2005 Tennessee Class AAA state championship team. The Tigers' Pierre Niles and the Governors' Wes Channels and Ernest Fields helped lead the Roadrunners to that state crown.

Niles posted a double-double of 16 points and 12 boards in the 64-42 victory over Jackson North Side. Channels had four points, four boards and three assists, while Fields added 10 points and four rebounds. Niles was named the Class AAA state tournament MVP.

March and prepares teams to make postseason runs, his Tiger squads have done quite well in the month of November. Since taking over in 2000-01, Memphis has a 29-11 record (.725 winning percentage) in November.

One reason for the 11 early setbacks is the rugged national schedule the Tigers have played in the Calipari era. Of the 11 November losses, nine were to nationally-ranked teams.

The Tigers, though, are 18-4 in November the last four seasons (includes 2007-08), with all four setbacks coming to ranked opponents. The following shows Memphis' progress in November games under Calipari:

Year	Nov. Rec.	Losses to Ranked Teams
2007-08	5-0	0
2006-07	4-1	1
2005-06	5-1	1
2004-05	4-2	2

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Memphis has had a long history of success in non-league games, and that has continued under head coach John Calipari. Since Calipari took over in 2000-01, the Tigers have a non-conference record (including postseason) of 93-32 for a 74.4 winning percentage.

The Tigers are 5-0 against non-Conference USA foes this season.

FIRST TIME SINCE...

The Tigers are off to a 5-0 start this year, and it's been awhile since Memphis began a campaign with five-straight wins. The last time the Tigers started off 5-0 was the 1995-96 season. That squad started 8-0 before dropping its first game to UMass 64-61 (UMass was coached by John Calipari at the time).

The longest win streak to open a Tiger season was 20 straight to start the 1985-86 campaign. Memphis went 20-0 before losing at Virginia Tech on Feb. 1, 1986.

The following lists the best undefeated starts in Tiger basketball history since World War II:

Year	Undefeated Start
1985-86.....	20-0
1982-83.....	11-0
1984-85.....	9-0
1955-56.....	9-0

1960-61.....	8-0
1956-57.....	8-0
1958-59.....	7-0
1977-78.....	6-0
1976-77.....	6-0
1973-74.....	6-0
1963-64.....	6-0
2007-08.....	5-0

TIGER SUCCESS AT FEDEXFORUM

After a rough first year at their new home in 2004-05, the Tigers have bounced back quite nicely and made FedExForum one of the toughest arenas for opponents to play in. Since the 2005 Conference USA Tournament, Memphis has won 47 of its last 49 home games (.959 winning percentage).

Overall, the Tigers have a 57-8 record (.877 winning percentage) at FedExForum. Memphis had a perfect 19-0 home mark in 2006-07.

TIGERS STREAKING AT HOME

Don't look now, but the Tigers have put together another homecourt winning streak. Memphis finished the 2006-07 campaign with a 32-game homecourt winning streak, and the Tigers added to that total with three wins to open 2007-08 to extend the nation's longest homecourt win streak to 35.

The following lists the nation's current top-five homecourt win streaks for 2007-08:

Team	Streak	Next Home Game
Memphis	35*	Austin Peay/Nov. 27
BYU	34	Weber St./Dec. 5

35-0 IS SECOND

Memphis' current 35-game homecourt win streak is the longest in the nation, but it is only the second-longest in Tiger basketball history since the 1970-71 season. The longest homecourt win streak in Memphis hoops history is 39 straight that spanned from the end of the 1983-84 season through the 1986-87 campaign.

The previous long winning streak in the John Calipari era was 24 straight that stretched from the middle of the 2002-03 season through the start of the 2004-05 year. The following are the Tigers' top-five homecourt winning streaks since 1970-71:

Streak	Years Spanned
39.....	1983-84 through 1986-87
35.....	2005-06 to present
30.....	1993-94 through 1995-96
28.....	1981-82 through 1982-83
24.....	2002-03 through 2004-05

KEMP ON FIRE

Dare we say it. Yes, in honor of former ESPN icon Dan Patrick, Willie Kemp was en fuego in the Tigers' Nov. 20 victory over Arkansas State. The Bolivar, Tenn., native netted a career-high 22 points versus the Indians. His previous career high was 21 points in a win over Cincinnati last year.

The 6-foot-2 guard also tied career bests for field goals made (8) and three-point field goals made (6). Kemp had eight field goals versus Rice and six treys versus Cincinnati last year.

KEMP LOVES THOSE HOME RIMS

They call it a homecourt advantage when you play in friendly confines. And there is one Tiger in particular that takes advantage of the homecourt, and Willie Kemp is his name.

In his two seasons, the sophomore guard is shooting 48.7 percent from the field (73-of-150) and 50 percent from the arc (47-of-94) in games played at FedExForum. The 6-foot-2 guard netted his career high with 22 points versus Arkansas State Nov. 20 at home, and last year, Kemp's season high of 21 points versus Cincinnati came at FedExForum.

DRE DISHIN' AND DIMIN'

After four subpar games to open the 2007-08 campaign, senior Andre Allen was back to his old self in the Tigers' victory over Arkansas State Nov. 20. The 5-foot-10 guard dished out a career-high nine assists (compared to only two turnovers) versus the Indians. Prior to the Arkansas State contest, the Memphis, Tenn., native had only seven assists in the first four games.

The nine-assist game bested his previous high of eight assists in three different games. Allen had two games with eight assists versus Austin Peay and Kentucky in 2006-07.

MACK WARMING UP

Last season, it took Doneal Mack until late December to get adjusted to the college game, and when he did, he proved a valuable perimeter asset. This year, the 6-foot-5 guard started slow in the Tigers' first four games, but found his rhythm versus Arkansas State Nov. 20.

The Charlotte, N.C., native tied his career high scoring game with 19 points in the win over the Indians. The 19-point performance tied his 19-point game against Marshall in the 2007 Conference USA Tournament quarterfinal.

DOZIER PROBABLE FOR TUESDAY'S GAME

Robert Dozier is probable for Tuesday's contest versus Austin Peay. He suffered a left foot injury prior to the Nov. 20 Arkansas State game and did not play against the Indians. The 6-foot-9 junior forward has seen limited practice time since the injury.

CLOSING IN ON 1,000

Chris Douglas-Roberts entered 2007-08 with 821 points and needed 179 to reach the 1,000-point milestone. Well, five games in, Douglas-Roberts is over halfway there.

He now has 929 career points and needs only 71 to reach the 1,000-point plateau for his career. When he reaches the milestone, he will be the 43rd player in Tiger history to do so.

TIGERS TAKE 2K SPORTS COLLEGE HOOPS CLASSIC TITLE

With their wins over Oklahoma and Connecticut Nov. 15-16, Memphis took home the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic crown. The Tigers defeated the Sooners 63-53 in the semifinals and the Huskies 81-70 in the championship game at Madison Square Garden (see final 2K Classic bracket to the right).

It was the first time Memphis won an in-season tournament (more than one game) since the 1989-90 season when the Tigers won their own Mid-South Classic in Memphis. Prior to the 2K Sports Classic title, the last time Memphis won an in-season tournament (more than one game) other than its own was the 1986 Cotton States Classic. (Note: The Tigers

CHINESE COACH JOINS TIGER STAFF AS PART OF CBA EXCHANGE PROGRAM

University of Memphis head coach John Calipari started an exchange program with the Chinese Basketball Associated in September, and it will span the next five years. Calipari visited China in late September, and then in mid-October, 15 Chinese coaches came to Memphis to observe Tiger practices for 10 days.

After the 10-day visit, 14 of the Chinese coaches flew back home and one coach — Cui Wanjun — stayed in the Bluff City and will be a part of the Memphis staff for the 2007-08 season.

The following is a brief bio on Wanjun:

- Birthdate: July 28, 1970
- Height: 6-3
- Current Post: Head Coach, Liaoning Hunters Head Coach, China Jr. National Team
- Coaching Career: 10 CBA Jr. League titles
- Playing Career:
 - 3-year National Team Veteran 1991-93

Memphis plays all of its 2007-08 home contests in the 18,400-seat arena and also hosts its C-USA rivals during the 2008 C-USA Tournament. The Tigers now have an overall record of 79-54 in regular season tournaments in the program's history. Memphis has won 15 in-season tournament titles.

Under head coach John Calipari, Memphis is 15-7 in regular season tournaments (more than one game). The Tigers placed third in last season's EA Sports Maui Invitational, and was runner-up in the NIT Season Tip-Off in 2005-06 and Coaches vs. Cancer Classic in 2004-05.

CD-R NAMED C-USA PLAYER OF WEEK NOV. 12-18; ALSO HONORED AS VITALE'S NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Chris Douglas-Roberts was selected the Conference USA Player of the Week for Nov. 12-18, the league office announced Nov. 19. This is the second-straight week Douglas-Roberts has earned C-USA's weekly honor.

It is the fourth time in Douglas-Roberts' career that he took home the league's weekly accolade. He also received the award twice in the 2006-07 year.

The Memphis junior also earned praise from Dick Vitale/ESPN.com, with the web site naming Douglas-Roberts its National Player of the Week. The site named Memphis its National Team of the Week.

The 6-foot-7 guard/forward averaged 22.5 points and 5.5 rebounds in the two victories. Douglas-Roberts saved his best for the title game victory over Connecticut, scoring a career-high 33 points versus the Huskies. He also hit a career-best 14 field goals against UConn. Douglas-Roberts added seven boards for the Tigers in the championship game.

His name appears on both the 2007-08 Wooden Award and Naismith Trophy preseason watch lists.

CD-STAR! CD-STAR!

That's what the Memphis fans seemed to be chanting when it was announced that Chris Douglas-Roberts was named the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic MVP following the Tigers' victory over Connecticut in the title game. The 6-foot-7 guard/forward averaged 22.5 points and 5.5 rebounds in Memphis' two games in the New York City, including a career-high 33 points in the victory over Connecticut.

It was the second in-season tournament honor for the Detroit, Mich., native, as he was named to the 2006 EA Sports Maui Invitational All-Tournament Team.

Also picking up 2K Sports College Hoops Classic honors was freshman Derrick Rose, who was named to the All-Tournament Team.

DORSEY BACK WITH A BANG!

After missing the first two regular season games last week, Joey Dorsey hit the floor for his first regular season action in the Tigers' 63-53 victory over Oklahoma in the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic Nov. 15. And, boy, did Mr. Dorsey make an impact.

Dorsey grabbed a game-high 12 boards and added nine points and five blocked shots. The following night, Dorsey was just as impressive with a 12-rebound, three-blocked shot performance in the Tigers' win over Connecticut in the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic. The double-digit rebounding games were the 38th and 39th of his career.

The 6-foot-9 senior forward missed the first two regular season contests versus Tennessee-Martin Nov. 5 and Richmond Nov. 6 after suffering a right shoulder sprain in an Oct. 27 scrimmage. From Oct. 28-Nov. 6, Dorsey missed several practices.

Prior to the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic/Memphis Regional Nov. 5-6, the Baltimore, Md., native had seen action in 111 of 112 games in his career. Dorsey's last game in which he did not play was his freshman season (2004-05) when the Tigers

It's In The Numbers

to
#3

Joey Dorsey changed his number from 32 to 3 because Detroit Piston Ben Wallace wears jersey No. 3. Dorsey said that head coach John Calipari has been encouraging him to play like Ben Wallace, so he thought he would change his number to Wallace's. Dorsey had worn jersey No. 32 the past two seasons. As a freshman in 2004-05, Dorsey wore No. 15.

#55
to #31

For the third-straight year, Chance McGrady switched his jersey number. This season, McGrady will wear No. 31. Last year, he wore No. 55, and as a freshman, he wore No. 11.

#12
to #5

Antonio Anderson switched jersey numbers from No. 12 to No. 5. He wore No. 5 during his prep career, but when he arrived in Memphis, Jeremy Hunt had No. 5. With the graduation of Hunt last season, Anderson was able to switch back to his No. 5.

#23

Well, it's not what most people think. Yes, Derrick Rose is from Chicago and he did grow up a Michael Jordan fan. However, his jersey number is not for MJ. Rose wore No. 25 in high school in honor of former Chicago high school star Ben Wilson, but No. 25 is retired at Memphis (Hardaway wore it). Also retired are Nos. 21, 22 and 24, and teammate Doncel Mack wears No. 20. So, No. 23 it is.

Game #6 • Memphis vs. Austin Peay • Page 7 defeated USF 73-67 on Jan. 19, 2005 (coach's decision).

He started 72 of 74 games the previous two seasons, including a string of 44-consecutive starts. Before the Nov. 5 missed game, Dorsey had a streak of 94-straight games played.

JOEY'S DOUBLE DIGIT BOARDS EQUAL WINS FOR TIGERS

The equation may look a little funny, but it's added up to success for the Tigers the past three-plus seasons. Since arriving at Memphis, Joey Dorsey has hit the double-digit plateau in rebounds 39 times, and the Tigers have won 36 of those games.

The 6-foot-9 senior forward and the Tigers are looking to carry that trend to 2007-08. So far, so good, with Dorsey grabbing 12 rebounds versus Oklahoma and Connecticut Nov. 15-16, and the Tigers getting victories in both games. The following shows Dorsey's career double-digit rebounding games:

CALIPARI MOVING UP WINS CHART

Last year, head coach John Calipari posted his 150th win as the Memphis mentor and reached the milestone the second-fastest of any coach in Tiger basketball history. Well, don't look now, but Calipari is moving up the Memphis coaching wins list.

Calipari entered 2007-08 with 181 wins at Memphis, and after the Tigers' five victories to open the 2007-08 campaign, he now has 186. He took over the No. 2 spot with the Tigers' win over UTEP Mar. 1, 2007. The following shows the top-five winningest coaches in Tiger basketball history:

CALIPARI AMONG COACHING ELITE

John Calipari already counted himself among the coaching elite in terms of coaching wins in the first nine, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 years. Well, after the Tigers posted five wins to open the 2007-08 season, he moved up to a tie for the No. 6 spot for most coaching victories in his first 16 years (375 wins). The following lists the coaches with the most victories in their first 16 years:

MEMPHIS TIED FOR LONGEST STREAK IN AP TOP 25 POLL

When Duke fell out of the Feb. 12, 2007, Associated Press Top 25 poll after its fourth-straight loss, Memphis and UCLA tied for the longest streak for consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 poll. The Tigers and Bruins are currently tied with 42-straight weeks ranked in the poll, including the most recent regular season poll released Nov. 26.

Memphis was ranked in all 19 polls last year, and climbed as high as No. 5. In 2005-06, the Tigers were ranked all 19 weeks and reached as high as No. 3 in the poll. Duke's streak ended at 200-straight weeks.

TIGERS EARN HIGHEST PRESEASON RANKING EVER

When the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today coaches preseason polls put Memphis at No. 3, it was the highest preseason national ranking for the Tigers in school history. The previous highest preseason ranking for Memphis was No. 5 in both the 1983-84 and 1984-85 seasons.
