SETTING THE SCENE

- Memphis (15-6, 6-1 C-USA) returns to the road for the first time since Jan. 18 when it travels to Hattiesburg, Miss., on Wednesday, Feb. 1 to meet longtime rival Southern Miss (19-3, 6-1 C-USA) in a Conference USA showdown at Reed Green Coliseum. The game, to be televised on CBS Sports Network (CBSSN), is slated for a 7:15 p.m. (CT) start.
- The Tigers were not ranked in either national polls, which were released Jan. 30. Southern Miss is listed in the Also Receiving Votes of both polls (No. 33, AP/No. 36 coaches).
- Memphis enters Wednesday's encounter having won nine of its last 10.
- The Tigers bounced back after its Jan. 18 loss at UCF with three-straight home wins over SMU 63-45 Jan. 21, Rice 73-51 Jan. 25 and Marshall 83-76 Jan. 28.
- Prior to the Jan. 18 setback to UCF, the Tigers had won six straight with victories over Robert Morris 64-47 Dec. 29, Charlotte 67-58 Dec. 31, Tennessee 69-51 Jan. 4, UAB 62-59 Jan. 7, Southern Miss 60-58 Jan. 11 and Houston 89-55 Jan. 14.

WHAT THE GOLDEN EAGLES DID LAST YEAR

- Southern Miss posted a 22-10 overall record and a 9-7 Conference USA mark.
- The Golden Eagles finished in fifth place in the C-USA regular season standings.
- Southern Miss defeated Tulane in the C-USA Tournament opening round, but dropped a narrow 66-63 decision to Memphis in the tourney's quarterfinals.
- The Golden Eagles did not play in any of the postseason tournaments.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN EAGLES

- Southern Miss brings a 19-3 overall record and a 6-1 C-USA mark into Wednesday's league encounter.
- The Golden Eagles have won 15 of their last 16, with the lone loss a narrow 60-58 setback at Memphis Jan. 11.
- The loss to Memphis ended Southern Miss' 11-game win streak, the program's longest since 1987-88.
- Five Southern Miss players average in double figures, with LaShay Page leading the way at 12.9 ppg.
- Darnell Dodson (12.5 ppg), Neil Watson (11.3 ppg), Maurice Bolden (10.7 ppg) and Angelo Johnson (10.1 ppg) also average double figures for the Golden Eagles.

- Four Golden Eagles average over five rebounds per contest in Bolden (6.1 rpg), Dodson (5.6 rpg), Jonathan Mills (5.5 rpg) and Torye Pelham (5.3 rpg).
- Neil Watson is tops on the team with 97 assists (4.4 apg), while Pelham has a team-high 28 steals.
- Watson (42.4 percent), Bolden (40.9 percent) and Page (37.7 percent) are Southern Miss' top threats from the arc.
- Southern Miss is shooting 42.2 percent from the field, 37.4 percent from the arc and 74.6 percent from the free throw line.
- The Golden Eagles are out-rebounding their foes by an average margin of +5.5 boards per game (37.5-32.0). Southern Miss is third in C-USA in rebound margin.

"MID-WAY" FIRST PLACE ON THE LINE

- The Tigers and Golden Eagles enter Wednesday with 6-1 Conference USA league marks.
- Memphis and Southern Miss are tied atop the C-USA league standings as the only two one-loss teams in conference play.
- The winner of Wednesday's game takes the "mid-way" top position in the C-USA title race.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

- Head coach Josh Pastner's first Conference USA foe was Southern Miss in the 2009-10 season.
- Pastner's Tigers opened their C-USA schedule in Hattiesburg, Miss., on Jan. 9, 2010, and Memphis pulled out a hard-fought 59-57 victory.

TIGERS ON THE WEB

For game notes, rosters, statistics and other information on Memphis Tigers basketball, go to the University of Memphis athletics website at:

www.GoTigersGo.com

TIGERS ON THE RADIO

All Memphis basketball games are broadcast on the Tigers' network flagship station, WREC 600AM. Dave Woloshin calls the play-by-play, while Matt Dillon serves as the color analyst. Dillon and Forrest Goodman (in studio) host the pre- and postgame shows.

WREC 600AM also broadcasts Josh Pastner's weekly radio show, which is held at the Lynchburg Legends Bar & Grill located in the East Memphis DoubleTree Inn. Forrest Goodman serves as host of the weekly call-in show. The first Pastner radio weekly call-in show is scheduled for Nov. 29.

JOSH PASTNER TELEVISION SHOW

Head coach Josh Pastner's weekly television coach's show is televised every Sunday night at 10 p.m. (CT) during the season by FOX 13/WHBQ-TV in Memphis. The show begins in early December. Dave Woloshin and Matt Stark serve as the show's co-hosts.

TIGERS BOARD BATTLIN'

- Since entering Conference USA play, Memphis has done a better job on the glass. The Tigers have a +6.0 rebound margin in league action.
- For the fourth time in the C-USA season, Memphis faces a foe that does a tremendous job on the boards.
- Southern Miss is third in the conference in rebound margin at +5.5. Memphis is eighth in C-USA in rebound margin at +1.9.
- However, in their previous three match-ups with dominant rebounding teams in C-USA, the Tigers have held their own, and the following shows that:

Opponent	Reb. Margin Going Into Gm	Reb. Margin In Gm
at Southern Miss	+5.5	_____
Marshall	+9.5	33-31, UM
at UCF	+5.1	32-27, UM
Southern Miss	+6.7	36-36, Tie

TIGERS DON'T LIKE THE "GREEN"

- As in playing at Reed Green Coliseum because, in its last 22 trips to Hattiesburg (since 1987-88), Memphis has been fortunate to split those games (11-11 record; .500 winning percentage).
- Of those 11 wins, six were by single digits, and the average margin of victory in those six Tigers single-digit victories was 5.8 points.
- To take it further, Southern Miss is tied for the site of the most Tigers' C-USA road losses since 2000-01 (three losses).
- Memphis has also dropped three games at UAB's Bartow Arena in that same time period.

Last Meeting In Hattiesburg • 2010-11 Memphis 76 • Southern Miss 75 Jan. 19, 2011 • Reed Green Coliseum

In what will go down as the Tigers' biggest comeback in the last 40 seasons, Charles Carmouche buried a three-pointer from the left wing with :01.2 on the clock to lift Memphis to a thrilling 76-75 victory over rival Southern Miss in Conference USA action. Chris Crawford intercepted the Golden Eagles' inbounds pass on the ensuing possession to seal the win.

Memphis was down by 18 points at 29-11 with 7:49 to go in the first half and came back to win the game, marking the largest comeback by a Tigers squad since 1970-71. The Tigers cut the Southern Miss lead to 11 points at 40-29 at the break and was still down by double digits (48-37) five minutes into the second half.

That's when Memphis chipped away. A 10-3 Tigers' run over a 3:44 span sliced a 48-37 Golden Eagle lead to 51-46 at the 12:14 mark of the second half. Southern Miss regained its composure and built the advantage back to nine points at 62-53 with only 7:46 left.

The Tigers, though, went on another run — this time a 16-4 spurt to take their first lead of the game at 69-66 with 3:17 left. Crawford hit two treys in the spurt, and Will Barton, who netted a team-high 15 points, hit the three-pointer that gave Memphis the lead.

After a D.J. Stephens' dunk made it 71-66, the Golden Eagles responded with an 8-2 spurt to retake the lead at 74-73 on an R.L. Horton lane jumper with 16 seconds left. Carmouche's jumper with 11 seconds missed, and Horton grabbed the rebound and was fouled with :06.7 remaining.

Horton hit 1-of-2 free throws, giving the Tigers one final chance. Joe Jackson took the inbounds pass, raced it up the right side of the court and hit Carmouche with a pin-point, cross-court pass for the game-winning shot.

In the first half, Southern Miss jumped on the Tigers early. After a 2-2 tie, the Golden Eagles went on a 10-0 run for a 12-2 advantage. Memphis cut the lead to 16-8, but the home squad raced to another 13-3 spurt for a 29-11 lead.

Gary Flowers finished with a game-high 21 points. Horton added 18 points, seven rebounds and three assists. For Memphis, Crawford scored 12 points (all in second half), Carmouche 11 points and Joe Jackson 10 points.

Tarik Black grabbed a game-high eight boards. Both teams shot over 50 percent from the floor (UofM, 50.8 percent; USM, 51.0 percent).

FedExForum

The Home of The Tigers

The 2011-12 season marks the eighth for the Tigers in their home arena, FedExForum, which officially opened in September, 2004. Located just a few feet off Beale Street on historic Highway 61, FedExForum rises to extend the heart of the Memphis entertainment district.

Memphis plays all of its 2011-12 home contests in the 18,400-seat arena, which serves as the host for the 2012 Conference USA Tournaments (men/women). FedExForum was also the host site for the 2005-09 Conference USA Tournaments, 2009 NCAA Men's South Regional and 2010 NCAA Women's South Regional.

At 135 feet high, FedExForum provides a new backdrop for historic Beale Street. The 805,850 square-foot arena, covering 13.8 acres, features five levels as well as state-of-the-art locker rooms and facilities for sports teams, as well as an exceptional dining and entertainment experiences for its patrons.

"BLACK 'N BLUE" CLOSE CALLS

- Many call the Memphis-Southern Miss football rivalry the "Black 'n Blue" series.
- With the recent battles on the court, that monicker can also be applied to the basketball series between the two rivals.
- In their last six encounters, all have been decided by seven or fewer points.

2012 Tigers Hoops Signees

Damien Wilson
6-6/190

Mableton, Ga./Oak Hill Academy

Wilson, who is finishing his senior year at Oak Hill Academy, is rated the No. 63 overall prospect in the Class of 2012 by ESPNU. Originally from the Atlanta area, Wilson was a member of the Atlanta Celtics AAU team, which has produced talent such as current NBA stars Josh Smith and Dwight Howard. A lefty that likes to slash in the lane to get his buckets, Wilson led his Oak Hill team last December with 20 points in an 80-59 win over Melrose, which featured current Tiger Adonis Thomas. Oak Hill finished the season with a 31-4 record while Wilson, a former Mableton (Ga.) Pebblebrook High standout, averaged 12 points per game. Wilson is rated as the No. 18 shooting guard and No. 90 overall prospect by Yahoo! and Rivals Sports. Scout ranks him as a four-star prospect and the nation's No. 21 overall small forward. Max Preps ranks him as the No. 1 prospect in the state of Virginia and the No. 23 overall recruit.

Shaq Goodwin
6-8/230

Decatur, Ga./Southwest DeKalb

Goodwin helped lead Southwest DeKalb High School to a 24-6 record in 2010-11 before losing 70-53 to Rockdayle County in the Class AAAA Georgia State Championship game. Goodwin averaged a double-double of 18 points and 10.1 rebounds per game last season at Southwest DeKalb while shooting over 70 percent from the floor. He also averaged 3.2 blocks per contest. Goodwin's best performance came in a playoff win over Lakeside in which he scored 41 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Goodwin received Georgia Class AAAA All-State first team honors for his performance during the 2010-11 season. The 2011-12 Southwest DeKalb team was also ranked No. 25 in MaxPreps.com's preseason national rankings. Goodwin is also a part of the same AAU program as Wilson, the Atlanta Celtics. Alumni of the Celtics include current NBA players Dwight Howard, Josh Smith, Derrick Favors, Joe Johnson and Amare Stoudemire.

- The average margin of victory in those six games was 3.5 points (all Tigers wins).

... AND SPEAKING OF CLOSE CALLS

- One of the teams could have entered Wednesday's contest undefeated in Conference USA play, if not for a last-second loss for each.
- For the Tigers, it was a heart-wrenching setback at UCF 68-67 on Jan. 18. Memphis held a 67-65 lead, but the Knights converted a three-point play with :04.4 left for the win.
- For Southern Miss, it was a narrow loss at Memphis 60-58 on Jan. 11. Chris Crawford hit two free throws with :32 left to give Memphis a 60-58 lead. The Golden Eagles had a final attempt to win or tie, but their three-point try missed.

MIRROR IMAGES WEDNESDAY

- Wednesday's game features two teams that have similarities in a few statistical categories, and the following shows that (C-USA rank follows stat):

TIGERS, GOLDEN EAGLES TO ADD TO LONGEST SERIES WEDNESDAY

- Wednesday's Memphis-Southern Miss game is the 88th meeting between the two longtime rivals, and with that encounter, the series will continue to be the longest in Tigers history.
- Prior to their earlier meeting this season (Jan. 11), the Tigers-Golden Eagles series was tied with the Memphis-Louisville series as the longest in school history at 86 games. That Jan. 11 contest broke the tie.
- In the 2010-11 campaign, the Memphis-Southern Miss series became the longest in Tigers history when the two programs met for the 86th time in the 2011 Conference USA Tournament.
- The Dec. 17, 2011, Memphis-Louisville game then tied the Tigers-Golden Eagles series at 86 earlier this season.

BARTON NAMED A WOODEN AWARD MID-SEASON CANDIDATE

- On Jan. 17, Will Barton was named one of the 25 mid-season candidates for the John R. Wooden Award, which recognizes college basketball's Player of the Year.
- Barton was the only player from Conference USA to be named among the 25 mid-season candidates.
- The 6-foot-6 sophomore leads C-USA in scoring and is also ranked in the top-10 in rebounding.
- Barton has nine double-doubles to date this year, the 29th-most in the nation.
- His nine double-doubles are the fifth-most by a Tigers player in a season since 2000-01.

FOURTH TIME'S A CHARM; FIFTH TIME FOR POINTS

- For the fifth time this season, Will Barton set a career high for points with 29 in the Tigers' Jan. 28 win over Marshall.
- In the first nine games of the season, 6-foot-6 guard set career highs for both scoring and rebounding on four different occasions.
- The following tracks his career high changes this year:

Opponent	Pts	Rebs
Marshall	29	—
Louisville	28	16

C-USA COACH OF YEAR AWARD NAMED TO HONOR BARTOW

- On Jan. 19, Conference USA announced it was renaming its Coach of the Year Award to reflect the contributions of former Memphis and UAB head coach Gene Bartow. The honor will be known as the Gene Bartow Coach of the Year Award beginning this season.

- The suggested name change received a unanimous vote from C-USA's athletics directors.
- Bartow lost his long battle against cancer on Jan. 3 at his home in Birmingham, Ala.
- From 1970-74, Bartow served as the Tigers head coach and compiled an 83-32 overall record (.722 winning percentage).
- Bartow's Memphis squads posted won 18 or more games each of his four seasons in the Bluff City.
- His most memorable year was the 1972-73 campaign when he guided the Tigers to a 25-6 overall record and the school's first trip to the NCAA Final Four and national title game.
- Even in recent years, Bartow remained active in the Memphis community and served as president of Hoops, LP, the company that runs the Memphis Grizzlies and FedExForum.
- Bartow was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in November 2009.
- He will be inducted in the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2012. Bartow's son, Murry, was presented with his father's induction plaque in October of 2011.

TIGERS JOIN 200-WIN CLUB SINCE '05-06

- With its 73-51 victory over Rice Jan. 25, Memphis became only the second NCAA Division 1 program to have 200 wins since 2005-06.
- Kansas is the other NCAA Division 1 program to have 200 or more wins over that same span of time (207 victories).
- Since 2005-06, Memphis is averaging over 28 wins per season (28.7, to be exact).

PASTNER PART OF COACHES CHARITY CHALLENGE

- Josh Pastner is one of 48 college basketball coaches that is participating in the Infinity Coaches' Charity Challenge.
- Pastner is representing Le Bonheur Children's Hospital in the charity event. The charity of the winning coach will receive $100,000, while each charity is guaranteed at least a donation of $5,000.
- The 48 coaches have been split into four regions of 12 for the first round of competition, with the four winners of each region moving on to the semifinals.
- The challenge began Jan. 18, and fans can register and vote for Coach Pastner by going to the following link: <http://promo.espn.go.com/espn/contests/infinity/2012/index>.
- The first round of competition covers the next six weeks and determines the four semifinalists who will then compete for the crown. The winning coach will be announced on Mar. 9, 2012.
- Le Bonheur Children's Hospital is a not-for-profit medical center that annually treats over 135,000 children. Located in the heart of the

*“What A Difference A Year Makes”
By The Numbers*

Last year, the Tigers had one of the most inexperienced teams in college basketball, and the numbers entering the season revealed that.

Well, a year later, the tune has changed with the numbers showing Memphis returning a lot of experience in 2011-12.

2011-12 Numbers

557: Total number of games played at NCAA Division I level

235: Total number of games started at NCAA Division I level

97.9: Percentage of assists returning from 2010-11

95.6: Percentage of steals returning from 2010-11

89.0: Percentage of minutes played returning from 2010-11

88.3: Percentage of points scored returning from 2010-11

85.5: Percentage of rebounds returning from 2010-11

80.9: Percentage of blocked shots returning from 2010-11

2010-11 Numbers

254: Total number of games played at NCAA Division I level

91: Total number of games started at NCAA Division I level

65.9: Percentage of blocked shots returning from 2009-10

41.8: Percentage of rebounds returning from 2009-10

33.7: Percentage of points scored returning from 2009-10

28.3: Percentage of steals returning from 2009-10

15.8: Percentage of assists returning from 2009-10

Josh Pastner said in his Jan. 21 postgame press conference that the surgery was successful.

- The surgery is minor, but the normal recovery time is 2-3 months which would put Thomas returning in mid-March or later.

CARMOUCHE OUT OF ACTION

- Charles Carmouche continues to suffer from tendonitis in his knees, and according to head coach Josh Pastner’s media briefing Jan. 23, the 6-foot-3 senior may be out the remainder of the 2011-12 campaign.
- Pastner said Carmouche will have to apply for a medical redshirt at the end of the season.
- The New Orleans, La., native has played in seven games this season, averaging 6.3 points and 2.6 rebounds.

BARTON AMONG ELITE GROUP

- According to research by Navy SID Chris Forman, Will Barton is one of four players in the nation to average at least 16.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists.

Player, School	PPG	RPG	APG
Will Barton, Memphis	18.8	8.7	2.7
Julian Mavunga, Miami (Ohio)	17.6	9.7	2.7
Ian Hummer, Princeton	17.5	7.5	3.1
Taylor Braun, North Dak. St.	16.5	7.2	2.8

CRAWFORD LOVIN’ THE STARTIN’ ROLE

- Every player loves to start, but Chris Crawford is showing how much he loves the starting nod with the numbers the 6-foot-4 guard is putting up in those starts.

Starter	Statistic	Reserve
13	# of Games	8
10.5	Scoring	5.1
4.1	Rebounding	1.5

SANTA GIVING THE GIFT OF DEFENSE TO TIGERS

- Since the Christmas break, the Tigers have played better team defense, and the following shows the improvement:

Before 12/25	Statistic	After 12/25
41.0	FG Pct. Def.	34.7
33.3	3-pt. FG Pct. Def.	28.9
-1.9	Rebound Margin	+6.0
6.2	Blocks	6.9

HOLD ‘EM UNDER 40 (PERCENT)

- The key stat for the Tigers’ season has emerged, and it’s field goal percentage defense.
- Memphis is a perfect 11-0 when it holds opponents to under 40 percent shooting from the field (4-6 when foes shoot 40 or better).
- The Tigers are ranked nationally in field goal

Tigers Going “Retro”

- As a part of the University of Memphis’ Centennial celebration (1912-2012), the Tigers unveiled their “retro” uniforms in the Nov. 15 season-opening win over Belmont.
- The “retro” uniforms are replicas of the ones worn by the 1972-73 Tigers squad that advanced to the NCAA Tournament championship game. Memphis fell to the Bill Walton-led UCLA Bruins 87-66 in the title game.
- The trio of Larry Finch, Larry Kenon and Ronnie Robinson led that 1972-73 Memphis team.
- Gene Bartow coached the 1972-73 squad and was named NABC National Coach of the Year.
- The Tigers’ home “retros” are white with Memphis in blue script outlined in red. The shorts have a belt-look and are trimmed in blue and red.
- The road “retros” are navy blue with red Memphis script outlined in white. The Tigers debuted the road “retros” Dec. 17 at Louisville.

GAME #1

#10/10 Memphis 97 • Belmont 81 Nov. 15, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn. EA Sports Maui Invitational • Opening Game

Memphis kicked off the season in impressive fashion with a 97-81 win over Belmont in the opening game of the EA Sports Maui Invitational. Three players scored at least 20 points, including 22 from Wesley Witherspoon, who was a perfect 8-of-8 from the field.

Will Barton was the Tigers' leading scorer with a career-high 23 points, while Joe Jackson added 20 points on 6-of-7 shooting. Freshman Adonis Thomas shined in his Tigers debut with 12 points.

The Tigers shot nearly 59 percent from the field. A Belmont team that lost to No. 6 Duke by one point in its opener Nov. 11 managed just 39 percent shooting and had 18 turnovers.

Despite an 11 a.m. tip, the Tigers showed no signs of sluggishness, as Memphis jumped out to a 16-4 lead. J.J. Mann ended the Bruins drought with a 7-0 scoring spurt of his own just before the 12-minute mark, and another Belmont free throw at 11:36 cut the lead to 16-12.

From there, the Bruins matched Memphis bucket-for-bucket to stay within three at 39-36 with three minutes remaining. However, it was defensive pressure that allowed the Tigers to score seven of the last 10 points in the half and take a 46-39 lead into the locker room.

The Tigers began the second half much as they did the first, with a 5-of-5 shooting start and a 13-2 run to take a 59-44 lead with 17 minutes left to play. A jumper from Thomas at the 11:39 mark gave Memphis a commanding 72-54 lead.

That would be the last Memphis field goal for almost four minutes as Belmont went on a 12-1 run once again assisted by the free throw line to cut the deficit to just seven points at 73-66. The Bruins refused to go away, however, as they used three-straight treys to keep it close and still trail by just seven points at 84-77 with less than four minutes left in the game.

But, the Tigers kept their composure and came alive down the stretch with a 12-2 run to push the lead back to double digits at 96-79 with one minute left.

Tigers Tails

- Josh Pastner won his 50th career game with the win and is fastest coach in Memphis history to get to the 50-win milestone.
- Memphis scored 97 points, the most in a game since putting up 102 points against Tennessee Martin in a 22-point win last season (11-23-10)
- For the game, Memphis shot 58.6 percent (34-of-58). The Tigers last shot over 50 percent in last season's Conference USA Tournament-semifinal win, 76-56, over East Carolina, when they went 27-of-53 (50.9 percent) from the floor.

GAME #2

#15/15 Michigan 73 • #8/8 Memphis 97 Nov. 21, 2011 • Lahaina, Hawaii EA Sports Maui Invitational • Championship Round

Charles Carmouche's team-high 14 points weren't enough for No. 8/8 Memphis to overcome a strong shooting effort from the No. 15/15 Michigan Wolverines, as the Tigers fell 73-61 in their first round game of the 2011 Maui Invitational.

Michigan shot 54 percent (27-of-50) from the floor while Memphis only connected on 33.3 percent (19-of-57) of its field goal attempts. The Tigers were 4-of-21 (19.0 percent) from three, compared to 6-of-20 (30.0 percent) for the Wolverines.

The Wolverines ignited the game on fire, connecting on 7 of their first 8 shots. Meanwhile, the Tigers started a meager 3-of-10 to begin the game. Trailing 18-9 at the time, Memphis responded with a 10-2 run, on 4-of-5 shooting, to cut the Michigan lead down to a point.

Memphis eventually tied the game and took the lead, 27-25, on three-straight layups by Carmouche. However, Michigan did not get rattled and scored ten unanswered points over the final 3:02 to enter halftime with a 37-31 lead.

After a sensational shooting performance against Belmont, Memphis shot only 35.5 percent (11-of-31), including a paltry 15.4 percent (2-of-13) from three-point range in the first half. In contrast, Michigan shot 60 percent (15-of-25) from the field and 30 percent (3-of-10) from three.

A Will Barton three-point shot at the 15:32 mark of the second half pulled the Tigers within five, 46-41, but the Wolverines responded with a 9-1 run over a span of 3:52 to regain control of the game.

Michigan steadily increased its lead to as many as 14 points with 5:32 remaining. The Tigers used a 7-2 run to cut the lead to single digits, only to have the Wolverines again push the lead out to as many as 15 points.

Memphis protected the ball, only committing eight turnovers, while forcing Michigan into 13 miscues, but Michigan finished with a decided advantage, 38-29, on the boards.

Tigers Tails

- Memphis and Michigan are now tied in the all-time series 2-2. The Wolverine victory snapped a two-game winning streak by the Tigers.
- This is the first meeting between the two schools since 1996 when Memphis beat Michigan 73-72 in the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii.
- The Tigers now have an all-time record of 16-17 versus Big Ten Conference foes.
- The 29 rebounds are the lowest total by the Tigers since Memphis had 29 boards against UAB on February 16, 2011 in a 62-58 victory.

#8/8 Memphis 99 • Tennessee 97 (2ot) Nov. 22, 2011 • Lahaina, Hawaii EA Sports Maui Invitational • Consolation Semifinal

In a double-overtime classic in the Maui Invitational, No. 8/8 Memphis used an Antonio Barton jumper to defeat Tennessee, 99-97. Will Barton led all-Tiger scorers with a career-high 25 points and a career-high 11 rebounds en route to posting his first double-double.

Antonio Barton chipped in 21 points for the Tigers. Freshman Adonis Thomas had the best performance of his young career, with 19 points.

With the game knotted up at 97, Antonio Barton knocked down a 15-foot jumper from the right wing to put Memphis up by two points with 1:14 left in the second overtime. Wesley Witherspoon picked up a loose ball along the baseline, but was called for traveling with a mere .8 seconds on the clock. Jeronne Maymon's attempt fell short, preserving the double-overtime win for Memphis.

Memphis found itself trailing in the first overtime, 91-89, following a Josh Richardson contested three-point shot from the right wing. Chris Crawford took an outlet pass from Will Barton and attacked the rim for a game-tying layup. Maymon's shot at the buzzer was well off the mark and the teams headed into double-overtime.

Tennessee opened the second half on a 9-4 spurt to pull within five points, but Memphis responded with five in a row to regain a double-digit lead with 15:10 left. The Tigers maintained a relatively comfortable margin until the Vols went on a nine-point run to pull within a point, 77-76, with 3:38 remaining.

With the Tigers leading by two points in the waning seconds, Tennessee's Maymon finished a driving layup to tie the game. Will Barton raced down the court and put up a jumper from 12-feet out. His shot rimmed out, sending the game into overtime.

Memphis (2-1) knocked down 36-of-70 (51.4 percent) shot attempts and limited Tennessee (2-2) to 30-of-74 (40.5 percent) shooting. The Tigers bench outscored the Vols, 52-25, but Memphis was outrebounded, 49-34, and gave up 29 second chance points.

Tigers Tails

- The game marked the first double overtime contest for Memphis since falling to DePaul, 100-98, in double OT on February 11, 1998.
- Memphis is now 4-0 in its last four overtime games.
- Will Barton recorded his first career double-double with career highs in rebounds and points. Barton finished with 25 points and 11 boards.
- The Tigers now have an overall record of 90-57 in regular season tournaments/classics in the program's history.
- The Tigers overall Maui Invitational record is now 8-7.

GAME #4

Georgetown 91 • #8/8 Memphis 88 (ot) Nov. 23, 2011 • Lahaina, Hawaii EA Sports Maui Invitational • Consolation Final

Jason Clark hit a big 3-pointer in overtime and scored 26 points, helping Georgetown hold off No. 8 Memphis 91-88 in the fifth-place game of the Maui Invitational on Wednesday.

Memphis and Georgetown didn't look like two teams playing for fifth place, trading monster dunks, 3-pointers and leads throughout regulation. The Hoyas (4-1) went up 90-86 in overtime after Clark hit a 3 with 51 seconds left and Markel Starks followed with two free throws.

The Tigers (2-2) cut the lead to two on Stan Simpson's two free throws and had a shot to tie after Georgetown's Hollis Thompson made just 1 of 2 at the other end. But Memphis didn't get a good look at the end of regulation and did it again in overtime, with Antonio Barton's 3-pointer coming up well short at the buzzer.

Henry Sims had 24 points and eight rebounds for Georgetown, while Thompson and Starks scored 12 each.

Will Barton led Memphis with 22 points and Joe Jackson added 20. Memphis had trouble with patient and talented No. 15 Michigan in its tournament opener, unable to get the 15th-ranked Wolverines to speed up in a 73-61 loss.

Swapping acrobatic shots and deep 3-pointers, the Tigers and Hoyas had the crowd inside Lahaina Civic Center on its feet seemingly every other trip down the floor. Clark, who hit six 3-pointers and scored 28 points against Chaminade, had 17 by halftime, shooting 7 of 12. Starks chipped in 10 points and the Hoyas made 19 of 36 shots.

The Tigers led by seven early, Georgetown answered with a 19-2 run to go up 10 and Memphis chipped away to get within 47-42 by halftime.

Memphis had a chance to win at the end of regulation, but had trouble setting up a shot and Adonis Thomas' 3-pointer was well off the mark.

Tigers Tails

- Tarik Black had his first double-digit scoring effort of the season and 14th of his career. Black finished with 12 points marking his 14th career double-digit effort.
- Will Barton scored 20 or more points for the third time this season and seventh time in his career. Memphis is 5-2 when he scores 20 or more points. Barton finished with a team high 22 points.
- Joe Jackson scored 18 or more points for the fourth time in his career and second time this season. Jackson finished with 20 points.
- The loss snapped a four-game winning streak by Memphis in overtime.

#22/21 Memphis 70 • Jackson State 45 Nov. 28, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

No. 21/22 Memphis scored 15 unanswered points to open the second half and never looked back on its way to a 70-45 win over visiting Jackson State on Monday night. Joe Jackson led all scorers with 15 points, and Chris Crawford added 14 points for the Tigers. Memphis improved to 3-2 on the season while Jackson State fell to 1-7.

Crawford scored eight points during the 15-point run to begin the second half of play, helping Memphis jump out to a 40-19 lead. After using four of its timeouts in the first half, Jackson State only had one left to use in the second half and was forced to use it during the opening spurt by Memphis.

A tightfisted Tiger defense forced 23 turnovers by JSU, tallying 36 points off of the miscues. Jackson State was held to 16-of-52 shooting (30.8 percent), while Memphis connected on 26-of-49 (53.1 percent) from the field.

Despite a season-high 10 rebounds from Stan Simpson, Memphis was outrebounded 36-29, continuing its struggles on the glass. The U of M outscored JSU in points in the paint, 38-16, and fast break points, 24-2.

At the intermission, Memphis led 25-19 behind six points from Crawford and seven rebounds from Stan Simpson, who earned his first start of the season for the Tigers. Memphis shot the ball well in the half, going 11-for-24 (45.8 percent), but the rebounding woes continued. Jackson State outrebounded Memphis, 22-14, while only connecting on 7-of-27 (25.9 percent) shot attempts.

Leading 11-6 coming out of the under-12 media timeout, Memphis surrendered a pair of baskets to Jackson State's Jeniro Bush and a free throw to Raymond Gregory, tying the game. Antonio Barton responded with a floater from the right side of the lane to stop the run.

Adonis Thomas' layup with 7:38 left in the half ignited a 10-0 Memphis run over the next 5:35. Jackson State was forced to call four timeouts during the stretch that was ended by a pair of free throws by Kelsey Howard.

Bush led JSU in scoring with 11 points on 5-of-16 (31.3 percent) shooting. Kelsey Howard and Willie Readus each hauled in six boards.

Tigers Tails

- With a 36-29 disadvantage on the boards, Memphis has now been outrebounded in four of its five games this season. However, the Tigers are 3-1 in those contests.
- After a 1-for-6 start from the free throw line, Memphis made 14 of its next 19 shots from the charity stripe to go 15-for-25 (.600) overall.
- Memphis' 25 first-half points are the fewest points scored by the Tigers in any half this season.
- Memphis began the second half with a 15-0 run over the first four minutes.

#22/21 Memphis 91 • Austin Peay 60 Dec. 3, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

Will Barton scored 22 points, grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds and dished out a career-high-tying six assists and Memphis connected on 15 three-point shots en route a 91-60 win over visiting Austin Peay. Adonis Thomas recorded 17 points on 6-of-9 (66.7 percent) shooting, including 5-of-6 (83.3 percent) from three-point range.

Joe Jackson added 11 points and Tarik Black chipped in 10. Chris Crawford notched nine points and a game-high seven assists, which also ties his season-high. The 31-point victory is the largest of the season for the Tigers, who improve to 4-2. Austin Peay falls to 0-9 with the loss.

Memphis' 15 made three-point shots came on 25 attempts (60.0 percent), en route 32-of-56 (57.1 percent) shooting. The Tigers finished one three-pointer away from tying the school-record, 16, set against Marquette on February 14, 2004.

Austin Peay struggled from the floor, finishing the game 24-of-72 (33.3 percent) and 2-of-10 from long-range.

Just as they did in the first 20 minutes, the Tigers dominated the second half. Jackson, Crawford, Thomas and Will Barton each scored during a 10-6 run to open the frame and Memphis never looked back.

Antonio Barton took a scary tumble when he was fouled by the Governors' Herdie Lawrence on a fast-break. Barton connected on one of the two free throws, putting the Tigers ahead, 73-42.

Then came the high-flying acrobatics from the Tigers. With 8:48 remaining, Jackson stole the ball from Austin Peay and fed Black for a highlight-reel dunk in transition. The monstrous slam brought the crowd of 16,989 to its feet.

Crawford ripped off a pass from the Governors, starting a Tiger-fast break, and laid the ball off of the backboard. D.J. Stephens came soaring through the air for another crowd-pleasing dunk, increasing Memphis' lead to 86-54 with 2:48 left.

Melvin Baker paced the Governors with 15 points, on 7-of-14 shooting, and seven rebounds. Will Triggs added five points and collected a team-high eight boards.

#21/20 Memphis 71 • Miami (Fla.) 54 Dec. 6, 2011 • Coral Gables, Fla.

Sophomore guard Will Barton posted career-highs in points, 27, and rebounds, 14, while leading No. 21/20 Memphis to a 71-54 win at Miami. Sophomore forward Tarik Black added nine points and six boards and sophomore guard Chris Crawford chipped in nine points and handed out five assists.

Freshman forward Adonis Thomas scored six points, but hauled in a career-high 10 rebounds as Memphis improved to 5-2. Miami fell to 5-3 with the loss.

After Miami's Shane Larkin finished a driving layup to pull the Hurricanes within six, 55-49, Thomas sank two free throws and Stan Simpson converted on a layup to push Memphis' lead to 10 with less than five minutes remaining. The Tigers finished the game on a 16-5 run to put it out of reach.

Will Barton picked up the double-double, his second-consecutive and third of the season, when he collected an offensive board and finished the stick-back for his 16th point and 10th rebound at the 16:29-mark in the second-half.

The Tigers' second-leading scorer, sophomore guard Joe Jackson, was held scoreless until six-minutes into the second half when he knocked down an open three-pointer from the right wing. Jackson finished the game with eight points and three assists.

Despite connecting on only 1-of-12 (8.3 percent) of its three-point shots, Memphis finished the game 28-of-60 (46.7 percent) from the floor. Miami was held to 20-of-56 (35.7 percent) shooting, including 5-of-18 (27.8 percent) from long-range. After being outrebounded in four of its first six games, Memphis held a decisive advantage on the boards, 41-33.

Memphis withstood a seven-point run by Miami and a shaky start before rallying to take the lead, 27-26, after the first half of play. Barton put on an offensive display in the first half, scoring 14 points on 7-of-14 field-goal attempts. The sophomore guard scored 10 of the Tigers' first 14 points and ripped down eight boards.

Kenny Kadji scored 12 points to lead the Hurricanes. Scott Durand and Trey McKinney Jones also scored in double figures, with 10 points apiece. Kadji and Durand both pulled down a team-high six rebounds.

Tigers Tails

- Memphis' win at Miami was its first victory in a true road opener since the 2007-08 season, a 65-41 win over Middle Tennessee.
- Despite entering the game being outscored in second chance points by an average of 5.2 points per game, the Tigers posted their biggest margin of the year in that category with a 17-9 advantage. Memphis' 13 offensive rebounds were a season high.
- With Will Barton's 14 rebounds and Adonis Thomas' 10 boards, Memphis had two double-digit rebounders in a game for the first time since Dec. 5, 2009 (Niles - 11, Coleman - 10 vs. Arkansas St.)

GAME #8

Murray State 76 • #21/20 Memphis 72 Dec. 11, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

Despite a furious comeback attempt in the final two minutes, No. 21/20 Memphis dropped a non-conference tilt against Murray State, 76-72. Will Barton scored a career-high-tying 27 points, on 10-of-13 (76.9 percent) shooting, in the loss.

Memphis (5-3) trailed, 71-60, with a just under two-minutes left in the game when a Will Barton layup sparked Memphis' run, igniting the crowd and putting Murray State (10-0) on its heels.

The Racers' Isaiah Canaan stepped to the line and missed the front-end of the one-and-one. On the ensuing Tiger possession, Wesley Witherspoon connected on a three-point basket from the right corner.

Memphis stiffened its defense and capitalized on three-consecutive Murray State turnovers to pull within three, 71-68, with 47 seconds remaining. A pair of free throws by Ivan Aska put the Racers back up by five.

Joe Jackson scored four-straight points on two free throws and a layup to bring Memphis within a point, 73-72, and only 14 ticks left on the clock.

After Canaan increased the lead to three on two shots from the charity stripe, Chris Crawford's game-tying three-point attempt rimmed out. Zay Jackson iced the game with a free throw for Murray State.

Jackson finished with 20 points and four assists for Memphis. Crawford handed out a season-high-tying seven assists, hauled in five boards and collected three steals. Tarik Black came up just short of a double-double with 11 points and a season-high nine rebounds. Witherspoon added seven points and pulled down a season-high eight boards.

Memphis went 25-of-61 (41.4 percent) from the floor and 6-of-19 (31.6 percent) from beyond the arc. Murray State connected on 23-of-53 (43.4 percent) attempts, including 9-of-20 (45.0 percent) from three-point range.

The Tigers finished 16-of-20 (80.0 percent) from the charity stripe, while the Racers connected on 21-of-29 (72.4 percent) of their free-throws.

Tigers Tails

- The 76-72 Murray State win marks the Racers' first victory over the Tigers since Jan. 19, 1994.
- Memphis is now 0-3 when trailing at the half this year after a 34-29 deficit against Murray State.
- Memphis was outscored 23-11 on the fast break. The Tigers are 0-3 this year when being outscored in fast break points and 5-0 when topping their opponents in that category.
- Jackson reached the 20-point mark for the third time this year with 20 points while Tarik Black reached double digits for the third time this year with 11 points.

GAME #9

#4/4 Louisville 95 • RV/RV Memphis 87 Dec. 17, 2011 • Louisville, Ky. Basketball Hall of Fame Shootout

Memphis fell to Louisville on the road Saturday evening, 95-87. Will Barton recorded 28 points and 16 rebounds, both career-highs. With the double-double against the Cardinals, Barton now has four on the season and three in the last four games. Joe Jackson added 22 points, five rebounds and four assists for the Tigers.

Memphis (5-4) committed an uncharacteristic 17 turnovers, leading to 24 points for Louisville (10-0), which made only 40 percent (28-of-70) of its shots and just 30.4 percent (6-of-23) from beyond the arc. The Tigers connected on 26-of-63 (41.3 percent) field-goal attempts, including 6-of-15 (40.0 percent) from three.

Facing a 13-point deficit early in the second half, the Tigers responded to cut the margin to a single point, 53-52, with 12-minutes remaining. Sophomore Tarik Black tied the game on a stick-back and on the ensuing possession Jackson converted on an old-fashioned three-point play to give Memphis its first lead since midway through the first half.

After being careless with the ball in the opening 20-minutes of play, Memphis went the first 11-minutes of the second half without a turnover. But, miscues on consecutive plays allowed Louisville to score five-answered points to regain the lead, 68-63.

Jackson knocked down a pair of free throws and a three-pointer and Will Barton scored in transition to cap a 7-2 Tiger run to tie the game at 70. Louisville responded with an eight-point spurt to regain control of the game with under five minutes left to play.

Memphis was able to pull within six points, but another turnover led to a Louisville basket and the Cardinals secured the win by converting its free-throw attempts down the stretch.

Chris Crawford recorded 12 points, five rebounds and four assists. Black finished with five points and six boards.

Louisville had five players score in double figures. Russ Smith finished with a team-high 24 points and Peyton Siva added 13 points and nine assists. Gorgui Dieng chipped in 14 points. Rakeem Buckles and Kyle Kuric round out the double-digit scorers for Louisville, scoring 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Tigers Tails

- Will Barton, with a career-high 28 points, topped the 20-point mark for the fourth-straight game and the seventh time in nine games this year.
- Barton also hauled in a career-high 16 boards, giving him his fourth double-double on the season.
- Memphis' 87 points marks the most scored against Louisville this season.
- Joe Jackson scored a season-high 22 points.
- Ferrakohn Hall played in his first game since transferring from Seton Hall.

GAME #10

NR/RV Memphis 85 • Lipscomb 75 Dec. 19, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

After surrendering a 14-point lead to Lipscomb, Memphis used a 12-5 spurt over the last 4:44 to pull out the victory, 85-75. Adonis Thomas scored a game-high 18 points and hauled in nine boards for the Tigers who improve to 6-4 on the season. Lipscomb drops to 6-7 with the loss.

Will Barton chipped in 16 points, nine rebounds and six assists, while Tarik Black added a season-high 13 points. Chris Crawford posted 11 points, five rebounds and five assists. Joe Jackson and Antonio Barton rounded out the double-digit scoring for Memphis with 10 points apiece. The six Tigers in double-digits is the most by a Memphis squad since 2007.

Crawford found Will Barton for a crowd-pleasing alley-oop dunk early in the second half to push the Tigers' lead out to 11 at 57-46. Thomas' jumper in the lane with 8:04 left on the clock increased the lead to 71-57. Lipscomb used a 13-2 spurt over the next 3:40 to cut the Tiger lead down to 73-70, with the Tigers being held scoreless for nearly three minutes during the run. After the two teams exchanged a free-throw each, Crawford banked home a floater in the lane and Will Barton knocked down a trey to push the lead back to eight, 79-71, with 1:39 remaining.

Coming out of a Lipscomb time-out, Jordan Burgason finished a driving layup for the Bison, but Black answered with a pair of free throws to maintain the eight-point margin. Stifling defense by the Tigers forced a tough shot for the Bison's Robert Boyd, which Crawford pulled down before being fouled. The sophomore point guard calmly sank both free throws.

Jackson iced the game with two more from the charity stripe to preserve the Tiger win.

Memphis posted one of its best shooting nights of the season, going 33-for-58 (56.9 percent) from the floor and 6-for-16 (37.5 percent) from three-point range. Lipscomb went 28-for-63 (44.4 percent) on its field goal attempts and 10-for-25 (40.0 percent) from downtown. After struggling for most of the season on the glass, Memphis held a decisive advantage on the boards, 39-27.

Tigers Tails

- Memphis boasted a balanced offensive attack against Lipscomb as six Tigers (Thomas, W. Barton, Black, Crawford, Jackson and A. Barton) scored in double figures for the first time since Nov. 27, 2007.
- The 10-point Memphis win marks the Tigers' fifth double-digit victory in six wins this season.
- Memphis is now 6-0 when leading at the half (45-40) and 5-0 when shooting above 50 percent (56.9) this season.
- All six of the Tigers' wins this year have come when they lead their opponents in fast break points.

#16/16 Georgetown 70 • NR/RV Memphis 59 Dec. 22, 2011 • Washington, D.C.

Memphis couldn't survive a cold start to the second half and fell at No. 16 Georgetown, 70-59. The Hoyas opened the second half with a 19-6 run en route to building a 20-point lead at 54-34 with 12:13 left in the game. The Tigers struggled from the floor during the opening spurt, connecting on just one of their first seven shots.

Memphis, though, responded by hitting eight of its next 10 to cut the Hoyas' lead to nine. After a basket by Georgetown pushed the lead back out to double-digits, Ferrakohn Hall followed a Chris Crawford miss with a tip-dunk, and Crawford finished a layup to pull Memphis within seven at 61-54 heading into the under four-minute media timeout.

Will Barton had a chance to cut into an eight-point deficit when he was fouled with 1:41 remaining, but couldn't connect on the one-and-one. Henry Sims for the Hoyas knocked down a pair at the other end of the floor to push the lead back to 10.

Crawford led the Tigers in scoring with a season-high 17 points on 7-for-11 shooting and five assists. Will Barton scored 12 points and hauled in 11 boards, giving him his fifth double-double of the season.

Despite its cold start from the floor in the second half, Memphis finished the game going 22-of-51 (43.1 percent) from the field. Georgetown also knocked down 22-of-51 (43.1 percent) of its shots, including 5-of-14 (35.7 percent) from three.

Georgetown's ability to get to the free throw line proved to be the difference, as the Hoyas connected on 21 free throws to the Tigers' 12.

Jason Clark paced the Georgetown with 18 points. Sims scored 12 points and grabbed nine boards and Thompson Hollis scored 17, while also hauling in nine rebounds.

Georgetown jumped out of the gate and built a nine-point lead early in the game. Memphis, however, slowly worked its way back. The Hoyas' Gregg Whittington picked up a flagrant foul for swinging his elbows, and Will Barton connected on the ensuing free throws to cut the lead to 17-14. Hall eventually tied the game at 23 on a dunk from the right baseline.

Tigers Tails

- Chris Crawford collected a season-high 17 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the field.
- Will Barton finished with 12 points marking the sixth-straight game and ninth time this season he has scored in double figures.
- Memphis falls to 8-3 in the final game before Christmas dating back to the 2000-01 season.
- Will Barton finished with 12 points and 11 rebounds for his fifth double-double of the season and of his career. The double-double was Barton's fourth in the last six games.

GAME #12

Memphis 64 • Robert Morris 47 Dec. 29, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis used suffocating defense to knock off Robert Morris 64-47 at FedEx Forum. Sophomore guard Will Barton posted his sixth double-double of the season with 27 points and 13 boards. Freshman forward Adonis Thomas added 15 points.

The Tigers held the Colonials to 23.2 percent (16-for-69) shooting and blocked 13 shots, both season-bests for the U of M. Memphis connected on 23-of-45 (51.1 percent) of its shot attempts, including 6-for-11 (54.5 percent) from beyond the arc.

Sophomore forward Tarik Black totaled a career-high seven blocked shots, tied for the seventh-most for a single-game total in the program's history, while also scoring eight points and hauling in six rebounds. In his first start as a Tiger, Ferrakohn Hall recorded a season-high-tying seven points and pulled down a career-high eight boards.

Stingy defense helped the Tigers head into the locker room with the lead, 32-18. Memphis held Robert Morris without a field goal for over six-and-a-half minutes, during which the Colonials only mustered three free throws. Robert Morris connected on a mere 19.4 percent (6-for-31) of its field-goal attempts in scoring its 18 points, both are the lowest by a Tiger opponent this year. Memphis previously held Jackson State to 19 points on 25.9 percent (7-for-27) shooting in the first half.

Will Barton recorded 15 points, including a crowd-pleasing alley-oop dunk served by Chris Crawford, and six rebounds in the half. Crawford handed out four assists in the frame, including alley-oops to both Barton and Black.

Robert Morris was paced by Lucky Jones with 10 points and six rebounds. Mike McFadden chipped in seven points and nine boards. The Tiger defense held Velton Jones to just seven points, the first time in the last 20 games that he was held to single digits.

Tigers Tails

- Tarik Black set a career high with seven blocks. He leads the team with 21 blocks this season. His seven blocked shots are tied for the seventh-most for a single game in school history.
- Ferrakohn Hall set a career high with eight rebounds. Hall also played a career-high 29 minutes. Hall tied a career high with two blocks.
- Robert Morris shot 23.2 percent from the field, the Tigers' best FG percentage defense since their 2005-06 season opener versus Wisconsin-Milwaukee (22.2 percent).

GAME #13

Memphis 67 • Charlotte 58 Dec. 31, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

In the waning moments of the game, Memphis pulled away from Charlotte to earn the victory, 67-58. Antonio Barton, who started his second-straight game, led all scorers with 16 points. Will Barton secured his third-consecutive and seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 boards. Ferrakohn Hall pulled down a career-high 12 rebounds and Tarik Black pitched in 10 points.

For the second-consecutive game, Memphis held its opponent to less than 30 percent shooting for the game. In fact, the Tigers have held their last two opponents, Robert Morris and Charlotte, below 30 percent shooting in each of the last four halves. Charlotte was a meager 16-of-65 (24.6 percent) from the floor. Memphis connected on 21-of-47 (44.7 percent) of its shots.

At the final media timeout of the game, Memphis maintained a three-point margin over Charlotte, 56-53. On the Tigers' ensuing possession, Black was fouled going hard to the basket. He knocked down one of the two free throws to give Memphis a four-point advantage with 3:05 left.

Following an offensive foul on Charlotte's Pierria Henry, Hall gathered a miss by Black and made the lay-in to extend Memphis' lead to six at the 2:27 mark. The Tigers pushed the lead out to as many as 12 before a three-pointer by the 49ers at the buzzer cut the final margin to nine.

Antonio Barton and Black led the Tigers into the halftime break with a 30-28 lead, with both players tallying seven points in the frame. Memphis recorded 10 blocked shots in the first half, marking the second-straight game with double-digit blocks. The last time the Tigers matched that feat came last season, when Memphis recorded 11 blocks against both Southern Miss (2-12-11) and UAB (2-16-11).

The 49ers were led by Derrio Green's 12 points. Chris Braswell posted 11 points and seven boards and DeMario Mayfield added 10 points.

Tigers Tails

- Will Barton tied a career high with three blocks.
- Ferrakohn Hall set a career high with 12 rebounds.
- The Tigers held an opponent to under 25 percent from the field in consecutive games for the first time this century (since 2000-01). Charlotte hit 24.6 percent after Robert Morris shot 23.2 percent.
- The Tigers recorded double digits in blocks for a second-straight game. The last time Memphis had double figures in blocks was the 2009-10 campaign.

GAME #14

Memphis 69 • Tennessee 51 Jan. 4, 2012 • Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis defeated Tennessee for the second time this season by a final score of 69-51. Memphis beat Tennessee earlier this season in the Maui Invitational in double overtime, 99-97. After being outrebounded 49-34 in the first meeting, Memphis flipped the script on Tennessee, out-rebounding the Vols, 36-26, the second time around.

Antonio Barton scored a team-high 19 points on the strength of 4-for-5 shooting from beyond the arc. Tarik Black recorded a season-high 18 points and hauled in seven rebounds. Leading-scorer and rebounder Will Barton was held in check, tallying 10 points and pulling down four rebounds.

Will Barton picked up a steal off of the Vols' Trae Golden and hit Jackson up the left side. Jackson attacked the rim and drew contact from Tennessee's Wes Washpun, who picked up the personal foul.

Barton and Washpun ended up in a scuffle under the Tigers' basket and, after a lengthy review by the referees, each player picked up a technical foul for the altercation. Jackson knocked down one of the free throws to give the Tigers the lead, 49-37, with 8:10 remaining.

Over the next four minutes, Memphis used a 14-6 run to push its lead to 20 points, 63-43. Antonio Barton paced the Tiger spurt with a pair of three-point shots. The Tigers pushed the lead out to as many as 22 points over the final few minutes.

Despite going without a field goal for over six minutes midway through the first half, Memphis held the lead, 28-20, at the break. The 20 points by Tennessee marked the fifth-straight half in which the Tigers' opponent scored 30 points or less.

The Tigers held the Vols to 30.0 percent (9-of-30) shooting from the floor, while connecting on 40.7 percent (11-of-27) of their shots and holding a decisive edge on the boards, 22-13.

The 18-point margin is the Tigers' third-largest margin of victory in the rivalry. With the win, Memphis improved to 134-16 in its first 150 games at FedExForum.

Tigers Tails

- Memphis played its 150th game at FedExForum vs. Tennessee and has the nation's most home wins since the 2004-05 season with 134.
- The Tigers had 10 steals in the game, the fourth time this season that Memphis recorded double digit steals.
- The 18-point margin of victory was the third-largest margin of victory in the series. The Tigers earned 19 point wins in the 1993-94 (83-64) and 1989-90 (91-72) seasons.
- Memphis held Tennessee to a season-low 51 points.

GAME #15

Memphis 62 • UAB 59 Jan. 7, 2012 • Birmingham, Ala

Memphis survived a frenetic final 30 seconds to hang on for the 62-59 win against UAB. Will Barton paced Memphis with his eighth double-double of the season, scoring 16 points and hauling in 10 rebounds.

Memphis held the three-point lead and had Wesley Witherspoon at the line for a pair of free throws with 16 ticks remaining in the game. Both Witherspoon free-throw attempts rimmed out, giving UAB a chance for the tie.

However, Chris Crawford blocked a three-point attempt by Jordan Swing. Witherspoon grabbed the rebound while falling out of bounds and threw the ball off Swing to give Memphis possession with 1.2 seconds left.

Memphis attempted to throw the inbounds pass long, but it was picked off by Ovie Soko. UAB was able to call timeout with a mere 0.6-seconds remaining. But, Crawford secured the victory by stealing the inbounds pass.

Adonis Thomas recorded 15 points on the evening on 7-of-8 shooting. Crawford chipped in 10 points and recorded three steals, including the game-clinching swipe.

With the Tigers holding the lead 57-55 and 4:25 left on the clock, D.J. Stephens cleaned up a Will Barton missed layup with a tip-dunk. Stephens was then fouled after coralling an errant-Blazer shot and connected on the front end of a one-and-one.

On the ensuing Tigers possession, Will Barton converted a tough lay-in, giving Memphis its largest lead of the game at 62-55 with less than two minutes remaining.

UAB responded with four quick points — a free throw by Quincy Taylor and a three by Swing — to cut the margin to three points at 62-59. Barton was then called for traveling, but Thomas blocked Cameron Moore's layup attempt on the Blazers next possession. Witherspoon grabbed the defensive rebound and was fouled, setting up the final series of events.

Tigers Tails

- Tigers improved to 8-0 when opponents shoot less than 40 percent for the game. UAB finished 18-of-46 (39.1 percent).
- The Tigers had 11 blocks in the game, the third time this season that Memphis recorded double-digit blocks.
- Will Barton scored 16 points marking the 10th-straight game that he has scored in double figures. Barton also collected 10 rebounds for his eighth double-double of the season.
- Tigers improved to 13-4 in C-USA openers, including wins in eight-straight league openers.

GAME #16

Memphis 60 • NR/RV Southern Miss 58 Jan. 11, 2012 • Memphis, Tenn.

Chris Crawford knocked down a pair of free throws with 31.7 seconds left to put Memphis ahead 60-58, and Southern Miss failed to connect on a three-pointer at the buzzer to preserve the victory for the Tigers.

At the 4:02 mark of the first half, Memphis found itself trailing 25-23. Antonio Barton scored 10 points and led Memphis on a 16-4 run in a stretch that lasted over seven minutes of game time and spanned the halftime break.

Southern Miss countered with a six-point spurt that Joe Jackson ended with an old-fashioned three-point play. Will Barton followed with a steal at midcourt and threw down a monstrous one-handed slam that brought the crowd of 16,246 to its feet.

Pastner and the Memphis coaching staff employed a 1-3-1 zone defense, and Southern Miss struggled from beyond the arc. But, the Golden Eagles started to find their range, connecting on three-consecutive treys to narrow the Tigers' margin to four at 51-47 with 8:28 remaining.

After Memphis was unable to convert on the front end of a pair of one-and-ones, LaShay Page knocked down a three-pointer to give the Golden Eagles the lead at 52-51.

Antonio Barton answered with a three-pointer to regain the lead for the Tigers. The two teams exchanged baskets and the game was tied at 56-all.

Tarik Black knocked down a pair of free throws with 1:00 left to give Memphis a 58-56 lead and then blocked Jonathan Mills' layup attempt out-of-bounds with 34 seconds remaining. On Southern Miss' ensuing inbounds, Black was called for a hold on Mills, putting the junior at the charity stripe with a pair of free throws. Mills connected on both shots to tie the game at 58-all.

Cedric Jenkins picked up a foul on the Tigers' inbounds pass, setting the stage for Crawford's game-winning free throws.

Antonio Barton paced Memphis with 13 points. Will Barton narrowly missed a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds. Black also recorded an impressive stat line with nine points, 10 rebounds and five-blocked shots.

Southern Miss was led by Page's 16 points, including 12 from long range. Angelo Johnson was the only other Golden Eagle in double-figures with 11 points.

Tigers Tails

- Tigers improved to 14-3 in C-USA home openers, including wins in 11 straight.
- Tigers improved to 9-0 when opponents shoot less than 40 percent for the game. Southern Miss finished 20-of-57 (35.1 percent).
- Southern Miss attempted 28 three-pointers, the most three-pointers attempted since Tennessee Martin heaved 37 attempts against the Tigers on Nov. 5, 2007.
- Memphis' win snapped the Golden Eagles 11-game win streak.

GAME #17

Memphis 89 • Houston 55 Jan. 14, 2012 • Houston, Texas

Memphis held Houston scoreless for a stretch of 7:38 during the second half and defeated the Cougars 89-55 in a Conference USA match-up, before a crowd of 5,146 at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Chris Crawford scored 19 points, including 15 from long-range, and dished out four assists. Will Barton recorded his ninth double-double of the season with 14 points and 10 boards.

After the Cougars cut the Tigers' lead to single-digits at 47-39 with 16:34 remaining, Memphis responded with an 18-0 run. Houston was held without a field goal for a span of 11:02, including the nearly eight-minute scoreless stretch.

On the evening, Memphis limited Houston to a mere 33.9 percent (19-of-56) shooting and 8.3 percent (1-for-12) from beyond the arc. Memphis hasn't allowed an opponent to shoot over 40 percent in a game since Georgetown connected on 43.1 percent (22-of-51), a six-game streak in which Memphis has won each contest.

The Tigers connected on 55.7 percent (34-of-61) of its field goal attempts and 42.9 percent (6-of-14) from three-point territory. Memphis dominated nearly every statistical category, rebounds (41-31), points in the paint (48-28), fast break points (20-6), points off turnovers (21-8) and bench points (34-19).

Joe Jackson added 16 points and handed out a game-high five assists. Tarik Black rounded out the double-figure scorers for Memphis with 10 points, six rebounds and five blocks.

Memphis knocked down 50 percent (15-of-30) of its first half shots, and Will Barton tallied seven points and seven boards en route to building an 11-point lead at 41-30 at the halftime break. Houston only connected on 36.7 percent (11-of-30) of its field goal attempts, the third-straight half in which the Tigers' opponent has been held below 40 percent.

Alandise Harris led Houston with 18 points, and Jonathon Simmons added 16. Simmons, TaShawn Thomas and Leon Gibson each grabbed five boards to lead Houston on the glass. The Cougars managed only three assists in the game, while turning the ball over 14 times.

Tigers Tails

- The 34-point win is the largest margin of victory in a conference game since a 43 point win over SMU 90-47 on Feb. 18, 2009.
- It was the Tigers' largest margin of victory in a road game since 2005-06 (105-65 at Tulane).
- Tigers improved to 10-0 when opponents shoot less than 40 percent. Houston finished 19-of-56 (33.9 percent).
- Will Barton scored 14 points marking the 12th-straight game that he has scored in double figures. Barton also recorded his ninth double-double of the year.

GAME #18

UCF 68 • Memphis 67 Jan. 18, 2012 • Orlando, Fla.

Memphis dropped its first conference game of the season to UCF 68-67 on Keith Clanton's old-fashioned three-point play with four ticks left on the clock. Will Barton dropped in 24 points and pulled down eight rebounds. Chris Crawford finished 12 points, eight boards and five assists.

In a second half full of runs, UCF struck first with an 11-1 run, forcing Josh Pastner to call a timeout three minutes into the second half. Memphis responded with a 13-2 spurt to cut the lead to two at 54-52 with 10:57 remaining in the game.

The Knights scored seven straight to extend the lead back out to nine (61-52). But, Memphis displayed resiliency when it countered with a 12-2 run to take its first lead of the second half at 64-63. Tarik Black had a chance to increase the lead, but was unable to convert on an alley-oop.

Marcus Jordan finished a driving lay-in to put UCF back on top with 1:22 left. But, Joe Jackson knocked down a deep pull-up three-pointer with the shot clock winding down to push Memphis back out front at 67-65.

UCF failed to convert on its next offensive possession, forcing the Knights to foul Antonio Barton. Barton's front end of the one-and-one lipped out, giving UCF another chance with :15 left.

A.J. Rompza attempted a jumper that caromed off the glass to Clanton, who converted the lay-in and was fouled by Wesley Witherspoon with :04 on the clock. Clanton knocked down the ensuing free throw, and Memphis was unable to get a shot off.

Black scored 10 points for the Tigers, who shot 51.0 percent (26-of-51) for the game. Jackson scored seven points and handed out a game-high six assists. UCF shot 24-of-54 (44.4 percent) for the game.

Despite 16 first-half points from Will Barton, Memphis trailed by three at 41-38 at the break. Barton connected on his first six shots from the floor, before finally missing on a contested 10-footer with 2:26 remaining in the opening half.

Tigers Tails

- Will Barton scored 24 points marking the 13th-straight game that he has scored in double figures. On the year, Barton has scored double-figures in 16-of-18 games.
- Memphis connected on 26-of-51 (51 percent) of its shots, marking the first time this season the Tigers have lost a game shooting better than 50 percent.
- Chris Crawford grabbed a career eight rebounds (also a season best).
- Joe Jackson led Memphis with six assists, the sixth time he led the team in assists this season.

GAME #19

Memphis 63 • SMU 45 Jan. 21, 2012 • Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis' defense took control of the game in the second half, holding SMU scoreless for nearly nine minutes, and the Tigers put away the Mustangs 63-45. Will Barton led the Tigers with 24 points, the 10th time this season he scored 20 or more points, and Tarik Black posted the third double-double of his career with 11 points and a career-high 13 rebounds.

Memphis trailed SMU 35-36 with 13:30 left in the game. That's when the Tigers' defense stiffened and held the Mustangs scoreless for the next 8:57 of the contest. Will Barton started the 23-9 game-closing run with a dunk and free throw to extend the lead to 40-36. In that run, Barton scored 13 of his 24 points.

Several Mustangs turnovers in the last four minutes of play were converted into fast break dunks to seal the victory for the Tigers.

Wesley Witherspoon added six points and seven rebounds and Chris Crawford dished out a team-high four assists.

The Tigers finished the game 23-for-54 (42.6 percent) from the field, while holding the Mustangs to 15-for-46 (32.6 percent) shooting. Memphis controlled the points in the paint (38-14), points off turnovers (19-10), second-chance points (14-7) and fast-break points (14-6).

Leading scorer Will Barton dropped in 11 first-half points, helping the Tigers take the lead into halftime at 30-28. Black added seven points and nine rebounds by the break. Memphis only connected on 38.7 percent (12-for-31) of its shots, while allowing SMU to make 42.9 percent (9-of-21) during the opening frame.

Three Mustangs — Robert Nyakundi, Jeremia Samarrrippas and Jalen Jones — each scored 10 points in the contest. Jones led the team in rebounding with five boards, and Samarrrippas handed out six assists.

Tigers Tails

- In the second half, Memphis held SMU to 17 points, and at one point, held the Mustangs scoreless for eight minutes and 57 seconds.
- Tarik Black reeled in a career high in rebounds with 13. Black's previous career high of 11 came against Tulane (3/5/2011).
- Will Barton led Memphis with 24 points, the 11th time he has led the team in scoring this season.
- Tarik Black recorded his first double-double of the season hauling in 13 rebounds. This is the third double-double of Black's career, with the last coming against UTEP in the 2011 C-USA Conference Tournament championship game.

GAME #20

Memphis 73 • Rice 51 Jan. 25, 2012 • Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis built a 12-point half-time advantage and pushed its lead out to as many as 27 points in the second half before dispatching Rice 73-51. Three Tigers finished in double-figures paced by Chris Crawford's 15 points and seven rebounds. Antonio Barton added 11 points, and Tarik Black chipped in 10.

With 7:21 left in the game and Memphis leading 58-36, Rice's Tamir Jackson chased down Joe Jackson on a fast break and was whistled for a flagrant-two foul. As NCAA rules require, Tamir Jackson was ejected from the game. In the resulting fracas, Joe Jackson was given a technical foul, and Will Barton and Black were ejected from the game for leaving the bench area during an on-court altercation.

Memphis shot 42.9 percent (27-of-63) from the floor and 40.0 (6-of-15) percent from three-point territory, while holding Rice to 40.5 percent (17-of-42) field goal shooting and 44.4 percent (4-of-9) from beyond the arc.

The difference in the game was the Tigers' defense, which forced 18 Owls' turnovers. Memphis capitalized on the miscues, outscoring Rice 21-6 in points off turnovers. The Tigers also won the battle of the boards 40-28 leading to an 11-3 advantage in second-chance points.

Will Barton contributed nine points, a game-high-tying eight rebounds and four assists. Wesley Witherspoon tallied eight points in 20 minutes of action.

Stout defense by the Tigers held Rice without a field goal for the first 7:25 of the game, during which the Owls only mustered three free throws. The strong defensive start propelled Memphis to the halftime lead at 35-23. Antonio Barton scored nine points on 3-for-3 shooting from long range, and Will Barton added seven points and five boards.

Rice forward Arsalan Kazemi took a rough fall when he flipped over D.J. Stephens late in the first half. The leading scorer and rebounder for Rice was held to just two points and five rebounds in the opening 20 minutes.

Connor Frizzelle, Omar Oraby and Tamir Jackson each scored 10 points for the Owls. Kazemi hauled in a game-high-tying eight boards and finished with four points.

Tigers Tails

- Memphis won its 200th game since 2005-06, becoming only the second NCAA Division 1 program to win 200 games in that span of time (joins Kansas).
- The Rice game marked the 13th time the Tigers had at least three players in double-figures. Memphis is 9-4 when it has at least three players in double digits.
- Although the Tigers defense allowed Rice to shoot 40.5 percent from the floor, they forced 18 Owls turnovers, the most miscues forced by Memphis since Nov. 28.

GAME #21

Memphis 83 • Marshall 76 Jan. 28, 2012 • Memphis, Tenn.

Will Barton dropped in a career-high 29 points, and Tarik Black chipped in a season-high 19 points for Memphis, which pulled out an 83-76 Conference USA win against visiting Marshall at FedExForum. Wesley Witherspoon provided a key second-half spark for the Tigers and totaled 12 points in the contest.

Memphis was trailing Marshall 62-59 when Witherspoon made his presence felt. He first grabbed an errant pass in the paint and took it the length of the floor for a lay-in. Witherspoon then ignited the crowd with another steal and coast-to-coast layup off the next Marshall possession. He followed by taking a charge on the defensive end, which led to a free throw by Black.

On the ensuing possession, Witherspoon stole the ball from Dennis Tinnon, who was then whistled for an intentional foul for grabbing Witherspoon in the open court. The senior forward knocked down both shots from the charity stripe. Will Barton followed with a 15-foot jumper to give Memphis the lead 66-62 with 7:21 left.

After the Thundering Herd tied the game at 66-all, Joe Jackson hit a three-pointer and Witherspoon tipped-in his own missed shot to put the Tigers out in front for good at 71-66. Memphis sealed the game with six free throws and a Chris Crawford dunk in the final minute.

The Tigers shot the ball well, making 30-of-54 (55.6 percent) of their field goal attempts despite only making 2-of-10 (20.0 percent) from long range. The Thundering Herd went 24-for-54 (44.4 percent) from the floor and 6-for-17 (35.3 percent) from three-point territory.

Black proved formidable in the lane, sinking 8-of-11 (72.7 percent) shots and helping Memphis to a 48-28 advantage in points in the paint. However, Marshall out-scored Memphis in transition, posting a 16-4 margin in fast-break points.

Marshall led 41-40 at the end of a testy first half. The referees handed out a pair of technical fouls for two-separate instances where players were jawing back-and-forth. Marshall's Tinnon and DeAndre Kane and Memphis' Antonio Barton and Crawford were the four individuals on the receiving end of the technical foul calls.

Tigers Tails

- Will Barton scored a career-high 29 points, the fifth time this season he has recorded a new career best in scoring.
- Tarik Black netted a season-high 19 points, his previous season-best of 18 points came against Tennessee (1/4/12).
- Will Barton eclipsed the 800-point mark in his career with his 29 points vs. the Herd. Barton now has 826 points in two seasons with Memphis.
- Wesley Witherspoon scored 12 points, marking the second time this season he netted double figures (also vs. Belmont on 11/15/11).
