#4 NAVY (7-1) at #1 MARYLAND (8-0)

GAME 9  SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 2004 • 1:00 p.m.
BYRD STADIUM (48,055/Grass), COLLEGE PARK, Md.
Television: WMAR-TV Channel 2
Live Audio: WMUCSports.com • Live Stats: umterps.com

TOP-FOUR SHOWDOWN AT BYRD: NO. 1 TERPS VS. NO. 4 NAVY

- The No. 1 men's lacrosse team in the nation and the only undefeated team, the Maryland Terrapins play host to No. 4 Navy this Saturday at Byrd Stadium. Face-off is set for 1 p.m., in a game that will be televised locally on WMAR-TV Channel 2 in Baltimore. The TV broadcast is the second of three appearances by the Terps on WMAR -- Maryland will also have the 100th game vs. Johns Hopkins (April 17) televised live. Scott Garceau, Keith Mills and Mark Dixon will be joined by former Maryland coach Dick Edell in the booth for the call of the game. The game will also be available live over the Internet at WMUCSports.com with live stats available on umterps.com.
- The Terps (8-0) come into the game after pounding defending national champion Virginia, 11-2, last Saturday at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' defense anchored by goalie Tim McGinnis (Ellicott City, Md.) along with close defensemen Chris Passavia (Stony Brook, N.Y.), Dave Wagner (Severna Park, Md.) and Lee Zink (Rowayton, Conn.) limited the Cavaliers to their fewest goals in a game since 1984 and the fewest against the Terps since 1955. Maryland kept Virginia's top seven scorers pointless including All-Americans John Christmas, Matt Ward and Joe Yevoli. With the stellar defense, the Terps now have the nation's top goals against average, allowing just 6.13 goals per game. The Terps also come into the game -- tied with Navy -- for the second-highest scoring offense in the nation at 12.75. ACC leading scorer Joe Walters (Rochester, N.Y.) leads the team in points with 34 on 22 goals and 12 assists after a four-point game vs. Virginia. Fellow sophomore attacker Xander Ritz (Wayne, Pa.) had three goals and three assists vs. Virginia and is second on the team in scoring with 24 points, leading in assists with 14.
- The win over Virginia gave Maryland its first outright ACC regular-season championship since 1998, also the last time the Terps went 3-0 in the league. The Terps will be the No. 1 seed in the 2004 ACC Tournament held in Chapel Hill, N.C., on the weekend of April 23-25. Maryland last won the ACC Tournament title also in 1998. The 8-0 start overall is also the best since 1998. The last time the Terps started 9-0 was 1987, when they started the year 12-0.
- Navy comes into the game on Saturday in the midst of its best season in more than a decade with a 7-1 record, riding a six-game winning streak. The Mids have reeled off consecutive victories over North Carolina (9-8 in OT), Bucknell (11-5), Hobart (13-8), Colgate (21-6), Army (18-10) and Georgetown (7-5). The most recent win over the Hoyas came last Saturday and marked the first time since 1992 that the Mids beat Georgetown. Navy is led by sophomore Ian Dingman, who is tied with the Terps' Joe Walters for fifth in the nation in points per game (4.25). Dingman tops the Mids' scoring charts with 21 goals and 13 assists for 34 points. Joe Bossi is second in points (23) and goals (19). The Mids' offense is averaging 12.75 goals per game, tied with the Terps for second in the nation. In goal, freshman Matt Russell has emerged as the starter and has a 6.70 goals against average -- sixth in the country. The Midshipmen are allowing just 6.85 goals per game -- sixth in the nation. Their total scoring margin of 5.88 is only second to Maryland at 6.63 for the best in the country.

Top 9 Terp Tidbits

- The Terps have led for 86.9 percent of gametime this season, leading for 417:11 of 480 total minutes over eight games. They have trailed for just 17:56, or 3.7 percent of gametime.
- Maryland won its first ACC regular-season title since 1998 with the win over Virginia. 1998 was also the last time the Terps went 8-0 to start the year.
- Maryland has only allowed 14 first-half goals, outscoring opponents, 56-14. Over the last six games, UM has given up just nine first-half goals.
- Tim McGinnis is first in the nation in GAA at 5.70, including 4.69 in his last six games.
- Of the Terps' 102 goals, 59 have come from sophomores (58 percent), including a team-high 22 by ACC leading scorer Joe Walters. The Terps' top four scorers are all sophomores.
- Of the Terps' 102 goals, a sophomore has either scored or assisted 78 of them (76 percent).
- Joe Walters has at least three goals in six games this season and has scored a goal in 22 of 24 career games.
- Twenty different Terps have scored goals through eight games, including 12 vs. Butler, 11 at Duke and nine vs. Bucknell.
- Both All-American defensemen Chris Passavia and Lee Zink are on the Tewaaron Trophy "Watch List" for the nation's top lacrosse player award. Tim McGinnis was added to the list last week.

TERPS AT TOP OF ACC, NCAA STAT LISTS

- Maryland is the only undefeated team in the nation at 8-0. Brown, which was the only other undefeated team, lost to Syracuse last weekend, 13-6. The Terps as a team are ranked among the nation's best in several statistics and have several players at the top the stat charts as well.
- On defense, Maryland has the best goals against average in the country at 6.13 per game, that mark also tops the ACC.
- The Terps are tied with Navy for second in the nation in total goals with 102 and goals per game (12.75).
- The Terps are also first in the country in goal-scoring margin at +6.63 per game.
- Individually, Joe Walters leads the ACC in scoring with 34 as well as in points per game at 4.25. His total points ranks him tied for third in the nation while the points per game is tied for fifth overall.
- Walters is also seventh in the nation in total goals with 22.
- In goal, Tim McGinnis is first in the nation in goals against average with a 5.70 GAA. He is also third in country in save percentage at 68.0, which is also the best in the ACC.
- Checking other ACC stat charts, Joe Walters leads in game-winning goals with three. Xander Ritz ranks second in the league in assists (14) and assists per game (1.75), also good for 15th nationally.
- Paul Gillette is tied for second in the ACC in groundballs per game at 4.25 while teammate Lee Zink is fourth at 3.71.

SERIES HISTORY WITH NAVY

- The Maryland-Navy rivalry is the second-longest in Terrapin lacrosse history with Maryland holding a 49-28-1 advantage, dating to 1924. The 49 wins are the second-highest number of victories Maryland has against any team. Maryland has defeated Duke 51 times.
- Maryland has won the last 11 meetings in the series including last year's 9-7 win in Annapolis. That win was preceded by four straight 6-5 decisions: at Maryland on April 8, 2000 and April 5, 2002, and at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium in Annapolis on April 10, 1999 and again on April 7, 2001.
- Navy's last win in the series came in 1992, as the Mids upset Maryland, 11-3 in College Park.
- Last year's game broke the uncanny streak of 6-5 games as the Terps beat Navy, 9-7, at Rip Miller Field on April 5, 2003. Joe Walters had four goals in the victory while Dan LaMonica had six assists for the Terps. Paul Gillette and Justin Smith (University Park, Md.) also scored for the Terps.
- In the last game at Byrd Stadium, Mike Morsell scored three goals for the Terps as Maryland held off a furious rally by Navy as they scored the game's final two goals to make it 6-5. Maryland's Chris Passavia forced Navy's Ben Bailey to turn over the ball in the waning seconds to preserve the win. Bailey scored three times for the Midshipmen.
- During the 1990s, Maryland won nine of the 10 meetings.
- The last meeting between the teams when both were ranked in the top four came in 1986, when the No. 2 Terps dined the No. 4 Midshipmen, 11-8, at Byrd Stadium.
- Maryland has also won all four meetings in the NCAA Tournament. The Terps captured their last national championship in 1975 with a 20-13 win over Navy. Maryland also defeated Navy in NCAA semifinal games in 1971, 1976 and 1979.

COACHING MATCH-UP

- Maryland head coach Dave Cottle is currently the third winningest active coach in the country with a 72.9 win percentage with a record of 210-78. He is also 29-8 (78.4) as head coach of the Terps. Navy's Richie Meade is in his 10th season at Navy and has a 68-55 (55.3) record with the Mids. He is 95-78 overall in 14 years as a coach for a 54.9 win percentage.
- Head coach Dave Cottle has a 3-0 lifetime record against Navy. In addition his two wins over Navy while at Maryland, Cottle led Loyola to a 19-8 victory over Navy in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in 1993. The 2002 game was the first between Cottle and Navy's Richie Meade as head coaches.

PLAYING WITH THE LEAD

- Maryland has played with the lead most of the season and has barely trailed through eight games. The Terps have been ahead for 417:11 of 480 total minutes this season. They have only been behind for 17:56 total -- 3.7 percent of game action. The Terps have been tied for 9.3 percent a total of 44:53 minutes -- mostly coming at the start of games.
- In five of eight games, the Terps have never trailed, leading wire-to-wire, scoring first and never falling behind. They took the lead within the first minute against Towson and Bucknell.
- They have led for more than 94 percent of a game on four occasions.

TERPS' HIGH-SCORING OFFENSE

- The Terps' offense has continued to be a major story early in 2004, as Maryland is averaging 12.75 goals per game through the first six weeks of action -- tied for second in the nation. The Terps have scored at least 14 goals in four games and at least 10 in six games. Maryland blasted Duke for a 17-12 ACC win in Durham on March 6 -- for its most goals in an ACC game since 1983. The 19 goals vs. Butler are tied for the third-most by any team in Division I this season and are the most by a Terp team since 2002. Navy holds the top mark this year with a 21-6 win over Colgate.
- The Terps have looked to underclassmen for much of their offense as 59 of the 102 goals (58 percent) have come from sophomores with a quartet of second-year players topping the team in points: Joe Walters, Xander Ritz, Bill McGlone and Brendan Healy. Overall, sophomores have been involved in 78 of the Terps' 102 goals this season with either the goal or assist (76 percent).
- Attacker Joe Walters continues to lead the way, as he has 22 goals -- scoring three or more in six of eight games this season. He netted a career-high tying four goals at Duke and was named ACC Player of the Week on March 8. He has tallied at least three goals in four of the last five games. He posted a career-high seven points vs. Bucknell. He has at least one goal in 22 of his 24 career games at Maryland. Overall, he has 80 career points (3.33 ppg). Walters also has three of the team's eight game-winning goals in 2004 -- also most in the ACC. Walters netted his 50th career goal in his 22nd career game vs. Butler. He now has 55 career goals.
- Attacker Xander Ritz has been an infusion of talent on attack after transferring from Delaware. He is currently second on the team in points with 24 on 10 goals and a team-high 14 assists, which ranks second in the ACC. He had his career game in the season opener at Georgetown on Feb. 28 -- his Terrapin debut -- as he had three goals and four assists for seven points. He was named Inside Lacrosse's National Player of the Week as well as ACC Co-Player of the Week. He had a goal and two assists in the win over Towson on March 13 and added a goal vs. Bucknell. He had two assists at UMBC as well as a goal and assist vs. Butler. He assisted two goals at North Carolina. Ritz posted a six-point game with a three-goal, three-assist performance vs. Virginia last weekend. He has at least one point in each game this season. Overall, dating to last season at Delaware, he has a 11-game point streak.
- Midfielder Bill McGlone is second in goals with 14 and third in points with 17. He had his biggest game as a Terp at Duke on March 6, as he tallied his first career hat trick and added two assists for a five-point day. McGlone surpassed last season's totals of four goals and five points, in just two games -- as he is running with the first midfield. He had one goal in each game over a three game stretch before busting out for a career-high four goals vs. Butler. He is the only Terp besides Walters to have scored a goal in every game this season.
- Sophomore midfielder Brendan Healy (Great Falls, Va.) is fourth in scoring with 14 points on eight goals and six assists. Against Towson, as he scored two goals and added an assist for a career-best three points. Towson was also his first multi-goal game as a Terp. He notched his first-career hat trick vs. Bucknell and added a goal and assist at UMBC. He posted a goal and two assists vs. Butler for his third three-point game this season.
- Senior midfielder Justin Smith has been the steady upperclassman on the first line, as he has nine goals in 2004. He had his first-career hat trick as a Terp vs. Towson and scored two more vs. Bucknell. Smith was held pointless for the first time this season at UMBC. He got back on track with a goal vs. Butler. Overall, he has 38 goals in his last 31 games.
- Senior attacker J.R. Bordley (Vienna, Va.) also had his most productive day as a Terp at Duke, as he scored back-to-back goals in a 4-0 run in the second quarter and added an assist for a career-high three points. He returned to action at UMBC, and scored in the first quarter. He opened the scoring against Virginia with his fifth goal of the season. He has five goals and three assists in seven starts this year.
- Freshman attacker Mike Brown (West Hartford, Conn.) has been a key player of late, scoring two goals in each of the last four games at UMBC, vs. Butler, at UNC and Virginia. Overall, he is the top freshman goal scorer with nine markers and 11 points. Brown netted the game-tying goal and the eventual game-winner at UNC. He has been a clutch player, scoring six of his nine goals in the fourth quarter. He scored back-to-back goals in a 38-second span vs. Virginia. Classmate Michael Phipps (Severna Park, Md.) has nine points (five goals, four assists). He scored back-to-back goals in 59 seconds at UNC. He netted the second goal of the Virginia game giving him goals in two straight games and in all three ACC games this season.

MORE ON THE SUPER "O"

- The Terps have been sensational in the first half, as they have outscored opponents 56-14 in the first 30 minutes.
- The second quarter has been the knockout quarter for the Terps as they have outscored their opponents, 32-8, in the second period. Against Georgetown, they built a 2-1 first-quarter lead to a 9-1 halftime lead with a 7-0 second quarter. Against Duke, it was more of the same, as the Terps outscored the Blue Devils, 6-1, in the second period to break a 4-4 tie and lead 8-4 at half. The Terps outscored Towson and UMBC, 3-1 in the second period. In the Butler win, UM scored four goals in the second to build a 10-0 halftime lead. The Terps jumped out on Virginia, building a 6-1 halftime lead on the way to the 11-2 win at Byrd Stadium.
- In eight games, the Terps have had 20 different goal scorers. On three occasions, nine or more players have scored goals in a game, showing the Terps are certainly spreading the wealth. In the win at Duke, 11 players scored goals including five players who tallied their first career goals: freshman Mike Brown, junior Peter Ellis (Ross, Calif.), sophomore Ryan Lang (Northport, N.Y.), junior Dave Matz (Woodstock, Vt.) and freshman Michael Phipps.
- Nine Terps scored vs. Bucknell including Phipps and Matz with their second goals of the year. Sophomore Bret Caretsky (Northport, N.Y.) tallied his first career goal in the win.
- Against Butler, a season-high 12 players scored goals and 17 had points. Four players tallied their first career goals in the win: redshirt freshmen Brent Hargest (Cockeysville, Md.) and Patrick Howell (Arlington, Va.), freshman Thomas Alford (Washington, D.C.), who had two goals and junior college transfer Terence Dorsey (Baltimore, Md.).
- Maryland's extra-man unit is 7-for-20 this season (35.0 percent) through eight games -- tied for 15th nationally. They were a perfect 4-for-4 in the win at Georgetown, scoring once in each quarter. Joe Walters, Bill McGlone, Justin Smith and Ian Healy tallied the goals. The last time Maryland netted four extra-man goals was in the 2003 opener against Duke, as they went 4-for-6. The perfect day was especially sweet as the Terps worked hard on improving the EMO. Last season, they scored just four goals on their final 41 man-up chances spanning the final 10 games. Smith had his second EMO goal vs. Towson.

TERPS

2 Maryland features two preseason first team All-Americans and Tewaaron Trophy candidates in Chris Passavia and Lee Zink.

2 Two Terps, Bill McGlone and Joe Walters have scored goals in all seven games this season.

3 The Terps will be featured on WMAR-TV three times this season: March 13 vs. Towson, April 10 vs. Navy and April 17 vs. Johns Hopkins.

5.70 Tim McGinnis is first in the nation in goals against average at 5.70

11 Sophomore Xander Ritz has a 11-game point scoring streak, longest on the team.

19 The Terps' 19 goals vs. Butler was the third-most by any team in a game in 2004.

20 20 Terps have scored goals this year.

22 Joe Walters has scored in 22 of his 24 career games as a Terps, including 33 goals last season, second-most for goals by a freshman in a season.

59 Of the Terps' 102 goals this season, 59 came from sophomores (58 percent)

55 Joe Walters has 55 career goals in only 24 collegiate games.

79 This is the 79th season of Maryland lacrosse, the Terps are 645-205-4 all-time.

100 Maryland will play Johns Hopkins for the 100th time in history this season on April 17, 2004.

210 Coach Dave Cottle's lifetime record in 23 years as a head coach is 210-78.

1975 Maryland last won the NCAA Championship in 1975.

THE TERPS' STIFLING DEFENSE

- With all the talk of the Terps' offense clicking at such a high rate, the heralded defense has been equally impressive this season. Maryland has been strong on defense in eight games, limiting opponents to a 6.13 GAA, best in the nation. Over the last six games, the team GAA is 5.33 including the nation's top goalie Tim McGinnis with a 4.69 personally in the last five games.
- Similar to last season, Maryland has held opponents scoreless for long stretches of game time. In 16 games last season, the Terps kept opponents scoreless for stretches of 20 or more minutes on 10 occasions. They have done it six times already this season in eight games -- with two streak coming against Virginia.
- Against Georgetown, the Hoyas were held off the board for 23:22 spanning the first quarter to the early third quarter. The Hoyas trailed 9-1 at halftime, scoring just once in the game's first 34:05. Georgetown turned the ball over 25 times, with 14 of them being forced by a Terp. Senior captain and All-American Lee Zink led the way with four caused turnovers.
- Maryland pitched a shutout for the first 29:10 of the Towson game, before allowing a goal with 50 seconds left in the first half. Maryland then shutout the Tigers for the entire third quarter -- limiting them to one goal over the game's first 49:37.
- Against Bucknell, the Terps held the Bison scoreless until 11:54 left in the first half, marking the second game in a row they have blanked an opponent in the first quarter. Bucknell was also held to just one goal until 12 seconds were left in the first half -- a stretch of 29:48, allowing just one goal.
- At UMBC, it was more of the same, as the stifling defense kept the Retrievers off the board for 29:12 bridging the second through fourth quarters. After scoring early in the fourth quarter, Maryland locked them down for the next 10:40 -- allowing just one goal in 39:52. Tim McGinnis made eight saves in the fourth quarter at UMBC, allowing just four goals all game.
- The Butler game provided the best shutdown defense for the Terps, as they held the Bulldogs off the scoreboard for the first 39:11, shutting them out in the first half. Once Butler scored with 5:49 left in the third quarter, they did not allow another goal until the final minute of the quarter -- giving up one goal in 44:28.
- Maryland had its best defensive performance of the season against defending national champion Virginia as they held the Cavaliers to just two goals -- their lowest total since May 1984. The two goals allowed were the fewest by the Wahoos in the series since an 18-0 shutout in 1955. The Terps held Virginia scoreless for the first 24:41 of the game and then for the final 27:59 of the game. Maryland blanked Virginia's top seven scorers, holding them all pointless including All-Americans John Christmas, Matt Ward and Joe Yevoli.

TOP-NOTCH DEFENDERS

- In goal, graduate student Tim McGinnis has allowed six or fewer goals in six of eight games this season. Overall, he has a 5.70 goals against average and a 68.0 save percentage. He had 15 saves in the win over Towson, giving up just one goal through the first 49:37. He had 13 saves at UMBC including eight in the fourth quarter. He blanked Butler for the entire first half. Against No. 4 North Carolina, he made 14 saves and gave up nine goals to the high-scoring Tar Heels and was named ACC Player of the Week. McGinnis had his best game as a Terps against Virginia, racking up 17 saves, allowing just two goals for a single-game 89.5 save percentage and was named the Under Armour TerpVision Player of the Game.
- Senior captains and All-Americans Chris Passavia and Lee Zink have been stellar this season. They have sliced and diced their opponents, combining to force 47 turnovers in eight games. Passavia leads the team with 25. They have combined to scoop up 47 groundballs as well to rank second and third in the team - Zink (26) and Passavia (21). The duo has consistently shut down opponents' top scoring threats. They held Georgetown's All-American tandem of Walid Hajj and Neal Goldman to one assist between the two. Passavia forced Duke's top scorer Matt Danowski into six turnovers. Against Bucknell, the Terps held the nation's leading scorer Chris Cara to just one goal, as he came into the game averaging over six points a game. Butler's top player Kyle Tietjen, who came into the Maryland game with the most goals in the nation was also held scoreless. Against UNC, Scott Falatach was held to one assist by Zink, while that week's national top goal-scorer Jed Prossner was forced into six turnovers by Passavia. Against Virginia, Passavia and Zink held the Cavaliers top scorers and preseason All-Americans John Christmas and Matt Ward pointless and forced them into three turnovers apiece.
- Other defenders have stepped up their play including fellow senior captain Dave Wagner along with juniors Gavin Webb (Columbus, Ohio) and Tyler Hereth (Glastonbury, Conn.) and have been valuable contributors. In his first season as a starter, Wagner has 16 groundballs. Webb has 18 groundballs in his time.
- Captain and short-stick defensive midfielder Paul Gillette has been steady and consistent as usual and leads the team with 34 groundballs through eight games, with seven coming at Duke where he also scored and assisted a goal. The team's unsung hero also has assists in four of the last five games and has six total points, seeing time on the second midfield in addition to his defensive duties.
- Short-stick defenders Drew Virk (Ross, Calif.) and Ryan Lang have been strong in helping the defense as well.

Head Coach
Dave COTTLE

Dave Cottle, the third winningest active coach in lacrosse, begins his third season at the helm of the Maryland lacrosse program in 2004. He was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001, after a sensational 19-year stint as the head coach at Loyola College in Baltimore.

Cottle, 48, took the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

He enters the 2004 season as the third winningest active coach in the sport of lacrosse, winning 72.1 percent of his games for a 202-78 record. He picked up his 200th career victory in the Terps' 10-4 win at Notre Dame last season (May 3, 2003).

Last season, he led Maryland back to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years, but the first since 1998. The Terps had a stellar season finishing ranked No. 3 in the nation after being ranked in the top seven all season.

Maryland piled numerous accolades as they had eight USILA All-Americans including first-teamer and National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley.

The Terps posted a 12-4 record in 2003 and gave Cottle his third trip to the national semifinals. He led the Greyhounds to two national semifinal appearances including an appearance in the 1990 championship game.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been his emphasis on a strong work ethic, intelligent recruiting, attention to detail, and a creative approach to the game. He also is a true believer in the concept of "student-athlete." In each of the last three years, his team's graduation rate has been 89 percent or higher. Five of Cottle's players earned Academic All-America honors.

He led his Loyola teams to top-10 finishes in each his 14 seasons. The Greyhounds finished with a winning record the final 18 years of his tenure, dating to 1984. Loyola also played in 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

Cottle led the Greyhounds to two national semifinal appearances including the 1990 championship game.

He has led his teams to top-10 finishes in each of the past 14 seasons. The Greyhounds have finished with a winning record for the past 18 years dating to 1984. Loyola has also played in the last 14 NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he rewrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still holds many places in the Salisbury State record book, and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score over 100 points in a single season. The nation's leading scorer in 1975, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Edgewater, Md.

Records through April 8, 2004

100TH MARYLAND/HOPKINS GAME: APRIL 17, 2004

- Maryland will play Johns Hopkins for the 100th time in lacrosse history on April 17, 2004. The game will be played at Hopkins' Homewood Field in Baltimore. It will be televised live on WMAR Channel 2 in Baltimore and nationally on College Sports Television (CSTV).
- Maryland and Hopkins are the two most storied lacrosse programs in the nation, with the rivalry beginning with back in 1895 as Hopkins defeated the Maryland Agricultural College. The Blue Jays (32) and Terps (26) have played in the first and third most NCAA Tournaments since the event began in 1971, respectively. Maryland (108) and Hopkins (171) have produced the most first team All-Americans in the history of lacrosse dating to the first awards in 1922.
- This year's historic event will feature both teams wearing "throwback jerseys." The Terps will wear the mode of the early 70s when they won two NCAA championships including the 1973 title when they beat the Blue Jays in double-overtime, 10-9 on June 2, 1973.
- The logo to the right will be worn by both teams on their commemorative jerseys. Following the game, the jerseys will be auctioned off for charity with Maryland's funds going to the Ronald McDonald House of Baltimore. Hopkins' money will go to the Hopkins Children's Hospital.
- Overall, Hopkins holds a 62-36-1 lead in the series. Since the Terrapins elevated to a varsity sport in 1924, Maryland has a 36-52-1 record against Johns Hopkins. There has been at least one Maryland-Hopkins game every year since 1924 with the exception of 1944 and 1945 when World War II kept the schools from fielding teams.

2004 TEAM CAPTAINS: GILLETTE, PASSAVIA, WAGNER, ZINK

- The Terps have named a quartet of captains for the 2004 season. They will be led by seniors: midfielder Paul Gillette (Millersville, Md.), defenseman Chris Passavia (Stony Brook, N.Y.), defenseman David Wagner (Severna Park, Md.) and defenseman Lee Zink (Rowayton, Conn.). All four players are defensive standouts for the team and were voted captains by their teammates during the fall season.

PUTTING ON THE RITZ: XANDER EARNS HONORS

- Maryland sophomore attacker Xander Ritz had a huge first week at Maryland. After his seven-point performance against Georgetown in the Terps' 14-5 on Feb. 28, he has been named Inside Lacrosse's National Division I Player of the Week, the ACC Co-Player of the Week and the Maryland Student-Athlete of the Week.
- In his first game as a Terrapin, Ritz put on a star performance with a career-high seven points on three goals and four assists as the Terps cruised past No. 6 Georgetown at Harbin Field on Feb. 28. Ritz opened the Terps' scoring to start a 9-0 run as Maryland built a 9-1 halftime lead. Ritz tallied the Terps' sixth goal -- the eventual game-winner -- in that run. He also assisted four other goals including the final goal of the game for the 14-5 final. The seven points were the most by any Maryland player since Mike LaMonica had eight on May 4, 2002.

TERPS ON WMAR-TV THREE TIMES IN 2004

- WMAR-TV (channel 2) in Baltimore will continue its bold concept of telecasting college lacrosse in the state of Maryland by presenting the TOYOTA Lacrosse Game of the Week. Beginning Saturday, March 6 and continuing through Saturday, May 8, WMAR will broadcast 10 games live. Included in the package are three Maryland games. The Terps will be featured on WMAR, three times during the 2004 season: March 13, when Towson comes to Byrd Stadium, April 10, when the Terps host Navy and April 17 when Maryland travels to Johns Hopkins for the 100th Maryland/Hopkins game. Scott Garceau, Keith Mills, Mark Dixon and former Terp coach Dick Edell make up WMAR's broadcast team that will bring the Baltimore area great lacrosse television coverage.

Sat. April 10	Navy at Maryland	1:00 p.m.
Sat. April 17	Maryland at Hopkins	8:00 p.m.
Sat. April 24	Penn at Loyola	1:00 p.m.
Sat. May 1	Towson at Hopkins	3:00 p.m.

TERPS' 79TH SEASON OF LACROSSE

- The Terps have an all-time record of 645-205-4, dating back to the first varsity team in 1924 (a team was not fielded in 1944 and 1945 due to World War II). Maryland has finished every one of its previous 78 seasons with a .500 or better record, including last season when the Terps went 12-4. The program's 600th win came against Duke on April 21, 2000, 7-6 in the ACC Semifinals at Byrd Stadium.
- Since 2000, Maryland is 53-16 for a .768 win percentage. In the decade of the 1990s, Maryland recorded its most wins in any decade with a 95-47 record. The .669 winning percentage matched Maryland's win percentage of the 1980s when the Terps went 83-41 and also compiled a .669 win percentage.

PASSAVIA & ZINK UP FOR TEWAARATON

- Maryland All-American defensemen Chris Passavia and Lee Zink are among the 26 men named to the 2004 Tewaaraton Watch List. This preseason list highlights the players to watch, as all NCAA Division I, II and III players vie for the most coveted and prestigious award in varsity lacrosse, the Tewaaraton Trophy.
- Graduate goalie Tim McGinnis was added to the "Watch List" after his sensational start this season.
- The Tewaaraton Trophy is presented annually following the collegiate season to the top female and male varsity collegiate lacrosse players in the United States. The trophy will be presented in Washington, D.C., on June 3, 2004, at a banquet honoring the finalists and trophy winners. The ceremony will be held at the National Geographic Society Auditorium and will be broadcast by CSTV. Former Maryland coach Dick Edell is serving as the Chair of the committee which presents the award. Scholarship money is given to the recipient's college or university general scholarship fund. The Foundation committee honors Native American heritage with the name "Tewaaraton," the name the Mohawk nation gave to their game and the progenitor of present day lacrosse which has received approval from the Mohawk Council of Elders.

FOUR TERPS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

- The Terps placed two players on the Face-Off Magazine Preseason All-American list. Maryland will be led by its pair of preseason first-team All-American defensemen, Chris Passavia and Lee Zink. Both Passavia (second team) and Zink (third team) were USILA All-Americans last season. The Terps also feature two preseason Honorable Mention All-Americans in attacker Joe Walters and midfielder Justin Smith.

CSTV PACKAGE FEATURES TERPS TWICE

- College Sports Television (www.cstv.com), the fastest-growing independent cable network, will feature college lacrosse powers such as Princeton, Virginia, Syracuse, Johns Hopkins and Maryland as part of its CSTV Lax college lacrosse schedule, the sport's first live nationally televised game of the week series. In addition, CSTV Lax will televise five NCAA Lacrosse Championship games live: Men's Division II and III, and Women's Division I, II and III.
- The national network is available on DirecTV Channel 610 as well as certain cable systems across the country.

MEN'S LACROSSE GAME RECAPS

Game 1 • February 28, 2004 Harbin Field, Washington, D.C. No. 5 Maryland 14, No. 6 Georgetown 5

WASHINGTON, D.C. - No. 5 Maryland reeled off nine consecutive goals in the final 17 minutes of the first half blow out No. 6 Georgetown, 14-5, on a sunny afternoon at Harbin Field.

Sophomore Xander Ritz tallied seven points in his Terp debut on three goals and four assists. Fellow sophomore attacker Joe Walters netted his seventh career hat trick in the win with three goals.

"This was a great performance for us," said head coach Dave Cottle. "The second quarter was as good as I've seen us play. Our defense and offense were very strong all afternoon and this is a solid way to begin the season. It was a great day for Maryland."

Through the first 11 minutes, the game stood scoreless as both goalies - Maryland's Tim McGinnis and Georgetown's Rich D'Andrea were sensational, with each making six saves. After Georgetown's Kevin Langtry opened the scoring with 4:17 left in the first quarter, the floodgates opened up as the Terps reeled off nine consecutive goals.

Ritz, the transfer from Delaware, opened the scoring with his first of two goals in the 9-0 run with 2:13 left in the first quarter. Walters then took a pass from Ritz to make give the Terps the lead they would never relinquish with 1:26 left in the first period.

The second quarter was all Maryland -- outscoring the Hoyas 7-0. Goals came from seven different players in the run: Justin Smith, Michael Hartofilis, Bill McGlone, Ritz, Walters and brothers Ian Healy and Brendan Healy closed the scoring tear to make it 9-1.

The defense was just as strong as the offense as Terp seniors captains Paul Gillette, Chris Passavia, David Wagner and Lee Zink along with fellow defenders Gavin Webb, Drew Virk and Tyler Hereth allowed just one goal in the first half and limited preseason All-Americans Walid Hajj and Neal Goldman to just one assist in the game.

In goal, McGinnis was sensational in his first game with Maryland as he made 13 saves in the first 52 minutes before giving way to freshman Harry Alford, who made three saves.

Maryland was a perfect 4-for-4 on man-up opportunities as Walters, Ian Healy, Smith and McGlone tallied extra-man goals. It was the first time since the season-opener last season vs. Duke, that Maryland scored four man-up goals.

The win was the Terps' 11th in a row in a season opener and moves Maryland to 75-3-1 in season openers.

Ritz' seven points were the most by a Terp since Mike LaMonica had eight (six goals and two assists) vs. UMBC on May 4, 2002.

The win over a top-10 by nine goals was the largest margin of victory since the Terps' 19-8 win over Loyola in the NCAA Semi-finals on May 23, 1998.

Game 2 • March 6, 2004 Koskinen Stadium, Durham, N.C. No. 2 Maryland 17, No. 6 Duke 12

DURHAM, N.C. - In the highest scoring Maryland/Duke game since 1983, the No. 2 Terps outscored the No. 6 Blue Devils, 17-12, at Koskinen Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Sophomore Joe Walters led the way for Maryland as he had four goals and two assists to tie his career high of six points.

With the game tied at four apiece with 10:54 left in the first half, Maryland ripped off four goals in a row to take a 8-4 halftime lead, which they would never relinquish. The run started off a goal by senior captain Paul Gillette off a face-off win. Senior J.R. Bordley scored the next two goals to put Maryland up 7-4. Freshman Michael Phipps finished the mini-run with his first career goal for the 8-4 halftime lead.

Maryland outscored the Blue Devils, 6-1, in the decisive second quarter after trailing 3-2 at the end of the first quarter. Combined with the 7-0 margin in the second quarter, the Terps have outscored their opponents 13-1 in the second period.

The game featured 11 different goal scorers for Maryland led by Walters and Bill McGlone who tallied his first career hat trick along with two assists for a five-point game -- also a new career high. Bordley was the only other Maryland player to score in double-figures.

Eight Terps scored once -- many of which came in transition resulting the first career goals for defensive midfielders Peter Ellis and Ryan Lang. Also scoring their first career goals in the win were junior Dave Matz and freshman Mike Brown -- which closed out the scoring.

On defense, Tim McGinnis made 10 saves in the win. Gillette and sophomore Xander Ritz each had seven groundballs while senior All-American Chris Passavia had five caused turnovers for the Terps.

Duke was led by freshman Peter Lamade who had three goals. Fellow freshman Matt Danowski was limited to two goals -- by Passavia -- after netting 13 in his first two college games. Chris Haunss had a goal and five assists for a team-high six points.

With two teams that traditionally play low-scoring defensive games, the 17-12 outcome resulted in the most goals in the series since 1983 when Maryland beat the Blue Devils, 25-7. It was also Maryland's first win at Duke since 1998, when they beat the Devils, 15-9 on Feb. 28.

Game 3 • March 13, 2004 Byrd Stadium, College Park, Md. No. 2 Maryland 8, No. 18 Towson 6

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Maryland rode a stalwart defense through three quarters and held off a late Towson surge to up-end its in-state rivals 8-6 in the home opener Saturday before 2,495 at Byrd Stadium.

Senior midfielder Justin Smith registered his first hat trick as a Terrapin - his fifth overall -- and graduate student Tim McGinnis had a solid effort in goal with 15 saves to keep the Terps undefeated through three games.

McGinnis held the Tigers (1-2 overall) scoreless until the final minute of the first half as Maryland took a 4-1 lead into the break. Smith found the back of the net twice, and Brendan Healy and Joe Walters provided the remainder of the first-half scoring.

The second half was a tale of two quarters as Maryland exploded for four third-quarter scores and McGinnis kept the Towson attack at bay.

After the Terps had built the 8-1 lead, the Tigers (1-2) began their comeback on Keith Obloj's first goal of the season with 10:23 remaining. They would score four more times, and narrowed the margin to 8-6 with 3:09 remaining, but Maryland's defense turned away the Tigers in the game's waning moments - including a key strip by senior Chris Passavia on Obloj deep in Maryland territory with under two minutes remaining.

Talented transfer Xander Ritz tallied one goal and two helpers, while Healy had his first career multi-goal game. Bill McGlone added the Terps other goal.

Maryland has now won the last nine regular-season games against Towson, dating to 1995.

Game 4 • March 17, 2004 Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex, College Park, Md. No. 2 Maryland 14, Bucknell 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Nine different Terps scored as No. 2 Maryland topped Bucknell, 14-7, at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex in College Park. Sophomores Joe Walters and Brendan Healy led the way, as each tallied a hat trick. Walters piled up a career-high seven points including four assists in the win.

Maryland (4-0 overall) broke out to a 4-0 lead just 7:16 into the first quarter as Walters, Justin Smith, Michael Phipps and Healy scored early. Walters set up Smith's and Healy's goals to begin his big day.

After Bucknell's Chris Cara -- the nation's leading scorer -- got Bucknell on the board 3:06 into the second period, Maryland reeled off three more goals coming from Ian Healy, Dave Matz and Smith for the 7-1 advantage. Ross Albers scored with 12 seconds in the first half for the 7-2 halftime margin.

Maryland's Walters came back for more to open the third with his second goal of the game followed by two more from sophomores Xander Ritz and Bill McGlone.

The Terps entered the fourth with a 10-3 advantage. Brendan Healy then tallied back-to-back goals for his first career hat trick just 2:12 into the fourth followed by Walters' third of the day as Maryland took a 13-3 lead.

Bucknell (2-3 overall) scored four of the game's final five goals sandwiched around the first career goal for Maryland sophomore Bret Caretsky with 8:04 left in regulation. Freshman Thomas Alford was credited with his first career point with an assist on the goal.

The Terps' defense was top-notch again, as they held the opponent scoreless in the first quarter for the second consecutive game. Maryland outscored Bucknell 3-2 in the second quarter and now has outscored opponents 19-4 in the second period through four games this season.

All-Americans Chris Passavia and Lee Zink combined for nine caused turnovers and seven groundballs. The nation's leading scorer, Cara, who came into the game with 25 points in four games (6.25 ppg) was limited to just one goal and two assists in the loss.

In goal, on St. Patrick's Day, Tim McGinnis made four saves, allowing just three goals, playing into the fourth quarter before giving way to freshman Harry Alford, who also made four saves.

On face-offs, the Terps had their best day of the young season, winning 14-of-24, led by senior Drew Virk, who won 6-of-8. Sophomore David Tamberrino also won six draws.

Bucknell's Brian Gargan scored two goals in his Maryland homecoming. Goalie Matt Baran was strong in net with 15 saves.

In a first quarter dominated by ball-control, the Terps took a 2-1 lead as Brendan Healy scored just 1:04 into the game. After UMBC's Brendan Mundorf scored to tie the game at 1-1, J.R. Bordley netted a goal off a feed from Walters for the 2-1 lead.

Game 5 • March 20, 2004

UMBC Stadium, Catonsville, Md.

No. 2 Maryland 9, No. 13 UMBC 4

CATONSVILLE, Md. - The No. 2 Maryland men's lacrosse team stayed perfect with a 9-4 win at No. 13 UMBC on Saturday afternoon. Sophomore Joe Walters netted a natural hat trick with three consecutive goals in the second quarter for a 5-2 half-time lead. Freshman attacker Mike Brown scored two second-half goals for the 5-0 Terps. Graduate goalie Tim McGinnis backstopped a strong defense, making 13 saves -- including eight in the fourth quarter.

Maryland's defense was sensational once again holding UMBC scoreless for 29:12 bridging the second through the fourth quarter before Brendan Mundorf scored his second of the game with 13:41 left in regulation to make it 6-3.

The Terps quickly answered as Brown netted his second goal of the game -- this one in transition off a pass from senior captain Paul Gillette to make it 7-3 just 38 seconds after UMBC broke their drought. The Terps then built the lead to 9-3 as sophomore Bill McGlone scored for the fifth straight game and junior Andrew Schwartzman tallied his first of the year.

Led by McGinnis and his eight fourth-quarter saves, close defenders David Wagner, Gavin Webb and Chris Passavia were strong as UMBC ripped off 16 shots -- scoring just twice.

Brown scored the game's only goal in the third quarter, off a pass from Xander Ritz -- his second helper of the game.

The second quarter was the Joe Walters show, as the sophomore attackman netted a natural hat trick with three consecutive goals over a span of 8:36 with the third goal in the run coming with 1:48 left in the first half giving Maryland the 5-2.

Game 7 • March 27, 2004

Fetzer Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

No. 2 Maryland 10, No. 4 UNC 9

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Freshman Mike Brown scored two fourth-quarter goals including the game-tying goal and eventual game-winner to lift the No. 2 Terps to a 10-9 win at No. 4 North Carolina on Saturday. Sophomore Joe Walters continued his torrid scoring stretch with four more goals in the huge conference road win, keeping Maryland perfect at 7-0, 2-0 in the ACC. North Carolina is now 5-2 overall, 1-1 in the league.

The Terps moved to No. 1 in the nation with the win after Hopkins was beaten in overtime by Virginia, 9-8.

"What a team effort by Maryland this afternoon," said head coach Dave Cottle. "You have to give credit to the seniors for outstanding play in a tough game. Also the freshman like Mike Brown and Michael Phipps each came up big, scoring twice in the game."

Trailing 8-7 heading into the fourth quarter, Brown scored the game-tying goal on a fast-break off a pass from Chris Passavia, just 30 seconds into the fourth.

Walters netted the go-ahead goal with a blistering shot that beat UNC goalie Paul Spellman off a pass from Justin Smith with 9:23 left in regulation to make it 9-8.

The Terps scored the game-winner with 6:48 left in the fourth on one of the prettiest plays of the season. Senior midfielder Paul Gillette began a transition running up the right side of the field, he then fed Xander Ritz, who quickly dished it off the Brown, who beat Spellman. That put the Terps up 10-8.

UNC got to within one as Mike McCall picked up a loose ball in the crease off his own shot and scored with 1:37 left. But Maryland gained possession on a turnover with just over one minute left and was able to use the clock down to the final seconds not allowing the Tar Heels a chance to tie the game.

Maryland controlled the first half, building a 7-3 halftime lead. After a UNC's Jed Prossner scored the game's first goal 1:57 into the game. The Terps scored seven of the game's next eight goals with Walters netting three straight Maryland goals over a span of 4:34 from the late first quarter to early second quarter, making it 4-2.

Andrew Schwartzman scored an unassisted goal on a rifle shot for a 5-2 lead. Then Michael Phipps netted back-to-back goals 59 seconds apart for a 7-2 lead with 2:43 left in the first half.

The Tar Heels opened up their offense in the third quarter, outscoring the Terps 5-0 to take that 8-7 lead. Four different Tar Heels scored in the run: Bryant Will (with two), Andrew McElduff, Mike McCall and Ryan Blair.

Prossner finished with three goals in the game - all of UNC's goals in the first half.
