MISSISSIPPI STATE

MEMPHIS-MISSISSIPPI STATE SERIES

Saturday's Labor Day weekend game is the 43rd overall meeting between the two schools. The Bulldogs hold a 31-11 advantage in the series.

The last time the two teams met on the gridiron was back in the 2003 campaign, with Mississippi State taking a narrow 35-27 win in Starkville. The 2003 encounter was the final meeting in a 30-year annual meeting between the Tigers and Bulldogs (1974-2003).

Mississippi State holds a 14-4 series advantage in games played in Starkville. The Bulldogs have won the last five games played in Starkville. The last Tiger victory over Mississippi State in Starkville was also Memphis' last win in the overall series. That victory was a 45-35 win in the 1993 season.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS WITH THE BULLDOGS

MSU 35, UofM 27 (Starkville, 2003): In a game that will be remembered more for the postgame theatrics between the head coaches, Memphis duedied Mississippi State till the end, but dropped a 35-27 decision to the Bulldogs. Led by QB Danny Wimprine, the Tiger offense erupted for 568 yards and 29 first downs. Wimprine was 32-of-60 passing for 398 yards, while DeAngelo Williams rushed for 119 yards on 15 carries.

MSU 29, UofM 17 (Memphis, 2002): The Tigers held a 17-13 lead until the fourth quarter when Mississippi State scored the game's final 16 points to take the 29-17 win. The Danny Wimprine-Tavares Gideon tandem paced the Memphis offensive attack. Wimprine passed for 288 yards and two TD, while Gideon had eight receptions for 127 yards and one TD.

MSU 30, UofM 10 (Starkville, 2001): The Tigers built a 10-0 lead early in the third quarter, but the Bulldogs scored 30 unanswered points in the game's final 25 minutes for the win. The Memphis offense managed only 162 total yards and 10 first downs. Mississippi State had 353 yards of total offense, with 202 yards coming in its second-half surge.

MSU 17, UofM 3 (Memphis, 2000): A battle of defenses was the story in the 2000 season opener for both teams, but Mississippi State got the win 17-3. The Bulldog defense, which led the nation in 1999, held the Tigers to 168 yards of total offense, but Memphis did "one-better" in holding the Mississippi State offense to only 127 yards. All three Bulldog scores came on short drives (25, 24 and 6 yards).

MSU 13, UofM 10 (Starkville, 1999): In a defensive struggle, Mississippi State built a 10-0 first half lead and then held off a Tiger rally in the second half for the 13-10 win. Gerard Arnold paced the Tiger ground game with 65 yards on 17 carries, while QB Neil Suber was 8-of-16 passing for 63 yards. Travis Anglin scored the Tigers' lone touchdown on a one-yard run in the third quarter.

LARRY PORTER

Former University of Memphis running back Larry Porter has returned to his alma mater after being named the school's 22nd head football coach on November 29, 2009. Porter played for the Tigers in the 1990s and received his degree in 1996.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Porter is returning to Memphis after spending the last five years on the LSU coaching staff. He had also worked three years with LSU coach Les Miles at Oklahoma State before joining Miles in Baton Rouge in 2005. He has coached LSU running backs while also holding two key roles on staff - assistant head coach and chief recruiter. Porter was elevated to the position of assistant head coach during the spring of 2006. He was twice (2007 and 2009) named as the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com making him one of the top all-around assistant coaches in college football.

In three of the last four seasons (2006-09 included), the LSU rushing unit averaged over 165 yards a game, including a high of 214 yards per game in 2007. That squad closed out the season ranked 11th nationally in rushing. From 2005-08, the Tigers totaled 108 rushing touchdowns, including 35 in 2007.

As LSU's running backs coach, Porter has helped developed some of the finest players at that position in LSU's history. From 2005-09, LSU produced a 1,000-yard rusher twice - Jacob Hester with 1,103 yards in 2007 and Charles Scott with 1,174 yards in 2008 - as well as having five players (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday) selected in the NFL Draft.

Porter has also had coaching stints at Arkansas State, Oklahoma State and UT Martin. At Oklahoma State, Porter's stable of running backs continued the tradition of "Tailback U.", as he coached 1,000-yard rushers for three straight seasons. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned second-team All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards, which ranked eighth in the nation, and 12 touchdowns.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Adams rushed for 1,004 yards and six touchdowns in 2000 and followed that with another 1,004 yards and five scores in 2001.

Porter began his coaching career at Wooddale High School in Memphis, Tenn., serving as head track and field coach, while assisting with the running backs and secondary on the football squad. After two years at Wooddale, Porter moved to the collegiate ranks, coaching the running backs at Tennessee-Martin in 1998.

Porter lettered four years (1990-93) at Memphis, serving as co-captain of the 1993 Tiger squad. He closed out his career with 2,194 yards and 20 rushing touchdowns, ranking seventh in school history in yardage and tied for fifth in touchdowns. As a rookie in 1990, Porter rushed for 206 yards against Arkansas State, the highest single-game total for a freshman in school history. In his first game, he replaced injured starting tailback Marvin Cox and raced 53 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas State on his first college carry. Porter had a total of six 100-yard games during his career, a figure that ranks tied for fifth in Memphis history.

Porter graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in education. He and his wife Sharmane have three children, Brandon, Omari and Olivia.

REPRESENTING THE 901 ...

One of the statements made by Coach Larry Porter early on was that he will look to keep key talent in Memphis. In fact, this year's marketing campaign of billboards and commercials touts the local guys who chose to play in their hometown such as freshmen Fred Harvey (White Station HS), Lonnie Ballentine (Southwind HS) and Al Bond (Southwind HS) who all signed with Porter this past February. The current Tiger roster consists of 29 players from the Memphis area and six others who are within 17 miles of campus in Southaven, MS, West Memphis, AR or Olive Branch, MS.

PORTER MAKING HEAD COACHING DEBUT

Coach Larry Porter is one of three Conference USA coaches making their head coaching debut during the 2010 season. Joining Porter are East Carolina's Ruffin McNeill and Marshall's Doc Holliday. Porter and McNeill have returned to their alma maters, while Holliday is a native of Hurricane, W.Va. Porter and Holliday are opening with BCS opponents Mississippi State (9/4 on ESPN) and Ohio State (9/2 on BTN), respectively, while McNeill starts his career with a C-USA meeting versus Tulsa (9/5 on ESPN2).

THREE C-USA TEAMS STARTING NEW QB'S

With Coach Larry Porter tabbing Cannon Smith as the starting quarterback for this weekend, the Memphis Tigers will be one of three teams in Conference USA that are expected to debut a new starter under center. East Carolina could start Dominique Davis or Brad Wornick when they host Tulsa in the season opener. Both would be playing in their first game at ECU. Davis is a JuCo transfer but played as a redshirt freshman at Boston College in '08, and Wornick is a sophomore with the Pirates. In addition, UAB is expected to open the season against Florida Atlantic with sophomore David Isabelle, who played in 12 games as a backup to Joe Webb in 2009.

FROM BULLDOGS TO TIGERS

While there are no Tigers remaining on the roster who made the last trip to Starkville in 2003, there are two U of M players who know the deafening sounds of the cowbell all too well. Senior linebacker Jamon Hughes, who is in his third year with the Tigers played at MSU during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. While at State, he logged 22 games played and two starts. He had a productive sophomore campaign with 65 tackles in '07. In addition, the Tigers signed receiver Delmon Robinson out of Copiah-Lincoln CC this past February. Before his stint at Co-Lin, Robinson played in 11 games as a true freshman for the Bullies in '08, logging 12 receptions for 125 yards.

ANY GIVEN SATURDAY

The Tigers are scheduled to have every game this season on a Saturday for the first time since 2003. For the last six seasons, Memphis has played at least two games on a weeknight or on Sunday. Over that span, the Tigers have played on Sunday (3 times), Thursday (3 times), Tuesday (3 times), Friday (3 times) and Monday once. In 2009, the Tigers played three times on days other than Saturday to accommodate a television broadcast.

LOOKING FOR PLAY MAKERS

The Tigers had some big play makers on offense last season with running back Curtis Steele and receivers Duke Calhoun and Carlos Singleton scoring 24 of the team's 33 touchdowns. Of the returning skill players, only Marcus Rucker (2 TDs), Tyler Bass (1 TD) and Marcus Hightower (1 TD) have scored for the Tigers. In addition, of the 44 offensive plays of 20 or more yards last season, only 14 were by returning players. Of the 14, 7 were passes from Tyler Bass to either Calhoun or Singleton.

PORTER PERFECTION IN STARKVILLE

While the Tiger program has had some success when playing in Starkville, head coach Larry Porter can claim a perfect mark against the Bulldogs on their home field. Porter has a 5-0 record (combined as a player and coach) against Mississippi State in Starkville, and the following shows that:

Year/Position	School	Result
2009/Asst. Coach	LSU	30-26, W
2007/Asst. Coach	LSU	45-0, W
2005/Asst. Coach	LSU	37-7, W
1993/Player	Memphis	45-35, W
1991/Player	Memphis	28-23, W

PORTER VERSUS MISSISSIPPI STATE

While he is perfect versus the Bulldogs in Starkville, head coach Larry Porter's overall record against Mississippi State isn't too bad either. As a player and coach, Porter is 7-2 against Mississippi State (2-2 as a Memphis player; 5-0 as an LSU assistant coach). The two setbacks both were narrow four-point losses (27-23 in 1990; 20-16 in 1992) during his playing years at Memphis.

A LITTLE HISTORY LESSON

The last time that Memphis defeated Mississippi State in Starkville was in 1993. The date was Sept. 4, and Larry Porter rushed for 42 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries in a 45-35 win over the Bulldogs. Porter scored from an eight-yard run in the first quarter and on a one-yard scamper in the third quarter.

ON THIS DATE

The Tigers have 3-2 record when playing on Sept. 4. All five games have been played against either Mississippi State (once) or Ole Miss (four times).

The last time Memphis played a Sept. 4 game was the 2004 campaign. The Tigers went to Oxford, Miss., and posted a 20-13 win over Ole Miss to open the season.

The Tigers also opened the 1993 season on Sept. 4 with a 45-35 win over No. 23 Mississippi State in Starkville. Larry Porter was a member of that 1993 Memphis squad.

A WIN WOULD ...

A win on Saturday would mark the second consecutive Conference USA opponent to defeat the Bulldogs. Mississippi State dropped a 31-24 decision to Houston on October 10, 2009. Since 2003, Mississippi State is 7-6 against Conference USA.

SCORING TREND

Memphis has scored in the last 131 consecutive games since their last shutout. The last time the Tigers were held scoreless was in 1999 – a 3-0 loss to Ole Miss in the season opener on Sept. 4 at the Liberty Bowl. The last shutout that Memphis pitched was a 13-0 victory over Tulane on Oct. 8, 1994 – also at the Liberty Bowl.

Memphis ranks second in Conference USA in consecutive games scoring. Below is a list of C-USA schools and their scoring streaks.

LAST TIME VERSUS MISSISSIPPI STATE

MEMPHIS 27
MISSISSIPPI STATE 35
Starkville, Miss.
October 11, 2003

Starkville, MS – The Memphis Tigers, coming off a disappointing loss to UAB, had to travel into the heart of the Magnolia state to take on SEC foe Mississippi State University. However, this season hopes ran high for a Memphis win. The Tigers were sporting a 3-2 record, while the Bulldogs were 1-4 on the season.

Mississippi State had given up huge chunks of yardage in each of the first five games of the season and this battle would be no different. Memphis would compile 568 yards of total offense and numerous single game records would fall but to no avail, as the Tigers would lose 35-27 to MSU.

The Tigers would struggle defensively and on special teams in the opening half, giving up a season-high 28 points in the first two quarters. But as in almost every game this season, the U of M would come roaring back in the second half and fight to the finish.

Mississippi State wasted little in lighting up the scoreboard. After one exchange of punts, the Bulldogs mounted a 13-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a Kevin Fant to Aaron Lumpkin one-yard pass for a touchdown. Fant, who entered the game averaging over 200 yards passing per game, completed five passes and was aided by a pass interference call in directing his team to the first score of the night. Brent Smith converted the PAT for MSU.

Not to be outdone, Wimprine led his Tigers on a five-play, 80-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7. The junior record holder hit LaDarius Price for 38 yards and Darron White for nine yards before putting his backfield in the old "T" formation. With White lined up in the backfield, Wimprine handed off to the receiver, and he scampered 40-yards for the Memphis score. Stephen Gostkowski booted the PAT and the contest was tied.

But the scoring frenzy was not over. Mississippi State rode Fant's arm and Fred Reid's legs to a second score on the ensuing set of plays. Fant threw passes to Justin Jenkins and Reid ran for 25 yards to set up a second Fant-to-Lumpkin touchdown toss, this one good from 16 yards out. The first quarter ended with the Bulldogs leading 14-7.

Memphis again responded with a 70 yard drive but this one took just three plays and a mere :38 seconds off the clock. Wimprine, who would tie his career high for pass completions in a game with 32, hit Darren Garcia for 16 yards and Maurice Avery for 45 yards before again handing the ball to White out of the backfield. This time the junior from Covington, TN, raced 13 yards for his second rushing touchdown of the night.

Lightening would strike the Tigers and perhaps deflate the squad on the ensuing kickoff. Reid would take the Gostkowski kickoff and race 100 yards to the Memphis end zone to take the lead back and take away the Memphis enthusiasm. The kickoff return for a score was the first given up in 11 seasons.

Late in the second quarter, the Tigers managed to drive the length of the field and add three points on a Gostkowski 32-yard field goal. The score cut the MSU advantage to 21-17 and the U of M hoped to go to the locker room just four down.

Getting the ball back with just 2:36 left in the opening half, the Bulldogs would march 83 yards for yet another score, this one coming on a 19-yard Nick Turner run. The Bulldogs would leave for halftime with a commanding 28-17 lead. The Dogs held the ball for 20:09 in the half and had 340 yards of total offense. The second half would be a different story.

The University of Memphis opened the second half with a long drive to the MSU four yard line, but failed to gain any points when Gostkowski missed a 30-yard field goal attempt.

Mississippi State appeared to put the game out of reach on another Turner touchdown run in the third quarter to take a commanding 35-17 lead with 2:03 left in the third quarter.

But the score seemed to light a fire under the U of M. Wimprine immediately threw a 44-yard pass to Garcia and then hit LaDarius Price for nine yards. After a couple of Derron Parquet runs, Wimprine hooked up with DeAngelo Williams for 24 yards and then tossed a four-yard touchdown pass to Tavarious Davis. The score was now 35-24.

The Tigers seemed to keep the ball for all of the fourth quarter, but were only able to get a second field goal from Gostkowski and Mississippi State would come away with a 35-27 victory.

Memphis compiled incredible numbers in the second half. The offense gained 322 yards of total offense in the second half to just 41 total yards for MSU. Wimprine set records for pass attempts in a game with 60, tied his pass completions record in a game with 32 and set a new mark for yards in a game with 398.

MEDIA INFO

TIGERS ON THE RADIO

All Tiger football games can be heard on News Radio 600 WREC in Memphis. This is the fifth season that WREC has aired Tiger football games. Dave Woloshin is in his 14th season as the Tigers' play-by-play announcer, while former Tiger Chris Powers is in his second year of handling the color commentary. Matt Dillon is the sideline reporter for all home and select road games.

LARRY PORTER TELEVISION SHOW

Coach Porter's television show is aired each week on FOX 13 in Memphis. The show can be seen each Sunday night at 10 p.m. with Coach Porter and hosts Dave Woloshin and Greg Gaston.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Larry Porter holds a weekly press luncheon on Mondays at 11:30 a.m. The luncheon is held in the Assembly Room of the Athletic Office Building. Members of the media are invited to lunch at 11:30 a.m. The press conference will officially begin at noon. The press conference is carried live through Memphis Tigers All-Access at www.GoTigersGo.com.

C-USA TELECONFERENCE CALL

Coach Larry Porter participates in the weekly C-USA teleconference on select Mondays. The call begins at 1 p.m. CDT with Porter going on at 1:19 p.m. Please contact Jennifer Rodrigues for call-in and replay numbers.

TIGERS ON THE INTERNET

Media seeking information on U of M athletics can log on to www.GoTigersGo.com. Current information, statistics, bios, weekly releases and broadcasts of Tiger games are available.

All C-USA schools have partnered with CollegePressBox.com. This site is for MEDIA and each school in the league posts current game notes, depth charts, rosters, audio files, etc., as well as downloadable head shots and action shots of players and coaches. Media can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to: password@collegepressbox.com.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for Tiger coaching staff and players must go through Jennifer Rodrigues (901-678-2397). Players are not available after practice unless an arrangement has been made in advance. See chart below for player availability throughout the week. Interviews and credentials will only be granted to accredited media outlets.

EARNING THEIR STRIPES

Three former walk-ons were awarded scholarships during fall camp by Coach Larry Porter including defensive back John McArthur, receiver Stevie Matthews and defensive back Mitch Huelsing. McArthur is a redshirt junior who attended Christian Brothers High and made his debut last year against Ole Miss and appeared in 12 games on special teams. Matthews is a product of Melrose High who also made his debut last season and played mostly on special teams. Huelsing is a redshirt sophomore from Munford, who also spent most of last season playing on special teams. "These guys have earned it," Porter said. "And it's not just for being an athlete, it's for the total person they are. They are model citizens and they bleed blue through and through."

RILEY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-C-USA

Senior offensive lineman Dominik Riley was named to the preseason All-Conference USA Coaches Team for a second-consecutive season. Riley is one of five returning starters on a veteran offensive line that returns nine letterwinners.

The Montgomery, Ala., native was an integral part of a 2009 offensive line that ranked third in Conference USA for sacks allowed and paved the way for running back Curtis Steele to rush for over 1,200 yards and 15 touchdowns. Riley saw playing time at both right and left guard in 2009.

YOUNG CUBS

When the Tigers take the field on Sept. 4, there will more than likely be a large contingency of underclassmen on the field and probably several first-time starters. Of the 102 players listed on the current roster, 58 percent of the players are either freshmen or sophomores. The largest class on the squad this season are freshmen, which number 41. On the flip side, there are only 21 seniors this year.

OFFENSIVE LINE STARTERS

The projected starting offensive line is made up of five previous starters with experience. Dominik Riley has made 22 consecutive starts while Joel McCleod and Tommy Walker, who were previously defenders, have both started 12 straight games last year.

G'DAY MATE

Coach Larry Porter brought in a punter this fall from Down Under and Tom Hornsey could fill the shoes left behind by Matt Reagan, who set numerous school marks last season as a senior in his first year punting. Hornsey, a former Australian Rules Football player, had his first taste of US football this past year training at ProKick Australia, which is an academy developed to assist in the transition to American football. Hornsey has had a productive camp and could give the Tigers prime field position with his strong leg.

"DIRTY" MAKING HIS MOVE AS A SENIOR

Darius Davis was nicknamed "Dirty" in high school for his tough, aggressive style on the field. Whether it's the new coaching staff or his recent move from safety to corner, Davis has shown his more aggressive side during fall camp and is expected to be a leader on the defense, along with safety Marcus Ball. Both are vocal leaders who keep the "D" hyped up and strive to improve the Memphis defense that was ranked 116th out of 120 FBS teams last season in total defense. Davis ranked fifth on the team in tackles and third in passes defended in 2009.

IDENTITY CRISIS

Senior Winston Bowens is eager to help out the Tiger defense, regardless of where he will be on the field. At 6-1, 250, Bowens isn't a likely candidate for the secondary, but he is a versatile player who could see time at either linebacker or defensive end. Bowens has spent the previous three seasons as a linebacker - a position he has played since he was about five years old - but was shifted to the line in spring practice. He came out in fall camp on the line, but injuries to Jamon Hughes and DeRon Furr left the linebacker corps a bit depleted and Bowens was inserted back in at MLB.

Bowens is no stranger to adapting to the circumstances, having experienced six different defensive coordinators during his time at Memphis (2006-Joe Lee Dunn/Tommy West; 2007-Rick

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

QUARTERBACKS

The Tigers went into fall camp with four QBs vying for the starting job, but only one has taken a snap at Memphis. Tyler Bass played just two games in 2008 before suffering a knee injury, and was sidelined in 2009 after four games with a shoulder injury. Will Gilchrist redshirted as a true freshman last season, and Cannon Smith was with the Tigers all fall after transferring from Miami. Smith played in one game in 2008 with the Hurricanes. Ryan Williams graduated early from high school to enroll at the U of M in the spring, and was named the Offensive MVP of the Blue-Gray Game. By the first week of fall camp, Smith and Williams were getting all of the reps in the scrimmages and both have battled for the starting job.

RUNNING BACKS

The Tigers lost talented and productive back Curtis Steele to graduation but have talent at that position to work with. Greg Ray saw action in four games last season, while Marcus Hightower played in nine games as a true freshman and logged 34 yards and a touchdown on five carries. Jerrell Rhodes joined the Tigers after transferring from Hargrave Military Academy and was having a productive spring before an injury sidelined him for much of the 15-practice session. He has been full speed this fall and could play early.

RECEIVERS

Another spot the Tigers were hit hard by graduation is wide receiver, as Duke Calhoun and Carlos Singleton finished their four-year careers at the No. 1 and No. 2 receivers in school history. Both logged over 500 yards receiving last season, with Calhoun leading the way with 923 yards on 68 receptions. Marcus Rucker and Cam Baker are the leading returnees from last season as Rucker logged 241 yards and two TDs and Baker tallied 149 yards on 20 catches. Curtis Johnson played in all 12 games and caught eight passes for 72 yards. Billy Foster and Jermaine McKenzie redshirted in 2009. McKenzie sat out as a transfer from Miami, and Foster suffered a severe ankle injury in camp that sidelined him. Dejarrius Adams is a transfer from El Camino CC. All three transfers are expected to make an impact this season. TE Deven Onarheim has been a consistent player for the Tigers. He played in all 12 games last season and totaled 82 yards on nine catches.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The entire starting offensive line returns from last season, including Ronald Leary (LT), Joel McCleod (LG), Brad Paul (C), Dominik Riley (RG) and Tommy Walker (RT). Kindly Jacques, Lionel Henderson and Michael Antonescu all saw action in '08, with Antonescu starting the final three games of the season at right guard when Riley was injured. Riley was named to the 2010 C-USA Preseason Team, his second straight nomination by league coaches.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line was a group that had considerable depth and talent in 2009, and though the unit lost four players that saw extensive action last season, the remaining talent should leave the line in good shape heading into the spring. Frank Trotter, Charlie Bryant and Dontari Poe each started over half of the games last season, and Poe was named to the C-USA All-Freshman Team. Trotter is the leading returning tackler in the line, posting 36 tackles, including 3.5 TFL. This past spring, senior Winston Bovens was moved from linebacker to the defensive line.

LINEBACKER

The linebacker corps returns several key players from last season, including senior Jamon Hughes, who led the Tiger defense with 87 tackles, and a forced fumble. He is likely to be backed up by Ricky Holloway, who saw action in 12 games and made 20 tackles, eight of which were on special teams. DeRon Furr saw action at linebacker late last season after a transition from the secondary, and is expected to add depth in 2010. He totaled 15 tackles in 2009. Also adding depth is Jeremy Longstreet, who started four games in 2009 and posted 18 tackles.

SECONDARY

The secondary struggled last season and will be a major focus this season in becoming a dominating pass defense. Marcus Ball and Bryan Wright led the squad in interceptions last year with two each, while D.A. Griffin was second on the team with six pass breakups. Darius Davis and Ball are the leading two tacklers in the group from '09 with Davis posting 54 stops and Ball totaling 42. Akeem Davis, Derek Smith, Randy Powell and Tremaine McKenzie were all expected to factor into the defense last season, but all were sidelined with injuries.

SPECIAL TEAMS

A replacement will need to be found for Matt Reagan who finished his career as one of the top kickers in school history. Reagan ranks second all-time in PATs, third in scoring and fifth in field goals. Paulo Henriques played as a true freshman last season, handling all the kickoffs and averaged 61.8 yards per kick with four touchbacks. The loss of Reagan also leaves a void at punter, but that spot could be filled with Australian Tom Hornsey, a freshman who was added to the squad in the summer. Another key emphasis will need to be on punt returns as the Tigers averaged just three yards per return in '09. Two players return who handled kickoff returns including Marcus Hightower and Curtis Johnson. All averaged over 20 yards a return with Hightower leading the way with 535 yards on 24 returns. Deep snapper Keenan Bratcher is a consistent member of the special teams unit who has snapped extensively for the last three years, but a new holder will also need to be found to replace another constant in Brett Toney.

ON THE OTHER SIDE

Redshirt freshman Randy Powell started fall camp in the secondary, but felt he could contribute better with the ball in his hands. Powell approached Coach Porter about returning kicks, but Porter had other ideas. He was moved to running back and could contribute early in a group that has speed but not much experience.

MR. UNKNOWN

If there's one position on the field that goes unnoticed until disaster strikes, it's the deep snapper. Memphis has one of the most consistent deep snappers in the league in Keenan Bratcher. He is the only constant in the kicking game this season as the Tigers needed to find replacements for senior kicker/punter Matt Reagan and senior holder Brett Toney. Bratcher has not had an errant snap in his three seasons with Memphis and was named to the C-USA Freshman team in 2007 and was an honorable mention all-C-USA pick in 2008 & 2009. He also shared the team's Special Teams Player of the Year with Reagan last season.

TRUE BLUE ROLE MODEL

Former Tiger defender Marcus Bell is in his second season as an intern and he is someone the players can look up to and know that he has walked the walk. Bell played for the U of M from 1997-2000, and finished his career with 209 tackles, including 135 solo stops and 10 sacks. Bell later was selected in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft and enjoyed a seven-year career in the NFL. He returned to Memphis and in addition to helping on the football staff, he returned to the classroom and earned his bachelor's degree in 2010.

GOOD TO SEE YOU AGAIN

When Memphis and Mississippi State take the field Saturday, the teams will be renewing a series that took a six-year hiatus from 2004-09.

The recent six-year break is the second-longest in the series since the two teams first met in 1951. The longest break in the series was an eight-year one from 1966-73.

MEMPHIS IN SEASON, ROAD OPENERS

In its history, Memphis has a record of 36-55-3 in season openers. Last year, the Tigers dropped their season opener to Ole Miss 45-14 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

Memphis is 3-7 in its last 10 season openers, with the three wins coming from 2002-04 (52-6 over Murray State in 2002; 40-10 win over Tennessee Tech in 2003; 20-13 win over Ole Miss in 2004).

Memphis has a 32-55-3 record in road openers in its history. The Tigers fell at Middle Tennessee 31-14 in their 2009 road opener.

In the last 10 seasons, Memphis is 2-8 in its road openers. The last time Memphis won a road opener was in 2004, a 20-13 victory over Ole Miss in Oxford.

TIGERS VS BULLDOGS IN SEASON OPENERS

Memphis hasn't had much success when playing Mississippi State in season openers. The Tigers have met the Bulldogs on the season's opening weekend 12 previous years, but have won only once. The lone season-opening win over Mississippi State was a 45-35 victory over the No. 23 Bulldogs in Starkville in 1993, which was Larry Porter's senior campaign.

THE FIFTH TIME THE CHARM?

When Larry Porter leads his squad on the field Saturday versus Mississippi State, he will become the fifth Memphis first-year head coach to face the Bulldogs in his first game as the Tigers' mentor. The previous four Tiger first-year head coaches to meet Mississippi State in their first game were Richard Williamson in 1975, Rex Dockery in 1981, Rip Scherer in 1995 and Tommy West in 2001. All four coaches dropped their Memphis coaching debuts versus the Bulldogs.

TIGER FIRST-YEAR HEAD COACHES IN FIRST GAME

The Memphis program has had 21 previous head coaches, and their coaching debut record is 3-17-1. The only three to win their first game as the Tigers head coach are Rey Dempsey in 1985 (37-6 over Louisiana-Lafayette), Lester Barnhard in 1922 (6-0 over Tupelo Military Institute) and Tom Shea in 1916 (115-0 over Somerville High).

PAUL LISTED ON RIMINGTON WATCH LIST

Senior center Brad Paul was named to the 2010 Rimington Trophy Fall Watch List. The Rimington Trophy is awarded to the most outstanding center in NCAA Division 1-A (FBS) football. Paul, a 2009 Spring Iron Tiger, is one of five returning starters from a 2009 offensive line that cleared the way for running back Curtis Steele to rush for over 1,200 yards and 15 touchdowns. Paul started 11 of 12 contests throughout the 2009 campaign, missing only the UAB game due to injury.

TV TIMEOUT

The Tigers have played 47 games that have been broadcast on television since 2004, not including pay-per-view games. The Memphis-Mississippi State game will be aired on ESPNU. The Tigers were last seen on ESPNU on Nov. 7, 2009 when the U of M dropped a 56-28 decision to the Tennessee Vols in Knoxville. Memphis has six games slated for a television broadcast this season.

TIGERS ON ESPN

In the last six years (2004-09), Memphis has appeared on ESPN 15 times, including twice in 2009 - the season opener against 8th-ranked Ole Miss (ESPN) and the Nov. 7 meeting against Tennessee (ESPNU). In 2008, the Oct. 10 meeting with Louisville and the magicJack St. Petersburg Bowl were carried by ESPN. In 2007, Memphis defeated Marshall and lost to Florida Atlantic in the New Orleans Bowl on the network.

Memphis had three games broadcast by ESPN in 2006 (Ole Miss, Tennessee & Southern Miss). In 2005, Memphis appeared on ESPN three times, including the opening meeting against Ole Miss on ESPN, the mid-season contest with UAB on ESPN2, and the Motor City Bowl on ESPN.

During the 2004 season, the Tigers played Louisville (Nov. 4), Southern Miss (Nov. 12) and USF (Nov. 27) on ESPN, and closed out the season in the GMAC Bowl.

The Tigers have played on ESPN 21 times dating back to a 34-3 loss to Georgia in 1982. Memphis has won six ESPN games -- the 27-17 victory in the 2003 New Orleans Bowl; a 44-34 win over Ole Miss, also in 2003; a 30-26 win over USM and a 31-15 victory over USF in 2004; the 38-31 victory in the 2005 Motor City Bowl; and the 24-21 emotionally-charged win over Marshall in 2006.

MAKING THE GRADE

For the spring 2010 semester, three Tiger quarterbacks each had a 4.0 grade point average. All five - Cannon Smith, Andy Summerlin, Ryan Williams, Tyler Bass and Will Gilchrist - boast at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA, while Smith, Summerlin and Williams achieved a 4.0 GPA this spring.

The group certainly helped boost Memphis' football team GPA, which was at its highest since the spring 2006 semester. All of the Tiger Athletics programs as a whole turned in a 2.94 GPA for the spring, which is the highest-ever grade point average achieved by the department. In fact, 92 student-athletes were placed on the U of M Dean's List, including eight football players. The players named to the Dean's List this spring were: Charlie Bryant, Akeem Davis, John McArthur, Jamie McCoy, Dominik Riley, Cannon Smith, Andy Summerlin and Ryan Williams.

MAKING THE GRADE - PART II

The Tigers boast six players who have already earned their bachelor's degree by the start of the 2010 season. The graduates are Dominik Riley (B.A. Criminology and Criminal Justice, Minor in Sociology), Bryan Wright (B.B.A. Finance, concentration in Real Estate), Charlie Bryant (B.A. Criminology and Criminal Justice, Minor in Sociology), Deven Onarheim (B. A. Communications, concentration in Broadcast and Electronic Media), John McArthur (B.B.A. Finance, concentration in Business Finance) and Malcolm Jones (B.A. Communications). According to a survey by ULL's Daryl Cetnar, Memphis ranks tied for 10th in the FBS with most grads.

UPCOMING BIG GAMES

The Tigers will have some key opponents on the schedule over the next couple of years. While the game dates are not available, the key meetings with BCS opponents include Mississippi State (2011), Duke (2012 & 2013), Louisville (2013-16), Tennessee (2015), Missouri (2015 & 2016) and Miami (2014 & 2015).

RILEY A NOMINEE FOR GOOD WORKS TEAM

Dominik Riley is a nominee for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®. He is one of 112 student-athletes nominated for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®, the most ever in the 19-year history of the award. Riley was nominated for his numerous community service activities that included: serving as a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee member, volunteering at the National Civil Rights Museum on Martin Luther King Day, reading locally to classes at Perea Elementary School and mentoring high school students through Phi Beta Sigma. He also has volunteered his time with the March of Dimes, the American Cancer Society and HIV and AIDS Awareness. Riley graduated from the U of M last December with a degree in criminal justice and earned a minor in sociology. He is currently working on a master's degree in professional studies with a concentration in human resources.

BAND OF BROTHERS

One of the chants in the huddle breaks that the Tigers repeat is "Eleven Brothers", and while there are not eleven brothers on the team, there are two sets of brothers wearing the Blue and Gray this season. Fraternal twins Jermaine and Tremaine McKenzie joined the Tigers last season. Jermaine is a wideout and Tremaine is a defensive back. Offensive lineman Michael Antonescu, who has been with the Tigers since 2007, was joined late in fall camp by his brother A.J., also an o-lineman.

HARGRAVE CONNECTION

The Tigers have three players on the team that previously played at Hargrave Military Academy. Jerrell Rhodes and Johnnie Farms signed with the Tigers in February and joined the squad this past spring. Cannon Smith played in '07 at Hargrave before joining the University of Miami in '08. He transferred to Memphis in fall 2009 and had to sit out last season.

TIGERS IN OVERTIME GAMES

The Tigers have had six overtime games in their history, including the 2009 season finale at Tulsa, which Memphis dropped 33-30. Prior to that game, Memphis' last OT game was a three overtime contest versus SMU in the 2007 regular-season finale. It was the second 3OT game in Tiger history (the other was versus Houston in 2000). The 55-52 win over SMU is Memphis' only overtime victory.

All six of the Tigers' extended games have been against C-USA opponents and all but one have occurred at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. The following shows Memphis' record in OT:

Year	Opponent	Result
2000	vs. Houston/3OT	L, 33-30
2000	vs. Cincinnati	L, 13-10
2005	vs. Tulsa	L, 37-31
2006	vs. Houston	L, 23-20
2007	vs. SMU/3OT	W, 55-52
2009	at Tulsa	L, 33-30

TIGER TRADITION

The University of Memphis is one of two colleges with a live tiger as a mascot -- the other being Larry Porter's previous coaching stop, LSU. Memphis' TOM III (stands for Tigers Of Memphis) is in his second season attending Tiger football games. He arrives under police escort from his plush habitat across the state line in Mississippi and will lead the March Around into the stadium during pregame. TOM III is owned and cared for by the Highland Hundred football booster organization.

46TH YEAR AT THE LIBERTY BOWL

The 2010 campaign will mark the 46th season that the Tigers will call Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium home. The Tigers open the 2010 season with the first two games on the road, but will usher in their 46th season at the Liberty Bowl when they host Middle Tennessee on Sept. 18. That will also be the first chance for Memphis fans to experience Tiger Lane -- a unique tailgating experience. Gone are the arena buildings and barns and in is a wonderful grassy open area for tailgating before the game. The Tigers are 141-122-7 at the Liberty Bowl.

PROTECT THE BALL

The key to the ground game is protecting the ball, which is one thing U of M running backs have been consistent with over the years.

From 2004-2009, Memphis backs have only accounted for eight total fumbles lost in 2,120 carries.

In the two previous seasons, Memphis as a team ranked in the top five nationally at the end of the season in least fumbles lost. In 2007, the Tigers finished the season tied for third nationally in fumbles lost with just four (only two by backs). LSU and San Jose State led the nation in least fumbles lost with just three.

In 2008, Memphis closed out the season ranked in a tie for 5th nationally with four other teams (Eastern Michigan, Miami, UL-Monroe, Rutgers) in fumbles lost with only five (one by a back).

In 2009, Memphis fumbled the ball 24 times, but recovered the ball 13 times. Of the 11 fumbles lost (three of which were versus ECU), only one is by a running back (Steele vs. ECU).

Memphis lost three fumbles in the East Carolina game, marking the first time since the 2003 season (vs. USF) that Memphis lost three fumbles in a single game. Chris Hobbs turned the ball over in the first quarter at the Memphis10 on a punt return and ECU scored a TD two plays later. At the start of the second quarter, Memphis had moved the ball to the ECU27 and attempted a hook and ladder play that ended in a fumble on the pitch from Brian Hall to Curtis Steele. ECU scored on their next drive following that turnover. And, midway through the fourth quarter, Memphis was on the ECU26 on 3rd-and-10 and Hudgens completed a 19-yard pass to Duke Calhoun, who coughed up the ball when he tried to extend the play and lost the ball at the 7. ECU punted on the next drive.

UP NEXT

Coach Larry Porter will see how his team stacks up in Conference USA early as Memphis travels to East Carolina for a Sept. 11 league matchup. The game will be televised by CSS with an 11 am CT kickoff. The meeting will have two first-year head coaches squaring off as Ruffin McNeill is also returning to his alma mater, ECU.
