The Marquette women's basketball team will face one of its toughest tasks of the season when No. 10 Notre Dame pays a visit to the Al McGuire Center on Tuesday, Jan. 13. The national televised 8 p.m. tip-off can be seen live on CBS College Sports Network with Ann Schatz and Tammy Blackburn calling all of the action. The game marks the first of four national broadcasts for MU this season.

The Golden Eagles will look to get back on the winning track after a 65-55 setback at Seton Hall in their last time out. Sophomore Angel Robinson gave a second-consecutive 20-plus point performance and added six rebounds against the Pirates. Currently Robinson leads the team with 13.9 ppg, a mark that stands 19th in the BIG EAST, while her 22.0 point scoring average in BIG EAST games ranks fifth in the league.

Winners of its last seven games, Notre Dame (14-1, 3-0 BIG EAST) is one of three teams in the league that is currently undefeated in BIG EAST play. Louisville (3-0) and Connecticut (2-0) are the others. The Fighting Irish's only loss was on Dec. 10 in overtime at Michigan, 63-59.

News and Notes

Golden Eagle Quickhits

- Marquette started the season 5-0 for the first time since the 2004-05 season. It was only the second time in program history Marquette began the season with five straight wins.
- The Golden Eagles shot 50 percent or better from the floor in three games this season, including a season-high 52.7 percent at Indiana State. Marquette also outscored each of its first four opponents by at least 22 points.
- Through 16 games, sophomore Angel Robinson leads the team in scoring with 13.9 ppg, followed by senior Krystal Ellis averaging 13.4 ppg.
- Sophomore Angel Robinson scored a career high and individual team high 33 points in MU's 78-68 win at Oakland on Dec. 28. She shot 80 percent from the floor on 12-of-15 shooting. It was her first 30-plus point game of her career and she is the second Golden Eagle to top the 30-point mark this season.
- The announced crowd of 4,000 on Dec. 17 against Oregon marked the second sellout in program history.
- Ellis matched her Al McGuire Center scoring record with 32 points in MU's 67-57 win over Kansas. Her 32 points marked the first time this season Ellis has registered 30-or-more points in a game and the sixth time of her career.
- The Golden Eagles have registered 40-or-more rebounds in nine games this season, and have out-rebounded 10 of their opponents, including a season-high 46 rebounds against USF. Freshman Georgie Jones was the first Golden Eagle this season to pull down double-digit rebounds with 10 at Indiana State and again with 10 against Utah. She leads the team with 5.5 rpg.
- Four different Golden Eagles have led Marquette in scoring this season, including Krystal Ellis, Jessica Pachko, Angel Robinson and Paige Fiedorowicz.
- Marquette has used nine different starting line-ups already this season and 10 Golden Eagles are averaging over 10 minutes per game.
- Marquette has made a three-pointer in 139 consecutive games dating back to Nov. 24, 2004. Ellis ranks second all-time with 196 career treys.
- Marquette is 16-35 all-time against ranked opponents under Mitchell.

MU Wins Fourth Straight BIG EAST Opener

For the fourth straight season, Marquette won its BIG EAST Conference Opener. Head coach Terri Mitchell and Connecticut head coach Geno Auremma are the only women's basketball coaches in the BIG EAST to win all four conference openers since the league expanded in 2005.

Against USF, the Golden Eagles held the Bulls to just 60 points, 32.1 points below their season average and snapped their nine-game win streak.

Sophomore guard Angel Robinson registered her second double-double of the season and of her career with 23 points and 10 rebounds. Her 23 points were the most individual points allowed by USF this season.

Series History vs Notre Dame

Marquette will encounter the Fighting Irish for the 36th time in a series that commenced in 1976. Notre Dame holds the advantage in the all-time series 28-7. Notre Dame defeated Marquette, 99-67, at the Joyce Center in the two team's last meeting on Feb. 13, 2008. Marquette last defeated the Irish on Jan. 23, 2007, 71-62, at the Al McGuire Center to mark the first time head coach Terri Mitchell defeated the Irish in her 12-year career at Marquette.

Standout Sophomores

The Golden Eagles sophomore class continues to impress and grow. In fact, two of MU's top three scorers are sophomores in Angel Robinson and Paige Fiedorowicz with 13.9 ppg and 8.1 ppg, respectively. Robinson already has two double-doubles to her name. She registered her first career double-double as well as the team's first this season, scoring 13 points and grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds against Virginia, and added her second against USF with 23 points and 10 rebounds. She has scored 20-or-more points in three of MU's last four games.

Sophomore Paige Fiedorowicz earned her first double-double of her career against Oregon with 12 points and 12 rebounds. She completed the double double with 4:53 left to play in the first half.

Approaching 500

The Golden Eagles are closing in on a milestone 500th all-time program victory. Marquette has 495 wins since its first year of basketball in 1975-76.

Robinson Named BIG EAST Player of the Week

Sophomore guard Angel Robinson was named the BIG EAST Player of the Week on Dec. 29. It was the first player of the week honor for Robinson who was twice named BIG EAST Freshman of the Week during the 2007-08 season.

Robinson had the hot hand in MU's 78-68 victory at Oakland, scoring a career-high 33 points in 24 minutes of action. Robinson shot a stunning 80 percent (12-of-15) for the game and 57.1 percent (4-of-7) from three-point land. Her 12 made field goals and four made 3-pointers were also career highs. With 8:04 left to play in the first half Robinson was a perfect 6-of-6 from the floor with 15 points. She finished the first half with a team high 19 points (8-of-10 from the floor) to help MU to a 36-35 lead.

In the second half, with Oakland trailing by three points (59-56) with 5:19 left to play, Robinson drained her fourth 3-pointer of the game to give Marquette a six-point cushion. Oakland would not come within five points for the remainder of the game.

Robinson also added three rebounds, one assist and a steal in 24 minutes of action.

Weibel Impresses

Sophomore Courtney Weibel earned her first career start against Oregon. Weibel was impressive scoring nine points (3-of-7 from 3-point range) and contributing a career-high three assists and one block all without turning the ball over. She was also in the starting lineup against Green Bay.

Ellis on Pace

Senior guard Krystal Ellis is closing in on the all-time MU scoring record (male or female). She has 1,762 points and needs 56 points to break Abbie Willenborg's record (1,818 points). Her 1,762 points place her second on MU's all-time scoring list and she is the fifth player in program history to score over 1,700 career points. Ellis is currently No. 5 on the nation's active leading scorers list.

Nation's Active Leading Scorers
1. Courtney Paris (Okla)	2,358
2. Angel McCoughtry (UofL)	2,238
3. Traci Edwards (UWM)	2,023
4. Shavonte Zellous (PITT)	1,858
5. Krystal Ellis (MU)	1,762

Injury Report

Sophomore forward Jocelyn Mellen tore the ACL in her left knee in MU's game against Gonzaga on Nov. 28 and will miss the remainder of the 2008-09 season. Prior to the injury, Mellen started in all five games and averaged 5.3 ppg an 5.0 rpg over 22.0 mpg.

Breann Hill Leaves Team

Junior forward Breann Hill has informed the coaching staff that she will leave the team for personal reasons. It was announced on Dec. 12.

"Bre has decided to leave Marquette and move on with her collegiate basketball career. We enjoyed her time here at Marquette and wish her the best of luck in her future," said head coach Terri Mitchell.

Hill, a junior college transfer from Kirkwood Community College (Iowa), appeared in eight games for the Golden Eagles this season and averaged 3.0 ppg, 2.5 rpg over 9.4 mpg. She played a season-high 14 minutes against Sacred Heart (Nov. 16) where she scored six points and added five rebounds. She scored a season high eight points at Western Michigan (Nov. 23).

Ellis Named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll

Senior guard Krystal Ellis was named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll announced by conference officials Nov. 8. The selection marked the ninth of her career.

Ellis led the Golden Eagles to an undefeated 2-0 week where both of their wins were in come-from-behind fashion. Against Northwestern on Dec. 2, Ellis scored the final nine points of the game over the last 3:04 to rally Marquette from a 16-point deficit and defeat the Wildcats, 55-54. She finished the game with game-high 18 points and a season-high five steals.

Against Kansas, Ellis matched her Al McGuire Center record of 32 points while almost single-handedly turning what had been a nine-point deficit into a second-half lead. Ellis scored 16-straight points between the 1:34 mark in the first half and 17:31 mark the second half to give MU the lead for good.

The All-America candidate averaged 25.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg, and 4.5 spg over the two games, while connecting on 51.4 percent of her attempts from the field, including 45.5 percent from long range.

20/20 Vision

Marquette had two players with 20 or more points for the first time this season against Virginia, led by sophomore Angel Robinson who scored a career-high 25. Ellis followed with 23. It was the first time since Feb. 24, 2007 MU has had two players score 20 or more points in the same game. Ellis' followed her performance up against Virginia with 23 points against Utah. For the WBCA Classic Ellis averaged 19.3 ppg, 3.0 rpg, and 2.0 apg. She was named to the all-tournament team for her efforts.

Jones Comes on Strong

It was baptism by fire for freshman Georgie Jones who was called upon to fill the shoes of sophomore Jocelyn Mellen. Jones stepped up in impressive fashion registering 12 points, seven rebounds, two blocks, one assist and one steal all without turning the ball over in 26 minutes of action. She registered career highs in points, blocks and minutes played. She followed that performance up with her first career double-double (10 points, 10 rebounds) against Utah. Prior to the game against Gonzaga, Jones averaged 12.5 mpg, 3.0 ppg and 5.0 rpg.

Taking Care of Business

The Golden Eagles have taken care of business in both their home and road openers this season. The Golden Eagles earned their sixth straight season opening win with a 89-67 decision over Oral Roberts on Nov. 15, and won their first road opener since the 2005-06 season winning at Indiana State, 77-53.

Lights Out

In MU's 77-53 win at Indiana State, the Golden Eagles were on fire in the second half shooting an incredible 72.0 percent from the floor, and were 50 percent from long range. Marquette finished the game with a 52.7 shooting percentage to mark the second time this season MU has shot 50 percent or better for the game.

Ellis Named to Preseason All-BIG EAST Team

Senior guard Krystal Ellis was unanimously selected to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team announced at the BIG EAST Women's Basketball

Sarina Simmons Signs with Marquette

MILWAUKEE - Milwaukee native Sarina Simmons has signed a National Letter of Intent to continue her academic and athletic endeavors at Marquette University for the 2009-10 season announced head coach Terri Mitchell. With just the signing of Simmons, the Golden Eagles' '09 recruiting class is ranked No. 27 by All-Star Girls Report.

"Sarina is an outstanding athlete who can play a variety of positions," said head coach Terri Mitchell. "We love her versatility and passion on the court. We have known Sarina for a long time and are so excited that she is part of our family."

Simmons is a 6-1 forward out of Rufus King High School in Milwaukee, Wis. She is ranked as high as No. 8 by the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and No. 47 by All-Star Girls Basketball Report. ESPN HoopGurlz lists her as No. 59 overall, but as the 14th best wing recruit of the 2009 class.

During her career at King, she has earned an honorable mention all-state accolades by both the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and the Associated Press, as well as first team All-City Conference and all-area honors each season.

She averaged 11.7 points per game as a junior while helping the Generals to a 20-2 overall record, and 12.3 points, 3.8 steals, and 3.7 blocks per game as a sophomore. While Simmons has been at Rufus King, the team has claimed three City Conference Championships and has not lost a home game.

"Sarina phenomenal student-athlete," added her former coach Alina Cunningham at Rufus King High School. She will contribute at Marquette a great deal. The Marquette program is already successful, but I believe Sarina will help take it to the next level. She has great upside, yet still has a lot to learn. She has an opportunity to really blossom while playing in the BIG EAST Conference and could be unstoppable. She will work hard, but keep a smile on her face all of the time."

Media Day at ESPN Zone in New York City.

Ellis is a two-time All-BIG EAST pick and was named the WNIT MVP after the team's run through the postseason tournament. For the second consecutive season, Ellis led the team in scoring, averaging 19.4 points per game, a mark that ranked second in the league.

Marquette Picked Seventh

Marquette was picked to finish seventh in the BIG EAST Conference at the league's annual media day. MU finished with 147 points, nine points behind Syracuse (156), predicted to finish sixth in the poll, while tallying 15 more points than DePaul, selected eighth. The poll is determined by a vote of the league's 16 head coaches who are not permitted to select their own teams. Connecticut garnered 14 of 16 first-place votes to total 224 points in the poll.

BIG EAST Expands Tourney

The Presidents of the BIG EAST Conference voted to include all 16 member institutions in the men's and women's basketball championship tournaments beginning in 2009. The new format will have the teams seeded 9 through 16 meet on the first day of competition. The matchups will be No. 9 vs. No. 16, No. 10 vs. No. 15, No. 11 vs. No. 14 and No. 12 vs. No. 13.

The winners of those four games will meet seeds 5 through 8 on the second day of play. The 9/16 winner will advance to play the No. 8 seed. The 10/15 winner will play the No. 7 seed. The 11/14 winner will meet the No. 6 seed. The 12/13 winner will play the No. 5 seed.

Those four winners will advance to play the top four seeds in the quarterfinal round. Thus, the top four seeded teams still will not play until the quarterfinals, which occurs in the current 12-team format.

Preseason Recognition

Preseason recognition continues to pour in the the Marquette women's basketball team as Sporting News tabbed MU No. 25 in its preseason poll. Sporting News is the third publication to recognize the Golden Eagles, as both Lindy's College Basketball and Charlie Creme of ESPY.com listed Marquette as No. 25 heading into the 2008-09 campaign.

Player of the Year Candidate

Senior guard Krystal Ellis is among college basketball elite players as she is recognized on two national player of the year lists. Ellis is was one of 25 players named to the "Wade Watch" list for the State Farm Wade Trophy Division I Player of the Year and one of 30 players named to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 30. Ellis also earned preseason second-team All-America honors by Sporting News.

Lights, Camera, Action

The reigning WNIT Champion Marquette University women's basketball team will make five appearances on national and regional networks during the 2008-09 season as part of the BIG EAST Conference's expanded television coverage announced Thursday.

The Golden Eagles will make four national television appearances on ESPNU and CBS College Sports (formerly CSTV), and once as part of the conference's regional BIG EAST Game of the Week package.

A Look Back at 2007-08--WNIT Champions

The 2007-08 season turned into one of the most memorable seasons in program history as the Golden Eagles ended the season as the 2008 Women's National Invitation Tournament Champions. On April 5, 2008, the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center on the campus of Michigan State University and knocked off the Spartans 81-66 to claim Marquette's fourth national title in school history and the first in women's history. En route to the championship, MU won five straight games, with its last three being away from the friendly confines of the Al McGuire Center. The Golden Eagles' road to the title included home wins over Creighton in overtime, 75-69, Illinois, 72-64, and at Kentucky, 69-64, at Coloardo, 86-72, and at Michigan State. The Golden Eagles finished the season 21-14 overall and their third straight 20-win season.

Thomas-Johnson Gets an Olympic Experience

Junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson had an Olympic experience unlike any other athlete or coach participating in the 2008 Summer Olympic Games as she served as an athlete ambassador for British Basketball Federation.

Thomas-Johnson, a native of Manchester, England, was one of five male and female athletes chosen to represent Great Britain in Beijing as the nation prepares to host the 2012 Summer Olympics in London. Thomas-Johnson along with her fellow ambassadors had access to the athletes' village and different athletic venues around Beijing, along with going to the Opening Ceremonies and basketball games.

Thomas-Johnson, who expects to earn a spot on Great Britain's senior national team over the next four years, helped the Great Britain U20 team collect a bronze medal at the 2007 European Championship. It was the first medal ever won by a British basketball team in international competition.

Great Britain's senior national team did not qualify for the 2008 Olympics, but automatically qualifies for the 2012 Summer Olympics in London since it is the host nation.

Head Coach Terri Mitchell

Believe, Commit, Mature, Respect, Thankfulness - These are the five principles that serve as the foundation of the Marquette women's basketball team. And with these principles the Marquette lives by each day, head coach Terri Mitchell has molded the Golden Eagles into champions.

The foundation was laid years ago during her upbringing in Harrisburg, Pa. The life lessons Mitchell learned have served as her guide in coaching the Marquette women's basketball team for the last 13 years.

The Golden Eagles have thrived under Mitchell as she has compiled a 247-134 overall record - just short of 20 wins per season - 10 trips to the postseason and eight 20-win seasons. Notably, the Golden Eagles have earned six consecutive postseason berths, with their most recent postseason trip concluding with the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship in 2008.

On the court, Mitchell's teams are known for their well-balanced offense coupled with a tenacious style of defense and off the court for their academic excellence and commitment to community service.

Since becoming the fourth women's basketball coach in Marquette University history, Mitchell has paved a path of excellence. That journey began in her very first year, as Mitchell was at the helm for the largest turnaround in school history. She guided MU to a 21-10 record in 1996-97, which was 13 wins better than the previous season's record of 8-20. It was the largest turnaround of any first-year head coach and third-best single-season turnaround among all NCAA Division I schools that year.

The drive and commitment to excellence Mitchell had in her first year as a head coach continues to be instilled in her teams year after year. Her players don't question it; they know it and live it each day. One of the team's favorite Mitchell sayings is "we didn't come to compete in the BIG EAST, we came to win it."

USA Basketball

The respect and admiration for the way Terri Mitchell relates to her players and her success in the BIG EAST Conference led to an opportunity with USA Basketball. During the summer of 2008, Mitchell served as an assistant coach for USA Basketball's U18 Women's National Team. Under her guidance, Team USA won the gold medal while rolling through the FIBA Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina undefeated.

Marquette has also had other ties to USA Basketball, as Krystal Ellis was a finalist for a spot on the 2007 USA Women's Pan American Games Team.

Player Development

She believes that her personal interaction with each player not only leads to success on the court, but off as well. Her vision for each player in her program is that they enter as girls, but leave as well-rounded, confident young women.

Under her guidance, her student-athletes have earned numerous individual accolades, for their work on the hardwood and in the classroom. Since 1996, 18 of Mitchell's players have earned all-conference honors, while two have achieved All-America status, with Krystal Ellis becoming MU's latest All-America selection following the 2006-07 season. Ellis was also the third player in program history to earn repeat first team all-conference honors. In addition, 27 players have earned spots on the league's Academic Honor Roll and three have been awarded GTE Academic All-America honors.

Service

Through her faith, compassion for others, and commitment to service, she has touched the lives of many. For example, in May of 2006 Mitchell took a mission trip to Rwanda where she spent 16 days in the impoverished African country.

In addition to her coaching duties, Mitchell is active in the community and is heavily involved with charitable events. She is an avid speaker on campus, at local schools, basketball clinics, nonprofit organizations and is actively involved in prison ministry. Through her speaking engagements, Mitchell incorporates the program's five principles and encourages her audiences to dream, believe, and live in the now. She also hosts motivational breakfasts entitled "Breakfast with Terri," for Milwaukee area business women throughout the year.

Mitchell believes in giving back to her profession and the community by serving on several Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) committees as well as on its Executive Board as Treasurer, the State Farm Wade Trophy Committee, the Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund Board of Directors, and many other service-oriented organizations.

Service is not only a significant part of Mitchell's life, but of her team's life as well. The Golden Eagles are involved in many service projects throughout the year including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee, Briggs & Al's Run & Walk, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, the American Heart Association, the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, school speaking engagements and basketball clinics.

2008, when the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center at Michigan State and knocked off the Spartans, 81-66, to claim the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship. It marked the fourth national title in Marquette history and the first in women's history.

Up against a bevy of talented teams - the BIG EAST sent 12 teams to post season play - Mitchell led the youngest team in the BIG EAST Conference into battle with six freshmen and only one returning starter. The Golden Eagles fought through adversity, the Golden Eagles won over 20 games for the third straight season. Marquette finished the season with a five-game win streak - its longest of the season - and as one of only two Division I women's college basketball teams in the nation to end the season with a victory. Junior Krystal Ellis was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second consecutive season and freshman phenom Angel Robinson was an all-freshman team selection. Both continued their stellar play through the team's championship run and were honored with WNIT All-Tournament Team accolades. Ellis was named tournament MVP, while Robinson was an all-tournament selection.

Following its championship run, Marquette was honored by the City of Milwaukee and Mayor Tom Barrett as they proclaimed April 15, 2008 Marquette Women's Basketball Day. For the second consecutive year, Mitchell earned the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year honor.

2006-07

The 2006-07 season was one for the history books as Mitchell guided the Golden Eagles to their best season ever, a 26-7 overall record. It was the seventh season in which her team won 20 or more games. After being picked eighth in the BIG EAST preseason poll, Marquette started the season winning 15 of its first 16 games, and jumped into the national polls on December 4 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. The season for the ages included a school record 14-game win streak and being ranked in the Top 25 for the majority of the season. During that streak Mitchell won her 200th game on Dec. 9, 2006. In BIG EAST play, the Golden Eagles finished tied for second place with Rutgers registering a 12-4 conference record. For her efforts, Mitchell received the league's highest honor and was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year. It was Mitchell's third coach of the year honor.

More honors continued to follow Mitchell at the conclusion of the 2006-07 season as she was elected to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Executive Committee as its Treasurer and tabbed the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year. She was also named a Woman of Influence by the Milwaukee Business Journal in the category of "Inspiration."

Marquette made a trip back to the "big dance" behind the inside-outside combination of All-BIG EAST First Team selections Krystal Ellis and Christina Quaye, and the leadership of seniors, Jasmine McCullough, Danielle Kamm and Efueko Osagie-Landry. It was the first time in program history two players were first team all-conference selections in the same year.

2005-06

In 2005-06, Marquette made a remarkable postseason run, advancing to the championship game of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Led by All-BIG EAST honorees Christina Quaye, Carolyn Kieger, and BIG EAST All-Rookie Team member Krystal Ellis, the Golden Eagles posted a 22-11 overall record, including a 9-7 record in BIG EAST play before falling in the championship game at Kansas State.

2004-05

During the 2004-05 campaign, MU qualified for its third consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-Conference USA honorees Carolyn Kieger and Christina Quaye, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 18-12.

2003-04

In 2003-04, the team tied a school record with 22 wins and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round, playing as the ninth seed in the Mideast Region, MU defeated Old Dominion, 67-64 as Christina Quaye hit the go-ahead layup with 5.8 seconds left. In the next game, the Golden Eagles gave the nation's No. 1 ranked team, Duke, all it could handle and opened the eyes of many around the country.

The 2003-04 campaign was typical of the Terri Mitchell era. Offensively, the team was balanced, as eight different players led the team in scoring during a game over the course of the season. Games were won with defense and teamwork, as MU led Conference USA in scoring defense, yielding just 57.2 points per contest.

2002-03

Mitchell led the 2002-03 Golden Eagles to a 16-14 mark and a spot in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the second round. That season, the team set new school records in three-point shooting and free throw shooting percentages.

2001-02

Mitchell reached the 100-victory milestone the third game of the 2001-02 season as the Golden Eagles downed Alaska-Anchorage, 88-50, in the Great Alaska Shootout. On Jan. 27, she became Marquette's all-time winningest coach in a 65-44 victory over Tulane. That season, the Golden Eagles continued to be one of the best defensive squads in the nation, holding the opposition to just 59.6 points per game. That total tied for the top spot in Conference USA and tied for 10th in the NCAA.

At the end of that season, Mitchell was elected to the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, an honor in which she took great pride.

2000-01

The 2000-01 season proved to be a pivotal year in the growth of the Marquette women's basketball program. Mitchell was instrumental in carrying forward the goals of the program while providing stability, despite the graduation of three of the school's all-time leading scorers. With a young squad of five freshmen and two returning starters, the Golden Eagles picked up key victories against NCAA Tournament teams Michigan and UW - Milwaukee early on and closed out the season winning four straight before falling to C-USA Champion Tulane on a last-minute shot.

1999-2000

Her 1999-2000 squad finished the season in fine fashion, winning 13 of its last 15 regular season contests, claiming the regular season C-USA championship and a berth in the NCAA Mideast regional. Guiding her squad to a 14-2 conference record, Mitchell earned her second C-USA Coach of the Year honor. That season, Marquette led Conference USA and was 10th in the nation in defense allowing only a 36.4 shooting percentage.

1998-99

Mitchell led the 1998-99 squad to a 21-8 overall mark, a 12-4 record in C-USA play and a third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Mitchell was named the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Women's Basketball Coach of the Year. Marquette allowed its foes to shoot just 39.0 percent from the field and out-rebounded teams by 8.0 boards per game, a stat that topped C-USA and was sixth in the nation.

1997-98

In 1997-98, the Golden Eagles finished 22-7 overall and had a 13-3 record in Conference USA play, capturing the American Division title en route to their second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Mitchell also earned her first conference honor in her second year at the helm as she was named Conference USA Coach of the Year.

1996-97

Mitchell was named head coach on June 6, 1996. In her first season leading the Golden Eagles, Mitchell set a few precedents. She shattered the record for most wins by a Marquette first-year head coach, 21, and holds the distinction of reaching 50 wins faster than any coach in Marquette history. In addition, she became the only coach in school history to take her team to the NCAA Tournament in her first season.

Not only did she take the 1996-97 Golden Eagles to the Big Dance, but they also recorded the first NCAA Tournament win in school history.

The Early Days

Prior to becoming head coach, Mitchell was an assistant for the Golden Eagles for five seasons. She was instrumental in recruiting Marquette's 1996-97 freshman class, which was ranked 12th in the nation by the Blue Star Index. Marquette posted an 87-61 record and made three postseason appearances during Mitchell's tenure as an assistant.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Mitchell was a four-year letterwinner and team co-captain at Duquesne University. After an outstanding career with the Dukes, Mitchell graduated Cum Laude with a psychology degree in 1989. She began her coaching career serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona State during the 1989-90 season.

Marquette 89, Oral Roberts 67

Game 1 • November 15, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — The Marquette women's basketball team opened its regular season on Saturday with an impressive 89-67 victory over Oral Roberts (0-1). The Golden Eagles (1-0) saw five players in double-digit scoring, led by preseason All-American Krystal Ellis who tallied 16 points in 26 minutes. Saturday also marked the unfolding of the 2008 WNIT Championship banner in front of a crowd of 1,201 at the Al McGuire Center.

Sophomore Angel Robinson hit a three-pointer in the first eight seconds of play to open the scoring for Marquette. Freshman Jessica Pachko, making her first official collegiate start, added a layup to extend the lead to 5-0. After back-to-back layups by Ellis extended the Blue and Gold's lead to 9-3, consecutive baskets by Oral Roberts' Georgia Jones and Kelly Kindell tightened the MU advantage to 12-9.

A Jocelyn Mellen entry pass to Paige Fiedorowicz allowed the home team a seven point advantage, 16-9. The ORU squad tried once again to close the gap with back-to-back treys by Amy Pryor and Jones, respectively, to close the MU lead to one point. Lauren Thomas-Johnson answered from long distance with a three of her own, to maintain a 19-15 lead.

Freshman Jordan Pyle's layup, and a Janae Voelker bank shot three, allowed Oral Roberts (0-1, 0-0) their first and only lead of the game at 20-19 with 10:52 left. After an official timeout with just under ten minutes to play, Marquette went on an 19-0 scoring spree, not allowing an opposing point for eight minutes of play. During MU's 19-0 run, five Golden Eagles scored before Georgia Jones' jumper with 2:53 left to play. Robinson tallied six points, off two layups and four foul shots, while Ellis and Thomas-Johnson added four points apiece.

Thomas-Johnson's jumper from the top of the key extended MU's lead to 38-20, its biggest lead of the first half. During ORU's drought, Marquette forced ten of ORU's 13 first half turnovers, and scored 21 points off turnovers in the first frame.

ORU's Jones, a freshman from Manchester, England, was able to hit a layup and baseline three to reduce Marquette's lead to 38-25 with 2:05 remaining in the first half. The Golden Eagles went into intermission with a 17-point lead, 42-25, after back-to-back layups by Janelle Harris and Angel Robinson, the latter coming with three seconds on the clock.

Marquette used its post presence to outscore ORU in the paint, 27-10, with Thomas-Johnson and Fiedorowicz scoring eight and seven points, respectively, in the first half. Robinson led all scorers at the half with 11 points off 4-of-6 shooting from the field. As a whole, the home team shot 46.9 percent from the field, while limited to 3-for-11 shooting from three-point range. Meanwhile, Oral Roberts hit 5-of-8 from long distance, while their drought caused a 43.5 percent clip shooting from the field.

The Golden Eagles came out with the same intensity and momentum in the second half with a 15-5 run. MU spread the scoring, with Fiedorowicz hitting a back-to-back jump shot and layup to maintain a 47-32 Marquette lead. An Ellis entry pass led to a Robinson layup, and the senior then tallied her own two points with a layup for a 51-32 advantage. Mellen and Erin Monfre both dialed in from long range, holding the comfortable lead at 57-32.

Senior Noelia Quintas' basket with 15:00 on the clock redeemed the ORU squad after being outscored 8-0 in almost four minutes without a basket. Marissa Thrower helped boost points from the bench, making two foul shots and a shot from the lane to extend the Marquette lead to 66-41.

After ORU's 6-foot-3 Monah Pegorari fouled out with 11:32 on the clock, Terri Mitchell's squad took full advantage, tallying 18 points in the paint in the second half. The two teams traded baskets for the remainder of the game, with a stifling Marquette defense outscoring the opponents, as the second Oral Roberts' player fouled out in Pyle. Janelle Harris' putback put the Golden Eagles ahead, 80-59.

Marquette 77, Sacred Heart 55

Game 2 • November 17, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — With another balanced scoring effort, the Marquette women's basketball team earned a 77-55 win over Sacred Heart Monday night at the Al McGuire Center. The Golden Eagles had two newcomers scoring in double figures with freshman Jessica Pachko leading the way with game-high 14 points. The win puts Marquette at 2-0 overall, while Sacred Heart drops to 0-2 on the season.

The Golden Eagles completed the evening 44.1 percent (30-68) from the field, led by Pachko and Thomas-Johnson with 14 and 13 points apiece, respectively. Pachko missed just one shot total, as she hit 6-of-7 from the field and both of her attempts from the charity stripe. All-American candidate senior Krystal Ellis contributed eight points and as many assists in the win to go along with four steals.

After a dismal 6-for-22 shooting from the floor in the second half, the Pioneers ended the game connecting on 32.1 percent from the floor, 33.3 percent from long range. The Pioneers saw three players in double-digits scoring, paced by Apo with 13 points, and Taylor and Ryan with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Marquette's depth plagued the Pioneers, as the Golden Eagles' bench combined for 29 points, in comparison to Sacred Heart's six. For the second consecutive game, Marquette scored more than 40 points in the paint and tallied more than 40 rebounds.

Sacred Heart opened scoring with Alisa Apo hitting a three from the top of the key, but two consecutive layups by Pachko got MU off and running. Marquette began an 11-0 run 2:23 into the game and never looked back. During the scoring spree, Thomas-Johnson tallied seven points for the Golden Eagles. Marquette pushed its lead to 14 points, 25-11, midway through the first half before Kaitlin Sowinski started a mini 6-0 run for the Pioneers to cut the lead to eight, 25-17, with 8:59 to play in the first.

MU freshman Georgie Jones answered with a layup of her own to spark a 9-0 MU run, keeping Sacred Heart stranded with 17 points for over three minutes on game clock. Thomas-Johnson hit a three from the corner, and back-to-back layups by Jones and Hill extended MU's lead to 17 points (34-17), its largest of the half. SHU responded with a 7-0 run but never got closer than eight points near the end of the first half.

The Golden Eagles went into halftime with a 13-point lead, 41-28. Marquette connected on 17-of-37 (45.9%) of its attempts from the field, led by Pachko and Thomas-Johnson with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Pachko was a perfect 6-of-6 from the floor in the first.

Thomas-Johnson opened the second half with third three-pointer of the game, extending the Golden Eagles' lead to 16 points, 44-28. The Pioneers cut the gap to 13 points twice in the second frame, but Marquette put the game out of reach with an 11-2 run that pushed its lead to 22 points with 11:06 to play. The closest SHU came for the remainder of the game was 17 points.

Marquette 77, Indiana State 53

Game 3 • November 19, 2008

Hulman Center • Terre Haute, Ind.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - The Marquette women's basketball team shot 72-percent from the floor in the second half to defeat Indiana State, 77-53, Wednesday night at the Hulman Center in Terre Haute, Ind. The win keeps Marquette undefeated at 3-0, while the Sycamores drop to 0-2.

Senior All-America candidate Krystal Ellis finished with a season-high 19 points after scoring just three points in the first half, and added seven assists and three steals. Junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson followed with 13 points, and freshman Georgie Jones pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds.

Marquette finished the game shooting 52.7 percent, while holding the Sycamores to make just 18 of their attempts (32.1 percent), only six in the second half. Kelsey Luna led the Sycamores with 18 points.

After a back and forth first half, Marquette went into the locker room at the intermission with a slim three-point advantage, 35-32.

The Golden Eagles were a dismal, 1-for-9 from long-range over the first 15 minutes of the game before sophomore Tatiyana McMorris and Angel Robinson knocked down back-to-back 3-pointers to put the score at 27-25 with 4:57 remaining in the first half.

Marquette finished the first frame connecting on 11 of its 30 attempts from the floor (36.7 percent) while Indiana State shot 40 percent from the field (12-of-30). Sophomore Jocelyn Mellen gave Marquette seven points, while McMorris, Pachko and Robinson each added six points apiece.

Deja Mattox led ISU with eight points, while Kelsey Luna add with seven points in the first half.

Marquette stormed out of the intermission to take a 39-32 lead but the Sycamores countered with made three-pointers to cut the lead to two points, 39-37.

Marquette let its defense spark its offense and went on a 16-4 run over six minutes to take a 14-point lead, 55-41 with 11:22 to play.

After a mini 6-0 run by ISU to cut MU's lead to eight points, but Lauren Thomas Johnson hit her third trifecta of the game and Ellis added a bucket of her own to go ahead 13 points, 60-47, with 8:28 to play in the game.

Marquette sealed the win after taking 21-point lead, when Ellis made the basket in traffic and drew the foul to put the score at 70-49 with 4:35 left to play.

The Golden Eagles closed the game holding the Sycamores without a field goal for the final 5:21.

Marquette 89, Western Michigan 58

Game 4 • November 23, 2008

University Arena • Kalamazoo, Mich.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. The Marquette women's basketball team jumped out to a quick 15-0 lead in the first half and never looked back to earn a 89-58 win at Western Michigan Sunday afternoon at Varsity Arena. The win keeps Marquette perfect at 4-0, while the Broncos remain winless at 0-3 overall. The 4-0 start marks the first time since the 2004-05 season the Golden Eagles have begun the season with a four straight wins.

Marquette had three players with double-digit point totals with sophomore Paige Fiedorowicz registering a team-high 14 points. Sophomore Angel Robinson and senior Krystal Ellis each added 12 and 11 points, respectively. All but one player in the lineup registered a basket while the Golden Eagles shot 52.2 percent from the floor, including 38.9 percent from 3-point land.

Marquette dominated the glass for the fourth consecutive game, 45-29. Fiedorowicz and sophomore Jasmine Collins each pulled down a game-high six apiece.

During the Golden Eagles' early 15-0 early run over the first 5:23 of action, Ellis, junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson and Robinson each made one 3-pointer. Marquette pushed that lead to 22 points following another 12-0 run that put the Golden Eagles ahead 29-7 with 7:27 to play in the first half.

Marquette outscored the Broncos 18-7 over the last five minutes of the first half to help Marquette cruise into the locker room at half-time with a 30-point cushion, 52-22.

The Broncos countered early in the second with a 9-2 run to cut their deficit to 25 points, but back-to-back buckets from junior Janelle Harris gave a 29-point lead back to the Golden Eagles, 64-35, with 12:04 left in the game.

An 11-4 run by Western Michigan that put the score at 68-47 with 7:34 to play and again with 7:02 left would be the closest it would come for the remainder of the game. The Golden Eagles held onto a 20-plus point lead for the remainder of the game.

Marquette connected on a first-half season high 59.4 percent of attempts from the floor, while holding Western Michigan to make just six total shots. The Golden Eagles were on fire from long range knocking down seven of 11 treys.

Fiedorowicz led MU with 11 points and three rebounds, Robinson added eight points and four assists, and Lauren Thomas-Johnson and Tatyiana McMorris gave MU six points apiece.

Marquette 80, Gonzaga 77

Game 5 • November 28, 2008 • WBCA Classic

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE -- The Marquette University women's basketball team held Gonzaga without a field goal for the final seven minutes, 33 seconds of regulation Friday night to complete an 80-77 come-from-behind victory in the opening round of the WBCA Classic from the Al McGuire Center.

Marquette (5-0) overtook the Bulldogs (5-1) with a 13-4 run to close out the contest and win its 11 straight game going back to the 2007-08 season when the Golden Eagles ran the table to claim its first WNIT Championship.

Trailing by as many as eight points at the 7:34 mark, MU methodically chipped away at the Bulldogs' lead through a series of key defensive stops and by converting on its opportunities at the foul line.

The Golden Eagles went to the free throw line a season-high 35 times and shot 18-of-24 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe in the second half. They also got a career-high 21 points from sophomore forward Paige Fiedorowicz, who led five MU players scoring in double figures and was 8-of-10 shooting from the floor.

Fiedorowicz netted the first six points of game for MU, which raced out to an early 8-2 lead. She had 14 points at halftime, but that was hardly enough to keep pace with Gonzaga point guard Courtney Vandersloot.

Vandersloot was exceptional in orchestrating a Bulldogs' offense that withstood five lead changes to control a 39-33 lead at the intermission. Last year's West Coast Conference (WCC) Newcomer of the Year finished with a career-high -- and Al McGuire Center record -- 32 points and eight rebounds, while dishing out eight assists.

At one point, Vandersloot was 11-of-13 shooting from the field, including a pair of 3-point baskets. She knocked down a short jumper to give Gonzaga a 71-63 lead just past the midway point of the second half. That was the last basket made by the Bulldogs, however, as their scoring was relegated exclusively to foul shots.

Freshman Georgie Jones, who came off the Marquette bench to score 12 points, ignited the Al McGuire Center crowd by connecting on back-to-back buckets to get the Golden Eagles to within one, 73-72, at the 3:41 mark. Jones was fouled on a putback attempt on the very next possession and tied the game at 73-73 by sinking the second of her two free throw attempts.

Senior Krystal Ellis took over from there, scoring seven of her 12 points in the final one minute, 40 seconds of action. Ellis was held scoreless during the first half, but went 6-of-7 from the foul line to fend off a late Bulldogs' rally. Down by three in the closing seconds, Vandersloot raced up the court, shook a couple of MU defenders, and double-pumped a desperation 3-pointer that rimmed out as time expired.

Like Ellis, sophomore Angel Robinson persevered through a sluggish start to finish with 13 points and a career-best 11 rebounds and freshman Lauren Thomas-Johnson added 13 points.

16/15 Virginia 76, Marquette 71

Game 6 • November 29, 2008 • WBCA Classic

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE -- The Marquette University women's basketball team overcame an early deficit, but surrendered a 13-point lead in the second half Saturday in falling to No. 15/16 Virginia, 76-71, on day two of the 2008 WBCA Classic from the Al McGuire Center.

Virginia's (5-1) Monica Wright led all scorers with 31 points and was instrumental during a 21-7 Cavaliers' run midway through the second half in which Wright scored 12 points to help Virginia close the gap, and eventually take back the lead.

Meanwhile, Marquette (5-1) struggled offensively in the first half. The Golden Eagles shot just 6-of-22 (27.3 percent) from the field following opening tip-off until sophomore Angel Robinson knocked down a baseline jumper at 11:11 mark to get the Golden Eagles to within five points at 20-15.

Marquette went on to secure 13 offensive rebounds in the first stanza, which led to nine second-chance points. A fast-paced game also allowed for some easy buckets in transition for both teams early on.

Robinson found senior Krystal Ellis for fast-break layup to give Marquette it's first lead, 30-28, since the opening minutes of action. Ellis also knocked down a 3-pointer during the run, scoring nine of Marquette's 11 points to close out the half. MU went on to out-score the Cavaliers 22-10 during the stretch and took a 37-30 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Ellis picked up in the second half right where she had left off. The All-American guard and junior teammate Lauren Thomas-Johnson connected on back-to-back 3-point attempts to give MU its largest lead of the evening, 43-30, forcing Virginia head coach Debbie Ryan to burn a timeout less than a minute into the second period.

The duo knocked down two more 3-pointers as Marquette went 4-of-4 from beyond the arc to open the second half, but the Cavaliers netted three 3-pointers of their own before going on their late run.

Marquette's lead was cut to two following a pair of free throws by Virginia's Whitney Edwards, following a technical foul called on the Golden Eagles' bench. The Cavaliers then got a pair of layups from Aisha Mohammed on their next two possessions to take the lead, 61-59, with 5:58 left to play.

Virginia extended its cushion to as many as five points, 69-64, on a spot-up jumper by Wright with 43 seconds remaining.

The Golden Eagles wouldn't go away. Sophomore Angel Robinson scored seven of her team-high 25 points in the closing seconds, including a 3-point basket with 21 seconds on the clock to get MU back to within two points at 73-71. But the Cavaliers converted on their foul shots at the other end to keep MU out of reach.

Marquette shot just 39.7 percent (29-of-73) from the field, despite a better shooting effort in the second half. Ellis finished with 23 points to go along with three blocked shots and Thomas-Johnson tallied 10 points.

Utah 79, Marquette 76

Game 7 • November 30, 2008 • WBCA Classic
 Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Utah coach Elaine Elliott breathed a big sigh of relief after her club snapped its four-game losing streak.

Her Utes did it in stunning fashion Sunday, bouncing back from a 18-point second-half deficit to defeat Marquette 79-76 in the WBCA Classic.

"That's always a mental challenge," Elliott said of ending a losing streak. "I'm obviously very proud of the effort in the second half. It was significantly better and it was nice to see."

Kalee Whipple tied her career high with a game-high 30 points for the Utes (2-4). The most important were a pair of free throws that put her team in front for good at 75-73 with 2:25 remaining.

With Marquette trailing 77-76, Georgie Jones missed a pair of free throws with 6.3 seconds left that could have tied or won the game, and Utah hung on for the victory.

The game was far from easy, as early on the Utes played poorly. They trailed 48-33 at the half and were down 51-33 early in the second period before starting their comeback, which saw them tie or lead the game several times.

Whipple said the difference in the second half was that Utah players decided not to lose again.

"It was just a choice," Whipple said. "We got in the locker room and we knew we weren't playing how we should. It was a choice we made that we weren't going to just play it out — that we wanted to fight and dig it out."

The choice was spurred by Elliott's halftime advice that the team needed to play harder.

The Utah players took that message and went on to win. On the other side, Marquette players seemed to not listen to coach Terri Mitchell, who told them they had to keep playing hard despite their big lead.

"We took a lead on Virginia and we lost, that doesn't mean anything. Basketball is two halves. They did not take that to heart," Mitchell said of her advice to keep the pressure on the Utes. "I was very disappointed. There was no urgency in the second half."

The loss was especially bothersome to Mitchell because Marquette (5-2) blew a halftime lead for the second straight night to fall to 1-2 in the tournament. No. 16 Virginia bounced back from a 14-point deficit Saturday night to beat Marquette 76-71.

Utah, also 1-2 in the tournament, got 19 points from Morgan Warburton and 14 from Katie King.

Krystal Ellis had 23 points to lead Marquette and Jones added 10.

Although Ellis said she did not think the Golden Eagles quit against the Utes, she realized they showed more intensity in the second half.

"I don't think they wanted to win more than we did but they played harder," she said.

In Sunday's first game in the Classic, Gonzaga upset No. 16 Virginia 69-62.

Marquette 55, Northwestern 54

Game 8 • December 2, 2008
 Welsh-Ryan Arena • Evanston, Ill.

EVANSTON, Ill. - Senior guard Krystal Ellis scored the Golden Eagles' final nine points of the game to help the Marquette women's basketball team to overcome a 16-point deficit to defeat Northwestern, 55-54, Tuesday evening at Welsh-Ryan Arena. The win snaps MU's two-game skid to improve to 6-2 overall, while the Wildcats drop to 2-5 on the season.

Ellis finished the night with a game-high 18 points and five steals, and freshman Angel Robinson contributed 14 points and eight rebounds. For the game, the Golden Eagles shot 36.2 percent, including 42.4 percent in the second half after shooting a meager 28.0 percent in the first.

Kristin Cartwright paced the Wildcats with 12 points, while Brittany Orban, Amy Jaeschke and Meshia Reed each scored 10 points apiece. Marquette held Northwestern to make just five of its attempts from the floor and forced 10 turnovers in the second half during its comeback.

After being out-scored 34-20 in the first half, the Golden Eagles came out of the locker room with a renewed sense of urgency. Ellis sparked an 11-4 MU run that helped the Golden Eagles cut the deficit to seven points, 38-31, just over four minutes into the second half.

However, Northwestern regained its 10-point lead following buckets by Cartwright and Jaeschke.

Another pair of made free throws by Orban after Krystal Ellis was forced to the bench with her third foul with just over 13 minutes to play gave NU a 12-point advantage. Monfre quickly answered with a trifecta putting the score at 43-34, still in favor of the Wildcats.

The Golden Eagles didn't back down and continued to chip away at NU's lead. Marquette came within six points, 46-40 with 8:32 to play, using a series of key defensive stops and converting their own scoring opportunities.

With the Wildcats ahead 52-44 coming out of the final official timeout, senior Marissa Thrower scored a put-back opportunity to help MU come within six points, 52-46. Ellis scored the next basket with 3:04 remaining to keep Marquette within six points, 54-48.

The Golden Eagles made a key stop with 2:09 left as NU's Jenny Eckhart was called for an offensive foul. Ellis then scored the next six points to tie the game at 54-54, with 35 seconds to play.

On the MU's next possession Ellis drew the foul with 13 seconds left on the clock and sunk the first of two free throws to give the Golden Eagles the lead and win, 55-54.

Marquette shot a dismal 28.0 percent in the first making only seven of its 25 attempts from the floor, while turning the ball over 14 times.

The Wildcats quickly jumped on the Golden Eagles with a 5-0 run to put Northwestern ahead 13-7. MU cut that deficit to one point, 13-12, but Northwestern quickly pushed the lead to 15 points, 28-13, over the next nine minutes. The only point the Golden Eagles would score over that nine-minute frame was a free throw by Robinson.

Marquette 67, Kansas 57

Game 9 • December 7, 2008
 Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette University women's basketball team defeated the previously undefeated Kansas Jayhawks Sunday afternoon at the Al McGuire Center, 67-57.

All-America candidate Krystal Ellis chipped in a season-high 32 points, tying an Al McGuire Center record, in 32 minutes for the Golden Eagles who improved to 7-2 on the season.

"Krystal is a scorer and yet she's played plenty games this year where she has distributed, but today was her game," said MU head coach Terri Mitchell. "We just kept calling her number. We'd go away from it and then call her back. The team was getting excited to get her set up. She made some amazing shots and she was in the zone."

From the 3:47 mark of the first, Ellis scored Marquette's final eight points of the half and opened the second with eight more, pulling the Golden Eagles within one at 36-35. Ellis accounted for 16 straight points during that stretch and helped Marquette take the lead, 37-36, after a steal and assist to Lauren Thomas-Johnson.

"My teammates started finding me, and that really helped," said Ellis. "They set screens for me to get open, and they always find the hot shooter in the second half. They realized I was the hot shooter, and I think that made the difference."

With Ellis being held scoreless for 10:15 in the second half, sophomore Angel Robinson stepped up to score seven straight before Ellis hit a three to give Marquette its largest lead of the game at 61-51, effectively closing out the game for the Golden Eagles.

Missed free throws and lapses on the defensive end from the three-point line and on the offensive glass characterized the first half for the Golden Eagles.

The Jayhawks got off to quick start thanks to junior Danielle McCray who scored eight of Kansas' first 10 points, helping KU jump out to a 10-4 lead. In the first half McCray led all scorers with 14 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the three-point line and scored 22 for the game. Kansas was 6-of-11 from three in the first while the Golden Eagles were a mere 2-of-6.

"It all comes down to our defense," said Mitchell. "[Kansas] averaged 80-some points a game, and to hold them to 57 is a big deal. Obviously, we have all the respect in the world for Danielle McCray and what she does, and I think our team made her a complete focus and were able to stop her the best we could."

The charity stripe was not so charitable for Marquette in the first half as the Golden Eagles shot 25 percent on 3-of-12 shooting. Contributing to that number was George Jones who missed four straight free throws with under a minute to play in the first.

On the offensive glass Marquette was being beaten 10-to-5 after the final media timeout of the first half but pulled their deficit to 11-to-9 by the intermission.

While the Jayhawks controlled the offensive boards, the Golden Eagles patrolled the KU passing lanes, forcing 13 turnovers in the first half, leading to a 14-0 advantage in points off turnovers. For the game, Marquette held a 29-10 advantage in points off of 28 KU turnovers.

In the first, both teams shot 37.9 percent from the floor on 11-of-29 shooting, while Marquette responded to shoot 46.7 percent in the second.

Wisconsin 67, Marquette 48

Game 10 • December 13, 2008

Kohl Center • Madison, Wis.

MADISON - The Marquette women's basketball team couldn't overcome cold shooting and dropped a 67-48 decision at Wisconsin Saturday afternoon at the Kohl Center. The Golden Eagles (7-3) connected on a dismal 23.2 percent of their attempts from the floor. Meanwhile, the Badgers (10-1) collectively made 41.8 of its shots from the floor and had three players in double figures led by Alyssa Karel with a game-high 18 points and en route to their 10th straight win.

Sophomores Paige Fiedorowicz and Angel Robinson each scored nine points for MU in the loss.

The Badgers also owned the advantage on the glass pulling down 45, compared to 36 from Marquette. Prior to this loss, the Golden Eagles had been out-rebounded only two other times.

The Badgers jumped out to a quick 10-3 lead just over four minutes into the game and never looked back. The lead was pushed to 13 points, 16-3, 72 seconds later after Wisconsin scored back-to-back 3-pointers off consecutive Marquette turnovers.

Marquette answered with a mini 7-0 run that cut UW's lead to six points, 16-10, but the Badgers reclaimed the double-digit advantage (24-10) when Teah Gant knocked down a jumper, and Rae Lin D'Alie and Jade Davis drilled a pair from long range.

The Badgers maintained that lead and took a 13-point advantage, 37-24, heading into the locker room at half-time. Nine of the Golden Eagles' first-half points came from the charity stripe.

It was much of the same in the second half as the Golden Eagles came no closer than 11 points (37-26) of the Badgers early on in the second frame.

Wisconsin took its largest lead of the game, 21 points, with 11:11 remaining.

Marquette 69, Oregon 39

Game 11 • December 17, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE - Marquette cruised to a 69-39 victory over Oregon in front of an announced crowd of 4,000 fans Wednesday afternoon at a sold out Al McGuire Center. A stingy defense coupled with a well-rounded offensive attack, led by a game-high 17 points from senior Krystal Ellis, helped the Golden Eagles improve to 8-3 on the season.

Ten different players scored for MU, while the visiting Ducks (3-5) connected on just 22.2 percent (12-of-49) of their shots from the field. A combination of full- and half-court pressure, along with a match-up zone, forced 11 Oregon turnovers in the first half and just six field goals.

MU used a 15-2 run in the opening minutes to help grab an early 20-7 lead. Oregon closed the gap by producing a run of their own and held Marquette scoreless for a six-minute stretch. Micaela Cocks hit a 3-pointer at the 6:04 mark to cut the MU lead down to 22-14 and moments later followed with an easy layup to pull the Ducks within six points.

Ellis put an end to MU's scoreless drought by knocking down her second 3-pointer of the half with 3:18 remaining. Back-to-back layups by Jessica Pachko in the final minute of the first half gave the Golden Eagles a 15-point advantage, and Marquette enjoyed a 33-20 lead at the break.

Fiedorowicz had garnered her first collegiate double-double by halftime, collecting 10 of Marquette's 19 rebounds in the first half. She finished with 12 points and a career-high 12 boards.

Marquette opened the second half with a 14-2 run, extending the MU cushion to 25 points at 47-22 and quickly eliminating the hopes of an Oregon comeback. Sophomore guard Courtney Weibel, who made her first start as a Golden Eagle, drained a pair of 3-pointers during the stretch. Weibel scored nine points, all from beyond the arc.

Game 12 • December 20, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE - Coming off an impressive 30-point victory over Oregon earlier in the week, Marquette struggled to find its rhythm Saturday in falling to UW-Green Bay, 68-56, in non-conference women's basketball action from the Al McGuire Center.

UWGB primarily used a suffocating 2-3 zone defense to force 26 turnovers and to hold Marquette to 33.3 percent shooting (10-of-30) in the second half. All-America candidate Krystal Ellis, who did not attempt a shot in the first 24 minutes, finished with just eight points.

A three-pointer by Angel Robinson at the 17:25 mark in the first half gave the Golden Eagles (8-4) their largest lead of the game at 13-9. But MU went on to miss its next 11 shots from beyond the arc in trying to keep pace with the Phoenix (8-2).

Sophomore forward Paige Fiedorowicz posted a team-high 13 points. Her basket with 5:32 remaining in the first half capped off a 6-0 run by MU, knotting the score at 22-22, but the Golden Eagles missed their next 12 shots from the field before freshman forward Jessica Pachko made a layup six minutes into the second stanza.

Pachko was the only other MU player to score in double-figures, chipping in 10 points. Including fellow forwards Marissa Thrower and Georgie Jones, the Golden Eagles' post players went a combined 10-of-13 from the field. However, MU couldn't give up its open looks from the perimeter despite a 5-of-24 (20.8 percent) effort from the outside.

Jones and Thrower also finished with four and three blocked shots, respectively, and scored four points apiece.

A jumper by Rachel Porath with 6:01 remaining gave UWGB its largest lead of the game, a 14-point advantage at 52-38. Pachko breathed some life into her teammates and brought the home fans to their feet following a three-point play moments later to close the gap to seven points, 52-45.

But Porath, who finished with a game-high 19 points, connected on her third three-pointer of the contest at the 2:40 mark to help put the game away for the Phoenix, who went 15-of-17 from the foul line in the second half.

The Golden Eagles forced 25 turnovers of their own, but were out-rebounded by margin of 33-24, while UWGB shot a scorching 47.9 percent from the floor and knocked down six three-pointers.

Marquette 78, Oakland 68

Game 13 • December 28, 2008

O'Rena • Rochester, Mich.

ROCHESTER, Mich. - Behind a career-high 33 points from sophomore Angel Robinson, the Marquette women's basketball team defeated Oakland, 78-68, Sunday afternoon at the O'Rena. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 9-4 overall, while the Grizzlies drop to 8-4 on the season.

Robinson finished the day making 12-of-15 shots from the floor, including 4-of-7 from 3-point land and 5-of-6 from the free throw line. Sophomore Tatiyana McMorris was the other Golden Eagle in double figures with 10 points. Collectively, Marquette shot 40.9 for the game (27-66), owned the rebounding advantage, 40-34, and forced 18 OU turnovers.

The Grizzlies made 48.2 percent of their attempts (27-56) for the game, and had three players in double figures led by Jessica Pike with 18 points. Melissa Jeltema and April Kidd added 16 and 13 points, respectively.

Marquette held the slim advantage at halftime, 36-35, due in large part to Robinson's 19 points. She made 8-of-10 attempts from the floor with three of those made buckets from long range.

Marquette trailed for much of the first half while OU opened a 7-0 run, which put the Grizzlies ahead 23-15 with 9:37 to in the first. The Golden Eagles answered with a 7-0 run of their own to come within one point, 23-22, with 6:56 remaining in the first.

Sophomore Paige Fiedorowicz scored a layup and drew a foul to tie the game, 25-25, and then MU took the lead thanks to Robinson's jumper with 4:21 to go in the first. With Oakland up by six points, 35-29 with a 1:13 to play in the first, the Golden Eagles rattled off seven straight points to go in the locker room ahead by one point, 36-35.

With the score at 41-40 in favor of Oakland four minutes into the second half, Marquette scored five straight points to go ahead, 45-40, with 14:03 to play. The Golden Eagles pushed that lead to 10 points, 54-45, with just over 10 minutes to play thanks to buckets by McMorris, Janelle Harris and Marissa Thrower, and a 3-pointer from Lauren Thomas-Johnson.

The Grizzlies came within three points on two occasions with the last time being with 5:19 to play (59-56). From then on, Marquette held as much as a nine-point lead over the last 2:31 of the game.

The Golden Eagles made 7-of-8 free throws over the final minute of the game to seal the win.

UW-Milwaukee 63, Marquette 62

Game 14 • December 31, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE - UW-Milwaukee emerged from a New Year's Eve matinee against Marquette with a 63-62 come-from-behind victory over the Golden Eagles (9-5) at the Al McGuire Center. Traci Edwards led the Panthers (5-6) with a game-high 21 points and 13 rebounds, but it was Ashley Imperiale who provided the late-game heroics Wednesday that ultimately snapped MU's 11 game-win streak over its cross-town opponent.

Following four lead changes in the second half, Marquette's Angel Robinson led a 3-on-2 fast break and found a wide open Janelle Harris who knocked down her first 3-pointer of the season to give the Golden Eagles a 62-57 lead with one minute, nine seconds remaining in regulation.

Harris' clutch basket let the MU fans breathe a collective sigh of relief. But the game was far from over in the eyes of the Panthers.

UWM's Jineen Williams quickly rattled off back-to-back baskets to get the Panthers to within one at 63-62. UWM then fouled Krystal Ellis who missed her first attempt from the foul line with 16 seconds on the clock, allowing UWM to get the rebound and regain possession.

After a 30-second timeout the Panthers avoided a turnover as Harris was whistled for a foul diving for the loose ball. UWM's Turquoise McCain was injured on the play and had to leave the court allowing head coach Sandy Botham to choose a replacement to shoot the one-and-one with 3.6 seconds remaining.

Enter Imperiale.

Imperiale, who transferred to UWM from UW-La Crosse last year and had to sit out the entire first semester this season due to NCAA Division I transfer rules, calmly drained both free throws to secure the win, as Robinson's desperation 3-pointer rattled off the rim at the buzzer. Imperiale saw only three minutes of action Wednesday in only her third collegiate contest. McCain -- a senior who is a 61.4 percent shooter from the free throw line during her collegiate career -- finished with eight points.

Marquette had led by as many as 13 points and enjoyed a 30-23 cushion at halftime. Nine different players scored for MU and 19 assists were credited on the Golden Eagles' 23 makes from the field. Better ball distribution, however, couldn't help MU overcome a 37.1 percent shooting effort, as UWM shot 60.0 percent (15-of-25) in the second half and combined 9-of-18 (50.0 percent) from the perimeter.

Three players tallied double figures in scoring for the Golden Eagles led by 12 points from Jessica Pachko, who also had a team-high eight rebounds. Robinson and Paige Fiedorowicz chipped in 10 apiece, while Robinson handed out a season-high eight assists.

Marquette 68, USF 60

Game 15 • January 3, 2009

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette women's basketball team opened BIG EAST Conference play on Saturday with a 68-60 win over USF at the Al McGuire Center. Sophomore Angel Robinson tallied her second collegiate double-double in leading the Golden Eagles to victory with a game-high 23 points, including 10 rebounds.

USF (13-2, 0-1 BIG EAST) led the nation in scoring averaging 92.1 points per contest and had won nine straight entering Saturday's tilt, while Marquette (10-5, 1-0 BIG EAST) was able to get back on the winning track following its one-point loss to UW-Milwaukee earlier in the week.

The Bulls took their largest lead of the game, 23-15, when Brittany Denson scored an easy layup in transition off a block by teammate Jessica Lawson at the 7:32 mark in the first half. MU slowly chipped away at the lead by outscoring the Bulls 8-2 in the final four minutes of the first stanza.

Marquette, wearing its all-gold uniforms with blue trim, was able to garner its first lead of the game 14 seconds before halftime buzzer as Erin Monfre found a wide-open Melissa Thrower under the basket to give the Golden Eagles a 30-29 advantage at the intermission, a lead which MU would not relinquish.

The second of three straight baskets by USF's Porche Grant got the Bulls to within one at 45-44 at the midway point in the second half, but a pair of Monfre 3-pointers extended MU's cushion back to 55-46, forcing USF to take a 30-second timeout with seven minutes remaining.

Consecutive jumpers by Shantia Grace got the Bulls back to within four at 62-58 before Lauren Thomas-Johnson assisted Paige Fiedorowicz on four of her 13 points in the closing minutes to help fend off another potential late rally by an MU opponent. Thomas-Johnson finished with 10 points.

Grace led the Bulls with 17 points in addition to seven rebounds. Jessica Lawson added 12 rebounds and eight points and Jasmine Wynne registered 11 points coming off the bench.

Both teams got 22 points apiece from their respective benches as starting guards from each squad struggled to find get into a groove, and MU out-rebounded USF by a margin of 46-36. Neither team was able to find its touch from the outside going a combined 5-of-34 (14.7 percent) from 3-point range. Meanwhile, MU went 21-of-29 from the foul line, compared to 8-of-14 shooting by the Bulls.

Seton Hall 65, Marquette 55

Game 16 • January 10, 2009

South Orange, N.J. • Walsh Gymnasium

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. - Noteisha Womack scored 16 points and pulled down 17 rebounds to lead Seton Hall (12-3, 1-2 BIG EAST) to a 65-55 victory over Marquette (10-6, 1-1 BIG EAST) at the Walsh Gymnasium Saturday afternoon. Sophomore Angel Robinson led the Golden Eagles with a game-high 21 points and six rebounds.

Marquette shot a dismal 32.8 percent from the floor for the game, while Seton Hall capitalized on 24-of-50 made baskets (48 percent). The Pirates also connected on 11-of-13 attempts from the charity stripe, including 7-of-8 over the last 1:31 of the game.

With Seton Hall ahead 21-15 coming out of the eight-minute media timeout, McMorris drained a 3-pointer to spark a 10-0 Golden Eagle to move ahead, 25-21. The Pirates went on a mini 6-0 run of their own to take a 3-point lead with 2:50 remaining in the half (28-25).

McMorris finished the first half with a team-high seven points, and Marquette's bench combined for 14 points. The Golden Eagles collectively shot 38.7 percent in the first on 12-of-31 shooting, and went into the locker room tied 30-30. Five of MU's made shots were from long range.

The opening five minutes of the second half featured four more lead changes before Seton Hall scored eight straight points and take a 46-38 lead with 11:54 left to play.

Robinson looked to spark MU's attack with a lay-up that put the score at 46-40 still in favor of Seton Hall, but SHU took its largest lead of the game at 13 points with 10:01 to remaining in the game.

Marquette chipped away at the deficit over the next five minutes. Led by Robinson, who had six points during the run, the Golden Eagles came as close as four points, 53-49, with 5:01 to play before Womack scored a lay-up with 4:28 to play. A 3-pointer by Whitney Wood pushed the Pirates lead to nine points, 58-49, with 3:10 to play.

The Pirates made all six of their free throw attempts in the last 1:31 to clinch the win.
