The 2010-11 Golden Eagles are under the direction of third-year head coach Buzz Williams and the program will be looking for its sixth-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament when play begins in November. MU enters its sixth season in the BIG EAST Conference and has collected 20-or-more overall victories in each of its first five years in the league.

Butler, Johnson-Odom All-BIG EAST Candidates

Senior forward Jimmy Butler and junior guard Darius Johnson-Odom lead MU's group of returnees and are both candidates for all-league accolades.

Butler was one of the most improved players in the nation in 2009-10 and as a result was tabbed All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention. He was second on the team in scoring (14.7 ppg.) and rebounding (6.4 rpg.) and finished among the league leaders in four categories.

Johnson-Odom was one of the top newcomers in the BIG EAST and concluded the year averaging 13.0 points per game, while also chipping in 2.6 rebounds and 2.4 assists per outing. He finished second in the league in 3-point field goal percentage (.474) and 3-pointers made per game (2.15).

Veterans Poised To Play A Larger Role

After Butler and Johnson-Odom, only two other veterans (Dwight Buycks, 23.6 mpg. and Joe Fulce, 11.7 mpg.) saw more than 10 minutes per game in 2009-10.

Guard Junior Cadougan (achilles) and center Chris Otule (foot) were limited because of injury and forward Erik Williams came off the bench in 19 contests (5.6 mpg.).

MU will be looking to replace a trio of seniors, including all-conference performer Lazar Hayward. The group (Hayward, Maurice Acker, David Cubillan) combined to contribute 33.6 points, 11.2 rebounds and 8.0 assist per night and played an average of 31.0 minutes per contest.

Nationally Ranked Recruits Ready To Contribute

For the second-straight year the men's basketball staff has put together a nationally ranked recruiting class and this year's newcomers will be counted on for important contributions.

This year's class is highlighted by a pair of top-100 prep stars, Vander Blue and Jamail Jones, and the junior college player of the year in forward Jae Crowder.

Blue (Madison, WI/Memorial HS) is a consensus top-40 prospect according to the national recruiting services and was selected to the USA Basketball U18 National Team and helped the squad win gold in June. Jones (Atlanta, GA/Montverde Academy) played his senior season at Montverde Academy and averaged 16.1 points and 6.3 rebounds per game. Crowder led Howard College to the national title and was named the NJCAA Player of the year and First Team All-America.

Golden Eagles Claim 10th BIG EAST Win, Again

MU claimed the team's 10th league victory of 2009-10 with an 84-83 decision over Seton Hall on Feb. 28, reaching the 10-win mark for the fifth-straight year.

Of the 16 teams in the BIG EAST since 2005-06, only MU and Pittsburgh have captured at least 10 victories in each of the the last five campaigns.

Marquette finished with 12 league victories in 2008-09, which marked the highest total since the program joined the BIG EAST.

Marquette University Men's Basketball

Buzz Williams

Head Coach | Third Season | Oklahoma City, 1994

Character Revealed.

Those two words have served as the foundation of the Marquette University men's basketball team under third-year head coach Buzz Williams ever since he was officially named program mentor on April 8, 2008.

The 2009-10 Golden Eagles were a perfect illustration of Williams' core system of values, working hard on a daily basis to ensure the team's accomplishments on the court and in the classroom would bring a sense of pride to all of the University's supporters.

The team's character was tested from start to finish, beginning with low preseason expectations from the national pundits and concluding with a heartbreaking postseason loss. No team in the nation played in more one-possession games than MU, but that didn't stop the squad from collecting the program's fifth-straight NCAA Championship appearance and 20-win season. Marquette finished 22-12 overall, including an 11-7 mark in the BIG EAST Conference, which was good enough for fifth-place in the 16-team league.

Lazar Hayward (Second Team All-BIG EAST) finished second all-time in scoring at MU and four of the program's top-10 all-time scorers have now graduated within the past two seasons. Junior forward Jimmy Butler was one of the most improved players in the country and as a result was tabbed honorable mention all-league.

Williams directed MU to a 25-10 overall record in 2008-09, which included a school-record 12 BIG EAST victories. The Golden Eagles advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship and were ranked among the nation's top-25 teams the entire campaign. A pair of players, Jerel McNeal and Wesley Matthews, claimed all-league accolades and McNeal also claimed All-America honors.

Off the court, Williams and his staff assembled a consensus top-25 recruiting class in each of the last two years, including a group rated as high as No. 1 in the country by HoopScoopOnline.com (2008-09). The program's community service efforts have also reached new heights under Williams, highlighted by "Buzz's Bunch." This group, founded by Williams, focuses on providing opportunities for special needs children to attend games and summer camps. The Golden Eagles have also continued and strengthened their long-standing relationships with Children's Hospital as well as Special Olympics.

In 2007-08, Williams served as an assistant coach with the Golden Eagles in his first season at Marquette. MU concluded the year 25-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003.

His coaching career has included stints as an assistant, associate head and head coach. He has over 15 years of experience at the NCAA Division I level. Williams has recruited and coached over 20 players who have earned all-conference accolades, including one league player of the year, two conference freshmen of the year and two Associated Press All-Americans (McNeal and Hayward).

Williams arrived in Milwaukee after serving for one season as the head coach at the University of New Orleans. He guided the Privateers to a 14-win campaign in 2006-07 and his roster featured Bo McCalebb, the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year. UNO claimed fourth place in the Sun Belt's Western Division and advanced to the league tournament quarterfinals. The squad claimed as many victories on the road that season as it had in the previous three seasons combined. His recruiting class for the 2007-08 season was ranked in the top 50 nationally by HoopScoopOnline.com.

Prior to UNO, Williams served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M for two seasons (2004-05/2005-06) under head coach Billy Gillispie. Both of his recruiting classes with the Aggies were ranked among the best in the nation and featured some of the top-ranked talent at the prep level. The squad made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 25 years in 2005-06 and the previous team posted the top turnaround in the nation, improving its win total in 2004-05 by 14 games compared to 2003-04.

Williams spent four seasons (2000-01/2003-04) at Colorado State, serving as an assistant the first three seasons before being promoted to associate head coach in 2003-04. Two of his recruiting classes were ranked among the 40-best in the nation, including the 2003 group, which was tabbed No. 1 in the Mountain West Conference.

Colorado State made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 13 years during his tenure and he was named one of the top assistants in the country by HoopScoopOnline.com. Williams was previously an assistant at Northwestern State (1999-2000), Texas A&M-Kingsville (1998-99) and Texas-Arlington (1994-98).

Williams signed the highest-rated recruiting class in the history of the Southland Conference while at Northwestern State. The Demons advanced to their first ever NCAA Tournament the following season and two of his recruited players were named all-conference, while one was tabbed Southland Conference Tournament MVP.

His accomplishments at Texas A&M-Kingsville include signing the 1998-99 Lone Star Conference Freshman of the Year and a third team All-America guard.

At Texas-Arlington, Williams recruited a Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and signed the first Academic All-American in the school's history. Williams was a student assistant coach from 1992-94 at Oklahoma City University where he assisted the team to the 1994 NAIA championship after it advanced to the Sweet 16 the previous season.

Williams served as a student assistant from 1990-92 at Navarro College (Corsicana, Texas) where the team won consecutive conference titles while sporting a 45-17 record during his tenure. He began his career under mentor Lewis Orr, who was inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 2009 after a 37-year career at the junior college level.

The Van Alstyne, Texas, native earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Oklahoma City University in 1994 before completing his master's work in the same field at Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1999.

Williams is married to the former Corey Norman and the couple has two daughters, Zera (8) and Addyson (1), and two sons, Calvin (7) and Mason (4).
