With just a day to rest, the Marquette women's basketball team hits the road to play at Michigan Monday, Nov. 16, at 6:30 p.m. ET/5:30 p.m. CT at Crisler Arena. The game will be broadcast live on the Big Ten Network with Brent Stover (play-by-play) and Mary Murphy (analyst) calling the action. The Big Ten Network can now be seen locally in Milwaukee on Time Warner Cable Ch. 63 or in high definition on Ch. 527.

The Golden Eagles (1-0) are coming off a 74-38 season-opening win over St. Francis on Saturday. Redshirt junior Jocelyn Mellen and senior Lauren Thomas-Johnson led charge with 10 and 14 points, respectively.

Michigan (1-0) also enters play on the heels of a season-opening win as it topped Ball State 87-67 Friday night.

The Wolverines were picked to finish last in the Big Ten preseason coaches poll and media poll after finishing the 2008-09 season 10-20 overall and 3-15 in Big Ten action. Veronica Hicks is Michigan's top returning scorer with 9.6 points per game last season. She scored 15 points and added seven rebounds in the win over Ball State.

News and Notes

A Quick Glimpse at the Golden Eagles

The Golden Eagles return three starters and 10 letterwinners from a season ago that finished 17-16 overall and in ninth place with a 7-9 league record. All-BIG EAST Preseason Team selection junior Angel Robinson returns for her junior season as well as BIG EAST All-Freshman team honoree sophomore Jessica Pachko.

Milwaukee native, freshman Sarina Simmons (Milwaukee King) is Marquette's lone newcomer to the team.

Golden Eagles Win Season Opener

The Golden Eagles won their seventh straight season lidlifter in the form of a 74-38 rout of St. Francis (PA) Saturday afternoon. Marquette had a stellar defensive effort against the Red Flash holding it to just 38 points, the lowest point total Marquette has given up since it beat Toledo, 67-28, on Nov. 24, 2004. It also forced St. Francis to commit 24 turnovers. For the contest, MU outscored St. Francis 44-16 in the paint. Marquette moved to 11-3 in season openers under Mitchell.

Michigan Connection

For senior Janelle Harris and junior Jasmine Collins the trip to Ann Arbor is a homecoming of sorts as the duo hails from Detroit, approximately 30 miles from Michigan's campus. Manny Harris, a junior guard at Michigan, is the brother of Marquette senior guard Janelle Harris. Marquette has won its last four games in the "Great Lakes State." The Golden Eagles are 2-2 against the Wolverines with Michigan taking the last meeting 65-49 in Ann Arbor. Head coach Terri Mitchell is 19-12 against Big Ten teams.

Plenty of Contributions in Exhibition Wins

The Golden Eagles topped the 100-point mark in both of their exhibition games defeating UW-Stout, 118-71, and Beloit, 102-30, and had plenty of contributions from all 10 of their active players. Against Stout, Marquette shot 59.5 percent (47-of-79), with every player in the lineup scoring, including seven in double-digits. Sarina Simmons led the way with 19, while Jocelyn Mellen and Lauren Thomas-Johnson each added 14, Janelle Harris, Angel Robinson and Jasmine Collins each contributed 13 and Georgie Jones scored 10. Robinson distributed the ball effectively registering 11 assists, while swiping four steals. It was much of the same against Beloit as the Golden Eagles posted 30 assists on 41 baskets and forced 40 Beloit turnovers. Every player in the lineup made at least on basket. Thomas-Johnson led all scorers with 19 points and McMorris (17), Simmons (13) Pachko (12) and Weibel (11) also poured in double-digit scoring efforts.

Mellen Returns to Action

After sitting out all but the first five games last season with a torn ACL, redshirt junior Jocelyn Mellen is healthy and eager to return to the court for her season debut Saturday. Mellen had two productive exhibition games against UW-Stout and Beloit. Against Stout, Mellen contributed 14 points, making all five attempts from the floor and four-of-five free throws, and added four rebounds and two steals in 22 minutes of action. She followed that performance up with eight points on four-of-five shooting from the floor and two steals in 19 minutes against Beloit.

Robinson Named to Preseason All-BIG EAST Team

Junior guard Angel Robinson was one of three unanimous selections to the Preseason All-BIG EAST Team announced at the BIG EAST Women's Basketball Media Day at ESPN Zone in New York City.

Robinson, an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection for the 2008-09 season, returns for her junior season as one of 12 total All-BIG EAST preseason selections. Robinson led the Golden Eagles with 13.9 points per game (15.9 ppg in BIG EAST play) and was the team's second leading rebounder pulling down 5.0 rebounds per game (5.8 rpg in BIG EAST play).

Marquette Picked 10th

Marquette was picked to finish 10th in the BIG EAST Conference at the league's annual media day. MU finished with 111 points, 10 points behind West Virginia (121), predicted to finish ninth in the poll, while tallying 25 more points than reigning WNIT Champion USF, selected 11th. The poll is determined by a vote of the league's 16 head coaches who are not permitted to select their own teams. Connecticut garnered 15 of 16 first-place votes to total 225 points in the poll.

Head Coach Terri Mitchell Quickhits

- Head coach Terri Mitchell won her 250th career game at Georgetown (80-65) on Jan. 21, 2009.
- With its win over Cincinnati 67-61, on Feb. 18, 2009, Marquette earned its 500th program victory. Marquette is 502-442 since its first season of basketball in 1975-76.
- Of those 500 wins, Mitchell accounts for 256. Prior to Mitchell's appointment as head coach, Tat Shiely (1975-1986, 111-148), Sr. Maria Pares (1986-1990, 42-69), and Jim Jabir (1990-96, 94-81) combined for 247 wins.
- Mitchell ranks third in school history among all sports with 256 career victories. Only Al McGuire (men's basketball, 1964-77, 295 wins) and Jody Bronson (women's tennis, 1985-pres., 295 wins) have more career victories.
- Mitchell coached her 400th career game against Butler in the WNIT Second Round.
- Marquette is 17-39 all-time against ranked opponents under Mitchell.

national high school made three-point record-holder, Courtney Weibel sunk two against St. Francis in a career-high 22 minutes.

Robinson Changes Jersey Number

Junior guard Angel Robinson, who was for two seasons the only player in program history to wear No. 1, elected to change her jersey number to 32 for the remainder of her Marquette career. Robinson said she made the change due to superstition and the influence of her father whose favorite player is the legendary Magic Johnson.

Sarina Simmons Stays in Town

Sarina Simmons, a highly recruited 6-1 forward out of Milwaukee Rufus King elected to play college basketball in her home city of Milwaukee. Simmons joins the Golden Eagles following a stellar prep career where she was ranked as high as No. 8 by the Collegiate Girls Basketball Report and No. 47 by All-Star Girls Basketball Report. ESPN HoopGurlz listed her as No. 59 overall, and as the 14th best wing recruit of the 2009 class.

Simmons is the first player from the city of Milwaukee to play at Marquette since the 2002-03 season.

Robinson Closes in on 1,000 Points

Junior guard Angel Robinson is closing in on the 1,000 point plateau. Robinson is 142 points shy of becoming the 21st player in program history to score 1,000 points in her career.

Lights, Camera, Action

The Marquette women's basketball team will make five appearances on national and regional networks during the 2009-10 season, three as part of the BIG EAST Conference's expanded television coverage announced Thursday.

ESPNU will broadcast live the Golden Eagles' game at DePaul on Sunday, Jan. 21, at 3 p.m., while CBS College Sports will broadcast one game as part of its "Game of the Week" package. Marquette's game at the Al McGuire Center against USF on Tuesday, Feb. 9, at 8 p.m., will be the second game as part of a Tuesday night doubleheader on the network.

BIG EAST TV is slated to televise the Golden Eagles' home game against DePaul on Saturday, Feb. 20 at 1 p.m. BIG EAST TV can be seen locally on Time Warner Cable's Sports 32.

Additionally, the Golden Eagles will appear on the Big Ten Network twice when they play at Michigan (Nov. 16) and at Illinois (Dec. 9). The Big Ten Network can now be seen locally in Milwaukee on Time Warner Cable Ch. 63 or in high definition on Ch. 527.

Terri Mitchell TV Show

Marquette head women's basketball coach Terri Mitchell's television show begins this week. The Terri Mitchell Show debuts Friday on Sports32 at 5 p.m.

The Terri Mitchell Show, which will include player interviews, highlights and behind-the-scenes access to the Marquette women's basketball team, will air during its regularly scheduled time slot of 5 p.m. CT on Friday nights and re-air several times over the course of the week. The season premier will re-air at 10:30 p.m. Friday evening, and again on Saturday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 a.m., and 8:30 a.m.

The show is hosted by former Marquette women's basketball player Kareeda Chones-Aguam.

Marquette Signs Four

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette women's basketball program announced Thursday the signing of four National Letters of Intent by players in the Class of 2010. Mercedes Griffin, Courtney Thomas, Gabrielle (Gabi) Minix, and Katie Young will join the Golden Eagles in the fall of 2010.

Griffin, 5'9" guard, will join the Golden Eagles from Bolingbrook High School. She led the Raiders to the Illinois 4A title in her junior year while helping the team to a No. 3 ranking in the ESPN Rise Fab 50 standings. As a junior, she received All-Area Greater Chicago Team honorable mention accolades. A former starter at Joliet High School, the forward averaged 10 points and 4.5 rebounds per game before transferring to Bolingbrook. Her high school performance has characterized her as an all-around contributor and solid defensive player.

Thomas, a 6'0" forward from Montini Catholic High School in Lombard, Ill., has been ranked as high as No. 29 in the ESPN HoopGurlz for the Class of 2010. As a sophomore, Thomas was named to the All-Area Greater Chicago Third Team, playing alongside University of Connecticut commit Michala Johnson. She played club basketball with Full Package.

Indiana native Gabrielle (Gabi) Minix will be the second member of her family to play Division I basketball, with her sister currently a freshman guard at Murray State University. Minix, a 5'9" point guard, averaged 16 points, eight assists and five rebounds, leading Oregon-Davis High School (Hamlet, Ind.) to a 22-3 campaign her junior year. A 2008 and 2009 AP Indiana All-State Girls Basketball Team selection, Minix is a 2010 Indiana All-Star Candidate. Her freshman season, she helped her team to the 2007 Class 1-A state championship.

Young, a 5-11 guard from Bradford High School in Kenosha, Wis., was an All-Southeast Conference First Team honoree following a junior campaign in which she averaged 14.6 points, 6.8 rebounds, 2.3 assists, 1.9 blocks and 1.6 steals per campaign. In the final six games of her junior season, she averaged 17.2 points per game, earning her an honorable mention for the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's All-Area Girl's Basketball team. The guard tallied 24 treys as a junior while leading Bradford in points, assists and blocks.

Head Coach Terri Mitchell

Believe, Commit, Mature, Respect, Thankfulness - These are the five principles that serve as the foundation of the Marquette women's basketball team. And with these principles Marquette lives by each day, head coach Terri Mitchell has molded the Golden Eagles into champions.

The foundation was laid years ago during her upbringing in Harrisburg, Pa. The life lessons Mitchell learned have served as her guide in coaching the Marquette women's basketball team for the last 13 years.

The Golden Eagles have thrived under Mitchell as she has compiled a 255-146 overall record - just short of 20 wins per season - 11 trips to the postseason and eight 20-win seasons. Notably, the Golden Eagles have earned seven consecutive postseason berths, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament Second Round (2004, 2007) and winning the Women's National Invitation Tournament crown in 2008.

On the court, Mitchell's teams are known for their well-balanced offense coupled with a tenacious style of defense. Off the court they are known for their academic excellence and commitment to community service.

Since becoming the fourth women's basketball coach in Marquette University history, Mitchell has paved a path of excellence. That journey began in her very first year, as Mitchell was at the helm for the largest turnaround in school history. She guided MU to a 21-10 record in 1996-97, which was 13 wins better than the previous season's record of 8-20. It was the largest turnaround of any first-year head coach and third-best single-season turnaround among all NCAA Division I schools that year.

The drive and commitment to excellence Mitchell had her first year as a head coach continues to be instilled in her teams year after year. Her players don't question it; they know it and live it each day. One of the team's favorite Mitchell sayings is "we didn't come to just compete in the BIG EAST, we came to win it."

USA Basketball

The respect and admiration for the way Terri Mitchell relates to her players and her success in the BIG EAST Conference led to an opportunity with USA Basketball. During the summer of 2008, Mitchell served as an assistant coach for USA Basketball's U18 Women's National Team. Under her guidance, Team USA won the gold medal while rolling through the FIBA Americas Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina undefeated.

Marquette has also had other ties to USA Basketball during Mitchell's tenure, as Krystal Ellis was a finalist for a spot on the 2007 USA Women's Pan American Games Team.

Player Development

Mitchell believes that her personal interaction with each player not only leads to success on the court, but off it as well. Her vision for each player in her program is that they enter as girls, but leave as well-rounded, confident young women.

Under her guidance, her student-athletes have earned numerous individual accolades, for their work on the hardwood and in the classroom. Since 1996, 20 of Mitchell's players have earned all-conference honors, while two have achieved All-America status, with Krystal Ellis becoming MU's latest All-America selection following the 2006-07 season. Ellis was also the third player in program history to earn repeat first team all-conference honors. In addition, 27 players have earned spots on the league's Academic Honor Roll and three have been awarded GTE Academic All-America honors.

Service

Through her faith, compassion for others, and commitment to service, she has touched the lives of many. For example, in May of 2006 Mitchell took a mission trip to Rwanda where she spent 16 days in the impoverished African country.

In addition to her coaching duties, Mitchell is active in the community and is heavily involved with charitable events. She is an avid speaker on campus, at local schools, basketball clinics, nonprofit organizations and is actively involved in prison ministry. Through her speaking engagements, Mitchell incorporates the program's five principles and encourages her audiences to dream, believe, and live in the now. She also hosted motivational breakfasts entitled "Breakfast with Terri," for Milwaukee area business women from 2004-09.

Mitchell believes in giving back to her profession and the community by serving on several Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) committees as well as on its Executive Board as Treasurer, the State Farm Wade Trophy Committee, the Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer (MACC) Fund Board of Directors, and many other service-oriented organizations.

Service is not only a significant part of Mitchell's life, but of her team's life as well. The Golden Eagles are involved in many service projects throughout the year including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Milwaukee, Briggs & Al's Run & Walk, the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, the Kay Yow/WBCA Cancer Fund, the American Heart Association, the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, school speaking engagements and basketball clinics.

Career Overview

2008-09

During the 2008-09 campaign, MU qualified for its seventh consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree Angel Robinson, All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention selection Krystal Ellis, who set the program's all-time scoring record with 1,940 points, and BIG EAST All-Freshman Team selection Jessica Pachko, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 17-16.

Highlighting the season was a 75-65 win over No. 10/4 Notre Dame on Jan. 13, 2009 before a national television audience at the Al McGuire Center. The win marked Mitchell's first ever over a nationally ranked top-10 opponent.

2007-08

"Champions" is a word Mitchell's team speaks daily. Mitchell is adamant that one's words lead to one's destiny. It did on April 5, 2008, when the Golden Eagles marched into the Breslin Center at Michigan State and knocked off the Spartans, 81-66, to claim the Women's National Invitation Tournament Championship. It marked the fourth national title in Marquette history and the first in women's history.

Up against a bevy of talented teams - the BIG EAST sent 12 teams to post-season play - Mitchell led the youngest team in the BIG EAST Conference into battle with six freshmen and only one returning starter. The Golden Eagles fought through adversity, and won over 20 games for the third straight season. Marquette finished the season with a five-game win streak-its longest of the season-and was one of only two Division I women's college basketball teams in the nation to end the postseason with a victory. Junior Krystal Ellis was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second consecutive season and freshman phenom Angel Robinson was an all-freshman team selection. Both continued their stellar play through the team's championship run and were honored with WNIT All-Tournament Team accolades. Ellis was named tournament MVP.

Following its championship run, Marquette was honored by the City of Milwaukee and Mayor Tom Barrett as they proclaimed April 15, 2008 Marquette Women's Basketball Day. For the second consecutive year, Mitchell earned the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year honor.

The 2006-07 season was one for the history books as Mitchell guided the Golden Eagles to their best season ever, a 26-7 overall record. It was the seventh season in which her team won 20 or more games. After being picked eighth in the BIG EAST pre-season poll, Marquette started the season winning 15 of its first 16 games, and jumped into the national polls on December 4 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season.

The season for the ages included a school record 14-game win streak and being ranked in the Top 25 for the majority of the season. During that streak, Mitchell won her 200th game on Dec. 9, 2006. In BIG EAST play, the Golden Eagles finished tied for second place with Rutgers, registering a 12-4 conference record. For her efforts, Mitchell received the league's highest honor and was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year. It was Mitchell's third coach of the year honor of her career.

More honors continued to follow Mitchell at the conclusion of the 2006-07 season as she was elected to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Executive Committee as its Treasurer and tabbed the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I Women's Coach of the Year.

She was also named a Woman of Influence by the Milwaukee Business Journal in the category of "Inspiration."

Marquette made a trip back to the "big dance" behind the inside-outside combination of All-BIG EAST First Team selections Krystal Ellis and Christina Quaye, and the leadership of seniors Jasmine McCullough, Danielle Kamm and Efueko Osagie-Landry. It was the first time in program history two players were first team all-conference selections in the same year.

2005-06

In 2005-06, Marquette made a remarkable post-season run, advancing to the championship game of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Led by All-BIG EAST honorees Christina Quaye, Carolyn Kieger, and BIG EAST All-Rookie Team member Krystal Ellis, the Golden Eagles posted a 22-11 overall record, including a 9-7 record in BIG EAST play, before falling in the championship game at Kansas State.

2004-05

During the 2004-05 campaign, MU qualified for its third consecutive postseason appearance by earning a spot in the WNIT. Led by Second Team All-Conference USA honorees Carolyn Kieger and Christina Quaye, the Golden Eagles finished with an overall record of 18-12.

2003-04

In 2003-04, the team tied a school record with 22 wins and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. In the first round, playing as the ninth seed in the Mideast Region, MU defeated Old Dominion, 67-64, as Christina Quaye hit the go-ahead layup with 5.8 seconds left. In the next game, the Golden Eagles gave the nation's No. 1 ranked team, Duke, all it could handle and opened the eyes of many around the country.

The 2003-04 campaign was typical of the Terri Mitchell era. Offensively, the team was balanced, as eight different players led the team in scoring during a game over the course of the season. Games were won with defense and teamwork, as MU led Conference USA in scoring defense, yielding just 57.2 points per contest.

2002-03

Mitchell led the 2002-03 Golden Eagles to a 16-14 mark and a spot in the Women's National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the second round. That season, the team set new school records in three-point shooting and free throw shooting percentages.

2001-02

Mitchell reached the 100-victory milestone the third game of the 2001-02 season as the Golden Eagles downed Alaska-Anchorage, 88-50, in the Great Alaska Shootout. On Jan. 27, she became Marquette's all-time winningest coach in a 65-44 victory over Tulane. That season, the Golden Eagles continued to be one of the best defensive squads in the nation, holding the opposition to just 59.6 points per game. That total tied for the top spot in Conference USA and tied for 10th in the NCAA.

At the end of that season, Mitchell was elected to the Board of Directors of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, an honor in which she took great pride.

2000-01

The 2000-01 season proved to be a pivotal year in the growth of the Marquette women's basketball program. Mitchell was instrumental in carrying forward the goals of the program while providing stability, despite the graduation of three of the school's all-time leading scorers. With a young squad of five freshmen and two returning starters, the Golden Eagles picked up key victories against NCAA Tournament teams Michigan and UW - Milwaukee early on and closed out the season winning four straight before falling to C-USA Champion Tulane on a last-second shot.

1999-2000

Her 1999-2000 squad finished the season in fine fashion, winning 13 of its last 15 regular season contests, claiming the regular season C-USA championship and a berth in the NCAA Mideast regional. Guiding her squad to a 14-2 conference record, Mitchell earned her second C-USA Coach of the Year honor. That season, Marquette led Conference USA and was 10th in the nation in defense allowing only a 36.4 shooting percentage.

1998-99

Mitchell led the 1998-99 squad to a 21-8 overall mark, a 12-4 record in C-USA play and a third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. For her efforts, Mitchell was named the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Women's Basketball Coach of the Year. Marquette allowed its foes to shoot just 39.0 percent from the field and out-rebounded teams by 8.0 boards per game, a stat that topped C-USA and was sixth in the nation.

1997-98

In 1997-98, the Golden Eagles finished 22-7 overall and had a 13-3 record in Conference USA play, capturing the American Division title en route to their second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Mitchell also earned her first conference honor in her second year at the helm as she was named Conference USA Coach of the Year.

1996-97

Mitchell was named head coach on June 6, 1996. In her first season leading the Golden Eagles, Mitchell set a few precedents. She shattered the record for most wins by a Marquette first-year head coach, 21, and holds the distinction of reaching 50 wins faster than any coach in Marquette history. In addition, she became the only coach in school history to take her team to the NCAA Tournament in her first season.

Not only did she take the 1996-97 Golden Eagles to the Big Dance, but they also recorded the first NCAA Tournament win in school history.

The Early Days

Prior to becoming head coach, Mitchell was an assistant for the Golden Eagles for five seasons. She was instrumental in recruiting Marquette's 1996-97 freshman class, which was ranked 12th in the nation by the Blue Star Index. Marquette posted an 87-61 record and made three postseason appearances during Mitchell's tenure as an assistant.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Mitchell was a four-year letterwinner and team co-captain at Duquesne University. After an outstanding career with the Dukes, Mitchell graduated Cum Laude with a psychology degree in 1989. She began her coaching career serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona State during the 1989-90 season.

2009-10 Season Box Scores

Marquette 118, UW-Stout 71

EXH-1 • Oct. 31, 2009

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — The Marquette women's basketball team claimed a 118-71 exhibition win over UW-Stout Saturday afternoon at the Al McGuire Center, the first action of the season for the Golden Eagles. Freshman Sarina Simmons led all scorers with 18 points on the day.

For the game, Marquette shot 59.5 percent (47-of-79). All 10 active players chipped in points against the Blue Devils, including seven in double-digits. Simmons (19), Jocelyn Mellen (14), Lauren Thomas-Johnson (14), Janelle Harris (13), Angel Robinson (13), Jasmine Collins (13), and Georgie Jones (10) each totaled ten or more points. Robinson distributed the ball effectively registering 11 assists, while swiping four steals.

Stout opened scoring with a basket by senior Julia Hirssig, which also marked their lone lead of the game as Marquette led, 64-31 at the half. The Golden Eagles forced 18 turnovers in the first half, and 32 total.

Thomas-Johnson and Simmons led the first-half offensive effort for head coach Terri Mitchell's squad, scoring 10 points each. Marquette shot 67.6 percent in the first half, including 54.5% from three-point range. Thomas-Johnson and junior Courtney Weibel knocked down two treys each in the first half, and Robinson and junior Tatyiana McMorris added one each.

For Stout, Hirssig scored the first six points of the game for the visitors, and finished the first half with 10 points in 15 minutes of play. The Blue Devils shot 44% from the field in the first-half, including a perfect 6-for-6 from the foul line. Hirssig finished the game with 16 points, teammate Kim Stokke registered a team-high 17 points and seven assists.

Mellen pushed the Golden Eagles over the 100 point mark, scoring a second-half layup to put MU ahead 101-55. It was the first since a knee injury against Gonzaga on Nov. 28, 2008 sidelined her for the 2008-09 season.

Simmons, a Milwaukee, Wis. native, showed flashes of what to expect during her career, tallying 19 points in 21

Marquette 102, Beloit 30

EXH-2 • Nov. 10, 2009

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — Behind the strength of a 31-0 run in the middle of the first half, the Marquette University women's basketball team defeated Beloit College 102-30 in its final exhibition contest Tuesday evening at the Al McGuire Center.

The Golden Eagles were led in scoring by senior Lauren Thomas-Johnson with 19 points, leading five MU players in double-figures. All ten Golden Eagles played at least 10 minutes and scored at least four points.

Junior Angel Robinson only scored six points but recorded eight assists, six steals and four rebounds.

Freshman Sarina Simmons provided a spark for the Golden Eagles off the bench with 13 points after scoring 18 in the team's exhibition opener against UW-Stout on Oct. 31.

In the second half, Marquette allowed Beloit to score only two points in the final 13 minutes of the contest, closing the game on a 30-2 run, with four treys from junior Tatyiana McMorris in that stretch. McMorris ended the game with 17 points, including a career-high five three-pointers.

Prior to the Marquette run to close out the game, Beloit recorded an 8-0 run of its own to shorten the Golden Eagles lead to 72-28.

The Buccaneers started the game with a layup by Mary Parker to take a 2-0 advantage, for their last lead of the contest.

Back-to-back three-point baskets by Marquette junior Courtney Weibel started a 31-0 Marquette run which occurred over the span of seven minutes on the game clock.

Following a Beloit basket at the 7:12 mark of the first half, the Golden Eagles started another run, scoring 13 in a row, with the last two points coming off a break-away layup by Simmons.

Simmons played nine minutes in the first half, scoring eight points and grabbing five rebounds. She also recorded four steals and had a thunderous block at the top of the key which led to an uncontested layup, giving MU a 52-11 advantage.

In the first half, the Golden Eagles forced 24 Buccaneer turnovers, including 10 from Sarah Starina. In addition to Simmons' four steals in the first, Robinson also got into the action, swiping four of her own in the opening 20 minutes.

Amanda Moore led the Buccaneers with 14 points, including four baskets from three-point range.

Marquette 74, St. Francis 38

Game 1 • Nov. 14, 2009

Al McGuire Center • Milwaukee, Wis.

MILWAUKEE — The Marquette University women's basketball team defeated St. Francis (Pa.) 74-38 Saturday afternoon at the Al McGuire Center.

Senior Lauren Thomas-Johnson led the Golden Eagles (1-0) with 14 points, while Jocelyn Mellen added 10 of her own. MU also received solid production from the rest of its roster, as every player who saw action contributed at least four points.

Junior Angel Robinson had a solid all-around game, scoring eight points and grabbing nine rebounds, while dishing out five assists. Robinson also had four steals.

The 38 points allowed is the lowest point total MU has given up since it beat Toledo 67-28 on Nov. 24, 2004.

After allowing the Red Flash to open the second half with a basket, MU reeled off 16 of the next 18 points, including 12 straight, to take a 52-24 lead, and put the game out of reach. In the second half, MU connected on 14-of-27 from the floor and outscored St. Francis 40-19.

The Red Flash (0-1) shot 6-of-31 (19.4 percent) in the second half to seal its fate, while three of those field goals came in the last two minutes of the game. Marquette took its first lead of the contest at 12-10 in the midst of a 9-0 run for the Golden Eagles. The Red Flash held its last lead of the contest at 10-8.

Thomas-Johnson scored all seven of her first half points on three-straight possessions pushing the MU lead to 26-14.

A Courtney Weibel 3-pointer from the right corner with three seconds remaining in the first half upped the MU advantage to 34-19 at the half.

For the contest, MU outscored St. Francis 44-16 in the paint. Britney Hodges led St. Francis with eight points.
