

The University of Memphis 2009 Winter Soccer Camp

The University of Memphis Soccer Program will conduct its third Winter Soccer camp for freshman, sophomores, and juniors in high school from Friday January the 16th till Sunday January 18th. This camp has been designed to help us identify college level student athletes and for those who are preparing for their upcoming high school or club seasons. All players will be expected to be at a fitness level to cope with the demands of this camp. The camp will consist of technical and tactical sessions with small 8v8 games building to 11v11 full field games coached by Richie Grant (NSCAA Premier Course qualified), Men's head coach.

Also included in the camp, speed and agility sessions will be conducted by Coach Grant and his staff. Goalkeeping sessions will be conducted by our Goalkeeping coach Remco De-Jong, a former Ajax staff member.

CAMP LOCATION

The Winter soccer camp will be conducted over the course at The University of Memphis South Campus Athletic Facility as well as the Mike Rose Soccer Complex. This includes an indoor turf room, changing room facilities, training room facilities, and a very impressive conditioning room.

CAMP FEES

The fee for the Winter Camp will be $75.00 which will also include a camp T-shirt
