Does your team or group need some extra GREEN?

Loyola Soccer has your answer!

Youth teams and groups can sell tickets to any soccer game on consignment!

Groups can sell tickets for any price they want and keep everything they make over the $3 Loyola charges for group tickets and are only charged on tickets actually sold.

Players or organization members will be honored on Awalt Field at halftime for the game(s) they sell tickets to.

After the game(s) in which tickets were sold to, players or members will be invited down on the field to meet the Loyola team and get autographs!

The team or organization that sells the most tickets during the season will win an hour block of time at Ridley Athletic Complex for either a game, practice, field day, or a 30 minute clinic with either the men's or women's coaching staff!
