"Ringer" Allows G.E.C Title To Return Home

nba sharpshooter leads coaches to victory

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE -- After two days of being humiliated by the session three day campers in the Golden Eagle Challenge, Marquette's coaches were forced to rely on the only thing that could possibly allow them to claim a victory - a ringer.

Utilizing the profits from the camp store, the disgraced former players financed a "guest speaker" for the campers Wednesday afternoon. Current NBA standout Steve Novak was their selection, a player who happens to be one of the best pure shooters in all of the land. Teamed up with fellow 2003 Final Four squad member Terry Sanders, Novak calmly defeated the campers in the G.E.C. and remained undefeated on the season in the process. The campers had wrestled the title away each of the first two days.

"I have taken a number of pressure shots in my career and today was right up near the top of the list," Novak said. "The Olympians were the biggest challenge and have a lot to be proud of."

Wednesday's award winners included free throw champions CODY BOBERT (Greece) and RYAN WADDELL (Kansas). LUCAS SCHWENKE (Senegal), Waddell and MATTHEW GRESHAM (Syracuse) claimed camper of the day accolades.

CAMP PHOTOS: Photos from each day of camp are available through the official website, GoMarquette.com. Just visit the men's basketball page and click on the link "Session III Daily Buzz." There are a large assortment of photo printing options, including 12 sizes to choose from with four different types of finishes. The password protected gallery (musummer09) is available to camp parents only. Photos of individuals will be available at the conclusion of each day, as will the camp's group photo. Over 10 different print size as well as specialized mugs, aprons, magnets and more.
