MU Closes Out Five-Game Homestand

The Marquette women's soccer team will host No. 24/13 Connecticut Friday at 7 p.m. at Valley Fields before closing out its regular season home schedule against Providence Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. The game against Connecticut is Senior Night, highlighting the accomplishments of Brittany Bares, Michelle Compty, Allison McBride, Katie Miller, Becky Ryan, Anna Sawicki, Chelsey Turner and Kelly Wepking. The eight seniors will be honored in a pre-game ceremony.

Marquette Quickhits

- Marquette's game against No. 13/13 Rutgers marked the third ranked opponent the Golden Eagles have faced this season. MU is 1-2 against ranked foes this season.
- The three goals, all in the first half, Marquette scored against Seton Hall matched a season-best total against Green Bay (Sept. 10), and brings MU's goal total to 17.
- Four different Golden Eagles registered goals, including senior Kelly Wepking and freshman Ashley Stemmeler who each scored their first goals of the season. 12 different Golden Eagles have now scored at least one goal this season.
- Junior defender Lauren Thut involved herself in a pair of goals with two assists, including the game-winning helper, against Seton Hall. Thut is third on the team with five points on one goal and three assists for the season.
- Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla, who has played in every minute of every match this season notched a career-best eighth shutout with the 3-0 win over Seton Hall. Kulla has 14 for her career to stand tied for fourth on MU's all-time shutouts list. Kulla has allowed just eight goals this season.
- Head coach Markus Roeders is closing in on his 200th win. Roeders is 195-79-29 all-time in 14 seasons at Marquette.

A Look at Connecticut

No. 24/13 Connecticut (9-3-0, 4-1-0 BIG EAST) stands alone in first place in the American Division of the BIG EAST, with its lone loss to St. John's in late September. Led by the 15 points apiece of freshman Linda Ruutu and sophomore Melissa Busque, head coach Len Tsantiris's Huskies have allowed 10 goals this season, only two in league play. The Golden Eagles are 2-2 all-time against Connecticut, claiming the most recent decision with a 1-0 victory last season.

Miller, Kulla Honored by the BIG EAST

The Marquette women's soccer team picked up two BIG EAST Conference weekly honors, announced Sept. 14, as freshman defender Ally Miller was named BIG EAST Rookie of the Week and sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla was named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll.

Miller, the only freshman to start in each game this season at defender, helped the Golden Eagles to wins over Green Bay (3-0) and No. 23 Minnesota (1-0). Miller played 163 minutes over the two games, and helped the Golden Eagles' defense to yield just 10 shots. It is the first BIG EAST honor for Miller of her career.

Kulla, who has played every minute of every match this season, posted two shutout victories this week including MU's first win over a ranked opponent, No. 23 Minnesota, 1-0. Kulla totaled five saves while directing the defense, and faced 10 shots over two games, only five on goal.

Second-Half Barrage Leads Golden Eagles to Victory

A first-half goal from junior Stephanie Vases, and two second-half strikes from senior Brittany Bares and sophomore Danielle Martens led the Marquette women's soccer team to a 3-0 shutout of Green Bay Sept. 10 at Valley Fields. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 4-2 overall and send the Phoenix home with their third consecutive loss to stand 1-4 overall. The Golden Eagles' offense came out in full force out shooting the Phoenix 26-1, including 11 attempts on goal. Marquette was also awarded nine corner kicks in the win.

Season Firsts

Each goal and assist registered in Thursday's 3-0 shutout of Green Bay were season firsts for each respective player. Junior Stephanie Vases registered her first career goal, while Brittany Bares and Danielle Martens' strikes were their first of the season. Allison McBride, Kerry McBride and Ashley Stemmeler each recorded their first assists of the season.

Season Highs

The nine total points and three goals scored by the Golden Eagles in the win over Green Bay were season highs. The 26 shots registered including 11 on goal against the Phoenix were also season highs. Marquette was awarded a season-high 11 corner kicks in the 3-0 win over Green Bay.

Secret Weapons

It's not always the offense that basks in the limelight of scoring, MU's defense has proved it is more than capable to do the same. Against Green Bay, three MU defenders tallied a point. Stephanie Vases scored the Golden Eagles game-winning goal, while defenders Allison McBride and Kerry McBride each tallied an assist. Overall, five members of MU's defensive corps have registered a point.

Streak Spoilers

Behind two first-half goals from seniors Michelle Compy and Becky Ryan, the Marquette women's soccer team ended UW-Milwaukee's 24-game home unbeaten streak with a 2-0 shutout of the Panthers Sept. 3 at Englemann Field. It was the first win for Marquette at Englemann Field since 2001.

Spread the Wealth

The Golden Eagles have proved that at any given time anyone can step up and score, as 12 different MU players have tallied a goal.

Honor Roll

Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla was named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll Monday following her stellar effort in a 1-1 week for the Marquette women's soccer team.

Kulla earned her third shutout of the season Thursday, Sept. 3 in a 2-0 defeat at UW-Milwaukee, which ended the Panthers' 24-game home unbeaten streak, and allowed just one goal against No. 1 North Carolina. She totaled six saves

Sister Act

Since family is one of the cornerstone principles of the women's soccer team, it is only fitting that team has multiple sets of sisters on the team. Marquette is the only team in the league to have three sets of sisters on its roster. The only other team in the league with at least one set of sisters is DePaul (Dominique (Sr.) and Janina (Jr.) Locascio).

Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. It honors the attributes of senior student-athletes in four areas: classroom, community, character and competition.

From the list of 30 candidates, it will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot. Lowe's, an official corporate partner of the NCAA, will announce the Senior CLASS Award winner during the 2009 NCAA Women's College Cup championship in early December.

Golden Eagles Picked to Finish Third in the BIG EAST

The Marquette women's soccer team was selected to finish third in the American Division in the 2009 BIG EAST preseason women's soccer poll announced by conference officials. The votes were cast by the league's 16 head coaches, who were not permitted to vote for their own team or players.

Notre Dame and West Virginia were tabbed as the favorites as the Irish received all 15 first-place votes and were picked to win the National Division, while the Mountaineers received 13 first-place votes and were picked to win the American Division. Both programs also won their respective divisions last year. Marquette picked up 95 points - the fifth highest total behind Notre Dame, West Virginia, Connecticut and Rutgers. The Golden Eagles capped the 2008 campaign with an 11-8-3 overall record, 6-3-2 in BIG EAST play, and earned their seventh NCAA Tournament berth. Marquette finished second in the American Division standings and advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament Semifinals for the third time in program history.

Plentiful Playing Time

Playing time has been plentiful this season as no fewer than 20 Golden Eagles have seen action.

Home Sweet Home

Protecting their home pitch is something the Golden Eagles do not take lightly, and it shows as Marquette is an impressive 115-33-12 all-time at Valley Fields. MU has lost just eight games on its home turf over the last four seasons.

Mature Offense

For the 2009 season, Marquette welcomed back all but one goal scorer from last season, Katie Kelly (1g, 3a -- 5pts), and returned 91.9 percent of its scoring this season.

Pepperdine 2, Marquette 1 • OT

Aug. 23 • Malibu, Calif • (0-1-0)

MALIBU, Calif. – The Marquette women's soccer team (0-1) couldn't hold on to an early 1-0 lead and fell in overtime, 2-1, at Pepperdine (1-0) Sunday afternoon in Malibu, Calif.

"Today was a disappointing result and performance," said head coach Markus Roeders. "Give Pepperdine credit for making a comeback, but we know our team is not happy with how we performed throughout the game today. Our quick start that resulted in a goal was outstanding, but we lacked consistency throughout. We worked hard without getting into a flow or taking advantage of what we created. Our team is better than this and I am certain we will rebound. They have shown some great soccer over the past few weeks, so now we will regroup and get ready for next weekend. As we always say, a season is a marathon and despite the start, we can still win it."

Sophomore Lindsey Page was credited with MU's lone goal early in the first half, while Michelle Spacciapoli and Sophia Medina each scored for the Waves.

The Golden Eagles launched eight more shots, two on goal, before the Waves tallied the equalizer in 75th minute when Spacciapoli sent her shot to the far upper corner out of reach for Marquette goalkeeper Natalie Kulla.

Following the game-tying strike Marquette furiously tried to decide the game in regulation, but was unable to find the back of the net. Senior Becky Ryan had a nice opportunity in the 83rd minute, but her shot was blocked, while sophomore Danielle Martens' and freshman Ally Miller's attempts went wide.

Seven minutes and 46 seconds into overtime (97:46), Medina unassisted strike in side the box was all the Waves needed to earn their first win of the season. Marquette was unable to generate its offense with junior Rosie Malone-Povolny tallying MU's only shot attempt, which went wide in the 97th minute.

For the game, Pepperdine outshot Marquette 17-13, including an 8-5 shots on goal differential. Kulla made six stops, while Barker tallied four saves.

Aug. 28 • Valley Fields • (1-1-0)

The Marquette women's soccer team shut out Rice, 1-0, Friday night at Valley Fields marking its first home win of the 2009 campaign. Sophomore Rachael Sloan scored the Golden Eagles' lone goal in the 51st minute to help MU improve to 1-1-0 overall.

The Golden Eagles started off the first half with a spark firing two shots on goal within the first three minutes but Rice's keeper, Meghan Erkel, was able to thwart Marquette's attacks, coming up with two saves. Marquette ended the half with ample opportunities taking a total of five shots, but the Golden Eagles were unable to find the back of the net. Marquette's luck quickly turned early in the second half in the 51st minute when Sloan capitalized on a forward pass from junior Ashley Bares, collecting the ball at the top of the box before netting her first goal of the season, second of her career at Marquette.

After the lead was secured the Golden Eagle offense continued to create chances, firing an additional eight shots and earning three corner kicks before the final whistle blew.

For the game, Marquette outshot the Owls 15-4 and placed a total of six shots on goal, three of which were taken by Sloan. Marquette keeper, Natalie Kulla stopped three shots, while Meghan Erkel ended the night with five saves.

Aug. 30 • Valley Fields • (2-1-0)

MILWAUKEE - The Golden Eagles finished out the MKE cup undefeated after beating the Wolverines of the University of Michigan 1-0 at Valley Fields on Sunday afternoon. Lindsey Page netted Marquette's lone goal during the 83rd minute of the action.

Marquette looked dominant, controlling the pace of play and spending the majority of the game on Michigan's end.

The Golden Eagles had their share of offensive opportunities during the first half including a drive by forward Rachael Sloan during the 13th minute. Sloan penetrated the defense and fired off a shot from 18 yards out, but the blast traveled just wide of the net.

Marquette got another chance with seven minutes left in the first half when forward Ashley Bares fed the ball to Kelly Wepking who launched a shot mid net. Michigan keeper, Haley Kopmeyer, was able to come up with the save.

The Golden Eagles finished the half scoreless but their control was apparent, as Marquette outshot Michigan 12-1.

The first two-minutes of the second half were marked by ample opportunities for the Golden Eagles' offense to put one on the board. Marquette earned two corner kicks during the 46th minute of play and Sloan capitalized on the scramble following the second restart by putting a head on the ball. Kopmeyer was able to get her hands on the shot, denying Marquette their first goal of the game, Marquette found the back of the net with just over six minutes left in regulation. Junior Lauren Thut crossed the ball to the far post where Page buried the ball in the back of the goal with a flick of her head, earning her second goal of the season.

On the game, the Golden Eagles outshot the Wolverines 23-3.

Sophomores Page and Sloan, both of whom scored the winning goals during tournament play, and senior Katie Miller were named to the MKE Cup All-Tournament Team following their performance in the weekend's competition.

Sept. 3 • Englemann Field • (3-1-0)

MILWAUKEE - Behind two first-half goals from seniors Michelle Compy and Becky Ryan, the Marquette women's soccer team ended UW-Milwaukee's 24-game home unbeaten streak with a 2-0 shutout of the Panthers Thursday night at Englemann Field. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 3-1 overall. It is the first win for Marquette at Englemann Field since 2001.

"Our entire team really worked hard to get this victory. I am really proud of them," said head coach Markus Roeders. "We were very efficient in the first half in our play and the opportunities that we created and the way we finished chances. In the second half, we knew whom we were playing against. They came out extremely strong, but we made life extremely difficult for them. We are happy to walk away tonight with a shutout. It is a great night for us. For us to come out here, play the way we did and execute, we just want to get better and in some ways we did tonight."

Marquetry scored its first goal in the 12th minute. The possession started with a Becky Ryan carrying the ball in UWM near the top of the penalty box before it before dishing it off to Brittany Bares. Bares raced to the end line and sent a cross in front of the goal mouth where Compy was positioned far post and knocked it in past Panther keeper Jamie Forbes.

"Brittany served a great ball in and I think Compy has been waiting for this for a long time. She is a senior and for her to have the game winner, she stepped up. She snuck in far post and tucked it away. That is the job she is supposed to do," said Roeders.

Marquette made it 2-0 about 18 minutes later at the 30:35 mark. Sloan, who on her previous possession wound up with a break away but couldn't convert the opportunity, beat two UWM defenders to control the ball and found Becky Ryan 16 yards in front of the goal. Ryan then took one step and rolled the ball through the Panthers' defense where it bounced off the far post and in.

Marquette outshot the Panthers, 9-4, in the first half, including 4-1 on goal. Kulla's lone save of the first came following a UWM corner that bounced around the middle and Kreuser's shot from five yards out was swallowed by the sophomore keeper.

The Golden Eagles continued its aggressive attack in the early in the second half, but Wis.-Milwaukee also was able to turn it on firing off 15 shots in the final 45-minute stanza.

Marquette had a chance to make it a three-goal lead when Ashley Bares headed it to Danielle Martens who then got taken down in the box resulting in a penalty kick. However, Forbes guessed right and dove to stop Martens shot.

Marquette's backline stayed strong throughout the game especially during the Panthers attempted comeback over the final 37 minutes where they launched 13 shots, including four in the final 2:30 of the game.

"Our defense has stepped up," said Roeders. It's not just those four in the back, Katie Miller, Ally Miller, Lauren Thut and Ally McBride, Natalie Kulla is back there in goal and organizes really well. If she has to come up big, we can rely on her to do so. It is a team effort, defending is a team effort. In the second half, Milwaukee came at us very strong. We lost our flow a little bit, we had to defend a little more and we chased the ball. They are a good team."

Sept. 6 • Alumni Stadium (Notre Dame, Ind.) • (3-2-0)

NOTRE DAME, Ind. - Despite an all-around valiant effort by the Marquette women's soccer team, No. 1/1/1 North Carolina scored a second-half goal and snuck away with 1-0 win Sunday afternoon at the Inn at St. Mary's Classic hosted by Notre Dame. The loss snaps MU's three-game win streak as the Golden Eagles stand 3-2-0 overall.

North Carolina won the tournament and Marquette finished second. UNC finished 2-0, while Marquette and host Notre Dame each went 1-1. Senior Michelle Comply and sophomores Natalie Kulla and Rachael Sloan were named to the all-tournament team. Kulla was also named the tournament's most valuable goalkeeper.

"We battle Carolina toe to toe today and put forth a great effort," said head coach Markus Roeders. "The key was an aggressive mindset and staying organized. It took an outstanding shot to beat us and Carolina has many special players who are capable of doing so. We learned and got better today, and I am proud of our squad how we battled. Losing is no fun and the pain we feel will be a motivator going into future matches. Defensively, we played as a unit and everybody did their part from the goalkeeper all the way to the forwards. We created some opportunities and I am proud how the ladies executed the game plan."

Despite outshooting MU, 21-6, the Tar Heels only put five shots on goal. Natalie Kulla, with a sound defense in front of her, was credited with four saves.

The Golden Eagles and Tar Heels battled hard to a scoreless first half. The Golden Eagles had a quality attempt to get on the board in the 22nd minute, but UNC keeper Ashlyn Harris saved senior Becky Ryan's shot.

Alyssa Rich gave UNC its lone goal of the game at the 66:15 mark. Rich launched her shot from 18-yards out to the upper right corner out of reach for Kulla.

Marquette continued with its attacking mindset and played with a sense of urgency for the remainder of the second half.

"Our midfield and forwards were relentless on both ends of the field. Carolina is the No. 1 team in the nation for a reason, but we showed that we have an excellent squad. I am excited for what the future holds for us. It was total team effort for us and I am proud of every player on our squad for their contribution today," said Roeders.

Sept. 10 • Valley Fields • (4-2-0)

MILWAUKEE - A first-half goal from junior Stephanie Vasos, and two second-half strikes from senior Brittany Bares and sophomore Danielle Martens led the Marquette women's soccer team to a 3-0 shutout of Green Bay Thursday night at Valley Fields. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 4-2 overall and send the Phoenix home with their third consecutive loss to stand 1-4 overall.

"We are happy with the win. It wasn't easy though. We had to really try to put our game on to them and break them down," said head coach Markus Roeders. "We were able to build on our attack in the second half. It was more precise and we had more precision with every chance we had. I'm glad we were able to score those extra goals because I do think we created the opportunities. It was a good result for us and I give our team a lot of credit."

The Golden Eagles' offense came out in full force out shooting the Phoenix 26-1, including 11 attempts on goal. Green Bay's goalkeeping duo of Maddie Drusch and Jennifer Sturchio denied Marquette eight times, knocking down five and three shots, respectively. MU keeper Natalie Kulla had a relatively easy night in net stopping GB's lone shot attempt in the first half.

Marquette pulled ahead, 1-0, during the 42nd minute when Vasos received a pass from sophomore Kerry McBride near the midfield line. Vasos then carried the ball down the sideline and eventually fired a shot from about 37 yards out. The ball soared right above Drusch's reach, giving Vasos her first goal of her career.

"Stephanie's shot was great. She went forward out of the back and put a great shot over the goalkeeper's head. I think that settled us down a little bit," said Roeders.

After firing off 10 shots over the first 26 minutes of the second half, the Golden Eagles added to their lead at the 76:43 mark when freshman Ashley Stemmeler found Bares near the top of the box. Stemmeler served the ball in from the right side right to Bares' foot where she one-timed it past Sturchio for her first goal of the season.

The Phoenix had a hard time with Marquette's pressure and couldn't keep the ball out their net for long, as only 26 seconds later Martens' diving header inside the box gave the Golden Eagles their third and final goal of the evening. Senior defender Allison McBride was credited with the assist.

"We try to keep building and we try make things better. We have to keep working on our chances and our opportunities. First and foremost we want to win games. If it takes one goal and we get a shut out, we will take that. The ladies did well tonight, but give credit to Green Bay. We really had to work hard at our game and how we were going to break them down. We created many chances and maybe next time we could score a few more," said Roeders.

Sept. 13 • Valley Fields • (5-2-0)

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette women's soccer team earned its sixth straight home shutout dating back to the 2008 season with a 1-0 victory over No. 23 Minnesota Sunday afternoon at Valley Fields. Senior Becky Ryan scored Marquette's lone goal in the 49th minute. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 5-2-0 overall while the Gophers fall to 4-2-1.

"I'm really happy for our team. We had to grind it out today. It was tough mentally and physically, but we did an excellent job," said head coach Markus Roeders. "Minnesota is nationally ranked and have done well. WE will take it and will move forward. The credit has to go to our entire team. It is team defense again and I thought we were solid all-around. We pride ourselves on not just winning, but getting shutouts as well, and that is against any opponent. I think we are on the right track. Today was another stellar performance."

For the game, the Golden Eagles held the advantage in the shots column, 12-9, including a 4-5 shots on goal differential. Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla made all four stops in 90 minutes in net, while Minnesota keeper Cat Parkhill made four saves.

The match was evenly fought throughout the first half with neither team getting a good opportunity to score until sophomore Rachael Sloan broke through the Golden Gopher defense during the 30th minute, leaving her one-on-one with Parkhill. Parkhill charged out of the net and was able to get a glove on the ball, but was unable to maintain control and it became loose inside the box. The Golden Eagles could not capitalize on the opportunity before a Minnesota defender knocked the ball out-of-bounds.

Sophomore Danielle Martens got another good look at the goal less than two minutes later. Junior Lauren Thut served the ball inside the Minnesota box to Martens who was positioned about 12 yards in front of the net. Martens blasted a shot, however, it traveled just right of the goal, leaving the game scoreless heading into halftime.

Coming out of the 15-minute intermission, Marquette scored the only goal it would need to capture the win at the 48:10 mark, when junior midfielder Julia Victor poked the ball through a Minnesota defender to Ryan, who was positioned 15 yards from the goal. Ryan pulled the trigger, sending a rocket past Parkhill on the far side.

"It takes one goal to win games. It was a great finish by Becky. She has been waiting on getting that one. She is one of our forwards that we can rely on to get the ball in the net, and she did a great job for us today," said Roeders.

Sunday's win over Minnesota marks the first over a ranked foe this season and second over an opponent from the Big Ten Conference. Marquette defeated Michigan, 1-0, on Aug. 30.

Marquette 2, USF 1

Sept. 17 • Valley Fields • (6-2-0, 1-0)

MILWAUKEE - Sophomore Kerry McBride scored the game-winning goal in the 89th minute to propel the Marquette women's soccer team over USF, 1-0, Thursday night in the two teams BIG EAST Conference lidlifter at Valley Fields. The win helps Marquette improve to 6-2-0 overall, 1-0 in BIG EAST play, while the Bulls fall to 2-4-1, 0-1 BIG EAST.

"It was a tough match, said head coach Markus Roeders. "Give credit to USF. They came out here and played extremely hard. We got a little on our heels after they came out and scored out of the blue, but we came back. I think that shows the character of our team. We are 1-0 now in the BIG EAST. Those goals, those wins, those points are hard to come by now that we are into conference play. We did some really good things tonight. The way we played and how some of our attack was built. At the same time, USF is an improved team and didn't make it easy for us."

Sophomore Rachael Sloan provided MU its first goal of the game in the 21st minute. Freshman Ally McBride poked the ball through a USF defender to Sloan who took off towards the goal. Sloan beat her defender and sent a rocket from about 20-yards out to the right corner out of reach for USF keeper Mallori Lofton-Maclachi.

The Bulls would not let up and got the equalizer at the 62:53 mark when Taylor Patterson found Chelsea Klotz at the near post, which left both teams to fight for the winning tally over the final 27 minutes of the game. The Golden Eagles got their chance in the 89th minute when Sloan served the ball in from the end line where senior Becky Ryan got her head on it and flicked it to McBride in front of the goal. McBride, who was wide open in front of the net, knocked it over Lofton-Maclachi's head to win its first BIG EAST game of the season.

"Right place, right time for Kerry," said Roeders of McBride's goal. "It was a nice service. Becky got on the end of it and Kerry put herself in position to score a goal. We put her there for a reason and she finished it. It was great for her, great for our team. I'm really proud of the way we fought back tonight."

For the game, Marquette outshot the Bulls 17-9 and put six of those shots on target. Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla surrendered one goal, but made four saves over the 90 minutes in net.

Sept. 20 • Kalamazoo, Mich. • (7-2-0, 1-0)

KALAMAZOO, Mich. - The Marquette women's soccer team earned its fourth straight win Sunday afternoon in the form of a 2-0 shutout of Western Michigan in Kalamazoo, Mich. Senior Becky Ryan and junior Lauren Thut each scored a goal for the Golden Eagles who improve to 7-2 overall.

"We are happy with the win," said head coach Markus Roeders. "It wasn't our best performance, but we worked hard and the goals came. The sharpness and crispness of our game was missing which allowed for fundamental mistakes that are uncharacteristic of our squad. It also made the game less predictable and more difficult to read. But, the mark of a good team is the ability to win under any circumstances. It was a good effort because it isn't easy to win on the road. West Virginia is next so we know our game has to be at a higher level."

Ater a scoreless first half in which Marquette launched 11 shots, four on goal, Ryan tallied first in the 54th minute. Sophomore Ashley Bares served in the ball where Ryan got her head on it and knocked it in far post past Bronco keeper Julia Francy.

Five minutes later at the 58:36 mark, Western Michigan was called for a foul leaving Thut, one of MU's free kick specialists, to take the ensuing free kick. Thut's rocket from near midfield found the back of the net after it slipped through Francy's hands to put the score at 2-0.

Marquette kept pushing on offense for the remainder of the half, firing off three shots and three corner kicks, but was unable to put any of those attempts in the back of the net.

"Lauren's goal was a bid surprising since it was a long free kick and after Ashley came across the goalkeeper, the ball just went past the goalie in the net. We could have scored a few more but give credit to Western Michigan for hanging in there and competing well," said Roeders.

For the game, Marquette outshot the Broncos, 20-6, and put 11 of those shots on target. Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla registered her sixth shutout of the season and made three saves.

Sept. 24 • Morgantown, W. Va. • (7-3-0, 1-1)

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. - Despite out-shooting West Virginia, 13-8, a late goal by WVU's Caroline Szved in the 87th minute ended the Marquette women's soccer team four-game win streak Thursday evening as the Mountaineers earned a 1-0 victory at Dick Dlesk Stadium. The loss puts Marquette at 7-3-0 overall, 1-1-0 in BIG EAST play, while West Virginia earns its first BIG EAST Conference win to stand 4-2-4 overall, 1-0-1 BIG EAST.

"This is a tough loss for our team," said head coach Markus Roeders. "We did everything but score a goal. Give West Virginia credit for battling and creating the golden chance at the end. This is a hard pill to swallow after an excellent effort put forth by our team. We showed again that this is a talented team who will give 100 percent every single time. As painful as it is, we will take the positives and move forward. Sunday will be a tough game at Valley Fields and we need to be ready to give our best against a talented Pitt team."

Szved scored what would be the game winner at the 87:08 mark. Bry McCarthy served the ball in from the left side to Szved who was six yards in front of the goal and headed it in near post past sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla.

For the game, Kulla made one save, while WVU's Kerri Butler made five stops.

Offensively, Marquette created many opportunities inside WVU's lower third, but was unable to capitalize. Five of MU's 13 shots were on target and it was awarded five corner kicks. Sophomore Rachael Sloan registered a game-high six shots.

Both West Virginia and Marquette created chances in the first half, but neither team was able to convert. The Golden Eagles had the upper hand offensively taking three shots and putting two of those on goal, while the Mountaineers registered two shots.

After a scoreless first half in which the Golden Eagles had the upper hand offensively taking three shots and putting two of those on goal, Marquette continued attacking in the second half firing off three shots in the first 10 minutes of the second stanza. Ten of its total 13 shots came in the second half.

Marquette had one of its best chances in the 55th minute when senior Michelle Compy served the ball in to sophomore Rachael Sloan who got her head on it, but sent the ball wide.

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette women's soccer team opened their five-game homestand with a 0-0 double overtime tie against Pittsburgh Sunday afternoon at Valley Fields. The tie marks the Golden Eagles first of the season, bringing the family to 7-3-1 (1-1-1 BIG EAST) on the season, and the Panthers third, giving them a 5-2-3 record (0-0-3 BIG EAST).

"We have played two games in a row where I thought we played extremely well and just couldn't score," said head coach Markus Roeders. "I like the way we played today. Defensively, we didn't allow many chances and we worked hard on both ends of the field. What can you say, 0-0 is part of the game of soccer. You don't like to have it, rather be on the winning end of it, but the effort was there. I thought the way we played was effective, but we just couldn't put the ball away."

Although, play was even between the two teams for the majority of the first half, the Golden Eagles out-shot the Panthers, 5-2. Sophomore Rachael Sloan gave Marquette their first opportunity during the 24th minute of play, when she fired a shot from 15 yards out on the near-post side, however, Panther keeper Morie Kephart made the save.

The Golden Eagles began the second half with a bang, racking up five corners and firing off three shots in the first six minutes. During regulation, Marquette out-shot Pittsburgh 20-3 and pressured the Panther defense to acquire a total of eight corner kicks. Sloan led the attack in the second half with a team-high five shots, four of which were on goal. Sophomore Kerry McBride registered four shots, while junior Stephanie Vasos and senior Becky Ryan each tallied three apiece.

Ryan had back-to-back opportunities during the 60th and 61st minutes. The first drive blast came at 59:02, when senior Michelle Compy crossed the ball into Ryan, who was positioned near the center of the net. With a defender on her back, Ryan blasted a shot but Kephart came up with the save. A little over a minute later, Ryan collected a serve in the box, dribbled past several Panther defenders creating a one-on-one opportunity. Ryan pulled the trigger, but the shot went high.

Marquette saw another opportunity during the 75th minute of play when junior defender Stephanie Vasos served the ball to Kerry McBride, whom was positioned on the far side of the box. McBride fired a shot from about 18 yards out, only to have the blast skim the crossbar.

The game was nearly decided during the first extra frame, when Panther midfielder, Ashley Kuba, broke through the Golden Eagle defense and around keeper, Natalie Kulla, giving her the opportunity at an open net. Luckily for Marquette, Kuba's shot hit the near post and rolled out-of-bounds.

Ryan saw yet another opportunity during the 106th minute, when she ripped a shot from about 25 yards out, Kephart was forced to punch the shot over the back of the net in order to make the save.

For the game, Marquette out-shot Pittsburgh 26-4, putting 11 shots on goal to the Panthers four. Morie Kephart came up with all 11 saves and sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla was credited with one over the entire 110 minutes in net.

Oct. 2 • Valley Fields • (7-4-1, 1-2-1)

MILWAUKEE - The Marquette women's soccer team dropped a 3-1 decision to No. 13 Rutgers Friday night at Valley Fields. Junior Rosie Malone-Povolny scored MU's lone goal in the at the 13:02 mark. The loss puts the Golden Eagles at 7-4-1 overall, 1-2-1 in BIG EAST play, while the Scarlet Knights improve to 9-1-2, 3-0-1 in BIG EAST action.

Marquette out-shot Rutgers 19-6 on the match, putting six shots on goal to the Scarlet Knight's five. Rutgers keeper Erin Guthrie came up with five saves and Marquette's Natalie Kulla stopped two.

The Golden Eagles found the back of the net at the 13:02 mark, when defender Allison McBride served a corner kick to Malone-Povolny, who was set up to the left of the keeper about five yards outside of the net. Amidst the scramble in the box, Malone-Povolny put her head on the ball, sending it past Guthrie. The goal Malone-Povolny's first of the season.

"I thought we came out very well and scored a great goal on a set play, Rutgers quickly responded and came back right away. I thought we struggled for the rest of the first half in terms of staying organized and what we accomplished in the first 15 minutes of the game," said head coach Markus Roeders.

Rutgers wasted little time getting back into the game, scoring the equalizer a just over two and a half minutes later. Karla Schacher scored the Scarlet Knight's first of the night, scoring off of a header off of a free kick taken Julie Lanco.

During the 21st minute of play, April Price made it 2-1 in favor of the Scarlet Knights with her shot that sailed just over Kulla's head and in the back of the net.

Junior Julie Victor nearly tied the game at the 50:01 mark, when she launched a direct kick from about 30 yards out, however her shot hit the crossbar and the Golden Eagles still trailed by one. Fourteen of MU's 19 shot attempts came in the second half.

"It is unfortunate, but give Rutgers credit. I thought we played better in the second half, but then they put away that free kick. Once we were down two (goals), we searched a bit on getting back, but never managed to do so. It is a disappointing result, not necessarily of how we played, but of some inconsistencies, and you can't have that against a good team," said Roeders.

Rutgers scored their third and final goal of the match on a free kick when Julie Lanco buried the the ball into the far post from 25 yards out. Three of the four goals scored in the night's match were off of set plays, proving just how important it is to capitalize on restarts.

Oct. 4 • Valley Fields • (8-4-1, 2-2-1)

MILWAUKEE - First-half goals from senior Kelly Wepking, sophomore Rachael Sloan and freshman Ashley Stemmeler gave the Marquette women's soccer team a 3-0 victory over Seton Hall Sunday afternoon at Valley Fields. With the win, the Golden Eagles improve to 8-4-1 overall, 2-2-1 in BIG EAST play, while the Pirates remain winless in league action, 0-4-1, and stand 4-7-1 overall.

"We have hoped for a win like this for a while because of the chances we create and we did so again today," said head coach Markus Roeders. "A lot of players were involved. Basically everyone who could play ended up playing. We have to be pleased. We finally earned the result we have been looking for based on our play, what we are trying to do and opportunities we are creating. I am happy with our team and all of the players deserve credit whether or not they were directly involved with the goals or assists. It is definitely a positive to build upon after Friday. I thought we had a very nice performance this afternoon."

Marquette first found the back of the net during the 14th minute of play when Sloan received a ball inside the 18-yard box from junior Lauren Thut. Sloan beat a defender to find herself one-on-one with Seton Hall goalkeeper Jennifer Pettigrew. Sloan quickly maneuvered around Pettigrew and blasted a shot into the far post from eight yards out.

Marquette went ahead 2-0 and Thut earned her second assist on the game at the 35:13 mark, when she served a free kick to Kelly Wepking, who was positioned seven yards in front of the goal. Wepking got her head on the ball and knocked it in near post for her first goal of the season.

Stemmeler scored her first career goal and the third and final goal of the game with just under seven minutes remaining in the first half. Stemmeler's chip past Pettigrew made her the 11th Golden Eagle to register a goal this season.

The Golden Eagles continued its barrage of shots in the second half and saw multiple opportunities to score with Ally Miller, Lindsey Page, Lauren Thut and Stephanie Vasos each putting shots on target.

The Marquette offense out-shot the Pirates 21-7. Sophomore goalkeeper Natalie Kulla finished with a clean sheet, her eighth of the season, and made one save.
