Storyline

• Maryland faces 5th-ranked Duke in a quarterfinal matchup of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament. The Terps snapped a three-game losing streak last night with a 75-67 victory over NC State in a first-round game. The Terps lost both games to the Blue Devils this season, falling 71-64 in Durham and 80-62 in College Park.

• The Terrapins are attempting to reach the semifinals for the first time since 2009, when, also as the 7th seed, they beat NC State and Wake Forest en route to a semifinal match with Duke. The Blue Devils won that matchup, 67-61, in what stands as the last ACC Tournament meeting between the two teams. Maryland is 7-9 all-time against Duke in the tournament.

• Maryland got good news this week on the awards front. Sophomore center Jordan Williams was named a third team All-American by both Yahoo! Sports and FoxSports.com. Williams was also voted onto the All-ACC first team by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. Freshman guard Terrell Stoglin earned a spot on the ACC's All-Freshman Team.

• Williams had a double-double last night against NC State with 16 points and 13 rebounds. He moved into second place on the single-season rebound list at Maryland, now with 372. He trails only the 412 rebounds by Len Elmore in 1974. Williams still leads the ACC in rebounding at 11.6 rpg and could become the first Terrapin to lead the league on the boards since Joe Smith nabbed 10.7 rebounds per game in 1993-94. He has 25 games with double figures in rebounds, closing on the school record 26 games by Elmore in 1973-74.

Commitment To Education

Under Gary Williams, the Maryland basketball program continues to place a high priority on education and the personal growth of its student-athletes. Maryland has graduated 12 of its last 14 seniors and all three current seniors are on track to earn their degrees this season.

Adrian Bowie has been named the recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

Many former Terps continue to work toward their degrees while continuing to pursue professional basketball opportunities. Keith Booth, a four-year starter and 1997 All-American, graduated in 2003 after pursuing a professional basketball career that included winning an NBA Championship in 1998, and is now one of Gary Williams' assistant coaches.

Former Terps Calvin McCall, Laron Profit and Terrell Stokes are among the recent men's basketball players to earn degrees from the University of Maryland. Maryland student-athletes all work toward completion of their college degree with the assistance of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit.
