MARYLAND VS CONCORDIA

November 7, 2007 • 8:00 p.m.

College Park, Md. • Comcast Center (17,950)

Radio: Terrapin Sports Radio Network - Johnny Holliday (Play by Play) and Chris Knoche (Commentary). Flagship - WHFS (105.7)/WJFK (1300 AM)

Maryland Notables...

► The University of Maryland opens the 2007-08 season when the Terrapins host Concordia University in an exhibition contest Wednesday, November 7. Tip-off between the Terps and Stingers is set for 8:00 p.m. at Comcast Center.

- Wednesday's game is Maryland's only exhibition contest prior to the regular season opener on November 11 against North Florida.

► Maryland head coach Gary Williams is the seventh-winningest active head coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball with an overall record of 585-328 (.641). He ranks second among active ACC coaches with 378 wins at Maryland (3rd overall) and also ranks second among active league coaches with 157 ACC victories. Williams is the Terps' all-time winningest coach.

► Maryland enters 2007-08 as one of the most consistent winning programs in the country. The Terps have averaged 23.0 wins since the 1994-95 season, including eight consecutive 20-win seasons from 1996-2004. Maryland has made 14 consecutive postseason appearances.

► Maryland opens the regular season against Hampton in the 2007 O'Reilly Auto Parts College Basketball Experience. The Terps are 100-38 (.723) all-time in regular season tournaments and have won 28 championships. Maryland captured the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic Championship last season with a 62-60 victory over Michigan State at Madison Square Garden.

► Maryland returns four players (Gist, Hayes, Osby and Vasquez) who each played in all 34 games last season. Those four returnees have combined for 90 starts and 239 games played.

Terps on the Tube

While Maryland's exhibition game is not being televised, the Terps will be regulars on television throughout the season. Maryland's 2007-08 broadcast schedule includes 15 games which will be broadcast nationally on the ESPN family of networks, Fox SportsNet or ABC. All of the Terps' games in the O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic will be carried live on either ESPN2 or ESPNU, while Maryland will appear at least ten other times on the ESPN networks and at least once on ABC. The ACC Tournament will once again be broadcast live by ESPN, ESPN2 and Lincoln Financial Network. The Terps will make four appearances on the ACC Game of the Week on Fox SportsNet.

New Threads

Maryland is wearing a different uniform in 2007-08, marking the first uniform change for the Terps in 11 seasons. Members of Nike's ELITE program, the Terrapins uniforms are part of the manufacturer's System of Dress program in college basketball.

- The new uniforms consist of a lighter form-fitting top along with longer loose-fitting shorts.
- Maryland's last uniform change came prior to the 1996-97 season.

Fresh Faces

In addition to the experienced core group returning for the Terrapins, coach Williams has brought six newcomers into the fold for the 2007-08 season. Guard Adrian Bowie joins former Montrose Christian teammate Greivis Vasquez in the backcourt this season. Freshman wing Cliff Tucker, a two-sport star from Texas, should compete for playing time. Local products Braxton Dupree, Dino Gregory and Shane Walker will give the Terps depth up front.

Stiff Competition

Maryland will once again play one of the toughest schedules in the country. The Terps will play at least 11 teams which made the postseason a year ago. Maryland will also play in the 2007 O'Reilly Auto Parts CBE Classic, which features former national champions UCLA and Michigan State. The Terps open the tourney against North Florida on Sunday, November 11. Maryland's 16-game ACC slate opens with Boston College on December 9.

Gary WILLIAMS

► 585-328 (29 Seasons) / 378-200 (19th Season) at UMD

Since returning to the College Park campus in 1989, Gary Williams (Maryland '68) has led his alma mater's basketball program from a period of troubled times to an era of national prominence. With 12 NCAA Tournament berths in the last 14 seasons, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, a pair of consecutive Final Four showings, and the 2002 national championship - the first of its kind in Maryland basketball history - Williams and his staff have literally forged what is now more than a decade of dominance in college basketball's most storied and competitive conference.

Now, with 378 victories as Maryland's head coach, Williams stands as the Terrapins all-time winningest head basketball coach. He passed Charles "Lefty" Driesell, who amassed 348 victories in 18 seasons from 1969 to 1986. The Terrapins have averaged 22.8 wins per year since the 1994-95 season.

With 585 career victories in 29 seasons overall, Williams is the seventh-winningest active head coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball. The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams was one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament from 1994-2004. He has produced more than 20 wins in nine of his last 11 seasons, and a school-record eight straight from 1996-97 to 2003-04. With 16 career 20-win seasons, Williams ranks eighth among active coaches.

► In June of 2005, Williams received the University of Maryland's highest alumni honor as he, Connie Chung, Renaldo Nehemiah and others were inducted into the University of Maryland's Alumni Hall of Fame. Williams was inducted into the University of Maryland's Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

► In January of 2005, Williams was named one of Washingtonian Magazine's 'Washingtonians of the Year.' He joined others such as Washington D.C. mayor Anthony Williams and Tim Russert of NBC's Meet The Press on the prestigious list.

► In September of 2004, Williams joined Washington Redskins great Darrell Green and Washington Sports and Entertainment Chairman and CEO Abe Pollin as the inaugural inductees into the new Greater Washington Sports Hall of Champions.

► Williams was one of only five coaches in NCAA Division I to have led his team to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, from 1994-2004. The Terrapins' 2007 appearance in the National Invitation Tournament marked the 14th consecutive postseason berth for Williams' teams.

► In guiding his 2004 Terrapins to the ACC Tournament title, Williams became the third coach in league history to lead his team to victory over the top three seeds: No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 2 NC State and No. 1 Duke. By overcoming a 21-point first half deficit against the Wolfpack, Williams engineered the greatest comeback in the 52-year history of the ACC Tournament.

► He is one of seven college basketball coaches since 1980 to guide his alma mater to the Final Four and was the first since 1974 to lead his alma mater to a national title.

► A winner of nearly 70 percent of his NCAA Tournament games while at Maryland, he ranks ninth among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage overall (.27-14, .659), and ninth in wins (27).

► With a victory over No. 1 Florida in Gainesville on Dec. 10, 2003, he is the winningest coach in the nation against top-ranked opponents (6).

► With his 500th win at NC State on March 2, 2003, the 1968 Maryland grad became the sixth ACC alumnus in conference history to amass as many as 500 coaching victories.

► With 378 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth mentor in Atlantic Coast Conference history to pass the 300-victory milestone.

► With 157 career ACC victories as Maryland's coach, Williams ranks as the third-winningest ACC coach in terms of conference victories. Only Dean Smith (364, North Carolina) and Mike Krzyzewski (264, Duke) have more ACC conference wins.

Williams was heralded as the national and Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year during the Terps' 2002 championship run. He is one of just 11 active coaches in America to boast a national title and one of only three in the conference. He has become the fifth-winningest coach in ACC history after transforming the Maryland program into one of the nation's most formidable, and building a Baltimore-D.C. area following that has consistently resulted in packed arenas. After demolishing attendance records with sellout crowds during the final years of Maryland basketball at Cole Field House, Williams' Terps have finished in the top 10 nationally in each of the last eight seasons. The Terrapins played before 319,616 fans in 2006-07, averaging crowds of 16,882 and selling out 17 home contests.

Williams is one of just two 500-win coaches who now engineer the programs at their respective alma maters, joining Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. With Roy Williams of North Carolina, those three also are the only active coaches to direct their alma maters to at least one Final Four appearance, with Gary Williams and Boeheim making multiple showings with their alma maters.

In 2001, Williams became just the sixth coach since 1980 to direct his alma mater to the Final Four. A year later, he became the first coach since 1974 to guide his alma mater to a national title. Williams is the only active coach to take his alma mater to consecutive Final Four appearances. He is only the eighth mentor ever to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours, and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

A former Terrapin point guard and 1968 graduate, Williams was a starter under coach Bud Millikan during the 1965, 1966 and 1967 seasons. He was the team captain as a senior and still lists one of his most memorable basketball moments as his experience as a spectator at the 1966 national championship game conducted at Maryland's legendary Cole Field House, between Texas Western and Kentucky.

The Terrapins' head coach is an active member of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C. community. Williams is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $250 million fund-raising campaign. In addition to a pledge of a half-million dollars of his own for academic scholarships at the university, Williams will represent the University at various functions and perform various networking duties to spearhead the fundraising efforts.

Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. The coaches participating in this program are dedicated to fighting cancer through increased support for research, patient services, and prevention education.

Williams has also worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events.

For the past two years, Williams has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than $1 million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired the Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceeds for Washington, D.C.'s youth.

Williams' recent charity work has benefited:

- Coaches vs. Cancer
- Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
- National Autism Research
- National Physical Education Council
- The Salvation Army
- The Babe Ruth Museum

Terps Tabbed 6th in ACC Pre-season Poll

Maryland was picked to finish 6th in the ACC Preseason Poll in a vote by the league's media at the 46th Annual Operation Basketball in Greensboro, N.C. The Terps went 10-6 in league play last year, tying for the second-best record on the conference. North Carolina was the unanimous choice to win the 2007-08 ACC regular-season title, followed by Duke, NC State and Clemson.

Commitment To Education

Redshirt freshman forward Jerome Burney has been named the recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award for the men's basketball program. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership, and scholarship abilities.
