- UAB also has a high-octane offense much like the Herd's, that averages 78.9 points per contest. Unlike Marshall, UAB gets its points inside the arc and does so efficiently, as its 49.7 percent from field goals are 16th in the nation.
- When the Blazers get to the line it makes 77.0 percent from the charity stripe, which is good for No. 24 in the nation.

WHO TO KNOW

- His partner in the paint, William Lee, is one of the league's premier shot-blockers, as he averages 1.90 blocks per game, which is good for fourth in the league.
- Lee and Cokley combine for 14.9 rebounds per game.
- The point man, Nick Norton, thrives in taking care of the ball and taking it away from opposing offenses, as his 2.36 assist/turnover ratio is 64th in the country. Norton also averages 1.33 steals per game.

SERIES HISTORY

Marshall will meet UAB for the 25th contest between the two sides. The Herd and Blazers have met every year since 2003, two years prior to when Marshall joined Conference USA. The Herd recently came off an eight-game losing streak against the Blazers the last time the two sides met.

Interviews may be conducted prior to practice on weekdays, or may be arranged through the Marshall Sports Information office. Herd practices are open to the public.

Postgame coverage

At home games, following the visiting coach's postgame remarks, selected players will be brought to the Henderson Center's media room for a postgame press conference. Coach Dan D'Antoni will address the media following the players. At road games, D'Antoni will address the media in a location designated by the host institution.

// TEAM NOTES"HILLBILLY BALL"

- In head coach Dan D'Antoni's fourth year at the helm of the Thundering Herd, Marshall's offense is picking up where last season left off.
- Using D'Antoni's "Hillbilly Ball" style, Marshall's thundering offense is usually one of the nation's leaders in both scoring offense and "the best shot in basketball" (the 3-pointer).
- As it stands, the Herd is 10th in scoring offense (86.8 ppg) and 38th in 3-pointers per game (9.7).
- The Herd's 102-91 overtime victory over Tennessee at Martin were the most by the Herd vs. a Division I opponent in a season opener in school history. It's also the seventh 100-point game by a D'Antoni team, the fifth in the past two seasons.
- It also marked the second consecutive game the Herd scored at least 100 points at the Henderson Center, dating back to last season's 106-104 victory over North Texas.
- Under D'Antoni, MU has scored at least 100 points in nine games, with six of those games coming in the last two seasons.
- When the Herd welcomed Concord on Nov. 26, it scored 106 points. It was the first time it scored 100 points in regulation since welcoming North Texas last season.
- The offense has been rolling for the Herd this season, as it has scored at least 70 points in all 19 contests this season and 80 points in 13 contests.

THE DEPARTED

- With the departures of Ryan Taylor, Austin Loop, Stevie Browning, Terrence Thompson and Aleksa Nikolic, the Herd has some big shoes to fill.
- Those five combined for 125 of 175 starts last season (71.4 percent), 1,665 of 2,997 points (55.5 percent), 212 of 356 three-pointers (59.6 percent), 3,957 of 7,075 minutes played (55.9 percent) and 694 of 1,294 rebounds (53.6 percent).
- With the departures, head coach D'Antoni remarked "This year we lost five players – all contributors. All have been big contributors," D'Antoni said. "The big question for this year's team is not so much talent and not so much experience, but it's more about how they'll play together and the chemistry they develop. This year's team, with a bunch of new players, will have to develop that chemistry. I think we'll be OK talent-wise; I don't see a big drop off there. But there is a big drop off in the chemistry we've developed."

TERRIFIC TRIO

- To fill in for the departures, the trio of Jon Elmore, C.J. Burks and Ajdin Penava have had to step their game up.
- This season, the trio has combined for 1,093 points.
- Those 1,093 points have come from 370-of-748 (49.5 percent) from the field, 98-of-285 (34.3 percent) from 3-point land and 255-of-321 (79.4 percent) from the charity stripe.
- Those points have accumulated for 66.2 percent of Marshall's total points this season.
- Between the three, each are ranked in the top 200 in the nation in points per game, with Elmore at 13th, Burks at No. 22 and Penava at 177.
- The Herd is the lone school in C-USA to have three players in the top seven in points per game.
- The trio has also combined for 324 rebounds, 227 dimes and 73 steals.

"RUN THE JEWELS"

- Besides owning one of the most proficient trios in the country, the combination of Jon Elmore

// TEAM NOTES

- and C.J. Burks has been just as efficient.
- The combination is scoring 43.7 points per game, which is the second-best scoring duo in the nation, trailing Oakland's Kendrick Nunn and Jalen Hayes, who are averaging a combined 45.5 points per game.
- Burks and Elmore are the lone duo in the nation to have to scorers in the top 25 in points per game.
- The two have led the Herd in scoring in 14 of 19 games this season, with Elmore doing so in nine games and Burks doing so in three games.
- The two's 43.7 points per game accounts for 50.1 percent of Marshall's 86.8 points per game this season.
- Through six conference games, the two have combined for 44.4 points per game, which is 54.4 percent of Marshall's 83.4 points per game in league play.
- As it stands, the two are on pace to be the third time in program history Marshall had a pair of 20 ppg scorers on the same team and the first time it has happened in 60 years.
- In 1955-56, Charlie Slack (22.6 ppg) and Cebe Price (21.2) accomplished that. Then, two years later, Leo Byrd (24.9) and Hal Greer (23.6) did it.
- Overall, 27 players have averaged 20 or more points per game in a season for Marshall, but it hasn't been done by two players since Byrd and Greer roamed the court together.

DROPPING DIMES

- The Thundering Herd is one of the most generous teams this season, as its 339 assists are No. 15 in the nation.
- That averages out to 17.8 assists per game, which is 14th among DI schools.
- At the current rate, the Herd is projected to finish the season with 552 assists, which would be good for fifth all-time in school history.
- That means in the past three seasons, D'Antoni would have three of his four teams reach the top five in three consecutive seasons (No. 2 during the 2016-17 season and No. 4 in the 2015-16 season).
- MU also boasts an impressive assist/turnover ratio, as its 1.29 is No. 52 in the country.
- Marshall is 7-1 when dishing out at least 20 dimes, while it is 6-5 when failing to reach that mark.
- When it hosted Concord, it dished out a total of 26 dimes, which were the most since it hosted North Texas last season.

HOME SWEET HENDERSON CENTER

- Since Marshall joined C-USA in 2005-06, the Herd is 147-58 (.719) at Cam Henderson Center.
- The 2015-16 Herd posted its most C-USA home wins (7-2) since joining the league in 2005-06.
- Including this season, the Herd has won 10 or more games at home in 10 of the last 11 seasons, as well as in 25 of the 35-year history of the Henderson Center.
- Marshall's last losing record at home came during its last season in the MAC (2004-05), when the Herd went 4-8 (6-22 overall).
- Marshall opened the 2016-17 season with a 11-0 record at home before suffering its first home loss of the season against UTEP (Jan. 28).
- The last time the Herd won 10 consecutive home games to open the season was in the 2009-10 season, which won 10 straight home games before suffering its first loss at home.
- Dating back to the 2015, the Herd has gone on a 18-game winning streak at home against non-conference opponents.
- Marshall is currently on a 11-game winning streak at home dating back to the 2016-17 season.
- When the Herd welcomed Louisiana Tech, it marked a milestone. Marshall began the season 10-0 at home for the second consecutive year. The last time it did so was during the 1972-73 season and 1973-74 season.

JONNY BUCKETS

- Junior guard Jon Elmore has returns this season after having declared for the 2017 NBA Draft.
- The junior is also one of two players (Oklahoma's Trae Young) to be in both the top 15 in points per game (22.5) per game and assists per game (7.3) in the nation. His points are 13th, while assists are seventh.
- When Oklahoma traveled to West Virginia on Jan. 6, the Mountain State had the only two players in the top 10 in points and assists playing on the same day.
- Elmore is also one of three players (Middle Tennessee's Nick King and North Texas' Roosevelt Smart) in Conference USA to earn multiple Player of the Week honors this season. The last Herd player to do so was James Kelly in the 2015-16 season.
- The junior etched his name in the Herd history books when Marshall hosted Ohio on Dec. 16. He posted 20 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds to record the fifth triple-double in program history.
- The junior is one of 14 players in the nation to post a triple-double this season.
- As it stands through 19 games, Elmore could wind up leading the league in points and assists after the season ends. That would put him on track to be the first C-USA player to lead the league in both in consecutive years in league history.
- If Elmore keeps up his pace of averaging 7.3 assists per game, that would leave him with 226 assists through 31 games, which would be good for second for a single season, trailing only Mike D'Antoni's 241 assists in the 1971-72 season.
- The junior's 22.5 points per game are also putting him at pace to score 678 points this season, which would be third in school history.
- That would also put him with 1,768 career points, which would rank eighth in program history in just three years and 91 games.
- This season, the junior has scored at least 20 points in 12 of 19 games. He has also three games of 30 points or more.
- The junior is not limited to just offense from, as his defense has made a leap this year. Elmore is No. 57 in steals per game (1.95) and 43rd in total steals (37).

CHARITY CHASE

- Jon Elmore's scoring efficiency comes in a variety of ways, but he has been especially lethal from the free throw line.
- His 144 made free throws and his 176 attempts are second and third in the nation, while he is making 81.8 percent of them.

- That puts him on pace to make 236 free throws this season, which would be good for the most all-time in program history and second in league history.
- It would also put him on track to make NCAA history as well, as 248 made in a single season would be good for top 50 all-time for an individual in a season.
- At the current rate, he is going to the free throw line 9.2 times per game, which is third in the nation.
- It puts Elmore on pace to finish with 284 free throw attempts, which is good for the top 50 in NCAA history.
- The junior is currently drawing 7.2 fouls per game, according to KenPom. That rate is good for 28th in the nation.

EXTRA YEAR OF ELMORE

- Elmore's return to Marshall after declaring for the NBA draft was not the only good news Marshall fans received in the offseason.
- Elmore isn't only returning for the 2017-18 season — he has the option for two more years of college basketball. Marshall learned on May 17 that Elmore received a release from the original letter intent he signed out of high school, which restores a year of eligibility.
- Elmore wasted no time in re-introducing himself to the league and the nation in his season debut against Tennessee at Martin (Nov. 10).
- The point guard scored a career-high 38 points and dropped eight assists. His previous career-high was 35 against Toledo (Dec. 10, 2016).
- His 38-8-2-1 stat line helped the junior earn this season's first Conference USA Player of the Week and College Sports Madness C-USA Player of the Week awards.
- As it stands, those 38 points were the 11th-most a player has scored in an individual game this season.
- Elmore backed up his performance in the very next game for the Herd. He scored 20 points, collected six assists and pulled down three rebounds in the Marshall's game against Southern on Nov. 13.
- The junior also had no problem keeping up with his performance on the road, as he scored 27 points and collected nine assists at Morehead State on Nov. 16.
- When Marshall hosted Concord on Nov. 26, Elmore scored 22 points and dished out 13 assists. That gave him nine career double-doubles from points and assists, which tied Marquette's Travis Diener for the most in C-USA history.
- That 13-assist performance is also tied for 10th in Marshall history for individual assists in a game.
- When Marshall traveled to William & Mary, Elmore scored 32 points, dished out 12 assists and pulled down nine rebounds. It was the second time in his career where he was one rebound shy of recording a triple-double.
- Those 32 points are also the most an individual has scored in a double-double performance from points and assists this season.
- That double-double also helped the junior surpass Diener for the most double-doubles in league history.
- That performance, along with his 22-point game against Akron helped Elmore earn the league's POTW honors for the second time this season.

RAKE IT UP

- The offseason of Jon Elmore does not end

there, as the junior received a hefty amount of preseason accolades.

- To begin, Elmore is the only player from last year's All-Conference USA first team to return this season.
- The league announced on Oct. 25 that the guard was also on its preseason 2017-18 team.
- College Sports Madness put Elmore on its Preseason All-High Major team and named him the preseason Conference USA Player of the Year.
- Lindy's Sports Magazine went as far as naming Elmore the No. 11 point guard in the league.

FAMILY REUNION

- For the second consecutive season, Jon Elmore (Charleston, W.Va.) is joined by his brother Ot (Charleston, W.Va.), a Texas Rio Grande Valley transfer.
- It marks the first time two brothers have played for Marshall since Dan D'Antoni (1967-70) and Mike D'Antoni (1970-73) did so. No set of brothers have played for Marshall at the same time since before 1960 (information not available).
- The Elmore brothers are the first set of family members to play on the same Herd team together since cousins Tamar Slay (1998-02) and Monty Wright (1999-03) did so.
- Ot averaged 2.7 points in 14.7 minutes over 20 games at Texas Rio Grande Valley. The Edinburg, Texas-based Vaqueros of the Western Athletic Conference went 8-22 in their first season.
- The Elmore brothers are one of 29 sets of brothers currently playing together in the NCAA.
- The brothers are also one of two sets of brothers in C-USA, as Brandon Stith and B.J. Stith play for Old Dominion.
- When Marshall traveled to Old Dominion on Jan. 13, it marked a moment worth noting. Both Elmore brothers and Stith brothers were on the court at the same time.
- When the Herd welcomed Southern on Nov. 13, Ot Elmore hit two 3-pointers to match his career-best while at Marshall with six points. It also matched his entire points total from the 2016-17 season.
- When Ot Elmore connected on a 3-pointer that Jon Elmore passed him, it marked the first time the Elmore-to-Elmore connection happened in their Herd careers.
- This season, the Elmore-to-Elmore connection is at two.

THE BOSNIAN BLOCKER

- With the loss of Ryan Taylor and Terrence Thompson, junior forward Ajdin Penava has stepped up his front-court defense.
- Penava is climbing up the national ranks, as his 4.82 blocks per game and 82 total blocks lead the nation.
- If Ajdin Penava was a one-man team, he would be in a tie for No. 73 among all DI teams for total blocks.
- That means the junior has more blocks as an individual than 275 teams in the nation.
- At this rate, the junior is on pace to finish the season with 133 blocks through 31 games. That would put him at second overall for a Marshall player, trailing only Whiteside (182) in the 2009-10 season.
- Penava has had 11 games this season with five blocks or more.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARDS

- Besides being one of the nation's leaders in blocks, Penava has also stepped up his rebounding game.

// TEAM NOTES

- The Bosnian's 8.9 boards are No. 53 in the country and lead the league.
- This has helped Penava become a double-double machine, as he has nine double-doubles this season.
- Those nine double-doubles are good for 18th in the country and lead the league.
- The junior is also averaging 16.7 points per game, which is good for seventh in C-USA.
- The Bosnian is scoring those 16.7 points per game by shooting 62.0 from field goals, which is No. 16 in the nation.
- His field goal percentage also translates well from a sabermetrics point of view as he is in the top 30 in both effective field goal percentage (66.7 percent is 22nd) and true shooting percentage (68.3 is No. 26th).
- That puts him at an offensive rating of 129.8, which is No. 99 in the nation.
- When Penava is on the floor, he gives Marshall a defensive rating of 92 points through 100 possessions.
- The Bosnian had a career-night when it welcomed Ohio on Dec. 16. Penava had career-highs in points (33), rebounds (15), blocks (nine) and steals (three).
- That night helped the junior earn his first career C-USA Player of the Week award.
- To put that in perspective, no player has scored 30 points, pulled down 15 rebounds, made nine blocks and three steals in an individual game since the 2009-10 season.
- Penava came one block away from recording a triple-double when Marshall welcomed Chattanooga on Dec. 5. The Bosnian finished with the stat line of 10-10-9, while his nine blocks were a career-high for the big man.
- Both of his performances against Ohio and Chattanooga would have made him the first Herd player since Hassan Whiteside to get a triple-double from points, rebounds and blocks did so against UCF on Feb. 26, 2010. Whiteside recorded 14 points, 11 rebounds and 13 blocks.
- In Marshall's first game of the season against Tennessee at Martin, Penava picked up 10 rebounds and added 20 points to collect his third career double-double.
- Penava scored 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds against Morehead State on Nov. 16. It marked his fourth career double-double.
- The Bosnian scored a 23 points vs. N.C. Central on Nov. 22. He also picked up a six blocks.
- The junior also helped the Herd secure its first true road win since 2011 when it defeated Toledo on Dec. 9. Penava scored 24 points. He also added two blocks in the final minute of action.

PENAVA CHASING WHITESIDE

- In 2009-10, Marshall had Hassan Whiteside, who has developed into an NBA star. Whiteside shattered shot-blocking records during his one season at Marshall, swatting 182 in 34 games — a school-record average of 5.35. That is, obviously, well ahead of Penava's production this season, but it means Marshall could be in elite company by the end of this season.
- In the past 10 years of major college basketball, only one program has produced two different players who averaged 4.0 or more blocks per game: Kentucky. Anthony Davis averaged 4.62 blocks per game in 2011-12, leading the nation. Nerlens Noel, another pro, averaged 4.42 in 2012-13, also leading the nation. With Whiteside and Penava, the Herd could join the Wildcats.
- Penava is turning away shots at a career high rate, but he is piling up the rejections at 6 feet, 9 inches tall. Whiteside is 7-0 with a wingspan of 8 feet. Davis is 6-11. Noel is 6-10.

// TEAM NOTES

- The Whiteside-Penava comparisons are not a reach. Whiteside was a freshman when he etched his name into the record books, but he was 20 years old at the start of the 2009-10 season. Penava is 20 now.
- Through 19 games, Penava has 284 points, 152 rebounds and 82 blocks. Whiteside had 245 points, 179 rebounds and 102 blocks through the first 18 games of 2009-10.
- That means Whiteside was averaging 12.9 points, 9.4 rebounds and 5.4 blocks compared to Penava's 16.7, 9.1 and 5.4.
- Penava has nine double-doubles this season; Whiteside had 10 through his first 18 games.

BURKS BALLIN' OUT

- During the 2016-17 season junior guard C.J. Burks was tasked with being the Herd's "sixth man." This season, the Martinsburg, W.Va., native is breaking out and playing the best basketball of his life.
- The junior is currently averaging 24.7 points per game in his last six contests.
- Burks reached a career-high from 31 made FGs when the Herd traveled to Charlotte on Jan. 11.
- The junior answered that performance with 24 points against the league's best defense, Old Dominion, on Jan. 13.
- Through five conference games, Burks is averaging a league-best 24.6 points per game.
- A big part of Burks' offensive output in C-USA has been his three-point shooting. Since conference play began, the junior is shooting 48.7 from behind the arc. That is good for the most in the league for individuals that made at least 35 attempts.
- When Marshall welcomed Ohio, Burks posted 31 points. It was his first time to reach 30 points and a contest.
- During his season debut against Tennessee at Martin, Burks dropped 23 points, grabbed four boards and had three assists.
- It marked the junior's fourth career game of scoring at least 20 points and 24th career game of scoring double-digit points.
- When Marshall welcomed Southern, C.J. Burks had a complete game of 19 points, six boards and five assists. Those five dimes were one short of the junior's career high.
- Burks tied his career-high of 27 points when the Herd traveled to Williamsburg, Va., to take on William & Mary. It was the fifth time he scored at least 20 points in his career.
- The junior had his second consecutive game of scoring 20 points when he did so against Akron on Dec. 2.
- For the first time in his career, the junior scored 20 points in three consecutive games when Marshall welcomed Chattanooga on Dec. 5. It was also the first time that Burks finished with the most points scored for Marshall in a single game.
- During the 2015-16 season, Burks became the third player in Marshall history to win multiple C-USA Freshman of the Week honors.

FRESHMAN PHENOM

- When freshman guard Jarrod West signed with the Thundering Herd, the coaching staff and fans did not expect to welcome the best spot-up shooter on the team.
- West is currently shooting a team-best 43-of-94 (45.7 percent) from 3-pointers.
- Through sixth conference games, West is sixth in the league in 3-pointers (51.6 percent)
- West's defensive approach has also been a welcome addition to the Marshall lineup.
- The freshman boasts 33 steals, which is

// TEAM NOTES

- second on the team, sixth in the league and 86th in the nation.
- That puts West at a clip of 1.74 steals per game, which is good for No. 100 among all DI players.
- The freshman scored a career-high 23 points from 5-of-6 shots from behind the arc, 7-of-8 field goals and two made free throws.
- He backed up that performance in the next game against N.C. Central on Nov. 22. He scored 11 points and connected on three 3-pointers. It was the first time in his career in which he reached double figure scoring in back-to-back contests.
- When West made his collegiate debut against UT-Martin, he became the first true freshman to start for the Herd since Ajdin Penava against Eastern Illinois in 2015.
- West started off strong, as he scored 10 points and five assists in 39 minutes of action.
- West collected a career-high five steals at Morehead State, while he added eight points and two 3-pointers.
- The freshman made a career-high six 3-pointers against William & Mary and scored 22 points for the second game of his career with at least 20 points.
- The Clarksburg, W.Va., native is a past winner of the Bill Evans Award, given annually by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association to the state's top boys prep basketball player.
- The accolades do not end there, as he was the first Class A player to win the honor since Mullens' Herbie Brooks in 1984, a first-team captain for the All-State team, selected to the Class A all-state first team in three consecutive seasons.

"ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR WATSON"

- When Marshall traveled to Cincinnati to take on No. 9 Xavier, junior guard and Wake Forest transfer Rondale Watson made his Marshall debut.
- While at Wake Forest, Watson averaged 2.6 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 35 games and 12 minutes per game.
- In his Marshall debut, Watson scored 10 points, pulled down one rebound and made one steal.
- When the Herd welcomed ECU for Watson's home court debut, the Lewisburg, W.Va., native scored 12 points.
- Through just seven games, Watson is fourth on the team in points (11.27 ppg), while being tasked as the team's "sixth man" this season.
- The junior has reached 20 points this season, with the last time being against Charlotte on Jan. 11.

#304BOYZ ARE BACK

- When senior guard Stevie Browning graduated it marked the end of an era for Jon Elmore, as Browning was Elmore's most reliable alley-oop partner during his tenure.
- It looked like the alley-oop connection known as the #304Boyz would reach a conclusion, until Lewisburg, W.Va., native Rondale Watson was declared eligible.
- As it stands, the two have connected on six alley-oops this season.

WILLIAMS, THE ENERGIZER BUNNY

- After redshirting his freshman year, Jansson Williams has made his presence known coming off the bench.
- He is one of three players for Marshall to play in all 19 contests this season.
- When Marshall traveled to Charlotte on Jan. 11, the redshirt freshman made his first collegiate start and scored seven points and pulled down four rebounds.
- Through the past 15 contests, Williams is averaging 16.2 minutes per game, while he is

- This season, Marshall is the only school to have two different players earn the honor.
- Last season, when Ryan Taylor won the award, it marked the first time in school history where three players won C-USA Player of the Week honors in the same season.
- The trio became the second group in program history to earn player of the week honors since Skip Henderson, Tom Curry and Rodney Holden were named So-Con Players of the Week in the 1986-87 season.

scoring 5.6 points per game and pulling down 2.9 rebounds.

- In his last seven contests, the redshirt freshman is averaging 21.9 minutes, while he is adding 7.7 points and 4.1 rebounds. He is also getting those 8.6 points shooting 46.0 from the field.
- When Marshall welcomed La. Tech, the freshman had his strongest performance to date. He played a career-high 24 minutes, scored five points, pulled down five rebounds, made a career-high two steals and a career-high two blocks.
- The freshman had a career night when the Herd hosted WKU. He scored a career-high 18 points from 7-of-10 shooting and going 4-of-6 from three-pointers.

BY GEORGE

- When Darius George stepped foot on Marshall's campus, he was expected to redshirt for his first year. That is no longer the case, as he is one of the first players off the bench for the Herd.
- Since playing just 25 minutes in his first three collegiate games, he has now eclipsed 20 minutes in the past seven of eight contests he has played in, while he played in over 25 minutes in four of the last five games.
- The freshman is seventh on the team in points per game (4.4), and is fourth on the team in rebounds per game (3.8).
- After scoring just two points and pulling down six rebounds combined in his first three games, George has averaged 5.5 points and 3.6 rebounds in the last eight contests.
- The freshman is also shooting 33.3 percent from 3-pointers, which is good for fifth on the team.
- George has also put good use to his 6-7 frame, as he made a career and game-high four steals against Akron, while also clocking in 27 minutes and playing the entire second half.

GETTING THE MONKEY OFF THEIR BACK

- When Marshall traveled to Toledo, Ohio to take on the Toledo Rockets, it marked a milestone for the Thundering Herd.
- Marshall defeated Toledo, 93-87, to give the Herd its first non-conference road win of the Dan D'Antoni era.
- The win gave Marshall its first non-conference road win since its 73-69 overtime victory at Cincinnati on Nov. 25, 2011.
- Since the beginning of the 2014-15 season Marshall had gone 0-21 in non-conference road games.
- It had also gone 0-35 in non-conference road games since defeating Cincinnati in 2011.
- The win against Toledo also gave D'Antoni the earliest road win of his career, surpassing his previous best of Dec. 31, 2016 at FIU.

THE "GLUE GUY"

- For most senior forward Milan Mijovic's career, he has been used sparingly and as a reserve.
- This season, that has had to change, as he has been thrust into the starting lineup.
- In his first career start, Mijovic had a near double-double from seven points and eight boards. To add to that, he had the team's lone block.
- After returning from a wrist injury he suffered at Illinois on Nov. 19, Mijovic scored four points, pulled down one rebound and dished out one assist.

GUESS WHO'S BACK

- The Herd returns seven letterwinners and one starter to its 2017-18 roster. Additionally, JUCO transfer Dani Koljanin (Monroe College) is immediately eligible and junior guard Rondale Watson (transfer from Wake Forest) will be eligible after the semester ends.

// TEAM NOTES

- Jansson Williams is also eligible to play after redshirting his freshman season.

YOUNG BLOOD

- Marshall's 2017-18 squad features some new faces that include two state players of the year, a JUCO transfer and three walk-ons.
- During the debut game of the season, four different players made their Herd debut (Jarrod West, Darius George, Dani Koljanin and Jansson Williams).
- When Williams entered the second game of his career against Southern on Nov. 13, he collected a career-high five points from a 3-pointer and a layup.
- Besides Jarrod West, freshman forward Darius George has also won state awards.
- The Staunton, Va., native was named Valley District Player of the Year for the 2017 season, 2A Player of the Year for the state of Virginia for the 2016-17 season and the News Leader's 2016-17 All-City/County Player of the Year.
- During his senior year of high school, George led his high school to become the 2A state champions in 2017, while averaging 24.5 points per game and 9.7 rebounds.
- As a player for Monroe College, Dani Koljanin averaged 13.7 points, 6.4 rebounds and 1.2 assists in 29.3 minutes a game while earning NJCAA Division I All-American honorable mention status for the Monroe Mustangs, who were 24-11 and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the junior college national tournament.
- The three walk-ons are Christian Villers, Will Fenton and Marcus Reed.

HOME COOKIN'

11 members of the Herd call the Mountain State home, including head coach Dan D'Antoni (Mullens), assistant Mark Cline (Williamson) and assistant coach Cornelius Jackson (Oak Hill).

PRESEASON SELECTION

- Marshall was picked to finish seventh in Conference USA.

FAMILIAR FOES

- Since becoming head coach for the Marshall Thundering Herd, head coach Dan D'Antoni has done a good job of renewing past rivalries from past conferences.
- The opponents were representatives of the Southern Conference (Marshall was a member from 1976-97) and the Mid-American Conference (1954-69 and 1997-05).
- The opponents are, Ohio (MAC), Chattanooga (So-Con), Toledo (MAC) and Akron (MAC).
- It also marks the third straight year that the Herd will face Eastern Kentucky.
- Marshall also earns the honor of being the lone school in C-USA to face a team from last year's Elite Eight from the NCAA Tournament.
- The Herd traveled to No. 9 Xavier in Cincinnati on Dec. 18.

QUOTEABLE

"I love the way they play offense. Elmore is a special player. He's as adept shooting threes as he is getting to the foul line. He's surrounded by some really skilled personnel. We have a lot of respect for Marshall. They do a great job of spacing the floor and playing with space. They are difficult to prepare for. It's a big challenge."
- Chris Mack, Xavier head coach (Dec. 18, 2017)

"Marshall right now is playing like one of the best offensive teams in college basketball. I think they spread it around. They're playing well, had a great crowd, great atmosphere...The league is good. We need Marshall to be good in basketball. We do. We need more teams to play at a high level. It just makes our league better, and I think we all know that."
- Kermit Davis, Middle Tennessee head coach (Jan. 29, 2016)

"Marshall was a tough team for us to match up with. The big guys can handle it and drive it, first half we had a hard time guarding them."
- Mark Turgeon, Maryland head coach (Dec. 27, 2015)

"They're a good team. They can really shoot the basketball and spread the floor."
- Dan Majerle, Grand Canyon head coach (Dec. 22, 2015)

DAN D'ANTONI

HEAD COACH // FOURTH SEASON

MARSHALL, '70

Dan D'Antoni, a Marshall Athletics Hall of Famer, was named the Thundering Herd men's basketball coach on April 25, 2014. A former star MU point guard, D'Antoni helped Marshall to appearances in the 1967 and 1968 National Invitation Tournaments.

D'Antoni enters his fourth season after enjoying the most successful season at the helm of the basketball program. It was the Herd's first time to reach 20 wins and the Conference USA Conference Tournament final since 2012. Thanks to the team's "hillbilly style" of basketball, the Herd broke several records, including including points (2,997) and 3-point field goals made (356), while having the No. 7 scoring offense in the nation.

Other on the court highlights included having three separate (Jon Elmore, Stevie Browning and Ryan Taylor) earn C-USA Player of the Week honors, which was the first time a Marshall team had three players recognized in the same season for player of the week honors since the 1986-87 season, Taylor becoming the first player in program and league history to be named the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week on Jan. 11 and Elmore and Taylor becoming the first Marshall duo to be named on C-USA teams since DeAndre Kane and Damier Pitts in 2012.

Marshall also had academic success during the 2016-17 season. Austin Loop became the first person in program history to be named to the All-Academic team three times, while Elmore became the second player in school history to earn the honor multiple times.

D'Antoni's second season at the helm of the Thundering Herd turned many heads across Conference USA and the country with the nation's No. 3 scoring offense. Marshall finished 17-16 and improved in nearly every statistical category to the year prior.

During the 2015-16 season, D'Antoni led the Herd to its first 12-win season in C-USA play, the best conference season Marshall has had since joining the league in 2005. His high-octane offense broke or tied 14 C-USA, school and Henderson Center records. The Herd earned a program-best No. 3 seed in the league tournament and reached the C-USA semifinals for the first time since the 2011-12 season.

The fan support was tremendous throughout the year. Home attendance averaged 5,574 fans per game, while conference games averaged an attendance of 6,022.

Off the court, the Herd hit many academic milestones as well. Seven players were named to the league's Commissioner's Honor Roll, while Jacob Kilgore earned the Commissioner's Academic Medal for achieving a cumulative GPA of 3.75 or better.

"Coaching Marshall basketball has always been a dream of mine," D'Antoni said as he was introduced as the Herd coach, "even when I was little." D'Antoni, a native of Mullens, W.Va., is Marshall's 28th men's basketball coach. He signed a four-year contract.

"It's a dream-come-true for me to bring Dan D'Antoni back to Marshall University," Marshall Athletic Director Mike Hamrick said of D'Antoni's hire. "It's where he belongs. It's taken a while, but he's here."

D'Antoni, 68, is the older brother of former NBA coach Mike D'Antoni. Dan served as one of Mike's assistant coaches for nine NBA seasons. He was a member of the Phoenix Suns' staff from 2005-06 through 2007-08. He spent four seasons on the New York Knicks' staff, then served as an assistant on the Los Angeles Lakers' staff for the past two seasons.

During his career, D'Antoni also served as the head coach of the Knicks' and Lakers' NBA Summer League teams.

After D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970, he joined the Herd staff as the head coach of the freshman basketball team, where he coached his younger brother, Mike, before becoming an assistant coach of the Herd varsity.

D'Antoni was named head basketball coach at Socastee High School in Myrtle Beach, S.C., in 1975. In 30 years at Socastee (1975-2005), D'Antoni accumulated over 500 wins and multiple coach of the year honors, while founding the Beach Ball Classic, one of the most prestigious high school basketball tournaments in the country. That event has featured more than 75 players who have gone on to play in the NBA.

D'Antoni was the head coach of the Beach Ball Select AAU basketball team, which featured future NBA players Raymond Felton and Ramon Sessions.

D'Antoni was an All-State first team selection at Mullens High School. At Marshall, he was the starting point guard on Ellis Johnson's "Iron Man 5" that played in the 1967 and '68 NIT. The 1966-67 team reached the NIT semifinals, and D'Antoni led the tournament in assists as the Herd finished fourth. As a senior, he was an All-Mid-American Conference first team selection in 1968-69, when he led the Herd in scoring, at 17.5 points per game. D'Antoni was All-MAC second team his junior season.

D'Antoni is one of Marshall's 49 players to score 1,000 career points, with 1,109, and ranks 13th on the Herd's career free throw percentage list, at .774 (301-of-389).

D'Antoni -- whose given name is Lewis Joseph D'Antoni II -- was inducted into the Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990.

D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970 with a degree in Speech and Physical Education, and also earned a Master's degree in Principles of Guidance from Marshall in 1972.

He is the father of three sons, all of whom played collegiate basketball: Matt played at Brown; Andrew attended the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and later served 3½ years in Iraq, rising to the rank of captain in the U.S. Army; and Nick attended William & Mary, where he was captain of the basketball team. D'Antoni and his wife, Vanessa, also are parents of a daughter, Morgan.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DAN D'ANTONI

"Coach D'Antoni is more than a friend to me. I compare him to a second father. We have a great relationship, and I appreciate everything he did for me."

-- Leandro Barbosa (Phoenix Suns), 11-Year NBA pro, 2007 NBA Sixth Man of the Year under D'Antoni

"Danny has been invaluable in the development of players at the high school and professional level. If you have the desire he will get everything out of you. He is a great coach. Players love playing for him and the style will be fun to watch. The Henderson Center will be rocking with excitement."

-- Mike D'Antoni, Los Angeles Lakers Head Coach

"Dan coached me for two years in New York (Knicks) and taught me a lot about the game of basketball. He made me a better person and a leader. He has the experience, knowledge, and integrity to create a winning atmosphere and develop players on and off the court."
