M CLUB HALL OF FAME

Two of the early pioneers of women's athletics at Marquette, TAT SHIELY and KATHY ANDRYKOWSKI, represent the women's volleyball program in the prestigious M Club Hall of Fame.

The Hall of Fame, housed in the Al McGuire Center's "Walk of Champions," includes such Marquette luminaries as Olympic great Ralph Metcalfe, legendary men's basketball head coach Al McGuire and NBA superstar Dwyane Wade.

During her Marquette career, Andrykowski earned four letters each in volleyball and basketball, was a four-time all-conference volleyball player in the Wisconsin Women's Athletic Conference and served as team captain in 1980. Following her time at MU, Andrykowski was awarded the McCahill Award in 1980, honoring her performance in scholarship, leadership and athletics. From 1980-87 she played professional basketball in the United States and across Europe.

Shiely coached the Marquette volleyball team from its inception in 1975 until 1998 season and compiled a career record of 380-477-5. She also coached the women's basketball squad for 11 years.

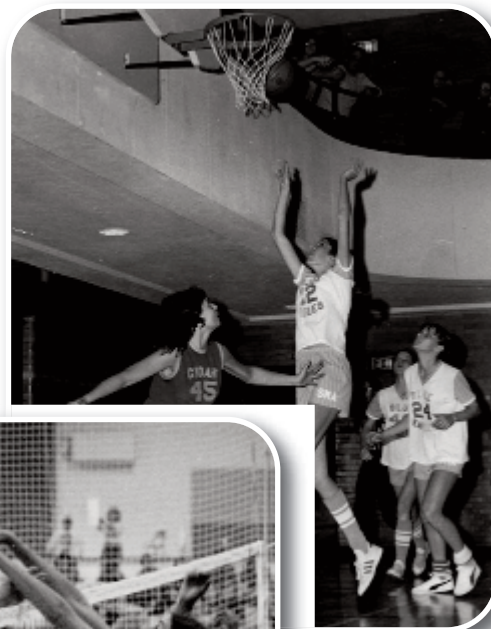

These trailblazing women followed in the legacy Marquette University laid forth when it became the first Catholic university in the world to admit women in 1909.

McCAHILL AWARD

Given annually since 1946, the McCahill Award recognizes the Marquette senior student-athlete from the previous year who has demonstrated the highest performance in scholarship, leadership and athletics. It is awarded by the William J. McCahill, Sr., family in honor of their son, Capt. Robert L. McCahill, a Marquette athlete killed in World War II.

The four women's volleyball players who have claimed the prestigious award are KATHY ANDRYKOWSKI (1980), SHERRI GOLL (1991), MARTHA MEYER (1998) and most recently JAMIE MUELLER (2007).
