HEADING INTO SATURDAYS MATCH-UP:

This year's match-up between the Tigers and Mustangs will be a rematch of last year's thrilling fixture at Mike Rose Soccer Complex. Memphis upset No. 15 SMU last season in a nationally-televised contest by CBS College Sports on a Michael Coburn overtime goal. The Tigers were down 1-0 at half-time but used a Tripp Harkins second-half goal to force overtime with Tim McClement's squad.

The 2009 version of the match-up will yet up again be aired by CBS College Sports. The game will be broadcasted live at 5 p.m., on Sun., Oct. 4. The game will be aired again on CBS College Sports on Mon., Oct. 5, at 5:30 p.m.

Memphis enters Sunday's match with a 4-1-2 record and a 1-0-0 conference mark after defeating UCF last Saturday in Memphis. Memphis continues to be led by Parker Duncan at the forward spot. The team's leading scorer in 2008 already has four goals and three assists to his name in 2009. Freshman J.J. Greer added another assist against UCF, raising his team-leading total to five.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

PARKER DUNCAN SOPHOMORE - FORWARD

Parker Duncan, a sophomore forward from Johnson City, Tenn., leads the Tigers in goals with four this season. He also had three assists on the season and leads the team with 11 points.

TIGER SOCCER NOTEBOOK

• GRANT APPROACHES 100 WINS

Memphis head coach Richie Grant is one win away from reaching the 100 win milestone for the Tigers, the Dublin, Ireland native, who is in his 11th season in 2009 is the second-winningest coach in the programs history behind Chris Bartels. Grant is 13 wins behind Bartels who amassed 110 wins in his Memphis career. Grant will have his first chance to reach the mark on Sun., Oct. 4, against the SMU Mustangs.

• TIGERS ON THE TUBE

The Tigers enter Sunday's match with SMU with an all-time record of 2-1-1 in matches that have been televised. Earlier this season, Memphis played Bradley to a 1-1 double overtime draw in Peoria, Ill, in Fox Soccer Channel's "NSCAA Men's Soccer Game of the Week".

Coming into this season the U of M had won two televised contests. Last season the Tigers upended No. 15 SMU in a game televised by CBS College Sports. Memphis used an overtime goal from Michael Coburn to take down the Mustangs for the first time ever. The Tigers will have a second chance to defeat SMU on national television on Oct. 4. The game will be aired on CBS College Sports once again. Jason Knapp and Richard Broad will have the call for CBS C.

Memphis also picked up a win in 2004 against UAB in the C-USA Tournament Championship game. The Tigers only loss on the tube came last season in a 5-1 loss to Tulsa on CBS College Sports. Memphis will have a chance to redeem themselves against Tulsa on Nov. 1 in yet another televised contest on CBS C.

• MEMPHIS BACK UP TO NO. 6 IN MIDWEST REGION

For the third consecutive week the Tigers are ranked in the Midwest Region poll according to the NSCAA. Memphis moved back up to No. 6 after upending UCF, 3-2, on Sept. 26. The Tigers have been at No. 6 and No. 9 in the Midwest Region the previous three weeks. Five schools that the U of M has competed against or will compete against remain ranked in the Midwest Region poll.

• GREER RANKED 6TH NATIONALLY IN ASSISTS PER GAME

Memphis freshman forward J.J. Greer is ranked sixth in the nation for assists per game with a 0.71 average. The NCAA puts out a ranking summary weekly that ranks teams and players in terms of where they are compared to others across the nation. Greer was ranked 17th in the nation before tallying an assist against UCF.

• DUNCAN NETS TWO GOALS AGAINST UCF

Memphis forward Parker Duncan netted two goals on Sept. 26, against UCF. The native of Johnson City, Tenn., has a team-leading four goals on the season. Duncan also has three assists and leads the team with 11 points. The sophomore has scored 10 goals and tallied four assists since bursting onto the scene against SMU last year. The commentators on CBS College Sports noted several times the constant pressure that Duncan put on the SMU defense that helped the Tigers get several scoring opportunities. Duncan finished 2008 as the team's leading soccer with six goals and one assist and earned spots on the C-USA All-Freshman team and the All-C-USA third team.

• GREER TALLIES FIFTH ASSIST

Memphis freshman J.J. Greer tallied his fifth assist of the season on Sat., Sept. 26 against UCF. The native of Cordova, Tenn., leads the team in assists this season. Greer also has one goal this season.

TIGER SOCCER NOTEBOOK

• ALLEMAN ALMOST NETS SECOND CAREER GOAL

Senior captain Rick Alleman was originally credited with the game-winning goal on Sat., Sept. 26, against UCF. The centerback shot the ball from three yards out but admitted later that Parker Duncan got a touch on the ball with the back of his heel. Nonetheless, the play became Alleman's third assist of his career.

• TIGERS UPEND UCF, 3-2

The Tigers used a goal from Brian Farrell and two goals from Parker Duncan to earn three points in the Conference USA standings on Sat., Sept. 26 by defeating UCF. The game went back-and-forth until Duncan used a back heel tap-in to solidify a Memphis win over the Knights.

• TIGERS MOVE TO NO. 9 IN THE MIDWEST REGION-9-21

The Memphis men's soccer team was present in the NSCAA Midwest Region rankings for the third week in a row as of 9/21/09. Memphis is No. 9 this week after being No. 6 in the polls last week. The Tigers defeated Central Arkansas and tied Vermont last weekend. Memphis. The Tigers will or have faced five teams that are currently ranked in the Top 10 in the Midwest Region.

1. Kentucky
2. Drake
4. Tulsa
5. SMU
7. Bradley

• MICHAEL GOODLETT PICKS UP SHUTOUT NO. 2 AND 3

The senior netminder from Bolton, Miss., picked up his second and third shutout of the season on Sept. 18 and Sept. 20 at the the 2009 Memphis Classic. The senior has a 1.39 career goals against average which still ranks third in Memphis history. Goodlett had four shutouts for the Tigers in 2008.

• TIGERS PLACE 2ND AT MEMPHIS CLASSIC

Memphis finished second in the 2009 Memphis Classic with a win and a tie over the weekend. The UAB Blazers took the title with wins over Central Arkansas and Vermont. Vermont took third place in the tournament and Central Arkansas finished in fourth place.

• TRIO OF FRESHMEN STRIKE AGAINST UCA

The Memphis trio of Justin Watson, Jon Wright and J.J. Greer, all freshmen, were all contributors to Tigers goals on Sun., Sept. 20 against Central Arkansas. Watson has scored two goals on the season, Wright has three goals and one assist and Greer has one goal and five assists. Tiger freshmen have accounted for seven of 13 goals for the Tigers this season.

• THREE TIGERS NAMED ALL-MEMPHIS CLASSIC

Rory O'Connor, Rick Alleman and J.J. Greer were all named to the 2009 Memphis Classic All-Tournament team. Greer contributed two assists against Central Arkansas. O'Connor and Alleman were all important parts of the Tigers two shutouts against Central Arkansas and Vermont.

• TIGERS UPEND CENTRAL ARKANSAS

The Memphis men's soccer squad used goals from Justin Watson and Jon Wright. The Tigers improved to 5-1-0 all-time against the Bears with the win.

TIGER SOCCER NOTEBOOK

• MEMPHIS EARNS SECOND DRAW OF SEASON

The Tigers earned a 0-0 draw against Vermont on Fri., Sept. 18. The U of M outshot the Catamounts and had more shots on goal and corner kicks, but were unable to overcome the Vermont defense and goalkeeper Tom Critz. Vermont had three draws in a row before falling to UAB 1-0 on Sun., Sept. 20.

• MEMPHIS UPENDS NO. 23 DRAKE

The Tigers used a total team effort to take down the No. 23 Drake Bulldogs on Sun., Sept. 13 at the UAB "Soccer For A Cure" Classic in Birmingham, Ala. Eight different players accounted for points for Memphis as the Tigers took down the Bulldogs. The defeat of Drake accounts for the sixth upset of a ranked opponent for a Richie Grant coached Memphis squad. The Tigers defeated No. 15 SMU last season on an overtime goal by Michael Coburn. The Tigers four goals are also the most goals they have scored over a ranked opponent since they netted four goals against No. 23 Oral Roberts in 2005.

• TRIO OF TIGERS SCORE FIRST CAREER GOALS

J.J. Greer, Justin Watson and Andreas Guentner all picked up their first career goals at the UAB "Soccer For A Cure" Classic. Greer's goal came in the second half on Friday against UMKC. Watson, a native of Myrtle Beach, S.C., picked up the first goal for the Tigers, who were down 1-0 to No. 23 Drake on Sunday. Guentner put the Tigers up 3-1 against Drake on Sunday.

• ALLEMAN AND GREER NAMED ALL-TOURNAMENT AT UAB

Rick Alleman and J.J. Greer were named All-Tournament at the UAB "Soccer For A Cure" Classic. Greer picked up a goal and an assist in the Tigers two games in Birmingham, Ala. Alleman was also named to the All-Tournament team at the Busey Bank Soccer Classic in Peoria, Ill.

• GREER NETS FIRST CAREER GOAL

Freshman J.J. Greer scored his first career regular season goal for the Tigers in a 3-1 loss to UMKC in their first game of the UAB "Soccer For A Cure" Classic last Friday. Greer used Parker Duncan's third assist of the season and launched a 10 yard shot past the Kangaroo goalkeeper.

• WRIGHT PROPELS MEMPHIS PAST E. ILLINOIS

Freshman Jon Wright picked up two goals on Sunday afternoon, the first two of his career, to send the Tigers past Eastern Illinois. Wright has been playing midfielder for the Tigers for the past two games. He can also play at the forward position.

• TIGERS PLACE SECOND AT BRADLEY

Memphis finished with a runner-up nod at the 2009 Busey Bank Classic in Peoria, Ill. The Tigers and Bradley Braves both picked up a draw and win, but the Braves had a larger goal differential than the U of M.

Projected Starters

CF 19 Parker Duncan (So.) Johnson City, Tenn.

CF 21 J.J. Greer (Fr.) Cordova, Tenn.

Bench

CF 16 Brian Farrell (Sr.) Dunboyne, Ireland

CF 7 Justin Watson (Fr.) Myrtle Beach, S.C.

CF 9 Jon Wright (Fr.) Tulsa, Okla.

CF 15 Ryan Ruble (Jr.) Lee's Summit, Mo.

Memphis will look to an experienced core of veterans supplemented by a talented bunch of newcomers at the forward position heading into 2009. Leading the way for the Tigers will be senior Brian Farrell and sophomore Parker Duncan. Duncan, an All-C-USA third team selection in his initial season for the Blue and Gray, returns after putting up a team-leading six goals in 2008.

Joining Duncan up front will be Farrell. Farrell, who appeared in 13 games for the U of M last season, added three goals to the Memphis attack and will look to add to that total for the 2009 season.

Also returning up front will be Ruble, who will look to add depth at the forward position, while also playing out wide as a midfielder. A C-USA All-Freshman selection in 2007, Ruble put up two goals and three assists for Memphis during his sophomore season in 2008.

Adding to Memphis' arsenal will be a talented group of newcomers led by US Under-18 National Team member Justin Watson, a native of Myrtle Beach, S.C. The Tigers will also get help up front from Oklahoman Jon Wright and Mid-South native J.J. Greer.

• MIDFIELDERS

Projected Starters

MF 6 Hugo Mondragon (Fr.) Houston, Texas

MF 12 Bradley Jacobs (So.) Franklin, Tenn.

MF 3 Eric Trujillo (Jr.) Southaven, Miss.

MF 21 J.J. Greer (Fr.) Cordova, Tenn.

The Tigers will have to replace three outgoing seniors in the midfield heading into 2009. Sean Goulding, Tripp Harkins and Jordan Lynn all will be missed as the Tigers prepare for the season.

Of the returnees, Cody McCoy, a sophomore from Knoxville, Tenn., saw the most extensive playing time as a midfielder. McCoy provided a tenacious force in the center of the pitch in his first season for the Tigers.

Also joining the fray at midfielder will be Ryan Ruble, who will most likely play wide during the 2009 season. The 2007 C-USA All-Freshman Team member had a solid season as a center forward last season, scoring two goals and assisting on three goals.

Bradley Jacobs will also look to make an impact for Memphis in his second season in the Blue and Gray. The sophomore from Franklin, Tenn., made an impact at the end of the season, tallying two goals and two assists in the final five games of the season.

Adding their talents in 2009 will be freshmen Andreas Guentner, Jon Wright, Joey Deloney, Hugo Mondragon and J.J. Greer. Expect all five players to have a noticeable impact on the Tigers during the 2009 season.

Eric Trujillo will also provide depth at the midfield position.

Head Coach Richie Grant has the challenging task of replacing graduated seniors Michael Coburn and Thomas Hyland heading into the 2009 season. Coburn, an All-C-USA first team selection in 2008, was the unquestioned leader of the Tigers in 2009. His final season at Memphis was highlighted by a thrilling overtime goal to catapult Memphis past No. 15 SMU for the first time ever in a nationally-televvised match. Coburn was just one half of Memphis' two-headed monster in back. Hyland, the less-heralded member of the duo, provided a steady complement for his fellow Irisman, Coburn.

Leading the charge for the battle of replacing Hyland and Coburn at center back will be senior Rick Alleman and junior Rory O'Connor. Alleman, a staple for the Tigers over the last three seasons, will look to be the calming influence for the U of M in the back of the defense. O'Connor, a transfer from Lambuth University in Jackson, Tenn., appeared in 12 games for Memphis last season.

At left and right back, look for sophomore Thomas Shannon and freshman Jordan Johnson to have a big impact on the Tigers. Shannon was the only Tigers in as a midfielder, but occasionally moved to defender in certain circumstances. Shannon will look to take his talents permanently to the back of the pitch in 2009.

The Tigers will look for depth from Elias Groft, Andreas Guentner, Patrick Kelly, Chris Porter and Adam Thornton.

• GOALKEEPERS

Projected Starter

GK 1 Michael Goodlett (Sr.) Bolton, Miss.

Bench

GK 22 Jordan Leedle (RS-Fr.) Franklin, Tenn.
 GK 18 Cody Gibson (RS-Fr.) Spring, Texas
 GK 25 Frank Petersen (Fr.) Woodstock, Ga.

Look for Michael Goodlett to start in goal for the Tigers. The senior started for the Tigers last season and accumulated 76 saves, along with a 1.30 goals against average. He will be backed up by Jordan Leedle, Cody Gibson and Frank Petersen.

MORE TIGER NOTES

• TRIO OF TIGERS EARN ALL-BUSEY BANK CLASSIC

Parker Duncan, Jon Wright and Rick Alleman all earned All-Tournament recognition at the 2009 Busey Bank Classic. Duncan had one goal and two assists in two games. Wright, a freshman, had two goals. Alleman, a senior, helped lead the Tigers to a shutout against Eastern Illinois.

• MEMPHIS PLAYS BRADLEY TO DRAW

The young Memphis squad played Bradley to a 1-1 double overtime draw in Fox Soccer Channel's "NSCAA Men's Soccer Game of the Week" on Sept. 4. The Tigers used late night heroics from sophomore Parker Duncan to tie the game and ultimately force the tie. Duncan led the Tigers in goals last season with six. The goal came off a play where midfielder Bradley Jacobs staved off four Bradley defenders to control the ball. Jacobs played the ball to the right side of the box where Ryan Ruble went on to strike the ball toward the keeper. Duncan used the back of

• MEMPHIS FOOTBALLER INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Former Memphis men's soccer player Sean Fraser will be inducted into the M Club Hall of Fame on Sept. 18. The Canadien played at the U of M from 1998-01 and amassed 45 goals and 19 assists. Fraser still leads Memphis in goals in a season with 18 in 2001 and career points with 109. The former Tiger was also named to the C-USA All-Decade team for his performance during his four years in the Bluff City. He also leads in season points with 42 in 2001. Fraser is also second in career goals. He went on to play professionally in the U.S., Canada and Japan. Fraser will be honored at halftime of the Memphis/Central Arkansas game on Sunday.

• ADDING TO THE ARSENAL

The Memphis Tigers add 12 new players to the arsenal in 2009 led by a group of four Tennesseans, including the program's first local player-J.J. Greer-since former All-American Dayton O'Brien wore the Blue and Gray from 2002-05. Greer, a graduate of Christian Brothers High School in Memphis, will look to contribute to the Tigers this season at the midfield position.

Memphis also adds Patrick Kelly and Jordan Johnson (Hendersonville) and Mark Sherrod (Knoxville), along with Under-18 National Team member Justin Watson and six other newcomers who will look to contribute to the Tigers in their first years at Memphis.

• REPRESENTING THE U.S.

Justin Watson, a forward from Myrtle Beach, S.C., has served as a member of the U.S. Under-18 National Team last season. Watson has had the opportunity to compete for Coach Mike Matkovich's squad two times over the last year. He was part of the team that played at the Home Depot Center in Los Angeles, Calif., and also travelled with the team to Portugal in May of 2009.

The U.S. Under-18 squad includes a select group of players under the age of 18 picked to represent the United States of America in tournaments held across the world.

EXHIBITION HIGHLIGHTS

• TIGERS TAKE DOWN NO. 21 SAINT LOUIS

The Memphis men's soccer team upended the No. 21 Saint Louis Billikens in an exhibition match on Wed., Aug. 26 at Echles Field in Memphis. The Tigers used two goals from freshmen to get passed the Billikens, who are coming off of a NCAA Tournament appearance one season ago. The win marked the first time Memphis upended Saint Louis since the 2004 season. The U of M fell to the Billikens in a preseason tilt in St. Louis prior to the 2008 season. This year's win is only the sixth win for Memphis over their former Conference USA rivals.

• FRESHMEN GIVE TIGERS BOOST DURING PRESEASON

With a young squad heading into the 2009 regular season, the Memphis coaching staff knew that it was going to have to rely on a group of freshmen to provide a spark for the team. So far, the group has responded helping the Tigers go undefeated in the preseason.

Leading the group of freshmen have been J.J. Greer and Andreas Guentner. Both newcomers have tallied a goal and an assist during the exhibition season. Guentner was also vital at center back for the Tigers after a first-half concussion sent starter Rory O'Connor to the hospital. Guentner, along with senior Rick Alleman helped stave off a relentless Billiken offense, to hold the Memphis lead, 2-0.

Along with Greer and Guentner, the Tigers have also got a spark from Tulsa-native Jon Wright and Hendersonville, Tenn., product Jordan Johnson. Both youngsters have played valuable minutes and earned starts during the preseason.

Memphis has also gotten quality minutes from Justin Watson, Joey Deloney, Patrick Kelly and Adam Thornton. Goalkeeper Frank Petersen played a good portion of the second half for the Tigers against Lambuth. Hugo Mondragon has played sparingly due to an injury, but is expected to contribute this season. Mark Sherrod will miss the entire season due to an injury suffered prior to arriving at the U of M.

• DUNCAN CONTINUES WHERE HE LEFT OFF

Sophomore forward Parker Duncan has picked up where he left off during the preseason slate. Duncan, who scored six goals and tallied one assist during his initial season as an attacker for the Memphis offense, scored two goals for the Tigers against Christian Brothers University.

• THOMAS SHANNON - KING OF THE SET PLAY

Sophomore defender Thomas Shannon has proven to be a weapon for the Tigers on set plays during the preseason. The Broken Arrow, Okla., product has gotten three assists in two games, all of which were set plays (corner kick, free kick, throw-in).
