Future Cards Skills Academy
February 4th, 2012

Future Cards Skills Academy

This camp is open to any and all female soccer players ages 10-14

The Future Cards Skills Academy will focus on the development of ball mastery, first touch, and speed of play. The camp will focus on teaching the tools young players need to develop in their game for the next level. The camp size will be kept small so the players get as much individual attention as possible with the staff. The focus of the camp is time spent on the ball to improve comfort ability and skill on the ball. The camp will be run by the UofL women's soccer staff and players including Big East Coach of the Year and NSCAA Regional coach of the year Head Coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes.

Our staff of University of Louisville Women's Soccer players and coaches are committed to helping educate the Louisville Community's future stars. The energy and enthusiasm of our staff is sure to keep the players smiling!

All Campers Must Bring Their Own Age Appropriate Sized Ball!
