2011-12 News and Notes

A Look at the 2010-11 Golden Eagles

Marquette returns two starters and five letter winners from a team that won 24 games in 2010-11 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship.

The Golden Eagles return two of their top six scorers from last season in junior Sarina Simmons (7.5 ppg, 5.7 rpg) and sophomore Katherine Plouffe (6.5 ppg and 5.1 rpg).

It will be a youth movement of sorts as the Golden Eagles welcome six newcomers, Cristina Bigica, Chelsie Butler, Margeaux Dupuy, Arlesia Morse, Apiew Ojulu and Lauren Tibbs to the team.

Marquette will have to find a way to fill the scoring void left by graduated seniors Angel Robinson (13.6 ppg, 5.3 rpg), Tatiyana McMorris (12.6 ppg, 3.4 rpg, 39.0 3-point pct.), Paige Fiedorowicz (10.6 ppg, 5.1 rpg) and Jasmine Collins (9.2 ppg, 5.0 rpg). Due to graduation, Marquette lost 74.8 percent of its scoring.

Depth in the Frontcourt

The Golden Eagles have added height and depth in the frontcourt as three of the six freshmen stand 6-3 or taller. Anchored by freshmen Chelsie Butler (6-5), Lauren Tibbs (6-4), Apiew Ojulu (6-3) and sophomore Katherine Plouffe (6-3), the Golden Eagles' average height for the 2011-12 season is 6-0.

Closing in on 300

Head coach Terri Mitchell enters her 16th season as head coach at Marquette and is closing in on her 300th victory. Entering the 2011-12 season, Mitchell stands at 296-171 all-time at Marquette. With 296 career victories, Mitchell stands second on MU's all-time wins list passing the legendary Al McGuire (295) with the Golden Eagles' win over Texas in the first round of the NCAA Championship.

When she reaches her 300th win, she will be just the second coach at Marquette to hit the 300-win mark. Head women's tennis coach Jody Bronson is the only other coach in Marquette history to own 300 wins.

Robinson Drafted by the New York Liberty

Marquette women's basketball four-year starting point guard Angel Robinson was selected by the New York Liberty with the 22nd pick in the 2011 Women's National Basketball Association Draft. Her rights were then traded to the Minnesota Lynx.

She is just the second Golden Eagle to be drafted by the WNBA joining Abbie Willenborg who was drafted by the Houston Comets with the 64th pick in 2000 draft.

Robinson was waived by the Lynx and signed a one-year deal to play for Ceyhan-Belediyesi SC in the Adana Provence of Turkey.

Ceyhan reached the Turkish Cup semifinals three consecutive years (2006-08) and participated in the 2006 Europe Cup. The club finished ninth in the Turkish League last season.

Christina Quaye Returns to Marquette

Former Marquette women's basketball standout Christina Quaye has joined the women's basketball staff as graduate assistant.

Quaye will assist with video coordination, student-athlete development and community service initiatives.

Quaye was a four-year starter from 2003-07. She helped the Golden Eagles to 88 wins and four post-season appearances, including its best season to date during the 2006-07 season when the Golden Eagles went 26-7 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship. She earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors as a senior in 2007, while finishing the season ninth in the league in scoring, third in BIG EAST Conference games. As a junior (2006) Quaye was a Second Team All-BIG EAST selection and an All-Conference USA Second Team honoree as a sophomore (2005).

Regional and National TV

The Marquette women's basketball team will make five appearances on national and regional networks during the 2011-12 season.

The Golden Eagles will make four national television appearances, one on ESPN2 and three on CBS Sportsnet and once as part of the conference's regional BIG EAST Game of the Week package.

ESPN2 will broadcast live the Golden Eagles' game at DePaul on Sunday, Feb. 12 at 1:30 p.m. as part of the network's February Frenzy to support breast cancer awareness and the Kay Yow Foundation, while Marquette's home games versus Villanova (Jan. 10), Georgetown (Jan. 17) and USF (Feb. 14) will be televised on CBS SportsNet.

BIG EAST TV is slated to televise Marquette's game against Syracuse on Saturday, Feb. 18 at 2 p.m. ET/1 p.m. CT. BIG EAST TV can be seen locally on Time Warner Cable's Sports 32.

International Calling Card

Two Golden Eagles gained international experience over the summer as Katherine Plouffe, a member of the Canadian U19 National Team, played in the FIBA U19 Women's World Championship in Puerto Mott, Chile, and newcomer Cristina Bigica was a member of the Romanian U21 National Team that participated in the FIBA U20 European Championship. Plouffe averaged 8.0 points, 6.1 rebounds and 1.3 assists over the nine-game tournament where Team Canada finished fifth. Bigica averaged 11.2 points, 5.0 rebounds and 1.0 assists over the nine-game tournament held in Novi Sad (Serbia).

“We talk about being champions, about discipline, hard work and sacrifices. But it goes beyond words... Our actions set us apart as winners.”

Believe, Commit, Mature, Respect, Thankfulness - These are the five principles that serve as the foundation of the Marquette women's basketball team. And with these principles Marquette lives by each day, head coach Terri Mitchell has molded the Golden Eagles into champions.

The foundation was laid years ago during her upbringing in Harrisburg, Pa. The life lessons Mitchell learned have served as her guide in coaching the Marquette women's basketball team for the last 15 years.

The Golden Eagles have thrived under Mitchell, Marquette's all-time basketball wins leader, as she has compiled a 296-171 overall record, 13 trips to the postseason and nine 20-win seasons. Notably, the Golden Eagles have earned nine consecutive postseason berths, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament Second Round (2004, 2007, 2011) and winning the Women's National Invitation Tournament crown in 2008.

On the court, Mitchell's teams are known for their well-balanced offense coupled with a tenacious style of defense and off the court for their academic excellence and commitment to community service.

Since becoming the fourth women's basketball coach in Marquette University history, Mitchell has paved a path of excellence. That journey began in her very first year, as Mitchell was at the helm for the largest turnaround in school history. She guided MU to a 21-10 record in 1996-97, which was 13 wins better than the previous season's record of 8-20. It was the largest turnaround of any first-year head coach and third-best single-season turnaround among all NCAA Division I schools that year.

The drive and commitment to excellence Mitchell had her first year as a head coach continues to be instilled in her teams year after year. Her players don't question it; they know it and live it each day. One of the team's favorite Mitchell sayings is "we didn't come to just compete in the BIG EAST, we came to win it."

USA Basketball

The respect and admiration for the way Terri Mitchell relates to her players and her success in the BIG EAST Conference led to an opportunity with USA Basketball. During the summer of 2008, Mitchell served as an assistant coach for USA Basketball's U18 Women's National Team. Under her guidance, Team USA won the gold medal while rolling through the FIBA Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina undefeated.

Marquette has also had other ties to USA Basketball during Mitchell's tenure, as Krystal Ellis was a finalist for a spot on the 2007 USA Women's Pan American Games Team.

Player Development

Mitchell believes that her personal interaction with each player not only leads to success on the court, but off it as well. Her vision for each player in her program is that they enter as girls, but leave as well-rounded, confident young women.

Under her guidance, her student-athletes have earned numerous individual accolades, for their work on the hardwood and in the classroom. Since 1996, 24 of Mitchell's players have earned all-conference honors, while two have achieved All-America status, with Krystal Ellis becoming MU's latest All-America selection following the 2006-07 season. Ellis was also the third player in program history to earn repeat first team all-conference honors. In addition, 27 players have earned spots on the league's Academic Honor Roll and three have been awarded GTE Academic All-America honors.

Service

Through her faith, compassion for others, and commitment to service, she has touched the lives of many. For example, in May of 2006 Mitchell took a mission trip to Rwanda where she spent 16 days in the impoverished African country.

In addition to her coaching duties, Mitchell is active in the community and is heavily involved with charitable events. She is an avid speaker on campus, at local schools, basketball clinics, nonprofit organizations and is actively involved in prison ministry. Through her speaking engagements, Mitchell incorporates the program's five principles and encourages her audiences to dream, believe, and live in the now. She also hosts motivational breakfasts entitled "Breakfast with Terri," for Milwaukee area business women.

Mitchell believes in giving back to her profession and the community by serving on several Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) committees, the State Farm Wade Trophy Committee, the Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund Board of Directors, and many other service-oriented organizations.

Service is not only a significant part of Mitchell's life, but of her team's life as well. The Golden Eagles are involved in many service projects throughout the year including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee, Briggs & Al's Run & Walk, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, the American Heart Association, the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, school speaking engagements and basketball clinics.

Career Overview

2010-11

It was a banner season for the Marquette women's basketball team in 2010-11. There were several notable accomplishments for the program, including a 24-9 overall record, a trip to the NCAA Championship Second Round and a top-five finish in BIG EAST Conference play.

The Golden Eagles' 24 wins marked the second most in program history, while their 10-6 BIG EAST Conference record marked the second time since MU joined the league in 2005 it has won at least 10 BIG EAST games.

Highlighting MU's 24 wins were five wins against nationally ranked teams, including two against top-10 teams.

In the first round of the NCAA Championship, playing as the eighth seed tenure at Marquette. The Golden Eagles advanced to the second round of the tournament falling at Illinois in overtime, 74-72.

The Golden Eagles had two players earn All-BIG EAST honors with junior guard Angel Robinson collecting second team honors for the second straight season and freshman Sarina Simmons being named to the all-freshman team.

Marquette defeated two ranked opponents in 2009-10 knocking off then No. 20/18 Pittsburgh and then-No. 17/15 Georgetown.

2008-09

During the 2008-09 campaign, MU qualified for its seventh consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree Angel Robinson, All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention selection Krystal Ellis, who set the program's all-time scoring record with 1,940 points, and BIG EAST All-Freshman Team selection Jessica Pachko, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 17-16.

Highlighting the season was a 75-65 win over No. 10/4 Notre Dame on Jan. 13, 2009 before a national television audience at the Al McGuire Center. The win marked Mitchell's first ever over a nationally ranked top-10 opponent.

2007-08

"Champions" is a word Mitchell's team speaks daily. Mitchell is adamant that one's words lead to one's destiny. It did on April 5, 2008, when the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center at Michigan State and knocked off the Spartans, 81-66, to claim the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship. It marked the fourth national title in Marquette history and the first in women's history.

Up against a bevy of talented teams - the BIG EAST sent 12 teams to post-season play - Mitchell led the youngest team in the BIG EAST Conference into battle with six freshmen and only one returning starter. The Golden Eagles fought through adversity, and won over 20 games for the third straight season. Marquette finished the season with a five-game win streak-its longest of the season-and was one of only two Division I women's college basketball teams in the nation to end the postseason with a victory. Junior Krystal Ellis was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second consecutive season and freshman phenom Angel Robinson was an all-freshman team selection. Both continued their stellar play through the team's championship run and were honored with WNIT All-Tournament Team accolades. Ellis was named tournament MVP.

Following its championship run, Marquette was honored by the City of Milwaukee and Mayor Tom Barrett as they proclaimed April 15, 2008

Mitchell served her first stint with USA Basketball during the summer of 2008 as an assistant coach for the U18 Women's National Team. The team went undefeated and won the gold medal at the FIBA Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Mitchell is a very highly regarded public and motivational speaker. Among her many speaking engagements, Mitchell was the only coach to speak at the 2008 NCAA Convention. She also served as the keynote speaker at Business Journal of Milwaukee's 2008 Women of Influence Luncheon.

Following the WNIT Championship, Mitchell and the Golden Eagles were honored at a Milwaukee Brewers game and threw out the first pitch. Aside from her allegiances to Marquette and Milwaukee Professional teams, Mitchell is a lifelong Pittsburgh Steelers fan.

Marquette Women's Basketball Day. For the second consecutive year, Mitchell earned the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year honor.

2006-07

The 2006-07 season was one for the history books as Mitchell guided the Golden Eagles to their best season ever, a 26-7 overall record. It was the seventh season in which her team won 20 or more games. After being picked eighth in the BIG EAST preseason poll, Marquette started the season winning 15 of its first 16 games, and jumped into the national polls on December 4 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

The season for the ages included a school record 14-game win streak and being ranked in the Top 25 for the majority of the season. During that streak, Mitchell won her 200th game on Dec. 9, 2006. In BIG EAST play, the Golden Eagles finished tied for second place with Rutgers, registering a 12-4 conference record. For her efforts, Mitchell received the league's highest honor and was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year. It was Mitchell's third coach of the year honor of her career.

More honors continued to follow Mitchell at the conclusion of the 2006-07 season as she was elected to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Executive Committee as its Treasurer and tabbed the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year. She was also named a Woman of Influence by the Milwaukee Business Journal in the category of "Inspiration."

Marquette made a trip back to the "big dance" behind the inside-outside combination of All-BIG EAST First Team selections Krystal Ellis and Christina Quaye, and the leadership of seniors Jasmine McCullough, Danielle Kamm and Efuoko Osagie-Landry. It was the first time in program history two players were first team all-conference selections in the same year.

2005-06

In 2005-06, Marquette made a remarkable postseason run, advancing to the championship game of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Led by All-BIG EAST honorees Christina Quaye, Carolyn Kieger, and BIG EAST All-Rookie Team member Krystal Ellis, the Golden Eagles posted a 22-11 overall record, including a 9-7 record in BIG EAST play, before falling in the championship game at Kansas State.

2004-05

During the 2004-05 campaign, MU qualified for its third consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-Conference USA honorees Carolyn Kieger and Christina Quaye, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 18-12.

2003-04

In 2003-04, the team tied a school record with 22 wins and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round, playing as the ninth seed in the Mideast Region, MU defeated Old Dominion, 67-64, as Christina Quaye hit the go-ahead layup with 5.8 seconds left. In the next game, the Golden Eagles gave the nation's No. 1 ranked team, Duke, all it could handle and opened the eyes of many around the country. The 2003-04 campaign was typical of the Terri

Mitchell era. Offensively, the team was balanced, as eight different players led the team in scoring during a game over the course of the season. Games were won with defense and teamwork, as MU led Conference USA in scoring defense, yielding just 57.2 points per contest.

2002-03

Mitchell led the 2002-03 Golden Eagles to a 16-14 mark and a spot in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the second round. That season, the team set new school records in three-point shooting and free throw shooting percentages.

2001-02

Mitchell reached the 100-victory milestone the third game of the 2001-02 season as the Golden Eagles downed Alaska-Anchorage, 88-50, in the Great Alaska Shootout. On Jan. 27, she became Marquette's all-time winningest coach in a 65-44 victory over Tulane. That season, the Golden Eagles continued to be one of the best defensive squads in the nation, holding the opposition to just 59.6 points per game. That total tied for the top spot in Conference USA and tied for 10th in the NCAA.

At the end of that season, Mitchell was elected to the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, an honor in which she took great pride.

2000-01

The 2000-01 season proved to be a pivotal year in the growth of the Marquette women's basketball program. Mitchell was instrumental in carrying forward the goals of the program while providing stability, despite the graduation of three of the school's all-time leading scorers. With a young squad of five freshmen and two returning starters, the Golden Eagles picked up key victories against NCAA Tournament teams Michigan and UW - Milwaukee early on and closed out the season winning four straight before falling to C-USA Champion Tulane on a last-second shot.

1999-2000

Her 1999-2000 squad finished the season in fine fashion, winning 13 of its last 15 regular season contests, claiming the regular season C-USA championship and a berth in the NCAA Midwest regional. Guiding her squad to a 14-2 conference record, Mitchell earned her second C-USA Coach of the Year honor. That season, Marquette led Conference USA and was 10th in the nation in defense allowing only a 36.4 shooting percentage.

1998-99

Mitchell led the 1998-99 squad to a 21-8 overall mark, a 12-4 record in C-USA play and a third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Mitchell was named the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Women's Basketball Coach of the Year. Marquette allowed its foes to shoot just 39.0 percent from the field and out-rebounded teams by 8.0 boards per game, a stat that topped C-USA and was sixth in the nation.

1997-98

In 1997-98, the Golden Eagles finished 22-7 overall and had a 13-3 record in Conference USA play, capturing the American Division title en route to their second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Mitchell also earned her first conference honor in her second year at the helm as she was named Conference USA Coach of the Year.

1996-97

Mitchell was named head coach on June 6, 1996. In her first season leading the Golden Eagles, Mitchell set a few precedents. She shattered the record for most wins by a Marquette first-year head coach, 21, and holds the distinction of reaching 50 wins faster than any coach in Marquette history. In addition, she became the only coach in school history to take her team to the NCAA Tournament in her first season.

Not only did she take the 1996-97 Golden Eagles to the Big Dance, but they also recorded the first NCAA Tournament win in school history.

The Early Days

Prior to becoming head coach, Mitchell was an assistant for the Golden Eagles for five seasons. She was instrumental in recruiting Marquette's 1996-97 freshman class, which was ranked 12th in the nation by the Blue Star Index. Marquette posted an 87-61 record and made three postseason appearances during Mitchell's tenure as an assistant.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Mitchell was a four-year letterwinner and team co-captain at Duquesne University. After an outstanding career with the Dukes, Mitchell graduated Cum Laude with a psychology degree in 1989. She began her coaching career serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona State during the 1989-90 season.
