"Feast Weekend" continues Saturday night at the Al McGuire Center with the second day of action in the WBCA Classic. The Marquette women's basketball team will put its undefeated 5-0 record on the line against No. 16/15 Virginia (4-1) at 7 p.m. Gonzaga (5-1) and Utah (1-3) will meet in the first game of the day at 5 p.m.

The game against the Cavaliers will be the first ranked opponent Marquette will play this season. All of the action can be heard live on 540 AM ESPN Radio with Matt Salmon and Tony Matera on the call.

Marquette heads into Saturday night's contest following a thrilling come-from-behind 80-77 victory over previously unbeaten Gonzaga Friday night. The held Golden Eagles held the Bulldogs without a field goal for the final 7:33 of regulation, while MU jumped on a 13-4 run to close out the contest and win its 10th straight game dating back to the 2007-08 season when the Golden Eagles ran the table to claim its first WNIT Championship.

News and Notes

Golden Eagle Quickhits

- For the first time since the 2004-05 season, Marquette has started the season 5-0. It is only the second time in program history Marquette has begun the season with five straight wins.
- Marquette is riding a 10-game win streak dating back to the 2007-08 season when it ran the table to claim its first WNIT Championship.
- The Golden Eagles have shot 50 percent or better from the floor in three of their last five games including a season-high 52.7 percent at Indiana State. Marquette has also outscored each of its first four opponents by at least 22 points.
- Overall through four games, Ellis leads the team in scoring with 13.2 ppg, followed by junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson averaging 11.8 ppg. Freshman Jessica Pachko is averaging a team-high 5.3 rebounds per game, but sat out the last two game with a foot injury.
- The Golden Eagles have registered 40 or more rebounds in their first five games this season. Freshman Georgie Jones was the first Golden Eagle this season to pull down double-digit rebounds with 10 at Indiana State.
- Sophomore Angel Robinson registered her first career double-double as well as the team's first scoring 13 points and career-high 11 rebounds. Robinson is also the second player this season to record double-digit rebounds.
- Three different Golden Eagles have led Marquette already in scoring this season including Krystal Ellis, Jessica Pachko and Paige Fiedorowicz. Fiedorowicz has been the team's leading scorer each of the last two games posting 14 points at Western Michigan and a career-high 21 points against Gonzaga.
- Marquette has made a three-pointer in 128 consecutive games dating back to Nov. 24, 2004. Ellis ranks second all-time with 178 career treys.
- The Golden Eagles have compiled a 101-42 mark in regular season non-conference games under Terri Mitchell, including a 23-3 record at the Al McGuire Center. The Golden Eagles are 38-20 in road games under Mitchell.
- Marquette is 16-34 all-time against ranked opponents under Mitchell.
- Marquette is 62-10 all-time at the Al McGuire Center.

Post-game Notes vs Gonzaga

- The Golden Eagles scored 80 points for the third time this season, the most Gonzaga has given up this season, however the three-point margin of victory was the slimmest of the season.
- Marquette outscored previously unbeaten Gonzaga, 47-38 in the second half to earn its fifth straight win. Marquette overcame a 35.3 shooting percentage in the first half to make 46.7 percent of its attempts in the second half.
- The Golden Eagles went to the free throw line a season-high 35 times and shot 18-of-24 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe in the second half.
- Sophomore Paige Fiedorowicz led Marquette for the second time this season with a career-high 21 points.
- Marquette had five players in double figures for the second time this season; Fiedorowicz (21), Robinson (13), Thomas-Johnson (13), Ellis (12) and Jones.

Approaching 500

The Golden Eagles are closing in on a milestone 500 all-time program victory. Marquette has 490 wins since its first year of basketball in 1975-76.

Jones Comes on Strong

It was baptize by fire for freshman Georgie Jones who was called upon to fill the shoes of sophomore Jocelyn Mellen after she left the Gonzaga game with an injury. Jones stepped up in impressive fashion registering 12 points, seven rebounds, two blocks, one assist and one steal all without turning the ball over in 26 minutes of action. She registered career highs in points, blocks and minutes played. Prior to the game, Jones averaged 12.5 mpg, 3.0 ppg and 5.0 rpg.

Series History against the WBCA Classic Field

Marquette is 0-2 against Virginia as it fell 64-56 at the Al McGuire Center in Jan. 4, 2006, and at UVA's John Paul Jones Arena in Nov. 17, 2006, 84-76. Sunday's meeting with Utah will be the first in program history.

A Glimpse at the WBCA Classic

• Four teams who are either nationally ranked or receiving votes in No. 16/15 Virginia and vote-getters Marquette, Gonzaga and Utah, make of the field of arguably the toughest tournament in the United States during the Thanksgiving Holiday weekend.

• There is also a boatload of experience among the four teams' head coaches as Debbie Ryan (Virginia, 32nd season), Elaine Elliot (Utah, 26th season), Terri Mitchell (Marquette, 13th season) Kelly Graves (Gonzaga, 9th season) combine to total 76 years of Division I head coaching experience.

• There are three national player of the year candidates participating in the tournament in MU's Krystal Ellis (Wooden Award and Wade Watch lists), Gonzaga's Heather Bowman (Wooden Award) and Virginia's Monica Wright (Wooden Award and Wade Watch lists).

• Marquette is 77-69 all-time in tournament play. The Golden Eagles have won eight tournament titles most recently being the 2006 U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam where they knocked off Western Michigan (74-61), Auburn (65-61) and Xavier (73-53) over the three-day tournament.

Taking Care of Business

The Golden Eagles have taken care of business in both their home and road openers this season. The Golden Eagles earned their sixth straight season opening win with a 89-67 decision over Oral Roberts on Nov. 15, and won their first road opener since the 2005-06 season winning at Indiana State, 77-53.

Lights Out

In MU's 77-53 win at Indiana State, the Golden Eagles were on fire in the second half shooting an incredible 72.0 percent from the floor, and were 50 percent from long range. Marquette finished the game with a 52.7 shooting percentage to mark the second time this season MU has shot 50 percent or better for the game.

Ellis Named to Preseason All-BIG EAST Team

Senior guard Krystal Ellis was unanimously selected to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team announced at the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at ESPN Zone in New York City.

Ellis is a two-time All-BIG EAST pick and was named the WNIT MVP after the team's run through the postseason tournament. For the second consecutive season, Ellis led the team in scoring, averaging 19.4 points per game, a mark that ranked second in the league.

Marquette Picked Seventh

Marquette was picked to finish seventh in the BIG EAST Conference at the league's annual media day. MU finished with 147 points, nine points behind Syracuse (156), predicted to finish sixth in the poll, while tallying 15 more points than DePaul, selected eighth. The poll is determined by a vote of the league's 16 head coaches who are not permitted to select their own teams. Connecticut garnered 14 of 16 first-place votes to total 224 points in the poll.

and women's basketball championship tournaments beginning in 2009. The new format will have the teams seeded 9 through 16 meet on the first day of competition. The matchups will be No. 9 vs. No. 16, No. 10 vs. No. 15, No. 11 vs. No. 14 and No. 12 vs. No. 13.

The winners of those four games will meet seeds 5 through 8 on the second day of play. The 9/16 winner will advance to play the No. 8 seed. The 10/15 winner will play the No. 7 seed. The 11/14 winner will meet the No. 6 seed. The 12/13 winner will play the No. 5 seed.

Those four winners will advance to play the top four seeds in the quarterfinal round. Thus, the top four seeded teams still will not play until the quarterfinals, which occurs in the current 12-team format.

Preseason Recognition

Preseason recognition continues to pour in the the Marquette women's basketball team as Sporting News tabbed MU No. 25 in its preseason poll. Sporting News is the third publication to recognize the Golden Eagles, as both Lindy's College Basketball and Charlie Creme of ESPY.com listed Marquette as No. 25 heading into the 2008-09 campaign.

Player of the Year Candidate

Senior guard Krystal Ellis is among college basketball elite players as she is recognized on two national player of the year lists. Ellis is was one of 25 players named to the "Wade Watch" list for the State Farm Wade Trophy Division I Player of the Year and one of 30 players named to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 30. Ellis also earned preseason second-team All-America honors by Sporting News.

Lights, Camera, Action

The reigning WNIT Champion Marquette University women's basketball team will make five appearances on national and regional networks during the 2008-09 season as part of the BIG EAST Conference's expanded television coverage announced Thursday.

The Golden Eagles will make four national television appearances on ESPN and CBS College Sports (formerly CSTV), and once as part of the conference's regional BIG EAST Game of the Week package.

Ellis on Pace

Senior guard Krystal Ellis is closing in on the all-time MU scoring record (male or female). She has 1,613 points currently and needs 205 points to match Abbie Willenborg's record (1,818 points). Ellis is currently No. 5 on the nation's active leading scorers list.

A Look Back at 2007-08--WNIT Champions

The 2007-08 season turned into one of the most memorable seasons in program history as the Golden Eagles ended the season as the 2008 Women's National Invitation Tournament Champions. On April 5, 2008, the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center on the campus of Michigan State University and knocked off the Spartans 81-66 to claim Marquette's fourth national title in school history and the first in women's history. En route to the championship, MU won five straight games, with its last three being away from the friendly confines of the Al McGuire Center. The Golden Eagles' road to the title included home wins over Creighton in overtime, 75-69, Illinois, 72-64,

Sarina Simmons Signs with Marquette

MILWAUKEE - Milwaukee native Sarina Simmons has signed a National Letter of Intent to continue her academic and athletic endeavors at Marquette University for the 2009-10 season announced head coach Terri Mitchell. With just the signing of Simmons, the Golden Eagles' '09 recruiting class is ranked No. 27 by All-Star Girls Report.

"Sarina is an outstanding athlete who can play a variety of positions," said head coach Terri Mitchell. "We love her versatility and passion on the court. We have known Sarina for a long time and are so excited that she is part of our family."

Simmons is a 6-1 forward out of Rufus King High School in Milwaukee, Wis. She is ranked as high as No. 8 by the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and No. 47 by All-Star Girls Basketball Report. ESPN HoopGurlz lists her as No. 59 overall, but as the 14th best wing recruit of the 2009 class.

During her career at King, she has earned an honorable mention all-state accolades by both the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and the Associated Press, as well as first team All-City Conference and all-area honors each season.

She averaged 11.7 points per game as a junior while helping the Generals to a 20-2 overall record, and 12.3 points, 3.8 steals, and 3.7 blocks per game as a sophomore. While Simmons has been at Rufus King, the team has claimed three City Conference Championships and has not lost a home game.

"Sarina phenomenal student-athlete," added her former coach Alina Cunningham at Rufus King High School. She will contribute at Marquette a great deal. The Marquette program is already successful, but I believe Sarina will help take it to the next level. She has great upside, yet still has a lot to learn. She has an opportunity to really blossom while playing in the BIG EAST Conference and could be unstoppable. She will work hard, but keep a smile on her face all of the time."

and at Kentucky, 69-64, at Colorado, 86-72, and at Michigan State. The Golden Eagles finished the season 21-14 overall and their third straight 20-win season.

Thomas-Johnson Gets an Olympic Experience

Junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson had an Olympic experience unlike any other athlete or coach participating in the 2008 Summer Olympic Games as she served as an athlete ambassador for British Basketball Federation.

Thomas-Johnson, a native of Manchester, England, was one of five male and female athletes chosen to represent Great Britain in Beijing as the nation prepares to host the 2012 Summer Olympics in London. Thomas-Johnson along with her fellow ambassadors had access to the athletes' village and different athletic venues around Beijing, along with going to the Opening Ceremonies and basketball games.

Thomas-Johnson, who expects to earn a spot on Great Britain's senior national team over the next four years, helped the Great Britain U20 team collect a bronze medal at the 2007 European Championship. It was the first medal ever won by a British basketball team in international competition.

Great Britain's senior national team did not qualify for the 2008 Olympics, but automatically qualifies for the 2012 Summer Olympics in London since it is the host nation.

Head Coach Terri Mitchell

Believe, Commit, Mature, Respect, Thankfulness - These are the five principles that serve as the foundation of the Marquette women's basketball team. And with these principles the Marquette lives by each day, head coach Terri Mitchell has molded the Golden Eagles into champions.

The foundation was laid years ago during her upbringing in Harrisburg, Pa. The life lessons Mitchell learned have served as her guide in coaching the Marquette women's basketball team for the last 13 years.

The Golden Eagles have thrived under Mitchell as she has compiled a 243-130 overall record - just short of 20 wins per season - 10 trips to the postseason and eight 20-win seasons. Notably, the Golden Eagles have earned six consecutive postseason berths, with their most recent postseason trip concluding with the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship in 2008.

On the court, Mitchell's teams are known for their well-balanced offense coupled with a tenacious style of defense and off the court for their academic excellence and commitment to community service.

Since becoming the fourth women's basketball coach in Marquette University history, Mitchell has paved a path of excellence. That journey began in her very first year, as Mitchell was at the helm for the largest turnaround in school history. She guided MU to a 21-10 record in 1996-97, which was 13 wins better than the previous season's record of 8-20. It was the largest turnaround of any first-year head coach and third-best single-season turnaround among all NCAA Division I schools that year.

The drive and commitment to excellence Mitchell had in her first year as a head coach continues to be instilled in her teams year after year. Her players don't question it; they know it and live it each day. One of the team's favorite Mitchell sayings is "we didn't come to compete in the BIG EAST, we came to win it."

USA Basketball

The respect and admiration for the way Terri Mitchell relates to her players and her success in the BIG EAST Conference led to an opportunity with USA Basketball. During the summer of 2008, Mitchell served as an assistant coach for USA Basketball's U18 Women's National Team. Under her guidance, Team USA won the gold medal while rolling through the FIBA Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina undefeated.

Marquette has also had other ties to USA Basketball, as Krystal Ellis was a finalist for a spot on the 2007 USA Women's Pan American Games Team.

Player Development

She believes that her personal interaction with each player not only leads to success on the court, but off as well. Her vision for each player in her program is that they enter as girls, but leave as well-rounded, confident young women.

Under her guidance, her student-athletes have earned numerous individual accolades, for their work on the hardwood and in the classroom. Since 1996, 18 of Mitchell's players have earned all-conference honors, while two have achieved All-America status, with Krystal Ellis becoming MU's latest All-America selection following the 2006-07 season. Ellis was also the third player in program history to earn repeat first team all-conference honors. In addition, 27 players have earned spots on the league's Academic Honor Roll and three have been awarded GTE Academic All-America honors.

Service

Through her faith, compassion for others, and commitment to service, she has touched the lives of many. For example, in May of 2006 Mitchell took a mission trip to Rwanda where she spent 16 days in the impoverished African country.

In addition to her coaching duties, Mitchell is active in the community and is heavily involved with charitable events. She is an avid speaker on campus, at local schools, basketball clinics, nonprofit organizations and is actively involved in prison ministry. Through her speaking engagements, Mitchell incorporates the program's five principles and encourages her audiences to dream, believe, and live in the now. She also hosts motivational breakfasts entitled "Breakfast with Terri," for Milwaukee area business women throughout the year.

Mitchell believes in giving back to her profession and the community by serving on several Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) committees as well as on its Executive Board as Treasurer, the State Farm Wade Trophy Committee, the Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund Board of Directors, and many other service-oriented organizations.

Service is not only a significant part of Mitchell's life, but of her team's life as well. The Golden Eagles are involved in many service projects throughout the year including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee, Briggs & Al's Run & Walk, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, the American Heart Association, the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, school speaking engagements and basketball clinics.

2008, when the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center at Michigan State and knocked off the Spartans, 81-66, to claim the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship. It marked the fourth national title in Marquette history and the first in women's history.

Up against a bevy of talented teams - the BIG EAST sent 12 teams to post season play - Mitchell led the youngest team in the BIG EAST Conference into battle with six freshmen and only one returning starter. The Golden Eagles fought through adversity, the Golden Eagles won over 20 games for the third straight season. Marquette finished the season with a five-game win streak - its longest of the season - and as one of only two Division I women's college basketball teams in the nation to end the season with a victory. Junior Krystal Ellis was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second consecutive season and freshman phenom Angel Robinson was an all-freshman team selection. Both continued their stellar play through the team's championship run and were honored with WNIT All-Tournament Team accolades. Ellis was named tournament MVP, while Robinson was an all-tournament selection.

Following its championship run, Marquette was honored by the City of Milwaukee and Mayor Tom Barrett as they proclaimed April 15, 2008 Marquette Women's Basketball Day. For the second consecutive year, Mitchell earned the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year honor.

The 2006-07 season was one for the history books as Mitchell guided the Golden Eagles to their best season ever, a 26-7 overall record. It was the seventh season in which her team won 20 or more games. After being picked eighth in the BIG EAST preseason poll, Marquette started the season winning 15 of its first 16 games, and jumped into the national polls on December 4 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. The season for the ages included a school record 14-game win streak and being ranked in the Top 25 for the majority of the season. During that streak Mitchell won her 200th game on Dec. 9, 2006. In BIG EAST play, the Golden Eagles finished tied for second place with Rutgers registering a 12-4 conference record. For her efforts, Mitchell received the league's highest honor and was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year. It was Mitchell's third coach of the year honor.

More honors continued to follow Mitchell at the conclusion of the 2006-07 season as she was elected to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Executive Committee as its Treasurer and tabbed the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year. She was also named a Woman of Influence by the Milwaukee Business Journal in the category of "Inspiration."

Marquette made a trip back to the "big dance" behind the inside-outside combination of All-BIG EAST First Team selections Krystal Ellis and Christina Quaye, and the leadership of seniors, Jasmine McCullough, Danielle Kamm and Efueko Osagie-Landry. It was the first time in program history two players were first team all-conference selections in the same year.

2005-06

In 2005-06, Marquette made a remarkable postseason run, advancing to the championship game of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Led by All-BIG EAST honorees Christina Quaye, Carolyn Kieger, and BIG EAST All-Rookie Team member Krystal Ellis, the Golden Eagles posted a 22-11 overall record, including a 9-7 record in BIG EAST play before falling in the championship game at Kansas State.

2004-05

During the 2004-05 campaign, MU qualified for its third consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-Conference USA honorees Carolyn Kieger and Christina Quaye, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 18-12.

2003-04

In 2003-04, the team tied a school record with 22 wins and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round, playing as the ninth seed in the Mideast Region, MU defeated Old Dominion, 67-64 as Christina Quaye hit the go-ahead layup with 5.8 seconds left. In the next game, the Golden Eagles gave the nation's No. 1 ranked team, Duke, all it could handle and opened the eyes of many around the country.

The 2003-04 campaign was typical of the Terri Mitchell era. Offensively, the team was balanced, as eight different players led the team in scoring during a game over the course of the season. Games were won with defense and teamwork, as MU led Conference USA in scoring defense, yielding just 57.2 points per contest.

2002-03

Mitchell led the 2002-03 Golden Eagles to a 16-14 mark and a spot in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the second round. That season, the team set new school records in three-point shooting and free throw shooting percentages.

2001-02

Mitchell reached the 100-victory milestone the third game of the 2001-02 season as the Golden Eagles downed Alaska-Anchorage, 88-50, in the Great Alaska Shootout. On Jan. 27, she became Marquette's all-time winningest coach in a 65-44 victory over Tulane. That season, the Golden Eagles continued to be one of the best defensive squads in the nation, holding the opposition to just 59.6 points per game. That total tied for the top spot in Conference USA and tied for 10th in the NCAA.

At the end of that season, Mitchell was elected to the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, an honor in which she took great pride.

2000-01

The 2000-01 season proved to be a pivotal year in the growth of the Marquette women's basketball program. Mitchell was instrumental in carrying forward the goals of the program while providing stability, despite the graduation of three of the school's all-time leading scorers. With a young squad of five freshmen and two returning starters, the Golden Eagles picked up key victories against NCAA Tournament teams Michigan and UW - Milwaukee early on and closed out the season winning four straight before falling to C-USA Champion Tulane on a last-minute shot.

1999-2000

Her 1999-2000 squad finished the season in fine fashion, winning 13 of its last 15 regular season contests, claiming the regular season C-USA championship and a berth in the NCAA Mideast regional. Guiding her squad to a 14-2 conference record, Mitchell earned her second C-USA Coach of the Year honor. That season, Marquette led Conference USA and was 10th in the nation in defense allowing only a 36.4 shooting percentage.

1998-99

Mitchell led the 1998-99 squad to a 21-8 overall mark, a 12-4 record in C-USA play and a third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Mitchell was named the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Women's Basketball Coach of the Year. Marquette allowed its foes to shoot just 39.0 percent from the field and out-rebounded teams by 8.0 boards per game, a stat that topped C-USA and was sixth in the nation.

1997-98

In 1997-98, the Golden Eagles finished 22-7 overall and had a 13-3 record in Conference USA play, capturing the American Division title en route to their second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Mitchell also earned her first conference honor in her second year at the helm as she was named Conference USA Coach of the Year.

1996-97

Mitchell was named head coach on June 6, 1996. In her first season leading the Golden Eagles, Mitchell set a few precedents. She shattered the record for most wins by a Marquette first-year head coach, 21, and holds the distinction of reaching 50 wins faster than any coach in Marquette history. In addition, she became the only coach in school history to take her team to the NCAA Tournament in her first season.

Not only did she take the 1996-97 Golden Eagles to the Big Dance, but they also recorded the first NCAA Tournament win in school history.

The Early Days

Prior to becoming head coach, Mitchell was an assistant for the Golden Eagles for five seasons. She was instrumental in recruiting Marquette's 1996-97 freshman class, which was ranked 12th in the nation by the Blue Star Index. Marquette posted an 87-61 record and made three postseason appearances during Mitchell's tenure as an assistant.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Mitchell was a four-year letterwinner and team captain at Duquesne University. After an outstanding career with the Dukes, Mitchell graduated Cum Laude with a psychology degree in 1989. She began her coaching career serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona State during the 1989-90 season.

2008-09 Season Box Scores

Marquette 89, Oral Roberts 67

Game 1 • November 15, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — The Marquette women's basketball team opened its regular season on Saturday with an impressive 89-67 victory over Oral Roberts (0-1). The Golden Eagles (1-0) saw five players in double-digit scoring, led by preseason All-American Krystal Ellis who tallied 16 points in 26 minutes. Saturday also marked the unfolding of the 2008 WNIT Championship banner in front of a crowd of 1,201 at the Al McGuire Center.

Sophomore Angel Robinson hit a three-pointer in the first eight seconds of play to open the scoring for Marquette. Freshman Jessica Pachko, making her first official collegiate start, added a layup to extend the lead to 5-0. After back-to-back layups by Ellis extended the Blue and Gold's lead to 9-3, consecutive baskets by Oral Roberts' Georgia Jones and Kelly Kindell tightened the MU advantage to 12-9.

A Jocelyn Mellen entry pass to Paige Fiedorowicz allowed the home team a seven point advantage, 16-9. The ORU squad tried once again to close the gap with back-to-back treys by Amy Pryor and Jones, respectively, to close the MU lead to one point. Lauren Thomas-Johnson answered from long distance with a three of her own, to maintain a 19-15 lead.

Freshman Jordan Pyle's layup, and a Janae Voelker bank shot three, allowed Oral Roberts (0-1, 0-0) their first and only lead of the game at 20-19 with 10:52 left. After an official timeout with just under ten minutes to play, Marquette went on an 19-0 scoring spree, not allowing an opposing point for eight minutes of play. During MU's 19-0 run, five Golden Eagles scored before Georgia Jones' jumper with 2:53 left to play. Robinson tallied six points, off two layups and four foul shots, while Ellis and Thomas-Johnson added four points apiece.

Thomas-Johnson's jumper from the top of the key extended MU's lead to 38-20, its biggest lead of the first half. During ORU's drought, Marquette forced ten of ORU's 13 first half turnovers, and scored 21 points off turnovers in the first frame.

ORU's Jones, a freshman from Manchester, England, was able to hit a layup and baseline three to reduce Marquette's lead to 38-25 with 2:05 remaining in the first half. The Golden Eagles went into intermission with a 17-point lead, 42-25, after back-to-back layups by Janelle Harris and Angel Robinson, the latter coming with three seconds on the clock.

Marquette used its post presence to outscore ORU in the paint, 27-10, with Thomas-Johnson and Fiedorowicz scoring eight and seven points, respectively, in the first half. Robinson led all scorers at the half with 11 points off 4-of-6 shooting from the field. As a whole, the home team shot 46.9 percent from the field, while limited to 3-for-11 shooting from three-point range. Meanwhile, Oral Roberts hit 5-of-8 from long distance, while their drought caused a 43.5 percent clip shooting from the field.

The Golden Eagles came out with the same intensity and momentum in the second half with a 15-5 run. MU spread the scoring, with Fiedorowicz hitting a back-to-back jump shot and layup to maintain a 47-32 Marquette lead. An Ellis entry pass led to a Robinson layup, and the senior then tallied her own two points with a layup for a 51-32 advantage. Mellen and Erin Monfre both dialed in from long range, holding the comfortable lead at 57-32.

Senior Noelia Quintas' basket with 15:00 on the clock redeemed the ORU squad after being outscored 8-0 in almost four minutes without a basket. Marissa Thrower helped boost points from the bench, making two foul shots and a shot from the lane to extend the Marquette lead to 66-41.

After ORU's 6-foot-3 Monah Pegorari fouled out with 11:32 on the clock, Terri Mitchell's squad took full advantage, tallying 18 points in the paint in the second half. The two teams traded baskets for the remainder of the game, with a stifling Marquette defense outscoring the opponents, as the second Oral Roberts' player fouled out in Pyle. Janelle Harris' putback put the Golden Eagles ahead, 80-59.

Marquette 77, Sacred Heart 55

Game 2 • November 17, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — With another balanced scoring effort, the Marquette women's basketball team earned a 77-55 win over Sacred Heart Monday night at the Al McGuire Center. The Golden Eagles had two newcomers scoring in double figures with freshman Jessica Pachko leading the way with game-high 14 points. The win puts Marquette at 2-0 overall, while Sacred Heart drops to 0-2 on the season.

The Golden Eagles completed the evening 44.1 percent (30-68) from the field, led by Pachko and Thomas-Johnson with 14 and 13 points apiece, respectively. Pachko missed just one shot total, as she hit 6-of-7 from the field and both of her attempts from the charity stripe. All-American candidate senior Krystal Ellis contributed eight points and as many assists in the win to go along with four steals.

After a dismal 6-for-22 shooting from the floor in the second half, the Pioneers ended the game connecting on 32.1 percent from the floor, 33.3 percent from long range. The Pioneers saw three players in double-digits scoring, paced by Apo with 13 points, and Taylor and Ryan with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Marquette's depth plagued the Pioneers, as the Golden Eagles' bench combined for 29 points, in comparison to Sacred Heart's six. For the second consecutive game, Marquette scored more than 40 points in the paint and tallied more than 40 rebounds.

Sacred Heart opened scoring with Alisa Apo hitting a three from the top of the key, but two consecutive layups by Pachko got MU off and running. Marquette began an 11-0 run 2:23 into the game and never looked back. During the scoring spree, Thomas-Johnson tallied seven points for the Golden Eagles. Marquette pushed its lead to 14 points, 25-11, midway through the first half before Kaitlin Sowinski started a mini 6-0 run for the Pioneers to cut the lead to eight, 25-17, with 8:59 to play in the first.

MU freshman Georgie Jones answered with a layup of her own to spark a 9-0 MU run, keeping Sacred Heart stranded with 17 points for over three minutes on game clock. Thomas-Johnson hit a three from the corner, and back-to-back layups by Jones and Hill extended MU's lead to 17 points (34-17), its largest of the half. SHU responded with a 7-0 run but never got closer than eight points near the end of the first half.

The Golden Eagles went into halftime with a 13-point lead, 41-28. Marquette connected on 17-of-37 (45.9%) of its attempts from the field, led by Pachko and Thomas-Johnson with 12 and 10 points, respectively. Pachko was a perfect 6-of-6 from the floor in the first.

Thomas-Johnson opened the second half with third three-pointer of the game, extending the Golden Eagles' lead to 16 points, 44-28. The Pioneers cut the gap to 13 points twice in the second frame, but Marquette put the game out of reach with an 11-2 run that pushed its lead to 22 points with 11:06 to play. The closest SHU came for the remainder of the game was 17 points.

Game 3 • November 19, 2008

Hulman Center • Terre Haute, Ind.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. - The Marquette women's basketball team shot 72-percent from the floor in the second half to defeat Indiana State, 77-53, Wednesday night at the Hulman Center in Terre Haute, Ind. The win keeps Marquette undefeated at 3-0, while the Sycamores drop to 0-2.

Senior All-America candidate Krystal Ellis finished with a season-high 19 points after scoring just three points in the first half, and added seven assists and three steals. Junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson followed with 13 points, and freshman Georgie Jones pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds.

Marquette finished the game shooting 52.7 percent, while holding the Sycamores to make just 18 of their attempts (32.1 percent), only six in the second half. Kelsey Luna led the Sycamores with 18 points.

After a back and forth first half, Marquette went into the locker room at the intermission with a slim three-point advantage, 35-32.

The Golden Eagles were a dismal, 1-for-9 from long-range over the first 15 minutes of the game before sophomore Tatiyana McMorris and Angel Robinson knocked down back-to-back 3-pointers to put the score at 27-25 with 4:57 remaining in the first half.

Marquette finished the first frame connecting on 11 of its 30 attempts from the floor (36.7 percent) while Indiana State shot 40 percent from the field (12-of-30). Sophomore Jocelyn Mellen gave Marquette seven points, while McMorris, Pachko and Robinson each added six points apiece.

Deja Mattox led ISU with eight points, while Kelsey Luna add with seven points in the first half.

Marquette stormed out of the intermission to take a 39-32 lead but the Sycamores countered with made three-pointers to cut the lead to two points, 39-37.

Marquette let its defense spark its offense and went on a 16-4 run over six minutes to take a 14-point lead, 55-41 with 11:22 to play.

After a mini 6-0 run by ISU to cut MU's lead to eight points, but Lauren Thomas Johnson hit her third trifecta of the game and Ellis added a bucket of her own to go ahead 13 points, 60-47, with 8:28 to play in the game.

Marquette sealed the win after taking 21-point lead, when Ellis made the basket in traffic and drew the foul to put the score at 70-49 with 4:35 left to play.

The Golden Eagles closed the game holding the Sycamores without a field goal for the final 5:21.

Game 4 • November 23, 2008

University Arena • Kalamazoo, Mich.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. The Marquette women's basketball team jumped out to a quick 15-0 lead in the first half and never looked back to earn a 89-58 win at Western Michigan Sunday afternoon at Varsity Arena. The win keeps Marquette perfect at 4-0, while the Broncos remain winless at 0-3 overall. The 4-0 start marks the first time since the 2004-05 season the Golden Eagles have begun the season with a four straight wins.

Marquette had three players with double-digit point totals with sophomore Paige Fiedorowicz registering a team-high 14 points. Sophomore Angel Robinson and senior Krystal Ellis each added 12 and 11 points, respectively. All but one player in the lineup registered a basket while the Golden Eagles shot 52.2 percent from the floor, including 38.9 percent from 3-point land.

Marquette dominated the glass for the fourth consecutive game, 45-29. Fiedorowicz and sophomore Jasmine Collins each pulled down a game-high six apiece.

During the Golden Eagles' early 15-0 early run over the first 5:23 of action, Ellis, junior Lauren Thomas-Johnson and Robinson each made one 3-pointer. Marquette pushed that lead to 22 points following another 12-0 run that put the Golden Eagles ahead 29-7 with 7:27 to play in the first half.

Marquette outscored the Broncos 18-7 over the last five minutes of the first half to help Marquette cruise into the locker room at half-time with a 30-point cushion, 52-22.

The Broncos countered early in the second with a 9-2 run to cut their deficit to 25 points, but back-to-back buckets from junior Janelle Harris gave a 29-point lead back to the Golden Eagles, 64-35, with 12:04 left in the game.

An 11-4 run by Western Michigan that put the score at 68-47 with 7:34 to play and again with 7:02 left would be the closest it would come for the remainder of the game. The Golden Eagles held onto a 20-plus point lead for the remainder of the game.

Marquette connected on a first-half season high 59.4 percent of attempts from the floor, while holding Western Michigan to make just six total shots. The Golden Eagles were on fire from long range knocking down seven of 11 treys.

Fiedorowicz led MU with 11 points and three rebounds, Robinson added eight points and four assists, and Lauren Thomas-Johnson and Tatyiana McMorris gave MU six points apiece.

Marquette 80, Gonzaga 77

Game 5 • November 28, 2008

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE -- The Marquette University women's basketball team held Gonzaga without a field goal for the final seven minutes, 33 seconds of regulation Friday night to complete an 80-77 come-from-behind victory in the opening round of the WBCA Classic from the Al McGuire Center.

Marquette (5-0) overtook the Bulldogs (5-1) with a 13-4 run to close out the contest and win its 11 straight game going back to the 2007-08 season when the Golden Eagles ran the table to claim its first WNIT Championship.

Trailing by as many as eight points at the 7:34 mark, MU methodically chipped away at the Bulldogs' lead through a series of key defensive stops and by converting on its opportunities at the foul line.

The Golden Eagles went to the free throw line a season-high 35 times and shot 18-of-24 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe in the second half. They also got a career-high 21 points from sophomore forward Paige Fiedorowicz, who led five MU players scoring in double figures and was 8-of-10 shooting from the floor.

Fiedorowicz netted the first six points of game for MU, which raced out to an early 8-2 lead. She had 14 points at halftime, but that was hardly enough to keep pace with Gonzaga point guard Courtney Vandersloot.

Vandersloot was exceptional in orchestrating a Bulldogs' offense that withstood five lead changes to control a 39-33 lead at the intermission. Last year's West Coast Conference (WCC) Newcomer of the Year finished with a career-high -- and Al McGuire Center record -- 32 points and eight rebounds, while dishing out eight assists.

At one point, Vandersloot was 11-of-13 shooting from the field, including a pair of 3-point baskets. She knocked down a short jumper to give Gonzaga a 71-63 lead just past the midway point of the second half. That was the last basket made by the Bulldogs, however, as their scoring was relegated exclusively to foul shots.

Freshman Georgie Jones, who came off the Marquette bench to score 12 points, ignited the Al McGuire Center crowd by connecting on back-to-back buckets to get the Golden Eagles to within one, 73-72, at the 3:41 mark. Jones was fouled on a putback attempt on the very next possession and tied the game at 73-73 by sinking the second of her two free throw attempts.

Senior Krystal Ellis took over from there, scoring seven of her 12 points in the final one minute, 40 seconds of action. Ellis was held scoreless during the first half, but went 6-of-7 from the foul line to fend off a late Bulldogs' rally. Down by three in the closing seconds, Vandersloot raced up the court, shook a couple of MU defenders, and double-pumped a desperation 3-pointer that rimmed out as time expired.

Like Ellis, sophomore Angel Robinson persevered through a sluggish start to finish with 13 points and a career-best 11 rebounds and freshman Lauren Thomas-Johnson added 13 points.
