New Crop Of Campers Welcomed To MU

high standards set by week one participants

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AL MCGUIRE CENTER) -- The summer camp season continues Monday morning at Marquette University with the Session II Day Camp, which follows a highly-successful and fun-filled first session last week.

Hundreds of campers will invade the Al McGuire Center Monday morning, with the five-day event concluding Friday afternoon with the awards ceremony. The top camp coaches are in Milwaukee from across the country, allowing Marquette to provide high-level individual instruction to the campers.

"It's an exciting time of the year for us and we are really happy to have everyone on campus," Marquette head coach Buzz Williams said. "We are looking forward to a week full of instruction, competition and most importantly, fun."

This week's group of campers will be divided into four groups when it comes to team competition. Champions will be crowned in the following levels; Olympic, NCAA, BIG EAST and NBA.

The "Daily Buzz" staff will be keeping a watchful eye on the week's activities, owning a vote in the "camper of the day" and "most valuable camper" balloting. The "Daily Buzz" will also be your source to recap the game results each day as well as the individual contest award winners.

Daily winners will be crowned in free throw, hot shot, 1-on-1 and 3-on-3 competitions, with "Championship Friday" deciding the week's best. A daily free throw champion will be crowned in the Olympic division, with the other three league's combining to determine the day's other winner. "Championship Friday" will feature a showdown for each of the winners to try and finish on top.

CAMP STORE: Check out the official Camp Store on the main concourse level of the Al McGuire Center all week long. Food, drinks and Marquette gear will be available all week long. Don't miss out on the "camp special," a t-shirt and pair of shorts ($30), a savings of $5.

TEXAS STYLE BARBEQUE: Join head coach Buzz Williams and the Marquette men's basketball team for a Texas Style Barbeque on Wednesday, June 25 at Marquette's Central Mall (behind Raynor Library) from 5-9 p.m. Cost is $10 per person. For more information call Special Events at (414) 288-7431.

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AL MCGUIRE CENTER) -- Those Session II Day Camp participants looking for a little excitement Monday morning weren't disappointed as the event staff organized what was believed to be the world's largest game of knockout.

The last man standing was DAVID VERBOCKEL (BIG EAST, Villanova), who not only outlasted over 200 fellow campers, but also was forced to defeat a pair of camp coaches (Ousmane Barro and Katie Weidner).

With "Camper of the Day" awards not beginning until Tuesday afternoon, Monday's individual award winners consisted of CHANDLER NORTH (BIG EAST, West Virginia) and CARSON PIACSEK (Olympic, Greece) in the free throw contest. Each camper topped the field and will now automatically advance to Friday's finals when a camp champion will be crowned.

Group Play Heats Up As Tourney Nears

"championship friday" on the horizon

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AL MCGUIRE CENTER) -- Group play at the Session II Day Camp heated up Tuesday as positioning for the highly anticipated "Championship Friday" tournament continued on campus.

While a regular season crown is awarded in each of the four divisions, the one-day tournament gives every camper in attendance the chance to walk away with a championship.

Tuesday marked the first winners of the Camper of the Day award. Selected in each division were JOHN GUNVILLE (Olympic), CJ SHULT (NCAA), GUS BACKE (BIG EAST) and ERIC PERKINS (NBA). The free throw champions were NICHOLAS AIDE (Olympic) and GRAYSON COLE (BIG EAST).

Tuesday's games were filled with both emotion and drama. Included in the highlights was a game winner at the buzzer for ARTIE TURNER of Milwaukee and a sudden death basket by JACOB TIMMER in the Arkansas/Kansas matchup. ZACHARY SCHNEIDER'S clutch free throw proved to be the deciding point, giving USA its first victory of the week in the Olympic division.

The biggest story of the day came from the NBA division, where Houston overcame adversity to defeat Miami. The Rockets' roster was depleted due to injury and illness, but their effort embodied all that is expected on the summer camp courts.

A New Roster Of Heroes Emerges

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AL MCGUIRE CENTER) -- Marquette's Session II Day Camp reached its midway point Wednesday at the Al McGuire Center and a familiar name was announced during the awards recognition to conclude the day.

Both Kendrick and Trevor Piacsek earned accolades, as they picked up a third of the honors for day three of the week-long camp.

KENDRICK PIACSEK (Olympic), JAMES EWING (Texas), CHAD CHRISTIANSEN (BIG EAST) and SETH HERRO (NBA) collected Camper of the Day awards.

TREVOR PIACSEK (Olympic) and MIKE BAHR (NCAA/BIG EAST/NBA) were crowned the free throw champions of the day, but each took a different route to the title. Piacsek made quick work of his opponents in a first-round victory, but Bahr needed four shots to finally defeat his competition.

Senegal head coach Ousmane Barro directed his shorthanded squad to a win on a buzzer beater by MATTHEW CUNNINGHAM, despite playing with just four campers. Milwaukee downed Boston in a matchup of first-place squads and Argentina made a late rally to down USA for its first win of the week. ALEXANDER DITTLF was the hero for Providence in the team's win over Rutgers, knocking down the game-winning shot.

"Championship Friday" Arrives At MU

bragging rights on the line; champions to be crowned

by: Gold N. Eagle, camp reporter

MILWAUKEE, WIS. (AL MCGUIRE CENTER) -- The Session II Day Camp has passed by in the blink of an eye for some campers, while seeming like an eternity for others, but all competitors have looked forward to a common goal: historic "Championship Friday."

It's easy to see where the final day of camp received its name, as champions will be crowned in both individual and team competitions. Each of the four divisions will compete in tournament action, giving every single team a fresh start as play begins. Free throw and hot shot titles will also be awarded, plus a number of other contests will also have a week-long winner.

Thursday was business as usual at the camp's three sites and several campers were recognized for their achievements. SAMUEL FRENCH (Olympic) and YAIR ECKERT (NBA) earned spots in Friday's free throw championship with first-place finishes. The Camper of the Day award recipients were BRYCE MILLER (Olympic), ZACH WHITE (NCAA), CAMERON MAROTTA (BIG EAST) and NICK GRASSEL (NBA).

Positioning in the four divisions continued as tourney play approaches and Thursday was just another day of heroics. MICHAEL O'BRIEN assisted on KELLEN LOWRY'S game winner for UConn and JACOB TIMMER knocked down the overtime winner in the Kansas/Arkansas matchup. MALCOLM BALLE was the hero for Team U.S.A., converting on the deciding free throw.
