// THREE-POINTERS

- The Herd is coming off its first win in NCAA Tournament history. The win came with the help of Jon Elmore, who tied a program-high 27 points against Wichita State.
- Jarrod West, Marshall's true freshman guard, will face his father's college team on Sunday. West's father, also named Jarrod, became a March Madness hero when he hit a game-winning shot to help WVU defeat Bob Huggins' Cincinnati team on March 14, 1998, in Boise Idaho. West will face his father's team 20 years and four days after the famous game-winner.
- The two sides will meet for the first time since Dec. 17, 2015

// TEAM NOTES

DAN, THE MAN

- Since arriving at Marshall, Dan D'Antoni has increased his win total each season.
- Last season, the Thundering Herd reached 20 wins, which was the first time it accomplished that since the 2011-12 season.
- This season, MU reached 20 overall wins and 10 conference wins in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1986-87 and 1987-88.
- That is a rare accomplishment, because this is only the seventh time it has happened in the 111-year history of Marshall's basketball program.
- When D'Antoni led the Herd to a 20-15 record in 2016-17 and, now, 24-10 in 2017-18, he became only the fourth Marshall coach to post back-to-back 20-win seasons.
- That list includes Cam Henderson, Rick Huckabay and Tom Herrion.
- D'Antoni and Huckabay stand alone, as they were the only Herd head coaches to reach the 10 conference wins while reaching 20 wins.
- That's not all where D'Antoni and Huckabay stand alone, because those two are the last two MU coaches to take the Thundering Herd to the NCAA Tournament.
- For the first time since the 1986-87 season, the Marshall Thundering Herd is in the NCAA Tournament, snapping a 31-year drought. Marshall is the 11th team to win the title in the Conference USA's 23-year history.
- When Marshall defeated the Wichita State Shockers on March 16, 2018, D'Antoni secured the Herd's first ever victory in the NCAA Tournament. That is something that had never been accomplished in MU's 112-year basketball history.

"HILLBILLY BALL"

- In head coach Dan D'Antoni's fourth year at the helm of the Thundering Herd, the Mullens, W.Va., native has instilled his offensive philosophy with Marshall.
- "Instead of a player creating a scoring opportunity, you move the ball quickly so that the ball creates the opportunity," D'Antoni said. "That way, a player who isn't as athletic but is skilled can play against anybody. As long as the ball is free flowing, it'll get to the place where that guy is capable of making that shot."
- Using D'Antoni's "Hillbilly Ball" style, Marshall's thundering offense is usually one of the nation's leaders in both scoring offense and "the best shot in basketball" (the 3-pointer).
- As it stands, the Herd is 10th in scoring offense (84.2 ppg), No. 22 in 3-pointers per game (10) and 13th in total 3-pointers made (350). In fact, 45.3 percent of Marshall's field goal attempts have been shots from behind the arc.
- Through 35 games, the Herd has scored 2,964 points, which is second in program history and fifth in the league history. That means that three consecutive D'Antoni teams are in the top three in total points in school history.
- Under D'Antoni, MU has scored at least 100 points in 10 games, with seven of those games coming in the last two seasons.
- The offense has been rolling for the Herd this season, as it has scored at least 70 points in 34 of 35 contests this season and 80 points in 19 contests.
- The Thundering Herd is one of the most generous teams this season, as its 597 assists are No. 7 in the nation.
- That averages out to 17.1 assists per game, which is 11th among DI schools.
- As it stands, Marshall's 597 total assists are the most in program history and fifth in C-USA history for an individual season.
- This year's Herd also ranks in the top 10 in school history in FTs (eighth), 3-pointers (first), FGs (third) and blocked shots (second).

D'ANTONI'S DEFENSE

- With Marshall's high-octane offense, its defense has always been scrutinized since its scoring defense ranks near the bottom in both the league and the nation.
- With more possessions (78.3 in possessions per game is seventh in the nation) and thanks to Marshall's pace (each Marshall possession averages out to be 14.2 seconds, which is third in the nation, trailing Savannah State and Oklahoma) in a game, teams are more likely to score more points given more opportunities.
- The Herd's defense has improved each season for the last three years (84.9 points allowed in 2015-16, 84 points allowed in 2016-17 and 78.7 points allowed this season).
- Since league play began, the Herd has limited seven opponents to under 70 points, including last year's Conference USA champion, Middle Tennessee, twice. It also held WKU to 66 points in C-USA Championship game.

THE DEPARTED

- With the departures of Ryan Taylor, Austin Loop, Stevie Browning, Terrence Thompson and Aleksa Nikolic, the Herd has some big shoes to fill.
- Those five combined for 125 of 175 starts last season (71.4 percent), 1,665 of 2,997 points (55.5 percent), 212 of 356 three-pointers (59.6 percent), 3,957 of 7,075 minutes played (55.9 percent) and 694 of 1,294 rebounds (53.6 percent).
- With the departures, head coach D'Antoni remarked "This year we lost five players – all contributors. All have been big contributors," D'Antoni said. "The big question for this year's team is not so much talent and not so much experience, but it's more about how they'll play together and the chemistry they develop. This year's team, with a bunch of new players, will have to develop that chemistry. I think we'll be OK talent-wise; I don't see a big drop off there. But there is a big drop off in the chemistry we've developed."

TERRIFIC TRIO

- To fill in for the departures of last year, the trio of Jon Elmore, C.J. Burks and Ajdin Penava have had to step their game up.
- This season, the trio has combined for 2,004 points.
- The three were selected to Conference USA's all-conference teams. They became the first trio to accomplish that since MTSU's Reggie Upshaw, JaCorey Williams and Giddy Potts reached that last season.
- The three are the first Herd trio to be named to an all-conference team in the same year since Keith Veney, John Brannen and Sidney Coles accomplished that in 1997.
- Those 2,004 points have come from 680-of-1,409 (48.3 percent) from the field, 210-of-591 (35.6 percent) from 3-point land and 434-of-532 (81.6 percent) from the charity stripe.
- Those points have accumulated for 68 percent of Marshall's total points this season.
- Those three are the only trio in the league to rack up Conference USA's Player of the Week award, as Elmore, has

Practice coverage

Interviews may be conducted prior to practice on weekdays, or may be arranged through the Marshall Sports Information office. Herd practices are open to the public.

Postgame coverage

At home games, following the visiting coach's postgame remarks, selected players will be brought to the Henderson Center's media room for a postgame press conference. Coach Dan D'Antoni will address the media following the players. At road games, D'Antoni will address the media in a location designated by the host institution.

// TEAM NOTES

- won it three times, Burks has won it twice, while Penava has claimed it once this season.
- No other team in C-USA had six player of the week awards this season.
- It is the second consecutive season Marshall has had three different players claim the award. Last season, Ryan Taylor, Stevie Browning and Elmore all earned the honor.

"RUN THE JEWELS"

- Besides owning one of the most proficient trios in the country, the combination of Jon Elmore and C.J. Burks has been just as efficient.
- The duo is scoring 43.2 points per game, which is the one of the top scoring duos in the nation.
- The two have led the Herd in scoring in 28 of 35 games this season, with Elmore doing so in 20 games and Burks doing so in nine games, while they both tied each other for a team-high in one contest.
- The two's 43.2 points per game accounts for 51.2 percent of Marshall's 84.2 points per game this season.
- Through 18 conference games, the two combined for 43.9 points per game, which is 54.2 percent of Marshall's 81 points per game in league play.
- No other school had two players that have won C-USA's Player of the Week award multiple times.
- The Thundering Herd never had two players win multiple league player of the week honors in the same season while it has been in C-USA.
- When Elmore collected the award on Feb. 26, Marshall became the first school since La. Tech in 2015-16 to win the award with two different players in back-to-back weeks.
- As it stands, the two are on pace to be the third time in program history Marshall had a pair of 20 ppg scorers on the same team and the first time it has happened in 60 years.
- In 1955-56, Charlie Slack (22.6 ppg) and Cebe Price (21.2) accomplished that. Then, two years later, Leo Byrd (24.9) and Hal Greer (23.6) did it.
- Overall, 27 players have averaged 20 or more points per game in a season for Marshall, but it hasn't been done by two players since Byrd and Greer roamed the court together.
- The two stand alone in Herd history, as no other duo has reached 600 points in the same season. That accomplishment could be bolstered if Burks scores 10 points, as that would put him at the 700 point mark.

JONNY BUCKETS

- Junior guard Jon Elmore returns this season after having declared for the 2017 NBA Draft.
- Elmore's return to Marshall after declaring for the NBA draft was not the only good news Marshall fans received in the offseason.
- Elmore isn't only returning for the 2017-18 season – he has the option for two more years of college basketball. Marshall learned on May 17 that Elmore received a release from the original letter intent he signed out of high school, which restores a year of eligibility.
- Elmore currently leads the nation in triple-doubles (two) after dropping 14 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists against UAB on Jan. 20 and racking up 20 points, 10 assists and 10 rebounds against Ohio on Dec. 16 for the sixth triple-double in program history.
- The junior is also one of two players (Oklahoma's Trae Young) to be in both the top 10 in points per game (22.9) per game and assists per game (6.7) in the nation. His points and assists are good for ninth in the nation.
- When Oklahoma traveled to West Virginia on Jan. 6, the Mountain State had the only two players in the top 15 in points and assists playing on the same day.
- Elmore is coming off his second consecutive season of being named to the league's all-conference first team. No Marshall player has done that since John Taft did so in the Mid-American Conference from 1989-91.
- The junior was also named Conference USA's Tournament's MVP after averaging 22.7 points, 8.7 assists and 5.3 rebounds. It was the first time MU was named the C-USA MVP since the Herd joined the league.

JON OF ALL TRADES

- Jon Elmore stands alone when it comes to rebounds though, as no other player in the country is averaging 22 points, 6.9 assists and 5.0 rebounds.
- In over 26 years, only five players have accomplished that. The last player to do so was Iona's A.J. English
- As it stands through 35 games, Elmore could wind up leading the league in points and assists after the season ends. That would put him on track to be the first C-USA player to lead the league in both in consecutive years in Conference USA history.
- The junior is not limited to just offense from, as his defense has made a leap this year. Elmore is 84th in total steals (54).

...AND HE CAN PASS

- If Jon Elmore keeps up his pace of averaging 6.9 assists per game, that would leave him with 247 assists through 36 games, which would be good for the best in program history for a single season, surpassing Mike D'Antoni's 241 assists in the 1971-72 season.
- As it stands, Elmore is at 592 career assists. That is good for No. 7 all-time in Conference USA.
- Through 95 games, the junior is averaging 6.26 assists per game. That would put him at fourth all-time in league history for assist average.
- Elmore entered the Charlotte game on Feb. 24 with 199 assists on the season, and when he found his older brother for a 3-pointer to make it 6-2, he became the first player in program history with multiple seasons of 600 or more points and multiple seasons of 200 or more assists.

ETCHING HIS NAME IN THE HISTORY BOOKS

- As it stands, Elmore is the fifth Herd player to ever score 700 points in a single season. The junior's 801 points are currently second all-time in a single season.
- If Elmore scores just three points, he will have tied Skip Henderson's record of 804 points in a single season.
- Through 95 career games, the junior has scored 1,873 points, which are fourth all-time in program history.
- His 1,846 points are good for 11th all-time in C-USA., but what separates the junior is that Elmore reached the top 15 with the least amount of games played.
- As it stands, Elmore is No. 21 in active career points in the NCAA, but it comes with a twist, as he is No. 3 on the list when only counting juniors.
- The Charleston, W.Va., native's 22.9 scoring average is currently good for No. 16 for a Marshall player in season history and seventh in league history.

CHARITY CHASE

- Jon Elmore's scoring efficiency comes in a variety of ways, but he has been especially lethal from the free throw

5,485

Fan attendance is averaging 5,485 per game at the Cam Henderson Center this season.

// TEAM NOTES

- line.
- His 228 made free throws and his 277 attempts are third and fifth in the nation, while he is making 82.3 percent of them.
- Those free throws are good for second all-time in program history and sixth in C-USA history.
- At the current rate, he is going to the free throw line 7.9 times per game, which is seventh in the nation.
- The junior is currently drawing 6.2 fouls per game, according to KenPom. That rate is good for 74th in the nation.
- As it stands, Elmore is third in C-USA history in career made free throws with 514.

SHOOTERS SHOOT

- In the early part of the season, Jon Elmore tended to struggle from shooting 3-pointers, as he only made 27.1 percent (35-of-129) prior to facing UTSA on Feb. 1.
- After the Herd met the Roadrunners, Elmore has been making 60-of-137 (43.8 percent) from behind the arc.
- That span included five consecutive games of making at least four three-pointers, which had not been accomplished since Keith Veney did so in the 1996-97 season.
- Even after his early season struggles, the rise in three-pointers since UTSA has put his season average at 35.7 percent, which is still a career-high for Elmore.

FAMILY REUNION

- For the second consecutive season, Jon Elmore (Charleston, W.Va.) is joined by his brother Ot (Charleston, W.Va.), a Texas Rio Grande Valley transfer.
- It marks the first time two brothers have played for Marshall since Dan D'Antoni (1967-70) and Mike D'Antoni (1970-73) did so. No set of brothers have played for Marshall at the same time since before 1960 (information not available).
- The Elmore brothers are the first set of family members to play on the same Herd team together since cousins Tamar Slay (1998-02) and Monty Wright (1999-03) did so.
- The Elmore brothers are one of 29 sets of brothers currently playing together in the NCAA.
- The brothers are also one of two sets of brothers in C-USA, as Brandan Stith and B.J. Stith play for Old Dominion.
- When Marshall traveled to Old Dominion on Jan. 13, it marked a moment worth noting. Both Elmore brothers and Stith brothers were on the court at the same time.
- When the Herd welcomed Southern on Nov. 13, Ot Elmore hit two 3-pointers to match his career-best while at Marshall with six points. It also matched his entire points total from the 2016-17 season.
- When Ot Elmore connected on a 3-pointer that Jon Elmore passed him, it marked the first time the Elmore-to-Elmore connection happened in their Herd careers.
- This season, the Elmore-to-Elmore connection is at five.
- When Ot made his first start for the Herd against Charlotte, it marked the first time two brothers started for the Herd.
- It was also a career night for the Elmores on that same night, as the combined for Their combined stat line: 44 points, 15 of 22 shooting, 11 of 17 from 3-point range, 10 rebounds, eight assists and four steals.
- "They were doing something that Mike and I always wanted to do," Marshall coach Dan D'Antoni said, referring to his brother. "They can always talk about that."

THE BOSNIAN BLOCKER

- Ajdin Penava is climbing up the national ranks, as his 4.03 blocks per game and 133 total blocks lead the nation.
- If Penava was a one-man team, he would be in a tie for No. 74 among all DI teams for total blocks.
- That means the junior has more blocks as an individual than 275 teams in the nation.
- At this rate, the junior is on pace to finish the season with 137 blocks through 33 games. That would put him at second overall for a Marshall player, trailing only Hassan Whiteside (182) in the 2009-10 season.
- As it stands, Penava's 137 blocks are the third-most in C-USA history in a single season.
- Penava has had 13 games this season with five blocks or more and three games with at least nine blocks.

PENAVA CHASING WHITESIDE

- In 2009-10, Marshall had Hassan Whiteside, who has developed into an NBA star. Whiteside shattered shot-blocking records during his one season at Marshall, swatting 182 in 34 games – a school-record average of 5.35. That is, obviously, well ahead of Penava's production this season, but it means Marshall could be in elite company by the end of this season.
- In the past 10 years of major college basketball, only one program has produced two different players who averaged 4.0 or more blocks per game: Kentucky. Anthony Davis averaged 4.62 blocks per game in 2011-12, leading the nation. Nerlens Noel, another pro, averaged 4.42 in 2012-13, also leading the nation. With Whiteside and Penava, the Herd could join the Wildcats.
- Penava is turning away shots at a career high rate, but he is piling up the rejections at 6 feet, 9 inches tall. Whiteside is 7-0 with a wingspan of 8 feet. Davis is 6-11. Noel is 6-10.
- The Whiteside-Penava comparisons are not a reach. Whiteside was a freshman when he etched his name into the record books, but he was 20 years old at the start of the 2009-10 season. Penava just turned 21 this week.
- Whiteside and Penava are also the only two players in Marshall history to be named as Conference USA's Defensive Players of the Year.
- Through 35 games, Penava has 513 points, 282 rebounds and 133 blocks. Whiteside had 447 points, 303 rebounds and 182 blocks through 34 games of 2009-10.
- That means Whiteside was averaging 13.1 points, 8.9 rebounds and 5.4 blocks compared to Penava's 15.5, 8.5 and 4.03.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARDS

- Besides being one of the nation's leaders in blocks, Penava has also stepped up his rebounding game.
- The Bosnian's 8.5 boards are No. 66 in the country.
- This has helped Penava become a double-double machine, as he has 14 double-doubles this season, which are good for 29th in the country and are second in the league.
- The junior is also averaging 15.5 points per game, which is good for 11th in C-USA.
- The Bosnian is scoring those 15.5 points per game by shooting 55.3 from field goals, which is No. 48 in the nation.

BURKS BALLIN' OUT

- During the 2016-17 season junior guard C.J. Burks was tasked with being the Herd's "sixth man." This season, the Martinsburg, W.Va., native is breaking out and playing the best basketball of his life.
- The junior is currently averaging 20.3 points per game this season, while he averaged 21.8 league play. His points

// TEAM NOTES

- are second on the team and were third in the league.
- After averaging 24.5 points, five rebounds and three assists in the sweep of preseason conference favorites UAB and Middle Tennessee, Burks earned his first C-USA Player of the Week honor from the league.
- A big part of Burks' offensive output in C-USA has been his three-point shooting. Since conference play began, the junior shot 41.9 from behind the arc. That was good for second in the league for individuals that made at least 100 attempts.
- Burks has also been money from the free throw line, as he is shooting 88.5 from the charity stripe, which is good for No. 21 in the nation and fourth in the league and third all-time for a Marshall player in a single season.
- Since Jan. 11, Burks is 59 for 61 from the line (96.7 percent). For the season he is 89.3 percent, which would be the third best percentage in a single season in school history behind Bunny Gibson (94.4) and John Milhoan (91.3).
- The junior has currently made 33 consecutive free throws.
- Burks 690 points, which is the seventh-best single-season total in school history, while his 84 shots from behind the arc are good for 10th in school history.

FRESHMAN PHENOM

- When freshman guard Jarrod West signed with the Thundering Herd, the coaching staff and fans did not expect to welcome the best spot-up shooter on the team.
- West is currently shooting a team-best 63-of-152 (41.4 percent) from 3-pointers.
- West's defensive approach has also been a welcome addition to the Marshall lineup.
- The freshman boasts 56 steals, which lead the team, are sixth in the league and 67th in the nation.
- West has also been an iron man for the Herd as he is one of only two Marshall players (Jon Elmore) to play in all 35 games this season.
- When West made his collegiate debut against UT-Martin, he became the first true freshman to start for the Herd since Ajdin Penava against Eastern Illinois in 2015.

"ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR WATSON"

- When Marshall traveled to Cincinnati to take on No. 9 Xavier, junior guard and Wake Forest transfer Rondale Watson made his Marshall debut.
- While at Wake Forest, Watson averaged 2.6 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 35 games and 12 minutes per game.
- Through just 20 games, Watson is fourth on the team in points (8.0 ppg) and third in rebounds (3.8), while being tasked as the team's "sixth man" this season.
- In his Marshall debut at No. 9 Xavier, Watson scored 10 points, pulled down one rebound and made one steal.

YOUNG BLOOD

- In the past six games, Marshall's bench has stepped up thanks to the production of freshmen Darius George and Jannson Williams.
- The duo has helped the Herd's bench average 13.3 points per game in the last seventh contests.
- Those past seven games have featured some career games for the true freshman, as George had back-to-back career-highs of 13 points against Charlotte on Feb. 24 and 17 at UAB on March 1.
- In the last six games, however, George has made 21 of 30 shots (70 percent), 5 of 9 from 3-point range (55.5 percent) and averaged 8.8 points per game.
- Meanwhile, Williams has seen his playing time incrementally increase. He has played at least 15 minutes in nine consecutive games, and stayed on the floor for 30 minutes against MT and USM.
- Against No. 24 Middle Tennessee Jannson Williams collected his first career double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds.
- Through the last four games, Williams is averaging 13.2 points and 7.2 rebounds.

"STUDENT"-ATHLETES

- The Marshall Thundering Herd is not just limited to on-the-court accomplishments, as the members of the team have excelled in the classroom.
- Collectively, all of the active players have a GPA of 3.26.
- When Jon Elmore was named to the C-USA All-Academic Team, he became the second player in Marshall history (Austin Loop) to be named to the team three times.

HOME COOKIN'

11 members of the Herd call the Mountain State home, including head coach Dan D'Antoni (Mullens), assistant Mark Cline (Williamson) and assistant coach Cornelius Jackson (Oak Hill).

CONFERENCE USA PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

- Conference USA names a Player of the Week and Freshman of the Week for men's basketball each Monday through March 5. The awards are selected by a media panel with one representative in each league city.
- This season, Jon Elmore and C.J. Burks are one of four players to win the award multiple times
- This season, Marshall is the only school to have three different players earn the honor.
- The trio of Jon Elmore, Ajdin Penava and C.J. Burks mark the third time Marshall has had three players honored in the same season.

QUOTEABLE

"I love the way they play offense. Elmore is a special player. He's as adept shooting threes as he is getting to the foul line. He's surrounded by some really skilled personnel. We have a lot of respect for Marshall. They do a great job of spacing the floor and playing with space. They are difficult to prepare for. It's a big challenge."
- Chris Mack, Xavier head coach (Dec. 18, 2017)

"Marshall right now is playing like one of the best offensive teams in college basketball. I think they spread it around. They're playing well, had a great crowd, great atmosphere...The league is good. We need Marshall to be good in basketball. We do. We need more teams to play at a high level. It just makes our league better, and I think we all know that."
- Kermit Davis, Middle Tennessee head coach (Jan. 29, 2016)

"Marshall was a tough team for us to match up with. The big guys can handle it and drive it, first half we had a hard time guarding them."
- Mark Turgeon, Maryland head coach (Dec. 27, 2015)

"They're a good team. They can really shoot the basketball and spread the floor."
- Dan Majerle, Grand Canyon head coach (Dec. 22, 2015)

DAN D'ANTONI

HEAD COACH // FOURTH SEASON

MARSHALL, '70

Dan D'Antoni, a Marshall Athletics Hall of Famer, was named the Thundering Herd men's basketball coach on April 25, 2014. A former star MU point guard, D'Antoni helped Marshall to appearances in the 1967 and 1968 National Invitation Tournaments.

D'Antoni enters his fourth season after enjoying the most successful season at the helm of the basketball program. It was the Herd's first time to reach 20 wins and the Conference USA Conference Tournament final since 2012. Thanks to the team's "hillbilly style" of basketball, the Herd broke several records, including including points (2,997) and 3-point field goals made (356), while having the No. 7 scoring offense in the nation.

Other on the court highlights included having three separate (Jon Elmore, Stevie Browning and Ryan Taylor) earn C-USA Player of the Week honors, which was the first time a Marshall team had three players recognized in the same season for player of the week honors since the 1986-87 season, Taylor becoming the first player in program and league history to be named the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week on Jan. 11 and Elmore and Taylor becoming the first Marshall duo to be named on C-USA teams since DeAndre Kane and Damier Pitts in 2012.

Marshall also had academic success during the 2016-17 season. Austin Loop became the first person in program history to be named to the All-Academic team three times, while Elmore became the second player in school history to earn the honor multiple times.

D'Antoni's second season at the helm of the Thundering Herd turned many heads across Conference USA and the country with the nation's No. 3 scoring offense. Marshall finished 17-16 and improved in nearly every statistical category to the year prior.

During the 2015-16 season, D'Antoni led the Herd to its first 12-win season in C-USA play, the best conference season Marshall has had since joining the league in 2005. His high-octane offense broke or tied 14 C-USA, school and Henderson Center records. The Herd earned a program-best No. 3 seed in the league tournament and reached the C-USA semifinals for the first time since the 2011-12 season.

The fan support was tremendous throughout the year. Home attendance averaged 5,574 fans per game, while conference games averaged an attendance of 6,022.

Off the court, the Herd hit many academic milestones as well. Seven players were named to the league's Commissioner's Honor Roll, while Jacob Kilgore earned the Commissioner's Academic Medal for achieving a cumulative GPA of 3.75 or better.

"Coaching Marshall basketball has always been a dream of mine," D'Antoni said as he was introduced as the Herd coach, "even when I was little." D'Antoni, a native of Mullens, W.Va., is Marshall's 28th men's basketball coach. He signed a four-year contract.

"It's a dream-come-true for me to bring Dan D'Antoni back to Marshall University," Marshall Athletic Director Mike Hamrick said of D'Antoni's hire. "It's where he belongs. It's taken a while, but he's here."

D'Antoni, 68, is the older brother of former NBA coach Mike D'Antoni. Dan served as one of Mike's assistant coaches for nine NBA seasons. He was a member of the Phoenix Suns' staff from 2005-06 through 2007-08. He spent four seasons on the New York Knicks' staff, then served as an assistant on the Los Angeles Lakers' staff for the past two seasons.

During his career, D'Antoni also served as the head coach of the Knicks' and Lakers' NBA Summer League teams.

After D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970, he joined the Herd staff as the head coach of the freshman basketball team, where he coached his younger brother, Mike, before becoming an assistant coach of the Herd varsity.

D'Antoni was named head basketball coach at Socastee High School in Myrtle Beach, S.C., in 1975. In 30 years at Socastee (1975-2005), D'Antoni accumulated over 500 wins and multiple coach of the year honors, while founding the Beach Ball Classic, one of the most prestigious high school basketball tournaments in the country. That event has featured more than 75 players who have gone on to play in the NBA.

D'Antoni was the head coach of the Beach Ball Select AAU basketball team, which featured future NBA players Raymond Felton and Ramon Sessions.

D'Antoni was an All-State first team selection at Mullens High School. At Marshall, he was the starting point guard on Ellis Johnson's "Iron Man 5" that played in the 1967 and '68 NIT. The 1966-67 team reached the NIT semifinals, and D'Antoni led the tournament in assists as the Herd finished fourth. As a senior, he was an All-Mid-American Conference first team selection in 1968-69, when he led the Herd in scoring, at 17.5 points per game. D'Antoni was All-MAC second team his junior season.

D'Antoni is one of Marshall's 49 players to score 1,000 career points, with 1,109, and ranks 13th on the Herd's career free throw percentage list, at .774 (301-of-389).

D'Antoni -- whose given name is Lewis Joseph D'Antoni II -- was inducted into the Marshall Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990.

D'Antoni graduated from Marshall in 1970 with a degree in Speech and Physical Education, and also earned a Master's degree in Principles of Guidance from Marshall in 1972.

He is the father of three sons, all of whom played collegiate basketball: Matt played at Brown; Andrew attended the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and later served 3½ years in Iraq, rising to the rank of captain in the U.S. Army; and Nick attended William & Mary, where he was captain of the basketball team. D'Antoni and his wife, Vanessa, also are parents of a daughter, Morgan.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DAN D'ANTONI

"Coach D'Antoni is more than a friend to me. I compare him to a second father. We have a great relationship, and I appreciate everything he did for me."

-- Leandro Barbosa (Phoenix Suns), 11-Year NBA pro, 2007 NBA Sixth Man of the Year under D'Antoni

"Danny has been invaluable in the development of players at the high school and professional level. If you have the desire he will get everything out of you. He is a great coach. Players love playing for him and the style will be fun to watch. The Henderson Center will be rocking with excitement!"

-- Mike D'Antoni, Los Angeles Lakers Head Coach

"Dan coached me for two years in New York (Knicks) and taught me a lot about the game of basketball. He made me a better person and a leader. He has the experience, knowledge, and integrity to create a winning atmosphere and develop players on and off the court."

-- David Lee (Golden State Warriors), two-time NBA All-Star

"Dan is a teacher. He's a coach who can relate to his guys off the court but also motivate them on it. He was a huge part of the most enjoyable year of basketball I played in my career, largely because of the style we played and the confidence he gave me."

-- Steve Novak (Toronto Raptors), nine-year NBA pro
