

UMass Lowell Athletic Hall of Fame Nomination Form

Updated May 5, 2010

UMass Lowell alumni who have attained outstanding recognition or superior accomplishments in any varsity sport is eligible for nomination to the UMass Lowell Athletic Hall of Fame.

The nominee shall be chosen on the basis of playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, coaching success, and his or her contribution to the team or teams on which he or she played, and to the University.

UMass Lowell alumni who have enhanced the University's athletic programs and community life are also eligible, as is any alum whose professional attainments have enhanced his or her own prestige and added honor to the University.

The UMass Lowell Athletic Hall of Fame, through the nomination process, may elect and induct an individual who does not qualify as an alum or student-athlete, but whom the selection committee feels should be included in the Hall of Fame because of his or her contribution to UMass Lowell athletics.

Former athletes who competed at the collegiate level are eligible five years after their official graduation date from the University. Members of the University community, including students, alumni, faculty, staff and friends may submit nominations in writing.
