MILWAUKEE -- The participants of MU's Session III Day Camp have set the bar extremely high following the group's improbable victory in the Golden Eagle Challenge on Monday afternoon at the Al McGuire Center.

Matched up against camp staff, which includes several former NCAA Division I performers, the campers knocked off the defending champions thanks to Olympian MICHAEL POKER. His focus on the fundamentals allowed him to calmly knock down a mid-range jump shot, while efforts from the rattled opponents included an air ball and brick.

Poker's shot dealt the camp staff just its second loss all Summer long and resulted in the indignity of performing push-ups in front of the champions, who now have the momentum entering play Tuesday.

There were plenty of highlights in the opening games of the regular season, as positioning for Friday's tournament seeding began. PETER HEWETT (Georgetown) netted the game winner against Syracuse with 10 seconds left and a spinning 360-degree layup by KYLE HANSON (USF) helped his team to a 31-18 win over Providence.

The week's first daily award winners were announced as well, with CODY BOBERT (Greece) and JOSH COOLEY (Marquette) earning the free throw champion titles on Monday.
