per game and pulled down 2.7 rebounds as a 5-foot-6 point guard. Her slashing style of play was a loss last season for the Cardinals, as she was tabbed to spell Cummings, and a definite welcomed addition this season.

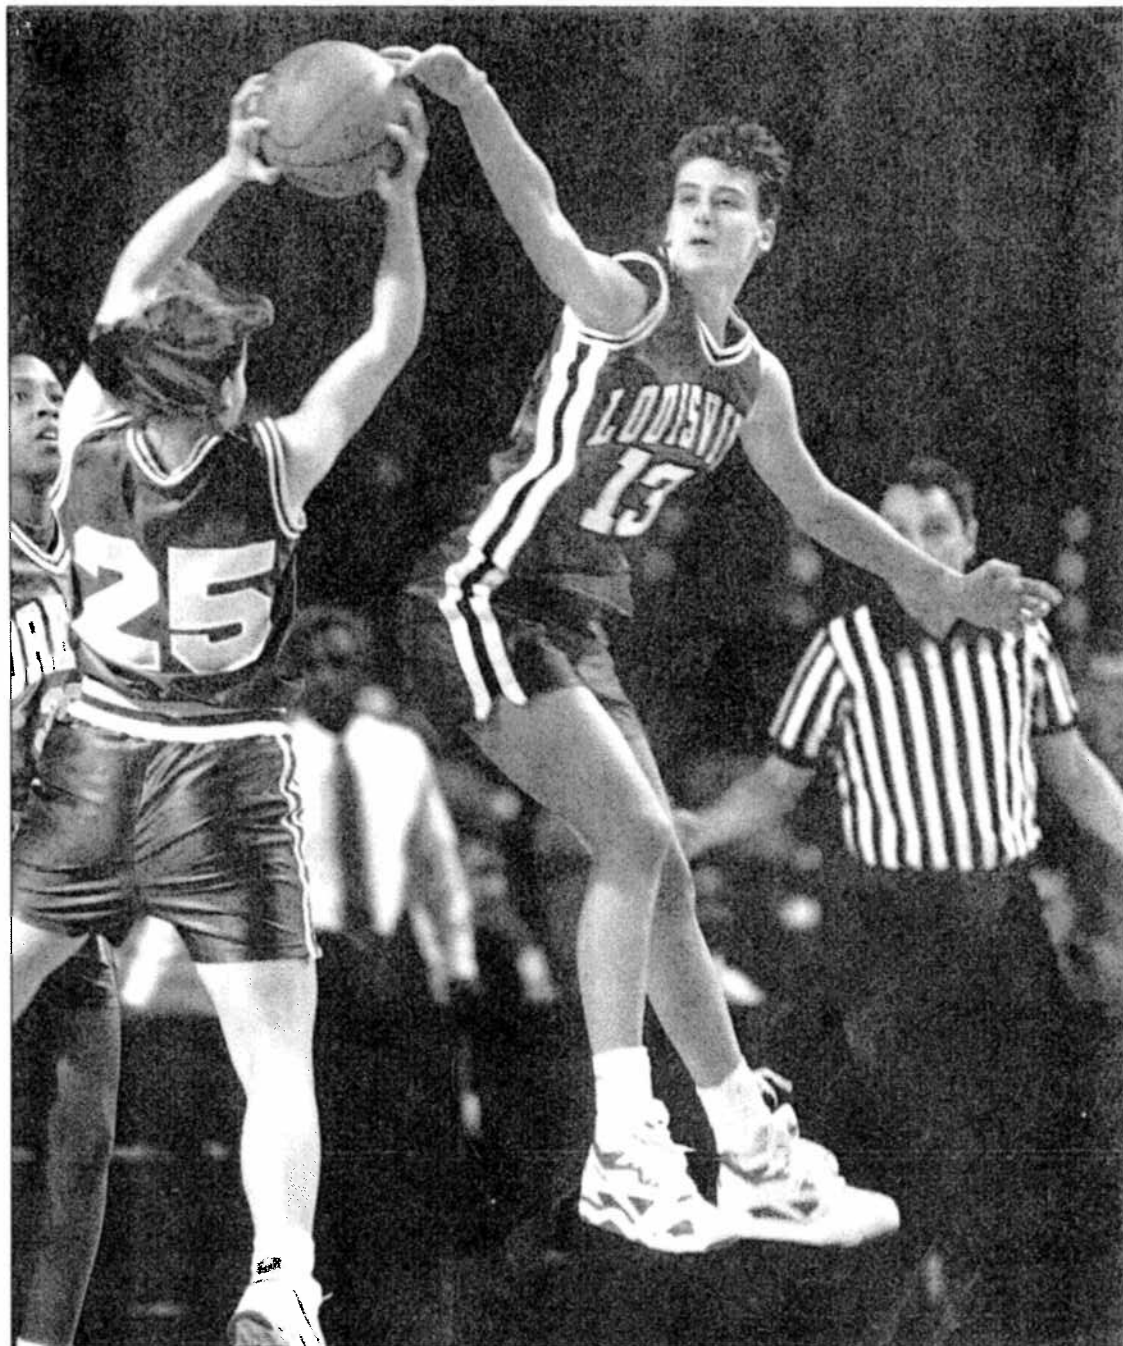

Renee Huntsinger is another player waiting to fill the vacated offensive void. One of the steadiest players Childers claims he has ever coached, Huntsinger came off the bench last season to score 3.7 points and dished out 2.4 assists. Used mainly as a reserve during her three seasons, Huntsinger led the Cardinals from the free throw line last season with a 78.7 percentage. For her career, she has hit 73.8 percent from the charity stripe (which ranks fourth on the all-time list).

Sophomore Darnice Cloudy is the third Cummings replacement and one of the newest additions to the Cardinal squad. Cloudy sat out last season for academic reasons and Childers has been chomping at the bit in anticipation for the day she steps on the court. A two-sport athlete at Horace Mann High School in Gary, Indiana, Cloudy was a member of the Indiana All-Star team following her senior season. With averages of 18 points and five rebounds as a senior, Cloudy will be a welcomed addition to the backcourt.

Sophomore Latasha Glanton could see more action this season at the off guard position. The 5-10 sophomore saw action in 17 games last season and is one of the better all-around guards Childers staff has ever recruited.

Freshman Kristin Mattox could play in the frontcourt or
