Marquette Closes Out Five-Match Homestand this Week

The undefeated Marquette women's soccer team hosts city rival Wis.-Milwaukee and BYU this week at Valley Fields to close out its five-match homestand. The No. 25 Golden Eagles collide with No. 25 Wis.-Milwaukee on Wednesday, Sept. 3 at 7 p.m., and take on BYU at 7 p.m. on Saturday. The game against Wis.-Milwaukee will be broadcast on Time Warner Sports, Channel 32, on a tape delay basis. Fans can also listen live on the web via WMUR.

The first 500 fans through the gate on Wednesday receive a free Marquette soccer schedule key chain.

A Closer Look at the Golden Eagles

At 3-0-0 the Golden Eagles have opened the season undefeated for the fourth consecutive season. Junior Kelly Wepking leads the team in points early on with four on two goals. Sophomore Lauren Acree follows with three points. Acree, who was named to the Milwaukee Cup All-Tournament Team, scored the Golden Eagles game-winning goal in overtime against Ohio State Friday. She also tallied the game-tying assist with six seconds left in regulation.

The Golden Eagles have been stingy with their defense giving up just one goal, but what may be even more impressive is that the team has allowed just five shots over its last two games. Overall, MU has out-shot its opponents, 67-13.

Scouting Wis.-Milwaukee

The Panthers also jumped into the national polls this week at No. 24 according to Soccer America and No. 25 according to Soccer Buzz, marking the first time the two teams will tangle as ranked opponents. Like the Golden Eagles, UWM is 3-0 on the season claiming wins over Wisconsin (3-0), Ohio State (4-3) and Samford (4-2). Sarah Hagen has scored a team high five goals and has 11 points for the season. Kate Megna, Nicole Sperl and Erin Kreuser follow with four points apiece. Erin Kane has seen all 270 minutes in net and has registered a 1.67 goals against average.

"Quoting" Coach Roeders

"It is an intriguing match! Over the years, we have had some memorable matches, and this should be another classic game," said head coach Markus Roeders. "Both teams are undefeated and nationally ranked, which is a first in the history of Marquette vs UWM. They have done very well and are scoring goals. They are always well coached, organized and defensively strong. Our team has improved from game-to-game, and we keep adding new elements to our play. The local community will be treated to a great match, and we hope a large, pro-Marquette crowd will be on hand Wednesday night. So many of the players know each other from youth and club soccer, so let's hope the energy level will lead to a spectacular match."

Head Coach Markus Roeders

13th Season at Marquette

Career Record: 179-67-25

Success is a trait head Marquette women's soccer coach Markus Roeders is familiar with.

While at Marquette, Roeders has elevated the program from regionally competitive to a consistent top national power. It is evident by his career accomplishments and emphasized by the results of his past seasons.

With a career mark of 176-67-25 — a 70.3 winning percentage — Roeders has proven he can coach a team that knows how to win. In each of his 12 seasons the Golden Eagles have won no fewer than 11 games. He has guided MU to six NCAA Tournament appearances and advanced as far as the Sweet 16.

The 2007 season saw the Golden Eagles storm out of the gate. Marquette impressed its national critics with a 10-game unbeaten streak to commence the season. The Golden Eagles went on to finish the season 12-4-4, but fell to, 1-0, in the quarterfinals of the BIG EAST Tournament, which ended MU's season.

In conference awards handed out following the season, Allison Mallams (despite playing in only nine games) and Christy Zwolski were each named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team, while Laura Boyer and Katie Kelly were named to the third team. Mallams, Kelly, Zwolski and Rosie-Malone Povolny were also showered with regional awards by the NSCAA and SoccerBuzz.

A testament to Roeders' ability to develop players, Mallams and Natalie Kulla were invited to U.S. Soccer National Team U-23 and U-20 training camps, respectively. Mallams earned a spot on the U-23 team and played with the team on its European Tour in preparation for the 2008 Nordic Cup.

In 2006, the Golden Eagles rose to the occasion. After standing 2-3-3 through the first half of the season, Marquette went 8-2-1 through the end of the regular season to earn a first round bye in the BIG EAST Conference Tournament. MU defeated Villanova in the BIG EAST Quarterfinals to earn a return trip to the BIG EAST semifinal — the only newcomer team since the conference expanded to do so. Eventually, Marquette saw its dream of the conference tournament championship fade with a 2-0 loss to Notre Dame, but the Golden Eagles were rewarded for their impressive turnaround and tough schedule with their sixth trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In conference play, Marquette found success in the ultra competitive BIG EAST yet again as the Golden Eagles went 7-3-1 and took second place in the American Division. Allison Mallams was named to the BIG EAST Second Team, while Michelle Pitzl earned third team honors. Each were also awarded regional honors by the NSCAA and SoccerBuzz.

The 2005 team was evidence of Roeders' ability to take his team to new heights. Playing in its first season in the daunting BIG EAST Conference, Roeders led Marquette to one of its most successful seasons. Bolstered by a 4-1 win over No. 5 Notre Dame, the Golden Eagles finished fourth in the BIG EAST, far surpassing its middle of the pack prediction in the preseason.

Success didn't stop in conference play. Roeders guided the 2005 team to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time and first time in three seasons, advancing to the Sweet 16 round. A win over Wisconsin in the first round combined with a last-minute goal against Wis.-Milwaukee in the second round advanced Marquette farther than the school had ever been in NCAA Tournament play. MU dropped a 4-0 decision to national runner-up UCLA. The Golden Eagles finished the 2005 season 19-4-1 overall.

Roeders also coached his third All American; goalkeeper Laura Boyer was named a third-team selection. In all, nine players received conference, regional or national postseason awards following the 2005 season. Roeders was awarded for his success by being named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year, as well as a pair of Great Lakes Coach of the Year honors from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) and Soccer Buzz.

Roeders guided the 2004 squad to an 12-8-1 mark. It was the ninth-straight season that a Marquette women's soccer team had 10 or more wins and a winning record. The 2004 season marked personal growth for the squad.

In Marquette's final season in Conference USA, Roeders led the squad to a semifinal spot in the C-USA Tournament. Four Golden Eagles earned all-league honors, while Julie Thompson and Ashley George were tabbed as all-region selections. Following that season Roeders was honored as Conference USA's Coach of the Decade.

Roeders led the 2003 squad to an 11-8-1 mark. Several players received post-season honors, both on and off the field. Lindsay Smale was named an all-region selection, while Smale and two others — Anne Ioder, Kristen Jensen — were regional academic All-America selections.

Marquette made its fourth-straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament in the 2002 season, after making a run at the Conference USA title. During the regular season, MU defeated nationally ranked Duke, while also earning victories over Wisconsin and Dayton. During the year, MU was ranked as high as 15th, the highest ranking ever achieved in MU women's soccer history. The Golden Eagles advanced to their seventh-straight league title match, losing to Cincinnati, but solidifying its spot in the NCAA Championship field.

As usual, the team was littered with award recipients. Kate Gordon was both all-league and a Second Team All-America selection. Anne Dalecky received all-region honors as well. During the season, Roeders and associate head coach Frank Pelaez celebrated their 100th career win at Marquette.

In 2001, Roeders' Golden Eagles advanced to the NCAA's for the third time in school history. MU received its first-ever at-large bid to the national championship tournament. The team also hosted the first and second rounds of NCAA play — the second straight year MU hosted a first-round contest.

Roeders' two most dominant players were also highly decorated. Gordon was named Conference USA Player of the Year and was a First Team All-Region selection, while Anne Dalecky was the C-USA Co-Defensive Player of the Year, as well as earning all-region accolades.

In 2000, only a handful of teams in the country won more matches than the Golden Eagles. Marquette was one of just five teams to eclipse the 20-win mark, as the team soared to a 20-3-1 season — a school record for wins. That feat put Marquette in the same class as national champions North Carolina (21-3-0), Notre Dame (23-1-1), Penn State (22-2-0) and Nebraska (22-4-0).

But the accolades didn't stop there. Roeders coached the program's first ever All-America selections — Rhegan Hyppio (first team) and Gordon (second team). Roeders also produced three all-region selections and eight all-conference selections. For his efforts, Roeders was tabbed Coach of the Year in both Conference USA and the Great Lakes Region by the NSCAA. For the first time in school history, Marquette also finished the season nationally ranked. MU finished the year at 24th, reaching as high as 17th during the season. The Golden Eagles also went through the C-USA slate undefeated and won a second-consecutive conference tournament title. Roeders led his squad to a first-round NCAA Tournament win over Wright State, 2-1, at Valley Fields before falling to Texas A&M in the second round.

However, it has not just been in recent years where Marquette has been successful. The Golden Eagles reached to new heights under Roeders during the 1999 season. Marquette equaled its highest win total, while earning its two program firsts: a Conference USA Tournament championship and trip to the NCAA Tournament in the process. Finishing with a 16-7-2 overall record, Marquette tallied a 2-1 overtime win against Charlotte in the league title contest before scoring a dramatic, four-overtime 3-2 victory over Missouri in its debut in NCAA Tournament play. In the second round, Marquette gave the eighth-ranked Clemson Tigers all they could handle, but dropped a hard-fought 1-0 decision on a last-minute goal.

The 1998 season, like every other Roeders' coached team, was an improvement on the season before. Finishing the season as the fifth seed, Roeders inspired his troops to an appearance in the Conference USA championship match, just one win away from an NCAA tournament bid. On the way to a 15-5-2 record, MU received its first ever national ranking on September 14.

For the second consecutive year, Roeders guided the 1997 Golden Eagles to a share of the C-USA regular-season title and a spot in the C-USA Tournament championship game. Marquette finished with a 14-2-4 overall record, that included a Marquette-best 10-game winning streak and a 13-game unbeaten streak.

In 1996, Roeders steered Marquette to a 16-6-1 mark — twice as many wins as had ever been recorded in school history. The Golden Eagles won the C-USA regular-season title and reached the finals of the C-USA Tournament. For his efforts, Roeders was a unanimous selection in a vote of the league's coaches as the C-USA Coach-of-the-Year.

During his tenure, Roeders had produced 65 all-conference, 40 all-region, and six all-american selections. His teams have won four regular-season conference titles and two tournament crowns. In six NCAA Tournaments, Roeders owns a 5-5-1 record.

Previously, Roeders had been an assistant coach for the MU women's team in 1994 and 1995. He also served as the men's assistant coach for four years, helping MU to its most wins ever in 1994 when the Golden Eagles went 16-6-1.

Effective September 1, 1999, Roeders took on additional duties as a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Committee, which oversees all aspects of the NCAA Tournament and the NCAA's regional rankings. He concluded his assignment on the committee with the end of the 2002 season. He also serves as chair of the Great Lakes Region committee.

A native of Idstedt, Germany, Roeders began his collegiate soccer career at Brevard Junior College in Brevard, N.C., where he played for two years and was a captain. He then transferred to UNC Asheville, where he became associated with former Marquette men's soccer coach Steve Adlard, then coach of the Bulldogs.

In 1987, Roeders played in 20 games and scored 11 points. The following season, Adlard appointed Roeders captain. As a senior, he appeared in 14 games and registered two goals and three assists.

Roeders helped lead the Bulldogs to their first-ever appearance in the semifinal round of the Big South Tournament. Roeders received an associate degree from Brevard in 1987. A two-time member of the Big South Presidential Honor Roll, he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from UNC Asheville in 1990.

Roeders, who has a 'B' coaching license, is a state coach for the Wisconsin Olympic Development Girls Program and a staff coach for the Region II ODP. He and his wife Katherine have a 11-year old son, Kegan. The Roeders family resides in Cedarburg.

Cusick Rakes 'Em In

Following back-to-back victories over Ohio State and Samford, Marquette women's soccer senior defender Shannon Cusick was named the Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week and to the BIG EAST Honor Roll announced this week. It is Cusick's first duo of weekly honors of the season.

The senior defender played an integral part of MU's stifling backline that allowed just five total shots over two games last weekend. For her efforts, Cusick was named to the Milwaukee Cup All-Tournament Team.

In the Ranks

For the first time this season, the Golden Eagles are nationally ranked. Soccer America tabbed Marquette No. 25 in its latest weekly poll, and received votes in the NSCAA poll. The ranking marks the third consecutive season the Golden Eagles are among the nation's top-30 teams.

All-Tournament Team

Following its runner-up honors in the Milwaukee Cup, despite finishing 2-0, three Golden Eagles were named to the all-tournament team. Senior defender Shannon Cusick, junior goal keeper Chelsey Turner and sophomore midfielder Lauren Acree each were named to the all-tournament team.

TV Time

For the second straight season Time Warner Sports Channel 32 will broadcast Marquette men's and women's soccer and volleyball matches. Time Warner Sports will produce two women's soccer matches against Wis.-Milwaukee (Sept. 3) and Pittsburgh (Oct. 26).

Home Sweet Home

Protecting their home pitch is something the Golden Eagles do not take lightly, and it shows as Marquette is an impressive 104-29-8 all-time at Valley Fields.

MU Picked Third in the BIG EAST

The Marquette women's soccer team was selected to finish third in the American Division in the 2008 BIG EAST preseason women's soccer poll announced by conference officials. The votes were cast by the league's 16 head coaches, who were not permitted to vote for their own team or players.

Notre Dame and West Virginia were tabbed as the favorites as the Irish received all 15 first-place votes and were picked to win the National Division, while the Mountaineers received nine first-place votes and were picked to win the America Division. Both programs also won their respective divisions last year.

The Golden Eagles, who finished the 2007 season 12-4-4, picked up 90 points - the fifth highest overall point total behind Notre Dame, West Virginia, Connecticut and Louisville. Marquette finished third last season in the American Division with a 5-3-3 conference mark.

Roeders Weekly Podcasts

As part of Golden Eagle Podcasts each week, men's soccer head coach Louis Bennett and women's soccer head coach Markus Roeders will participate in a weekly coaches' show podcast. The podcast interviews will reflect on the previous weekend's game and a look ahead to the next.

Kelly Selected to Preseason All-BIG EAST Team

Senior defender Katie Kelly, a third team All-BIG EAST selection from a season ago, was selected to the All-BIG EAST Preseason Team. Kelly returns to Marquette for her final season to help lead Marquette's defensive contingent. She was a key component of MU's stifling backline that recorded a program record 12 shutouts and didn't allow a goal through nine of the Golden Eagles' first 10 games of the 2007 season. She has also been Marquette's secret weapon on offense each of the last three seasons, as she stands third on MU's all-time assists list with 22. Last season she ranked third in the league with nine assists, a mark that is the third best single-season total in program history.
