President

REV. ROBERT A. WILD, S.J.

Robert A. Wild, S.J., is the 22nd president of Marquette University. He began his duties as chief executive on June 17, 1996.

Father Wild is building on Marquette's core strengths: an academically rigorous, values-centered curriculum; solid, practical preparation for work in a world of increasing complexity and diversity; formation for life of students as ethical and informed leaders in their religious, cultural, professional and civic communities; and graduating women and men who will dedicate their lives to the service of others.

Under his leadership, the university in 2000 embraced a statement of shared vision for the future:

"Our vision is to provide a Catholic, Jesuit education that is genuinely transformational so that our students graduate not simply better educated but better people, and to do so with such excellence that when asked to name the three or four best Catholic universities in America, people will include Marquette as a matter of course."

Marquette has established clear, measurable goals and specific strategies to achieve this long-term vision. Under Father Wild's leadership, the university has improved academic quality, increased and stabilized enrollment and enhanced partnerships with the City of Milwaukee and community groups.

In 2005 Marquette completed the most successful comprehensive campaign in the history of the university raising a total of $357 million. Marquette is committed to updating academic facilities for students in the 21st century: a new School of Dentistry opened in 2002, the John P. Raynor, S.J., Library was dedicated in 2003, and the Al McGuire Center, a practice facility for student-athletes, opened in 2004.

Father Wild and his Marquette colleagues remain committed to providing students with a Catholic, Jesuit education in an atmosphere of care and faith.

Immediately prior to assuming the Marquette presidency, from 1992 to 1996 Father Wild served as president of the Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge, Mass., a graduate school which trains clergy and laity for leadership roles in the Catholic Church.

From 1985 to 1991 he served as provincial superior of the Chicago Province of the Society of Jesus, directing the activities of Jesuits in northern Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and southwestern Ohio.

A biblical scholar and author of two books and numerous scholarly articles, Father Wild taught theology at Marquette from 1975 to 1984. He has been a member of the university's Board of Trustees since 1990.

Father Wild is a native of Chicago. He holds a doctoral degree in New Testament and Christian origins from Harvard University, a master's degree in classical languages, a bachelor's degree in Latin from Loyola University Chicago, and a licentiate in theology from the Jesuit School of Theology in Chicago.

He has held visiting professorships at Loyola University Chicago and the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome. Father Wild began his teaching career at St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati, where he taught Latin, Greek and speech and debate from 1964 to 1967. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1957 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1970.

Father Wild is a member of the boards of the University of Detroit Mercy, Saint Joseph's University, the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities, the Big East Conference, the Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities (past board chair), the Greater Milwaukee Committee and the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce.

Provost DR. JOHN J. PAULY

Dr. John J. Pauly, is the provost of Marquette University. Reporting to the president, Dr. Pauly is responsible for academic affairs and institutional planning. As Provost he provides intellectual vision and leadership for the 10 academic deans and the dean of libraries.

Prior to assuming the role of provost, Dr. Pauly was the dean of the J. William and Mary Diederich College of Communication from 2006 to 2008.

Pauly specializes in the history and sociology of the mass media, the theory and practice of literary journalism, and cultural approaches to communication research. He has worked previously at East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina (1978-79); Fordham University in New York City (1979-81); the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1981-86); the University of Tulsa in Oklahoma (1986-93); and Saint Louis University in Missouri (1993-2006). He served as chair of the communication department at Saint Louis for nine years, and held a secondary appointment as professor of American Studies for five years.

Pauly received a bachelor of science in journalism with honors in 1972, a master of science in journalism in 1974, and a Ph.D. in communication in 1979, all from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Pauly has published more than 80 scholarly journal articles, book chapters, reviews and essays, and made numerous presentations in his fields of interest to both academic and professional organizations. He is a member of the editorial board of Journalism: Theory, Practice and Criticism and was formerly a board member of Critical Studies in Mass Communication and Journalism Monographs.

He edited the quarterly journal of the American Journalism Historians Association from 1989 to 1993. Pauly has also held several offices within the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, most recently on its research committee.

While at Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Pauly was a fellow at the Center for Twentieth Century Studies at UWM and a recipient of a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship for College Teachers. In 2002 and 2006, the Student Government Association at Saint Louis honored him for excellence in teaching.

In addition to his teaching and scholarship, Pauly has served as a writing skills consultant to private businesses, a technical writer and editor for the Construction Engineering Research Laboratory of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Champaign, and a drama reviewer for The Courier in Urbana.

Senior Vice President GREGORY KLIEBHAN

Greg Kliebhan is the senior vice president of Marquette University. Reporting to the president, Kliebhan is responsible for top university support functions, which includes: Administration, Finance, General Counsel, Intercollegiate Athletics, Marketing and Communication, Public Affairs, Student Affairs and University Advancement.

Kliebhan has strong Marquette University legacy roots and a deep family allegiance. His father, wife Linda, daughters Kelly and Katy, brother, sister and brother-in-law are all Marquette alumni.

Kliebhan, himself, is a product of a Marquette education, having earned his undergraduate degree in 1973 from the College of Liberal Arts (now Arts and Sciences). He went on to earn his masters of business administration at the University of Illinois at Urbana — Champaign. He was very pleased to return to Marquette in 1976 to join the university's administrative team as a management analyst.

Since that time, Kliebhan has assumed increasing responsibility for university administration, finance and planning, and has held more than a dozen positions including key strategic positions such as budget director, director of budget and institutional research, vice president for planning, vice president for administration, interim vice president for university advancement, corporate secretary, corporate treasurer and now senior vice president and corporate vice president.

Passion for Marquette University and putting students first have characterized Kliebhan's career at Marquette. His personal philosophy reads in part:

"Together, we need to convince all of our staff that their work for students is noble, enriching, and absolutely vital to Marquette University's success – whatever position they might hold and however far from daily contact with students it might be."

Kliebhan and his wife Linda, who graduated from Marquette in 1974 as a physical therapist, bring a similar passion to volunteer activities. As a couple, they served as president of Kelly and Katy's high school parents association at Divine Savior/Holy Angels. Greg also was active in the family's parish school, Sts. Cecilia and James School, including serving as coach of the girls' basketball team for eight years. He also coached grade school and high school AAU basketball teams for many years.

In addition to his role as Marquette's corporate vice president, Kliebhan has served on the boards of a number of community organizations, including the Bridging the Gap Learning Center.

Athletic Director

STEVE COTTINGHAM

A member of the Marquette University family for more than a decade, Steve Cottingham has played an intricate role in the development of the Intercollegiate Athletics program at the University.

Cottingham was named Director of Athletics on Feb. 21, 2008 after serving as the department's interim director since January 2007.

As Director of Athletics, Cottingham oversees Marquette's 14 intercollegiate sports and coaching staffs. He also supervises the management of the Intercollegiate Athletics team that handles the administrative functions of the department including fiscal operations, media relations, facilities, fundraising, ticket sales and marketing.

During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he has negotiated contracts of the MU coaching staff and helped complete the current deal with the Bradley Center (home of Marquette men's basketball). Cottingham's efforts in the University's move to the BIG EAST Conference were vital and helped elevate the program's profile on a national level. He is a member of the Athletic Board and serves on its equity committee.

The mission of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to strive for excellence in academics, athletics, leadership and service to others in the Jesuit tradition. Marquette student-athletes, teams and coaches across the broad spectrum of the program continue to achieve academic, athletic, personal and professional prominence at the conference, regional and national levels.

"We are very proud of the way our coaches and student-athletes represent Marquette," Cottingham said. "Marquette hopes its students and alumni will 'Be the Difference' in their communities and the world. Our student-athletes do that every day as students, competitors and leaders for others."

Previously, Cottingham served as Associate Senior Vice President. In that role, Cottingham was part of the University's administrative leadership team and a member of the University Leadership Council. He served in the Senior Vice President's office since 2003, after working the previous eight years as associate general counsel.

Cottingham joined the University's Office of the General Counsel in July 1995. Previously he was in private practice, specializing in corporate transactions, including the buying and selling of businesses, and securities law.

He earned his undergraduate degree at UW-Madison in 1983 and received his law degree from George Washington University in 1987.

A resident of Mequon, Cottingham and his wife, Lisa, have one daughter (Taira, 11).

Athletics Administration

MIKE BROEKER
Deputy Athletic Director

Mike Broeker is in his seventh year at Marquette and his third as Deputy Athletic Director after serving as an associate athletic director for two years.

In his capacity, Broeker oversees several areas, including marketing, media relations, licensing and merchandising (Spirit Shop), Nelligan Sports Marketing and ticket operations. He is the Chief Operating Officer responsible for management of Marquette's 14-sports NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics program. He is also the sport administrator for men's basketball.

Broeker joined the Marquette Athletics staff in November 2003 as Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations, after nearly four years as a member of the basketball communications group at the NBA.

While at the NBA, he worked to generate awareness and publicity for the league, its executive staff, events and initiatives and served as the primary contact for local and national electronic media outlets.

Prior to working with the NBA, Broeker spent two years working in the communications group for the Women's Tennis Association (WTA). He served as a primary on-site media contact for events including Wimbledon, the Australian Open, the U.S. Open, and the French Open.

A graduate of Siena College, Broeker earned a bachelor of arts in English in 1997 and worked as a Marketing/Sports Information Assistant until 1998.

Broeker and his wife, Anne, have two sons, Michael born in 2006 and Daniel born in 2008.

SARAH BOBERT
Senior Associate A.D.
Internal Operations/SWA

Sarah Bobert is in her 10th year on the Marquette athletics staff and oversees the internal operations of the Athletic Department.

In her position supervising internal operations, she is responsible for budget development and management, financial processing and reporting, oversight of facility management, all departmental human resources elements and other internal matters. She also oversees sports medicine, academic services and strength and conditioning.

Bobert's duties as related to serving as SWA include managing gender equity compliance, student-athlete welfare and working with the Student-Athlete Advisory Council.

Bobert is also the sport administrator for women's basketball and women's soccer.

Prior to joining the staff in October of 2000, Bobert worked at the NCAA. She served the NCAA since 1989 in a number of business related areas including acting as the Business Services Manager, Accounting Manager, and Senior Accountant.

Bobert earned her bachelor's degree in business administration from Wis.-Stout in 1989. She and her husband, Clark, have two children, Bailee and Cody.

TOM FORD
Associate A.D. Academic Support & Student Programs

Tom Ford is in his 20th year on the Marquette athletics staff and he oversees the academic support center (also known as "The Eagles Nest") at the Al McGuire Center.

The academic support center offers programs designed to meet the academic needs of student-athletes, including an extensive freshmen orientation program, academic advising, tutoring, writing assistance, organized study sessions, computer lab and the design and implementation of individual study plans.

Prior to coming to Marquette, Ford served as an advisor/mentor at Wis.-Parkside. From 1982-87, he was the assistant director for the Educational Opportunity Program at the New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Ford graduated from Wis.-Parkside with a bachelor's degree in English in 1972 and received his Master's in Education in Guidance and Counseling from Carthage College in 1999.

Ford and his wife, Susan, have two children, Jesse and Casey, both who currently attend Marquette University.

DANIELLE JOSSETI
Associate A.D./Compliance

Danielle Josseti is in her eighth year on the Marquette athletics staff and oversees Marquette's student-athletes, athletics staff and boosters to ensure they follow NCAA guidelines.

In her role with the Golden Eagles, she serves as the sport administrator for volleyball and is also a member of the BIG EAST Tennis Committee.

She serves as an NCAA Peer Reviewer for Athletic Certification and is also a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators and National Association for Athletics Compliance.

Prior to Marquette, Josseti worked at Creighton University as a Compliance Coordinator and External Operations Assistant. From 1997 until 2001, she served a dual role as assistant softball coach and assistant compliance coordinator.

A member of the Creighton softball team from 1995-1997, Josseti was a 1995 Academic All-Conference Team honorable mention selection. She still ranks among the top 10 in the program's record book in both single-season and career steals.

Josseti earned a bachelor of arts in journalism from Creighton in 1997. Josseti resides in New Berlin, Wis. with her husband, Jake, and daughters Payton and Lauren.

Athletics Administration

PAUL McINERNY, Ph.D.
Chief Advancement Officer

Dr. Paul McInerny serves as Chief Athletic Advancement Officer at Marquette University. McInerny is responsible for major gifts, endowments, fund raising and special projects for inter-collegiate athletics. He joined the department in March 2005 from Dominican High School, where he served as president since 1995.

An alumnus of Marquette, McInerny earned two degrees from the University, a bachelor of arts in 1972 and a Ph.D. in education in 1989. He also holds a master's in journalism from Southern Illinois University. Following a successful two-year journalism career in North Dakota, he returned to Marquette in 1976 as an administrator serving in several capacities before his tenure at Dominican.

As an undergraduate, McInerny was a member of Marquette's soccer team and also earned membership in Phi Gamma Mu, the national social studies academic honor society. He served on the M Club board of directors from 1985 to 2005 including serving as its representative to the Marquette University Alumni Association national board. In 1996, he was awarded the Hy Popuch Award for service to Marquette athletics.

McInerny has also taught at the college level and published in several academic journals. He and his wife Carol, also a Marquette graduate, have two children, Colleen and Kevin who attend Catholic Memorial High School.

JIM NASIOPULOS
Associate A.D. Facilities & Event Management

Jim Nasiopulos is in his 28th year at Marquette and 17th in charge of facilities and events.

Prior to his current position, Nasiopulos served as Director of the Helfaer Recreation Center and Tennis Stadium from 1982 to 1993.

Nasiopulos was the Tournament Manager for the NCAA Basketball Tournament First and Second Rounds at the Bradley Center in 1999 and 2004. He also served as Tournament Manager when Marquette played host to the 2002 NCAA Women's Basketball Midwest Regional at the U.S. Cellular Arena. Nasiopulos was the golf coach at Marquette from 1986-1992.

Nasiopulos received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois-Chicago in 1969, and earned his master's degree in physical education in 1972 from the University of Illinois.

Nasiopulos and his wife, Phyllis, have two children, Kristen, a 1997 Marquette graduate and Michael, a 2000 Marquette graduate.

SCOTT KUYKENDALL
Associate A.D./Media Relations

Scott Kuykendall, Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, is in his third season at Marquette.

Kuykendall oversees the publicity efforts for each of the athletic department's 14 NCAA Division I programs, while serving as the primary contact for men's basketball and men's tennis teams.

A native of New Berlin, Wis., Kuykendall spent two years as an assistant sports information director at the University of South Florida. While in Tampa, he worked as the men's basketball contact while also supervising the athletic departments official web site.

Prior to USF, he spent six years at Western Michigan University. His duties included serving as the primary contact for seven sports, including men's basketball and men's and women's soccer.

A 1997 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Platteville, Kuykendall also completed one-year internships at the University of Cincinnati and Mississippi State University.

Welcome to

MILWAUKEE

Welcome to Southeastern Wisconsin, the home of beautiful scenery and friendly people. Milwaukee has been nicknamed "A Great Place on a Great Lake," a name that really applies to the entire region, from Ozaukee County south to the Illinois state line and from Lake Michigan west to the glacial hills of Waukesha and Washington counties.

Nestled on the western shores of Lake Michigan, this region is the hidden jewel of the Upper Midwest. It blends small town ambiance and big city excitement into a way of living that quickly captures the hearts of newcomers, many of whom never want to move away. Southeastern Wisconsin offers a wealth of business and social opportunities. Its diversified economy is built on a firm foundation of industrial, high-tech and service jobs. The area's rich ethnic heritage has spawned a variety of colorful events and award-winning restaurants. But this is no news to people who live here. Southeastern Wisconsin has been a great home town since Native Americans arrived hundreds of years ago.

Media Information

Credentials

Credentials are not needed for Marquette soccer games, but working media should make the Marquette Media Relations Office aware of an intention to cover a game at least 24 hours in advance to be placed on a pass list. The media entrance is through the main gate, located on the west side of Valley Fields at 16th and Canal Streets.

Parking

Parking is available on the west side of Valley Fields after 5 p.m. on business days and all day on weekends. The parking area is a public facility and is on a first-come, first-served basis. No reserved spots will be made available for media.

Photographers

Still and video photographers are advised to stay at least five feet off the boundary lines. All photographers are not allowed to shoot from behind the goal or the area that includes the team benches and the scorer's table.

Postgame

Head coaches and select players for both teams will be made available to the media following a 10 minute cooling off period. Please see Assistant Media Relations Director Amy Ufnowski to request an interview. Interviews will take place on the field in front of each team's bench following the cooling off period.

Game Services

The Marquette Athletics Media Relations Office will provide game programs, notes, statistics and media guides for both teams prior to each home game. An NCAA box score will be made available at halftime and post game.

Internet

A wireless internet connection is not available at the scorer's table. Please plan accordingly. Any questions should be directed to Amy Ufnowski, Assistant Director of Media Relations.

GoMarquette.com

Marquette University's athletic website is designed and hosted by CBS College Sports Online. Located at www.gomarquette.com, the site contains updated game notes, statistics, box scores and other helpful information related to Marquette soccer. A PDF version of the 2009 media guide is also available on-line.

Mailing Address

The Athletics Media Relations Office is located on the second floor of the Al McGuire Center and the mailing address is:

Amy Ufnowski

Assistant Director, Media Relations

Handling the media relations duties for the Marquette women's soccer team is Amy Ufnowski. She also handles public relations duties for the women's basketball team. In 2007, she spearheaded the campaign to promote Krystal Ellis for All-American.

Ufnowski enters her fifth year with Marquette's media relations office. Prior to her appointment at Marquette, she served in the University of Denver's athletic media relations staff.

Ufnowski also served a five-month internship for USA Wrestling in Colorado Springs, Colo., where she was the primary media contact for the Iraqi wrestlers while they trained at the Olympic Training Center. Ufnowski also worked with the Milwaukee Wave/Wave United Soccer Organization in 2003-04 where she worked in both public and community relations, as well as marketing. She gained experience in game operations, in addition to writing for the Major Indoor Soccer League monthly publication "Goal Indoor."

Ufnowski earned a Bachelor of Science in sports management in May 2004 from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.
