KICKOFF

After taking a 2-0 triumph on the road at No. 5 Memphis on Friday night, Louisville remains in the city of Memphis for an NCAA third round matchup against No. 1 seed Florida State on Sunday afternoon at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex. The Cardinals and Seminoles (ranked No. 9 nationally in this week's NSCCA poll) will kick off at 3 p.m., ET and live video of the game will be streamed free of charge at NCAA.com. Live scoring will be available through the Gametracker feature at UofLsports.com. The winner of the UofL-FSU game will play either No. 2 seed Virginia or Virginia Tech next weekend in an NCAA quarterfinal matchup.

CARDS' NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Following its win over Memphis in the second round, Louisville is 2-1-1 all-time in the NCAA Championship while making its third appearance overall. In their first ever NCAA game in 2006 in Knoxville, Tenn., the Cardinals battled Duke to a double-overtime scoreless draw before falling 5-4 in penalty kicks in a first round game. In 2007, Louisville dropped a heartbreaking 1-0 overtime decision to Illinois in a first round game in South Bend, Ind.

LAST TIME OUT

Led by goals from freshmen Kim Sharo and Zakiya McIntosh and a terrific performance by its backline, Louisville continued its greatest post-season run ever with a 2-0 victory at No. 5 Memphis in the second round of the 2011 NCAA Championship on a cool Friday night.

"I think the year has been magical, but what creates years like this is the players that you have," said Louisville head coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes of the Cardinals, who set a school record with their 14th win of the season on Friday. "We have a very, very special group. We aren't defined by individual players; we're actually defined by our unit. They enjoy being around each other from the first player on the team to the 30th player on the team—at practice, at dinner, wherever. I think it shows that we play for each other."

HOSTING FOR FIRST TIME, LOUISVILLE ADVANCES TO SECOND ROUND

Louisville, the 2011 BIG EAST National Division champion, hosted an NCAA match for the first time in the program's history and the Cardinals made the most of it with a 2-0 triumph over Dayton. It marked the first time in school history U of L has advanced beyond the first round of the NCAA Championship. Overall, the Cardinals are making their third NCAA appearance and their first since back-to-back berths in 2006 and 2007.

CARDINALS REACH FIRST EVER BIG EAST CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE GAME

With its 2-1 victory over Notre Dame on Nov. 4, Louisville advanced to its first ever BIG EAST Championship title game. Playing in their first semifinal since 2007, the Cardinals scored two goals in the first 11 minutes of action and then held off a late Irish rally to reach the final round of the 10-team tournament. The Cardinals' tournament run ended with a 2-0 loss to 11th-ranked West Virginia on Nov. 6 in Morgantown.

LOUISVILLE NOTES...

With their 14th win, the Cardinals surpassed the previous school record win total set in back-to-back seasons in 2006 and 2007... The win over Memphis was career victory No. 104 for Karen Ferguson-Dayes, Louisville's all-time winningest coach... Five of the Cards' six losses in 2011 came to teams which advanced to the NCAA Championship... U of L has lost only twice in its last 17 games... The eight straight wins prior to the BIG EAST title game loss were the most in school history surpassing the seven straight in 2010.

CARDINALS AGAINST THE NCAA FIELD

Louisville was 2-5-1 against teams which advanced to the 2011 NCAA Championship while playing against seven of the 64 teams overall. The Cards earned two wins against reigning NCAA champ Notre Dame (1-0, 2-1) and a tie at Toledo (1-1) while suffering losses against Illinois (2-1, OT), Baylor (3-0), Kentucky (2-0), Marquette (1-0) and West Virginia (2-0).

KIEFER LEADS CARDS TO NINTH SHUTOUT OF 2011 IN NCAA SECOND ROUND

Goalkeeper Chloe Kiefer had four saves in the Cardinals' NCAA second round win at Memphis to clinch her second straight NCAA Championship shutout and her ninth shutout of the season, which places her second all-time in school history. Earlier this season, Kiefer and the Cardinals matched a school record with three straight shutout wins while playing more than 342 minutes without allowing a goal. Overall this season, Kiefer has played more than 2,182 minutes in goal, which is a new school record at U of L. While playing every minute of every game in goal this season, she surpassed the previous school record of 2110 set by former All-American Joanna Haig in 2007.

BIG EAST IN THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP... AND THEN THERE WAS ONE

The BIG EAST Conference had four teams earn 2011 NCAA bids, but with the completion of the first two rounds of action, Louisville is the only team remaining. After joining the Cardinals as a first round winner, Marquette's season ended on Friday night with a 4-1 loss to Penn State. On the other side of things, home-standing West Virginia was eliminated in the first round with a 1-0 loss to Virginia Tech and defending NCAA champion Notre Dame was beaten 1-0 at Illinois.

FERGUSON-DAYES NAMED BIG EAST COACH OF THE YEAR, EXETER TABBED AS OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Sophomore forward Christine Exeter was selected as 2011 BIG EAST Conference Women's Soccer Offensive Player of the Year while head coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes was named the league's Coach of the Year during the BIG EAST awards banquet on Nov. 3. Along with the individual awards for Exeter and Ferguson-Dayes, Cardinals' senior midfielder Jennifer Jones was named Third Team All-BIG EAST, while freshman midfielder Erin Yenney was named to the league's All-Rookie Team. It is the first time in school history Louisville has won two individual league honors and it is the most individual conference honors for the Cardinals since five players earned All-BIG EAST recognition in 2007.

EXETER LEADS THE CARDINALS' SCORING ATTACK IN 2011

Louisville is led offensively by sophomore forward Christine Exeter, the 2011 BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year. Exeter totaled 24 points and scored a league-leading 11 goals in conference action in 2011. She recorded at least one point in 10 of 11 league games and has 14 goals and 31 points overall entering the second round of the NCAA Championship. Exeter, who has 21 career goals in less than two full seasons, became the first Louisville player to be named BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year only one season after she was the first Cardinal to be named BIG EAST Rookie of the Year (2010).

SENIOR CO-CAPTAINS JONES, MCDONALD PROVIDE STABILITY, PRODUCTION

From a leadership standpoint, the Cardinals are directed by senior co-captains Jennifer Jones and Kaitie McDonald. Jones, a 2011 Third Team All-BIG EAST selection and a member of the 2011 BIG EAST Championship All-Tournament Team, is third on the team with three goals to go along with a team-leading five assists. McDonald was a 2011 BIG EAST Championship All-Tournament Team selection after scoring her first career goal and adding an assist in the Cardinals' 2-1 win over Notre Dame on Nov. 4 in the BIG EAST semifinals. She followed that by scoring her second career goal in U of L's first round win over Dayton on Nov. 12.

CARDINALS WIN FIRST EVER BIG EAST NATIONAL DIVISION TITLE

With its 1-0 win at rival Cincinnati on Oct. 22, Louisville won its first ever BIG EAST Conference National Division title and clinched a No. 1 seed in the BIG EAST Championship. The Cardinals' previous best conference finish was second in 2007. Louisville set a school record for conference wins with its 8-1-2 BIG EAST record in 2011. Overall, the Cards finished with 26 points, while Georgetown was second with 24. Defending NCAA champion Notre Dame was third with 20 points and was followed by Seton Hall (13 points) and Rutgers (12 points).

LOUISVILLE FIRST BIG EAST TEAM TO DOUBLE-UP FIGHTING IRISH

With its Nov. 4 win, Louisville became the first BIG EAST team to defeat Notre Dame twice in the same season since the Fighting Irish joined the league in 1995. The Cardinals also earned a 1-0 win at Notre Dame on Sept. 16. It is the first time ND has lost twice in the same season to the same team since a pair of losses to North Carolina in 2009. It is only the fourth time ever that it has happened to the Irish with the others coming in 2003 to Michigan and in 1999 to UNC.

EXETER FINISHES AS BIG EAST'S TOP GOAL-SCORER IN LEAGUE GAMES

Christine Exeter closed the regular season as the BIG EAST's goal-scoring leader in league action with 11 goals in 11 games. She also led the league in shots (45), points (24) and game-winning goals (5) in conference games. In all regular season games, she ranked third in goals (12), fourth in points (27) and third in game-winning goals (5) in the BIG EAST. In just two seasons, Exeter now has 21 career goals, while her 14 goals in 2011 are the most for a Cardinal since former All-American Jamie Craft had 14 in 2004.

YOUTH MOVEMENT PROVIDING MUCH OF THE SCORING IN 2011

Through 23 games in 2011, freshmen and sophomores are providing much of the offensive output for the Cardinals. With sophomore Christine Exeter leading the way (14 goals, 3 assists), freshmen and sophomores have scored 85 percent (29-of-34) of the Cardinals' goals, accounted for 74 percent (20-of-27) of the team's assists and scored 11 of the 14 game-winning goals.

EXETER NAMED BIG EAST OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK ON OCT. 10

After scoring four goals and leading Louisville to a pair of wins, Christine Exeter was named BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 10. She scored two goals in each BIG EAST contest that week, including the game-winner in a 2-1 double-overtime win at Georgetown on Oct. 9.

YENNEY BIG EAST ROOKIE OF THE WEEK ON OCT. 17

Freshman Erin Yenney was selected as BIG EAST Rookie of the Week on Oct. 17. Yenney scored the first goal and what proved to be the game-winner in the Cardinals' 3-0 victory against Seton Hall on Oct. 16.

LOUISVILLE WORKING A LOT OF OVERTIME IN 2011

Louisville has matched a school record by playing nine overtime games (out of 22 total games) in 2011. The number matches the total first set in 2007. Overall, the Cardinals are 4-2-3 in overtime games, including three double-overtime wins.

CARDINALS HONORED FOUR DEPARTING SENIORS ON OCT. 16

Prior to its 3-0 victory over Seton Hall on Oct. 16, Louisville held its annual Senior Day activities and honored Jennifer Jones, Kaitie McDonald, Caitlin Beck and Kassie Young. Those four participated in their final regular season home game at Cardinal Park.

LOUISVILLE HOSTS KICK OUT CANCER GAME ON OCT. 14

Louisville hosted a "Kick Out Cancer Game" on Oct. 14 against Rutgers. Earning a 2-1 victory, the Cardinals wore specially designed white uniforms with pink lettering and numerals in support of cancer awareness. During halftime, there was a survivor walk around the track at Cardinal Park for all cancer survivors in attendance.

EXETER NAMED TO BIG EAST HONOR ROLL ON SEPT. 26

Christine Exeter was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Sept. 26. Exeter scored a goal in each of the Cardinals' two games that week. On Sept. 23, her goal with 2:15 left in regulation evened the score at 2-2 and allowed the Cardinals to earn a tie at UConn. On Sept. 25, she scored the only goal of the match in a 1-0 win at Providence.

YENNEY NAMED TO BIG EAST HONOR ROLL ON SEPT. 19

Erin Yenney was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Sept. 19. Yenney scored three points as the Cardinals went 1-0-1. She started the weekend by scoring the game-winning goal, her first of the season, in Louisville's 1-0 win at No. 12 Notre Dame. Two days later, she had an assist in the Cards' 1-1 tie against DePaul.

CARDS PICKED TO FINISH FOURTH IN NATIONAL; EXETER PRESEASON ALL-BIG EAST

Christine Exeter was named to the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team, while the Cardinals were picked to finish fourth in the National Division by the league's head coaches. Louisville, which finished fifth in the National Division in 2010 with a 4-7 league record and a 10-9 mark overall, earned 73 points in the voting, while defending NCAA champion Notre Dame led the way in the division with 120. Georgetown was picked to finish second in the National with 103 points, while Rutgers was third with 91. Following Louisville was Villanova in fifth (67 points) and DePaul in sixth (54), while Cincinnati and Seton Hall were tied for seventh with 30 each.

Exeter, the 2010 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, led the Cardinals with seven goals and 16 points as a freshman. She had three game-winning goals and finished with a pair of two-goal performances. Her seven goals in 2010 were the most for a Louisville player since Jamie Craft's nine goals in 2006 and the most for a Cardinal freshman since Craft scored eight goals in 2003.

EXETER NAMED TOP 100 PLAYER BY TOPDRAWER-SOCCER.COM

Christine Exeter of the Louisville women's soccer team was named to the National Top 100 players list released by TopDrawerSoccer.com in August.

A native of Pickering, Ont., Exeter was ranked 69th on the list, which includes sophomore, juniors and seniors. Exeter was one of 16 players from the BIG EAST Conference on the list of 100.

The 2010 BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, Exeter led the Cardinals with seven goals and 16 points as a freshman. She had three game-winning goals and finished with a pair of two-goal performances. Her seven goals in 2010 were the most for a Louisville player since Jamie Craft's nine goals in 2006 and the most for a Cardinal freshman since Craft scored eight goals in 2003.

West Virginia Captures Third Women's Soccer Crown

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. – West Virginia (17-4-0) beat Louisville (12-6-3) by the score of 2-0 in the title game of the BIG EAST women's soccer championship on Nov. 6. With the win, the Mountaineers captured their second consecutive tournament title and third overall.

Mountaineers senior Blake Miller knocked home a penalty kick 27:13 into the contest to open the scoring. She was later named to the all-tournament team as well as the Most Outstanding Offensive Player.

WVU junior Bry McCarthy was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Freshman goalkeeper Sara Keane was excellent in net making five saves to preserve the shutout. She also was named to the all-tournament team.

The match took place before a sun-baked capacity crowd of more than 1,550 at Dick Dlesk Soccer Stadium.

KAREN FERGUSON-DAYES

Head Coach 12th Season Connecticut, 1993

In her 11 seasons, Karen Ferguson-Dayes has taken a soccer program at the University of Louisville and molded it into a team that has finished near the top of the BIG EAST and advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice in the last five seasons.

Ferguson-Dayes, the winningest coach in Cardinal history, has improved the team's record nearly every season she has been at the helm and rewritten the record books.

During her tenure she has guided the Cardinals to not only its first NCAA Tournament berth, but consecutive trips to the dance.

Four of her teams have won more games during the season than the previous school record, including 13 twice.

She has coached a pair of All-Americans in Jamie Craft and Joanna Haig and a pair of Academic All-Americans in Haig and Amy Seng.

The superlatives are nearly too numerous to list completely. Needless to say Ferguson-Dayes has been the most successful coach in UofL women's soccer history and is one of the top coaches in the nation.

Chris Petrucelli, head coach of the University of Texas women's soccer team, is in the top 10 in NCAA history in career wins and winning percentage and recognizes Ferguson-Dayes' place in the coaching world.

"Karen is a rising star in the coaching world. Her passion for the game is unmatched and she has shown that she can win on a high level. She has proven to be a quality coach in both the international arena and the college game. I expect that we will be hearing great things about her accomplishments in the future."

In 2010, the Cardinals were led by freshman Christine Exeter, who was selected as the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, and redshirt freshman Angelika Uremovich, who was named to the league's All-Rookie Team. U of L opened the season with a school record seven straight wins, which included victories over No. 13 South Carolina and rival Kentucky, and then closed the season by advancing to the BIG EAST Championship for the fifth time in six seasons.

Prior to a disappointing 2009 season where injuries limited the Cardinals' success on the field, the 2008 season served as a learning experience for a team that featured only three seniors. Even with the loss of All-American goalkeeper Joanna Haig and three other key starters, UofL advanced to the quarterfinals of the BIG EAST Tournament for the third straight season and won nine games overall against one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

Seniors Jessica Mello and Shannon Smyth earned Third Team All-BIG EAST honors and were joined by senior Mallory Lampson as NSCAA Academic All-Region selections.

In 2007 a trip to the BIG EAST semifinals was a new plateau of success for the program, as were the five players honored on All-BIG EAST teams. In tying the school record with 13 wins and advancing to the NCAA's for the second consecutive season, the team collectively posted a 3.416 GPA in the classroom.

Haig established five school records, and finished the season third in the nation in save% (0.893) and fifth in GAA playing in Ferguson-Dayes' defensive brand of soccer.

The 2006 squad became the first in school history to earn a national ranking, peaking at 15th in the nation. It was also the first team to advance to the coveted plateau that is the NCAA Tournament. Success was not limited to the field, as the team set marks in the classroom with the second-highest team GPA, a record number of Red and Black Scholars and members of the AD Honor Roll, as well as the first Academic All-American in school history (Amy Seng). Six players earned All-Region honors, three found their name on the All-BIG EAST squads and two players were named All-American (Jamie Craft and Joanna Haig), just the second and third such honored in Cardinal history. Craft moved on to a career in professional soccer, enjoying a solid season with the W-League Boston Renegades.

The fall of 2005 meant the first foray into the BIG EAST, a conference that Ferguson-Dayes had spent seven years in as a player and assistant coach. With the jump into one of the elite conferences, it was expected that the Cardinals might stumble in making the jump, but under the guidance of Ferguson-Dayes, the team notched double figure wins for the second consecutive season. Three team members were honored by the BIG EAST, lead by junior Jamie Craft, a first-team selection who was also named to two difference All-Region teams.

Ferguson-Dayes' appointment and success here at Louisville has not gone unnoticed.

University of Louisville Director of Athletics Tom Jurich knew who he wanted to lead the then-struggling women's soccer team when Ferguson-Dayes was hired to be the eighth head coach of the U of L women's soccer team in 2000.

"Her name kept rising to the top during our national search and she came to us with incredible recommendations," noted Jurich.

Nobody believed the process of turning the Louisville women's soccer program into a winner is one that would occur overnight, as evidenced by the tough first season for Ferguson-Dayes and staff, but growth and success wasn't measured by wins and losses. Not initially.

Now the ante has been upped. Under the guidance of Jurich, the Cardinals opened a new era as members of the BIG EAST, and will now take the pitch for the seventh season as a member of the league.

"The University has provided us with the resources we feel are necessary to become an elite program, and that is our goal," said Ferguson-Dayes.

Her tenure is the longest in the program's history. She has already watched assistant coaches Jen Mead and Carmelina Moscato move on to pursue a career in professional soccer, former assistant Carole Dutchka is now the athletic director at Louisville's Presentation Academy, and former assistant Tim Nowak departed for a head coaching opportunity at Eastern Illinois.

Achieving at a high level is not something new for Ferguson-Dayes. She is currently the ODP Girls 1993 age group head coach. She previously worked as the Region II liaison for the US Soccer National Teams, in charge of tracking and following the progress of members of the US Soccer Youth National Team system.

She served as an assistant coach of the USA U-21 team for their 2004 season.

The team had three different training sessions at the US Soccer's National Training Center in Carson, California, where they had the opportunity to scrimmage the US National Team. Training preceded trips to China in March, Brazil in May and Iceland in July to complete the Nordic Cup. It was there that the team won its sixth consecutive Nordic Cup title with a 3-0 win over Sweden.

During the summer of 2003 she served as an assistant coach for the U-19 Adidas Youth Team.

Three years ago she served as the head coach of the Region II 87 girl's team which competed in the Adidas ESP event and the November Interregional event in Boca Raton, Florida.

In 2003 she worked with the Region II girls U-15 team, and accompanied the team to numerous interregional events.

Prior to accepting her position at U of L, she was the assistant coach at the University of Connecticut for three seasons. The Huskies were 60-12-2 during the three years she spent as an assistant, advanced to the final eight twice (1998 and '99), and were national runner-up in 1997.

A 1993 graduate of UConn, Ferguson-Dayes coached under and played for legendary soccer coach Len Tsantiris who has not missed the NCAA Division I soccer tournament during his tenure.

Before coaching at UConn, Ferguson-Dayes served as an assistant at Boston University during its first two seasons of soccer where the team was an astonishing 24-7-2 overall.

In her playing career at UConn as a midfielder, she was named first team All-America in '91, '92 and '93. The Huskies were 63-24-3 during her four-year career and she tallied 53 points (18 goals and 17 assists.)

In 1990 as a freshman, the Huskies competed in the national semifinal where she was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. Soccer America Magazine selected her as a Team MVP in 1992, an award given to 11 players nationally.

Ferguson-Dayes' playing career was not limited to the collegiate level. She played for the U.S. National Team in 1992 and 1993.

While at UConn, she was involved in the Connecticut Olympic Development Program and served as staff coach in Region One. Ferguson-Dayes holds an NSCAA Advanced National Soccer license, as well as a USSF B license.

A native of Holbrook, N.Y., and a graduate of Sachem High School, Ferguson-Dayes is married to Hylton Dayes and the couple has one son, Brandon, who was born in December, 2008.

CARDINAL PARK - HOME OF LOUISVILLE SOCCER

Cardinal Park opened in the spring of 2000 to rave reviews as an area that is not only home to athletic competition, but also as a place the community and surrounding areas can utilize for a workout or as a gathering place.

Louisville soccer hosts games at the 2,500-seat soccer stadium which acts as the centerpiece of the facility. In 2010, the Cardinals earned a 2-0 win over Kentucky in front of a regular-season record crowd of 2,643 in a game that was also nationally televised by FOX Soccer Channel.

The stadium features locker room facilities, a training room, weight room, team meeting room and an air-conditioned press box. Prior to the 2010 season, a new video wall/scoreboard was installed maintaining Cardinal Park as one of the premier NCAA soccer complexes in the nation having hosted the likes of the Washington Freedom, Canadian National Team and Irish National Team.

The U of L track and field teams hosted the 2009 NCAA Mideast Regional at Cardinal Park as well as a number of other national and regional meets.
