a team-best eight rebounds.

Sawyer earned her first career Big West Player of the Week award after leading the 49ers to wins against Pacific and Colorado. Over the two games, Sawyer averaged 14.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.0 assists, while shooting 84.6 percent (11-for-13). She was a perfect 5-of-5 for a team-best 13 points in a 68-60 victory at Pacific, which has made four-straight postseason appearances. Four days later, Sawyer went 6-for-8 from the floor to finish with a game-high 15 points in a 59-42 rout of the Buffaloes.

ROAD WARRIORS

Long Beach State played eight preseason road games, six of which were out of state, and logged 9,089 flight miles in November and December. The 49ers were successful away from the Walter Pyramid where they went 5-2 (2-0 in neutral-site games). The Beach finished the year 10-5 in true away games.

STRONG STARTS

After going 13-1 in non-conference play in 2014-15, Long Beach State had another strong preseason at 11-3. That marks the best back-to-back 14-game starts since 1985-86 (12-2) and 1986-87 (13-1). The Beach also had only one loss over its first eight games for the second-straight year.

WYNN WINS

Seventh-year head coach Jody Wynn (114-108) became the fourth coach in program history to join the century club with her 100th career victory coming at Denver on Dec. 28. The past four seasons have been especially productive for Wynn and the 49ers as they have won 79 games and earned three WNIT bids.

BRINGING IT BACK

Seventh-year head coach Jody Wynn has brought back the rich tradition of Long Beach State women's basketball as she has led the Beach to three WNIT berths (2013, 2015 and 2016) and seven-straight Big West Tournament appearances - with a run to the championship game in 2012. The 49ers have also improved their win total in each of the last five seasons. In 2014-15, LBSU had its first 20-win campaign in 15 years at 22-10. The Beach then topped that in 2015-16 with 24 victories, its most since going 24-8 in 1990-91.

PROTECT THE PYRAMID

LBSU has been tough to beat at home in recent years. Since the start of the 2011-12 campaign, the Beach boasts a 56-22 (.718) record at the Walter Pyramid. The 49ers have posted at least 10 wins on their home court in each of the last five years as they went 11-3 in the 'Mid in 2015-16.

UP NEXT

Long Beach State has a bright future as it will return 10 of its 11 letterwinners next season, losing just one senior in Chantel Dooley. The Beach will also welcome the addition of freshman Aaryon Green, who redshirted this year, along with incoming recruits Alzena Henry and Tyla Turner in 2016-17.

HEAD COACH JODY WYNN | Seventh Year

Jody Wynn enters her seventh year as the head women’s basketball coach at Long Beach State. Since her arrival, LBSU has seen rapid improvements with two Women’s National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) bids and six-straight Big West Tournament appearances, including a run to the championship game in 2012.

Last year, Wynn led the Beach to one of its most memorable seasons in recent history. Not only did the 49ers reach 20 wins for the first time in 15 years, but their 22-10 overall record was also the program’s best since 1990-91. Long Beach State turned heads in the preseason where it went 13-1, which matched the best regular-season non-conference record in school history. The lone defeat came in the third game of the year and was a narrow five-point overtime loss to USC. Following that setback, LBSU proceeded to go on a 15-game win streak, defeating perennial national powerhouses Cal and LSU along the way. The Golden Bears were ranked 18th in the country at the time.

The 49ers were recognized for their effort as they received votes in the Associated Press Women’s Basketball Poll for three-straight weeks. They also made their way into the College Insider Mid-Major Top-25, climbing as high as No. 9 in January. The season culminated in Long Beach State’s second WNIT berth in three years. Raven Benton and Hallie Meneses were both All-Big West selections with Benton being named to the second team and Meneses garnering honorable mention recognition.

In 2013-14, Wynn guided the Beach to its first winning record in nine seasons, finishing with an overall mark of 17-15. Long Beach State also advanced to its fifth consecutive Big West Tournament under Wynn’s direction. Lauren Spargo and Ella Clark garnered All-Big West honorable mention recognition, while Raven Benton and Anna Kim were named to the conference’s all-freshman team.

In 2012-13, Wynn put LBSU (16-16) back on the national stage with an at-large berth into the WNIT. It was the program’s first national postseason tournament since 2000. The Beach ended up hosting eventual runner-up Utah in the first round and dropped a narrow 56-49 decision. Wynn had two players recognized by the conference with Devin Hudson and Alex Sanchez receiving All-Big West honors. Hudson was also selected to the Big West All-Tournament Team after notching a conference tournament record 24 rebounds against Cal State Fullerton.

In 2011-12, the 49ers finished sixth in the conference, but found themselves one win away from earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. In the Big West Tournament, Long Beach State came back from a 19-point deficit on the road to defeat No. 2 seed CSUN in the first round before upending top-seeded Cal Poly, 51-48, in a semifinal match-up. LBSU eventually fell to UC Santa Barbara, 63-54, in its first championship appearance in 11 years. Three 49ers were named to the all-tournament team, while Wynn also had two athletes, Tipesa Moorer and Alex Sanchez, garner All-Big West honors.

In her first year at the Beach (2009-10), Wynn led a senior-laden squad to a fourth-place finish in conference play with a 9-7 record. They swept eventual Big West Tournament champion UC Riverside and defending Big West champion UCSB during the regular season. Long Beach State also defeated the Gauchos on their home floor for the first time in 19 years. Wynn saw three of her players earn All-Big West recognition, including first-team selection Karina Figueroa.

In 2010-11, LBSU battled through the loss of six letterwinners, including three starters, as it finished sixth in the Big West. Two players were named to the all-conference team, while the 49ers also claimed the Big West Freshman of the Year and the Big West Hustle Player of the Year awards.

Wynn came to Long Beach State with 13 years of collegiate coaching experience under her belt. She spent five seasons as the senior assistant, recruiting coordinator and head of scouting at USC, where she was in charge of bringing in four nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including the No. 1-ranked group in 2006. On the court, Wynn coached seven All-Pac-10 performers, a conference freshman of the year and a WNBA draft pick.

In 2008-09, Wynn helped the Trojans advance to their first-ever Pac-10 championship game, with five players garnering all-league honors. In her first season at USC (2004-05), the Women of Troy tied for second in the conference and rolled into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1997, finishing the campaign ranked 22nd in the nation. One year later, the Trojans were back in the postseason, advancing to the second round.

Wynn entered the coaching ranks in 1996-97 as an assistant at Pepperdine. She helped the Waves to six postseason appearances, including three bids to the NCAA Tournament. In her eight seasons in Malibu, Pepperdine had six 20-win campaigns and captured four West Coast Conference championships.

The Brea, Calif., native was a four-year letterwinner and starting guard at USC from 1993-96. During her playing career, the Trojans compiled a record of 79-35 (.693), won the 1994 Pac-10 Conference championship and made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Wynn was also a prep standout at Brea Olinda High School, where she guided the Ladycats to three California state championships. She earned CIF-Southern Section and Orange County Player of the Year accolades in 1991 and 1992, while also being tabbed a USA Today and Streets & Smith honorable mention All-American.

Wynn earned her bachelor’s degree in exercise science from USC in 1996 and attained a master’s in education from Pepperdine in 2000.

The former Jody Anton is married to Derek Wynn and the couple has two daughters, Jada and Kaeli.
