GAME 8

Dec. 5, 1998 • Mid-America Classic • Columbia, Mo.

	1st	2nd	OT	Final
Louisville	43	26	7	76
Missouri	39	30	18	87

The Lady Cards fell 87-76 to Missouri in the finals of the Mid-America Classic. Roscelle Bullock's layup with five seconds left in regulation gave the Lady Cards a 69-68 lead. MU's Julie Helm caught a baseball pass and was fouled by Jenny Knight with three seconds left. Helm connected on one of two from the line to send the game into overtime. It was all Missouri in overtime. Louisville did not score in the overtime period until Bullock hit a three-pointer with 30 seconds left. Sharon Bellamy and Jill Morton led Louisville with 18 points apiece. Helm finished with 27 for Missouri.

GAME 9

Dec. 12, 1998 • Freedom Hall • Louisville, Ky.

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	31	40	71
Butler	26	44	70

The Lady Cards overcame a late Butler run to win 71-70 in their home opener. Jill Morton's six-foot driving jumper from the baseline with three seconds remaining off a screen by Sharon Bellamy lifted Louisville over Butler. Louisville led most of the way and enjoyed a nine point lead in the first half and a seven-point advantage with 6:18 remaining, only to find Butler fighting back down the stretch. Roscelle Bullock led Louisville with 19 points and Morton added 17. Bellamy scored 10 of her 12 points in the last nine minutes of the game.

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	26	39	65
Marquette	29	41	70

The Lady Cards rallied from a 13-point deficit midway through the second half but couldn't grab the lead, falling to Marquette 70-65 on senior night. Sharon Bellamy scored 27 points and set a new school record, connecting on 17 of 20 free throws. She was 14 of 16 from the line in the final 8:06, when U of L cut a 52-39 deficit to two. The Lady Cards held the lead three times in the first half. Marquette took the lead for good at the 2:09 mark in the first half. Marquette pushed its lead to 52-39 in the first 11 minutes of the second half. Louisville went on a 10-0 run to close within 52-49 with 5:44 left. Marquette pulled away again to lead 50-43 at 4:04 left. But the Lady Cards got within 60-57 with layups by Alison Bass and Bellamy, and within 62-59 on two free throws from Bellamy with 1:49 remaining. Senior April Goddard connected on a three-pointer with 0:17 remaining that pulled Louisville within 66-64. Marquette's Kristi Johnson made both free throws and Bellamy went to the line for two with 0:09 left. Bellamy hit the first to make it 68-65 but missed the second. Lisa Oldenburg hit two free throws to make it 70-65, Golden Eagles.

GAME 27

Feb. 14, 1999 • Shoemaker Arena • Cincinnati, Ohio

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	34	27	61
Cincinnati	32	38	70

The Bearcats scored the final nine points to defeat the Lady Cards 70-61 for sole possession of first place in CUSA. The score was tied at 61 in the final minute of the game. UC's Amber Stocks' layup snapped the tie and sent the Bearcats on their way to first place the conference. Sharon Bellamy led Louisville with 19 points but spent most of the second half on the bench in foul trouble. Bellamy and Morton each scored nine points early in the first half to zip Louisville out to a 20-10 lead but the Bearcats closed with 34-32 at the half behind Madinah Slaise's 14 points. In the second half, neither team led by more than three points until Slaise connected on a three-pointer with 5:11 left to put the Bearcats ahead 57-53.

Senior forward Roscelle Bullock went down after just eight minutes with a knee injury and would not return for the game. Tulane took advantage and widdled away at the 10 point lead. The Lady Cards went through a six minute stretch without scoring, as Tulane cut the lead to one. U of L went into the half with a 25-24 advantage.

The second half saw six ties before Louisville took the lead for good at the eight minute mark. Louisville built the lead to eight with 5:28 left in the game. Tulane kept battling back, cutting the lead to one with 1:35 left. Louisville connected on seven of eight from the free throw line in the final minute to secure a Lady Card victory.

Feb. 6, 1999 • Freedom Hall
• Louisville, Ky.

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	30	39	69
DePaul	25	29	54

Once again, Louisville put in a stellar second half performance to defeat DePaul 69-54. The Lady Cards raced to a 14-4 lead in the first six minutes of the game. DePaul then used a 13-2 run to go up 17-16. The lead changed back and forth until Jill Morton hit a jumper at 0:33 to give Louisville a 38-23 advantage. Jenny Knight then intercepted a pass and fed Alison Bass for a layup. With five seconds remaining, DePaul's Maureen McManaman hit two free throws to make it 30-25 at the half. Senior Sharon Bellamy took over the second half, scoring 18 of her 24 points. Louisville held DePaul to just 34.0 percent from the three-point arc, the CUSA leader in that category.

• Fogelman Arena

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	40	37	77
Southern Miss	36	37	73

The second-seeded Lady Cards moved to the Conference USA semifinals by holding off Southern Miss 77-73. Junior Jenny Knight hit a three-pointer to put U of L up 19-13 in the first half. Southern Miss then scored the next six points to tie the score at 19. Bellamy was called for her second foul at the 10:04 mark and sat the rest of the half. Junior Alison Bass stepped up scoring 11 points in a row, putting the Lady Cards up 31-25. Bass scored 15 points in the first half to put the Lady Cards up 40-36 at the half. Although Bellamy returned to the game, the Lady Cards found it hard to put the Golden Eagles away. Louisville went on an 11-2 run, with nine from Bellamy to go up 70-61. With 7:20 remaining Bellamy went to the bench with her fourth foul. Southern Miss' Angela Johnson scored eight straight points to trim the deficit to 76-73. Morton sank two free throws to seal the Cardinal victory.

	1st	2nd	Final
Louisville	43	31	74
Tulane	36	51	87

The Lady Cards took Tulane's Grace Daley out of the first half but were unable to stop her from scoring 27 points in the second half, falling 87-74 to the Green Wave. Tulane held a 23-12 first half advantage with 10:23 remaining. Then senior April Goddard sparked an 18-7 run that tied the score at 30 with 5:22 remaining. A layup by Sharon Bellamy gave the Lady Cards a 35-34 advantage and their first lead of the game. Jill Morton hit a three-pointer with 1.7 second left to put Louisville up 43-36 at the half. In the second half, Louisville went up 47-42 when Bellamy was called for her third foul and went to the bench. Meanwhile, Daley began to heat up, scoring nine points to cut the deficit to 51-50. The Green Wave went on a 16-10 run to take a 69-62 lead and then Tulane never looked back.
