2005 MARYLAND MEN'S SOCCER

THE MARYLAND SOCCER EXPERIENCE

"I chose Maryland because I saw it as a program that was growing. Sasho, the players and everyone involved with the program had things going in the right direction and I felt I could help build on that during my career. The program has come a long way and put itself on the national scene and I believe it is on its way to a national championship. All-around it was a great choice for me and I'm a proud alum."

KEITH BEACH
MARYLAND (1995-1998)

"I feel I grew tremendously during my years here at Maryland, which I believe is the best program in the country."

DAN CALIFF
MARYLAND (1998-1999)

"My college experience was the exact step that I needed to take to get to the professional level. I owe a lot to Sasho, the program and the guys around me."

LEO CULLEN
MARYLAND (1995-1997)

"I knew Sash was fully committed to retaining a high level of success while providing the facilities and training environment necessary to further players' careers in the professional ranks. Also, Maryland as a school has become highly respected academically, which is important as student-athletes look to further their lives outside of soccer."

SETH STAMMLER
MARYLAND (2000-2003)

"The University of Maryland and Sasho Cirovski provided an excellent platform for me to raise my game and be a part of a first-class program, both athletically and academically."

TAYLOR TWEWMAN
MARYLAND (1998-99)

"The blend of academics and athletics at Maryland creates an environment conducive for developing as both a person and a player. Sasho and the other coaches helped prepare me not only for the professional ranks, but life in general. The commitment to excellence shines through with blinding radiance, and the program is not far from reaching the pinnacle of collegiate soccer."

ABE THOMPSON
MARYLAND (2000-2004)
