MEMPHIS TIGERS

LAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP: 2004

LAST YEAR: SOUTH CAROLINA 2, MEMPHIS 1 (OT)

The Memphis men's soccer team finished the 2008 Conference USA regular season with an overall record of 6-10-2. The Tigers were 3-4-1 in conference play in 2008. The U of M started out the season going 1-6, before getting a win against the Missouri State Bears on Sept. 24 at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex.

The Tigers started a season turn-around when they played host to the No. 15 SMU Mustangs on Oct. 5. The game was the second televised game ever for the U of M, as it was broadcast live on CBS College Sports. The Tigers were down 1-0 at halftime in the game, but came back in the second half to knot it at 1-1 on a Tripp Harkins header. In overtime, seniors Sean Goulding and Michael Coburn hooked up with Coburn heading in the game winner to upend the Mustangs. The win was Memphis' first over SMU in five previous meetings. It was the first upset of a ranked opponent for Memphis since they defeated No. 23 Oral Roberts in 2005.

Following the defeat of SMU, Memphis bounced back to go 2-1, with their only loss coming to No. 3 Creighton, 1-0, in Omaha, Neb. The Tigers returned home where SIU-Edwardsville played the U of M to a 0-0 tie, the first of the season for Memphis. The following Sunday, The Tigers took on a lofty opponent in conference-leading Tulsa. The U of M fell to the Golden Hurricane, 5-1, in the second televised game of the season for Richei Grant's squad.

Since the Tulsa loss the Tigers have gone 1-1-1, with a win over Central Arkansas, a loss to Marshall and a 0-0 draw with No. 23 Kentucky.

MEMPHIS TIES NO. 23 KENTUCKY

Last Friday, the Memphis Tigers earned a 0-0 draw with the No. 23 Kentucky Wildcats in Lexington, Ky. The tie was Memphis' first tie against a ranked opponent since they tied No. 14 Tulsa last season, 3-3.

TIGERS GRAB NO. 3 SEED IN TOURNAMENT

With the tie against Kentucky, Memphis moved into a four-way tie for third place in the Conference USA standings with UCF, South Carolina and SMU. UCF and South Carolina tied on Friday night to force them into the tie and SMU won, earning three points and moving into a tie for third. Memphis was 2-1 against the three teams in a tie with the Tigers during the regular season.

MEMPHIS READYING FOR REMATCH WITH UCF

The Tigers will face the sixth-seed UCF Knights on Wednesday at 2:30 at Westcott Field on the campus of SMU in Dallas. The Tigers faced the Knights on Sept. 20, and lost the game 1-0. The Tigers are 3-2-1 all-time against UCF. The Tigers last beat the Knights, in 2005, defeating the Knights, 3-0.

GOODLETT HAS FOURTH SHUTOUT

Michael Goodlett put up his fourth shutout of the season against No. 23 Kentucky. The junior from Bolton, Miss., had five saves in the game. Goodlett also has shutouts against South Carolina, Missouri State and SIU-Edwardsville.

RUBLE AND FARRELL RETURN TO LINE-UP

After missing several games out of the line-up, Memphis forwards Ryan Ruble and Brian Farrell returned to the pitch for the Tigers. Ruble had missed four game for Memphis, while Farrell had missed the last three games for the U of M.

● MEMPHIS FALLS AGAINST MARSHALL

Memphis was defeated 2-1 by the Marshall Thundering Herd on Saturday night at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex. The loss moved Memphis to 3-4 in the conference so far this season.

● JACOBS CHIPS IN

Memphis freshman midfielder Bradley Jacobs had a solid week last week, chipping in his first two goals on his U of M career, while contributing one assist. Jacobs' goal against Marshall came off of a Sean Gouling free kick which Jacobs headed past Marshall goalkeeper Greg Walter. Against Central Arkansas, the native of Franklin, Tenn., Jacobs took a dual-assist from Thomas Shannon and Parker Duncan and put it past the UCA goalie. His assist came on Tripp Harkins goal on a one-on-one with the Bears' goalkeeper.

● DUNCAN CONTINUES TO ROLL

Memphis freshman forward Parker Duncan has scored six goals in the last seven games for the U of M. Ever since, Memphis' defeat of No. 15 SMU, the native of Johnson City, Tenn., has found himself in the starting line-up. Duncan had two goals and one assist against Central Arkansas. The assist was the first one of his career. Duncan has 13 points so far this season.

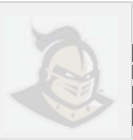

● GOODLETT ON THE CHARTS

Memphis junior goalkeeper Michael Goodlett reached 2,500 minutes in his career as a Memphis goalkeeper. The native of Bolton, Miss., is now fourth on the charts for goals against average with a mark of 1.48. He surpassed Brian Covey who put up a goals against average of 1.52 from 1996-98 for the Tigers. Covey was on the C-USA All-Freshman team in 1996. Goodlett is behind Memphis women's soccer head coach Brooks Monaghan, who had a 1.40 career goals against average. Monaghan was GMC All-Conference First Team in 1992.

● MEMPHIS DEFEATS CENTRAL ARKANSAS

Memphis put up their highest offensive output of the season against Central Arkansas, scoring five goals to put them past the Bears. With the win the Tigers moved to 6-9-1 on the year.

NO. 6 SEED- UCF KNIGHTS

UCF finished the 2008 regular season with a record of 6-10-1. The Knights finished the C-USA slate with a mark of 3-4-1. UCF also finished the season as a part of a four-way tie for third place. The Knights are led in goal by Sean Johnson who finished 2008 with a 1.38 goals against average. Johnson led the conference in saves with 96 saves.

NO. 7 SEED- MARSHALL THUNDERING HERD

The Thundering Herd of Marshall ended the 2008 regular season with a mark of 3-13-1, with their only three wins coming in conference. Marshall ended with a conference record of 3-5-0. The Thundering Herd is led offensively by Dustin Dawes. In goal, Greg Walter has posted a goals against average of 2.40. Walter has 61 saves so far this season.

NO. 8 SEED- UAB BLAZERS

UAB is led offensively by Derek Rios who has five goals in 2008. The UAB Blazers finished the season with an overall record of 6-9-3. In conference, they were 2-5-1. In goal, the Blazers boast Wes Johnson who finished the 2008 season with a goals against average of 1.06. Johnson finished the year with 47 saves in goal for the Blazers.

Conference USA Team Summaries

NO. 1 SEED- TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE

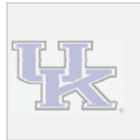

Tulsa enters the 2008 Conference Tournament as the repeat regular-season champion. Tom McIntosh and his squad look to repeat as Conference Tournament Champions, as well this season in Dallas. Tulsa comes into Wednesday boasting a record of 7-0-1. In the latest NSCAA poll, the Golden Hurricane are ranked as the

No. 7 team in the nation. Tulsa finished the regular season with an overall record of 13-3-2. Tulsa's only blemish on their conference record came in the form of a tie with the South Carolina Gamecocks. Tulsa's three losses were against Ohio State, Oakland and George Mason. The Golden Hurricane earned a tie against No. 17 UCONN.

Tulsa is led offensively by freshman Austin Neil. Neil, a native of Broken Arrow, Okla., has nine goals and four assists in 2008. His nine goals is good enough for second in the league. Neil is also second in the C-USA points with 22 points in his first season in the league.

In goal, Tyrel Lacey has picked up where outgoing goalkeeper Dominic Cervi left off. Lacey has a league-leading 0.63 goals against average so far this season, while picking up 65 saves. He has six shutouts in 2008.

NO. 2 SEED- KENTUCKY WILDCATS

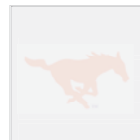

Kentucky finished the 2008 regular season with a record of 10-4-4. The Wildcats were 6-1-1 in conference play, with their only blemishes coming to No. 1 seed Tulsa and No. 3 seed Memphis who tied Kentucky in the last game of the season. Kentucky was ranked No. 24 last week in the College Soccer News poll.

The Wildcats are led by Michael Strong, who has seven goals and one assist in 2008. Forward Chad Hagerty has chipped in five assists to help fuel the Wildcat offense.

In goal, the Wildcats are backed by Kentucky goalkeeper Dan Williams who has posted a 0.79 goals against average, the third-best in Conference USA. Williams has 53 saves in 2008.

NO. 4 SEED- SMU MUSTANGS

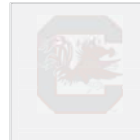

SMU, a consistent powerhouse in the C-USA, finished the 2008 season in a four-way tie for third place with Memphis, UCF and South Carolina. SMU is led by Tim McClements, who is in his first season with the Mustangs as head coach replacing long-time head coach Schellas Hyndman who left to become the coach of FC

Dallas in MLS.

SMU is led offensively by Paulo da Silva, who has scored seven goals and tallied two assists in 2008. He is currently in a tie for third for points in the C-USA with 16. C-USA co-assist leaders Jeff Harwell and Gabe Arredondo have been the catalyst for several SMU goals this season.

In goal, Craig Hill, has put up a goals against average of 0.92, fourth-best in the C-USA. Hill has 60 saves so far this season.

NO. 5 SEED- SOUTH CAROLINA GAMECOCKS

South Carolina finished the 2008 conference season with a record of 2-2-4. The Gamecocks were 7-5-5 over all. South Carolina is led by Jimmy Maurer in back and Sam Arthur up front. Arthur, a sophomore forward leads the conference in points and goals. He has 11 goals and three assists this season for a total of 25 points.

In goal, Jimmy Maurer has posted a league-high eight shutouts with a 0.77 goals against average. Maurer is also second in the league in saves with 81.

2008 Tigers Quick Facts

• COBURN NAMED C-USA PLAYER OF THE WEEK, AGAIN

Michael Coburn earned his second C-USA Player of the Week honor for the week ending in Oct. 19. Coburn was named C-USA Defensive Player of the Week for his performance against South Carolina. Coburn helped the Memphis defense shut down Sam Arthur and the South Carolina offense. Arthur leads the C-USA in goals and points with 10 and 23. Coburn was named Offensive Player of the Week after Memphis upset No. 15 SMU on Coburn's game winning overtime header.

• MEMPHIS TAKES DOWN SOUTH CAROLINA

The Memphis Tigers defeated the South Carolina Gamecocks on Oct. 17, 2-0. Memphis' first goal came on a Michael Coburn free kick in the second minute of the contest. Coburn bent the ball with his right foot into the top of the goal over the head of USC goalkeeper Jimmy Maurer. Parker Duncan scored Memphis' second goal off of a Ryan Ruble cross into the box. Duncan used impeccable timing and headed the ball into the goal past Maurer.

• PARKER ON THE PROWL

U of M freshman forward Parker Duncan has scored three goals the last two Memphis matches. Against FIU, Duncan tallied two goals. The native of Johnson City, Tenn., added a goal against South Carolina. Duncan's first goal against the Golden Panthers came in the 13th minute when a FIU defender lost control of the ball. Duncan took the ball and put it past the FIU goalkeeper. Duncan struck again in the 61st minute when he rebounded a shot by Ryan Ruble that the FIU goalkeeper was unable to handle. In the South Carolina game, Duncan took a Ryan Ruble cross and used perfect timing to head it past the USC goalie.

• COBURN ON TEAM OF THE WEEK

Michael Coburn earned one of 11 spots on College Soccer News' Team of the Week for his performance against South Carolina. It is the first time Coburn has been honored on the Team of the Week. Memphis forward Jared Britcher was named to the Team of the Week after being named the MVP of the Memphis Diadora Tournament.

• DAZZLING DUNCAN

Parker Duncan scored his first two goals of the season and of his career against Florida International last Sunday in Miami. The freshman forward from Johnson City, Tenn., scored first when a Golden Panther defender lost control of the ball and Duncan took it and launched it past FIU goalkeeper Jesse Fullerton. Duncan struck again in the second half after a Ryan Ruble shot was saved but not controlled by Fullerton. Duncan gathered the rebound and put it in goal.

• DUNCAN STEPPING UP BIG

Parker Duncan has started the last two games for Memphis at the forward position. Duncan came into the SMU game and was a big spark for the Tigers. His speed created a problem for the Mustang defense. The freshman from Johnson City, helped set up Michael Coburn's game-winning overtime goal when Duncan battled and got the SMU defender to foul him in the corner which set up Sean Goulding's free kick that hit Michael Coburn.

• RUBLE ON THE ASSIST

Ryan Ruble, a sophomore forward from Lee's Summit, Mo., has now tied Brian Farrell as the team leader in points with his assist on Parker Duncan's second goal against Florida International. Ruble has two goals and two assists on the year for six points. Ruble was a C-USA All-Freshman team pick last season for the Tigers. He posted a team-leading six goals last season in his first year at the U of M. Ruble also had two assists.

• REVERSING THE FLORIDA BLUES

The Tigers were 0-3-1 in Florida since 2000 before their 2-1 defeat of Florida International in Miami on Sunday. The last time Memphis had won in Florida was when they defeated both Stetson and UCF at the 2000 Reebok South Florida Classic in Tampa, Fla.

• TIGERS FALL AT CREIGHTON

The Tigers fell 1-0 at No. 3 Creighton last Wednesday. Michael Goodlett had a chance at Creighton's only goal on the game but was unable to save the ball.

● GOODLETT RECORDS FIRST SHUT-OUT

Memphis goalkeeper Michael Goodlett recorded his first shutout of the season against Missouri State. The junior has a 1.49 goals against average this season and has accumulated 38 saves, which ranks third in the country. The junior has a 1.53 career goals against average, which ranks fifth all-time.

● FARRELL LEADS MEMPHIS IN GOALS

Brian Farrell added one goal to his season total, scoring a goal against Missouri State. The junior from Dunboyne, Ireland, leads the Tigers in goal this season for goals. He has six points this year with three goals.

● IRELAND CONNECTION

Richie Grant, a native of Dublin, Ireland, has gone to his roots in Ireland in his recruiting since he became the U of M head coach. Grant, a product of the Colaiste Ide Prep School program in Dublin, has dipped into the school's pool of player, bringing in four current Tiger players from the program; seniors Michael Coburn and Thomas Hyland, junior Brian Farrell and sophomore Rory O'Connor

● GOULDING TALLIES TWO ASSISTS

U of M midfielder Sean Goulding recorded his first two assists of the season against Missouri State. The senior from Arbroath, Scotland fed both Ryan Ruble and Brian Farrell for goals in the game. Goulding was the team leader in assists in 2007 with six.

● "SOCCER FOR A CURE" ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Brian Farrell and Ryan Ruble were named to the "Soccer For A Cure" All-Tournament team. Farrell connected on a header in the first half of Memphis' game with UC-Irvine. With the goal, Farrell has tied Thomas Shannon for the team lead in goals for two.

● REGION RANKINGS

Along with playing three currently ranked teams. Memphis' schedule boasts ten out of eighteen teams who are currently ranked in the NSCAA regional rankings.

● HOMEWARD BOUND

The Memphis men's soccer team returns home for the first time in five games when they face-off with the Missouri State Bears on Wed., Sept. 24 at 7 p.m. at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex. On Saturday, the Tigers will face the UAB Blazers at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex. UAB and Memphis have both competed at each other's home tournament, but have yet to face each other.

● NEWCOMERS EARNING STARTING EXPERIENCE

Cody McCoy, Rory O'Connor and Thomas Shannon have each seen multiple games in the starting lineup this season. McCoy, a freshman from Knoxville, is contributing to the lineup as a midfielder. He has five shots this season. Thomas Shannon, a freshman from Broken Arrow, Okla., leads the team in points this season with five. The midfielder has two goals and one assist on the season. A transfer, Rory O'Connor, who was a First-Team TranSouth honoree last year, has made his mark on the Tiger defense this fall.

● SMITH BARNEY ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Cody McCoy, a midfielder/defender from Knoxville, Tenn., and Michael Goodlett, the Tigers junior goalie, were named to the Smith Barney/Nike Soccer Classic All-Tournament team for their two game performances in Burlington, Vt. Goodlett made 10 saves in his two games while only allowing two goals.

● MEMPHIS DIADORA TOURNEY

The Tigers finished in third place at the Memphis Diadora Tourney which they hosted at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex on Aug. 29 and 31. The No. 21 Bradley Braves were named tournament champions after defeating two Conference USA opponents, the Memphis Tigers and the UAB Blazers. UAB finished in the second place and Oral Roberts finished in fourth. Chris Cutshaw of Bradley was named the Memphis Diadora Tournament MVP, scoring three goals over his two games in Memphis. The Tigers' placed two players on the All-Tournament team in junior Rick Alleman and freshman Thomas Shannon.

● BIRTHDAY PRESENT

Freshman Thomas Shannon created a nice birthday present for himself when he scored the first two goals of his career on Sunday, Aug. 31 against the Oral Roberts Golden Eagles.

● SOONER STATE CONNECTION

Freshmen Thomas Shannon and Jason Brooks hooked up on two goals on Sunday, Aug. 31 against Oral Roberts. Shannon and Brooks, both natives of Oklahoma, connected when Brooks took corner kicks and found Shannon who put the ball past Oral Roberts' goalkeeper on two occasions. Both Brooks and Shannon are from the Tulsa, Okla., metro area, where OralRoberts University is located.

● VETERAN LEADERSHIP

Memphis will return eight players who hold the distinction of starting more than 10 games in 2007. Included are the Tigers' six seniors; Michael Coburn, Sean Goulding, Tripp Harkins, Thomas Hyland, Jordan Lynn and Robert Sausaman. Among them, Coburn is the lone player remaining from Memphis' 2004 Conference USA championship team. Coburn, a senior defender from Dundalk, Ireland, was a freshman on the 2004 team, starting all but one game for the Tigers. 2008 will be his fifth year donning a Memphis Tiger uniform. Coburn redshirted in 2006 due to an ankle injury.

● POLL POSITION

Richie Grant has led the Tigers to Top-25 rankings in each of his last four seasons. Last year the Tigers reached the No. 25 spot in the Soccer America poll released on Oct. 15. Memphis slipped into the polls after defeating Kentucky, 3-1. In 2008, the U of M looks to bring the streak to five years in a row of being recognized as a Top-25 team. Since 2004, the Tigers have been ranked as high as No. 10 in the polls.

● COACHING ADDITION

In 2008, the Tigers welcome a new full-time assistant coach to the staff with the addition of former Davis and Elkins College women's soccer head coach Mat Santoro.

Santoro brings with him a wealth of experience at the collegiate level. On top of coaching the Davis and Elkins women's team for four seasons, Santoro spent the four previous seasons at his alma-mater, Rowan University, where he was the primary recruiter for the Profs.

"Mat brings great experience as a player and a coach," said head coach Richie Grant. "I really believe that he is going to be able to develop great relationships with each of the players. Mat knows what it is like to be in charge, and I think that is going to be mutually beneficial for the coaching staff and the players."

MEMPHIS TIGERS MEN'S SOCCER

2008 Tiger Position Preview● FORWARDS

Memphis is led up front by Ryan Ruble, Brian Farrell and Parker Duncan. Ruble, a sophomore from Lee's Summit, Mo., is currently second on the Memphis team in points with seven on the season. The All-C-USA Freshman Team selection from a year ago has scored two goals and racked up three assists in his second year in the Blue and Gray. Ruble scored the game-winning goal against Oral Roberts in the second game of the season. Ruble already has eight career goals in just two seasons.

Farrell, a junior from Dunboyne, Ireland, has scored three goals so far this season. He missed three games this season with an injury. Farrell is tied for second on the team in points with six. He now has nine career goals in his three years at the U of M.

Memphis' group of forwards have been given an added boost from Duncan, a freshman from Johnson City, Tenn. The speedy freshman has scored four goals in Memphis' last four games including two vs. FIU and one against South Carolina. Duncan's goal against South Carolina came on a header off of a cross from Ruble which he used impeccable timing to get to and put pass the USC goalkeeper. Duncan has used his speed to give defenses fits all season.

The U of M has also used senior Tripp Harkins and freshman Dale Calvert at the forward position. Calvert had an assist against Oral Roberts.

● MIDFIELDERS

The Tigers returned three seniors starters to the midfield position before the season. Jordan Lynn, Tripp Harkins and Sean Goulding have paced the U of M all season from the midfield. Harkins, a senior from Jackson, Miss., scored the game-tying goal against No. 15 SMU on a header off of assists from Goulding and Lynn.

Goulding, a senior from Arbroath, Scotland, had a streak of four assists in three games. Goulding assisted on Michael Coburn's game-winning overtime goal in the third minute of overtime to take down No. 15 SMU on Oct. 5. Goulding also notched two assists in the win over Missouri State. He currently leads the team in assists. Goulding has 13 career assists.

Lynn, a senior from Rockwall, Texas, has two assists so far this year. Lynn's two assists came against SMU and Oral Roberts.

Memphis also started two freshman at times at the midfield position. Thomas Shannon, the youngest player on the team, and a native of Broken Arrow, Okla., started his career at a fast pace, scoring two goals against Oral Roberts in the second game of the season on his 18th birthday. Shannon had an assist on Brian Farrell's goal against UC-Irvine.

Cody McCoy, the other freshman, first made an impact at the Smith Barney/Nike Soccer Classic in Burlington, Vt. The native of Knoxville, Tenn., won't show up much in the stat column, but his impact has been seen. He has used his energy to impact the team defensively and offensively.

Freshman Bradley Jacobs and Jason Brooks have also seen considerable time at midfielder. Brooks notched two assists off of corner kicks against Oral Roberts. Robert Sausaman, has also seen some time at midfielder.

● DEFENDERS

The Tigers back four has been a stout group, that is partly responsible for the up-swing of the team in the last several games. Memphis' back four is led by Michael Coburn, a senior captain from Dundalk, Ireland. Coburn has been named C-USA Offensive Player of the Week and C-USA Defensive Player of the Week this season. He was also named to College Soccer News' Team of the Week following the U of M's shutout against South Carolina. Coburn has two game-winning goals this season, the most memorable came against No. 15 SMU in overtime when Coburn headed it in the take down the Mustangs. Coburn is in his fifth year with the program. He is the only remaining player from Memphis' 2004 Conference Championship team.

Rick Alleman, Mark Weldon, Thomas Hyland and Rory O'Connor, have all started a considerable amount of games for the Tigers in the back. Alleman is the only Tiger to start all 13 matches this season. He might be one of the Tigers' most steady defenders. Hyland, a senior from Dublin, Ireland has anchored the back position with Coburn and has been key against SMU and South Carolina, just to name a few games. O'Connor, a sophomore transfer from Dublin, Ireland, stepped up big against SMU when Coburn moved to center midfielder. He did outstanding anchoring the back with Hyland. Weldon, a transfer from Appalachian State, has seen considerable playing time this season, starting many games for the Tigers.

Robert Sausaman, a senior from Gainesville, Fla., has taken a different role for the Tigers this season, being a vital cog for the team off of the bench. Sausaman played key minutes against SMU and Creighton this season and has been a steady player for the team in the back and at midfielder at times.

● GOALKEEPERS

At the start of the season, Michael Goodlett, a junior goalkeeper from Bolton, Miss., was key in keeping the Tigers' in games. Goodlett has a 1.41 goals against average so far this season and has accumulated 62 saves, which ranks third in the conference. Goodlett has posted two shutouts on the season against South Carolina and Missouri State. If he hits 2,500 minutes, which should happen later this season and keeps up his 1.48 career goals against average, Goodlett will have the fourth-best career goals against average right behind Brooks Monaghan.

Harrison Cheatham and Jordan Leedle have both seen time for the Tigers in goal. Cheatham, a junior college transfer, played 10 minutes against FIU when Goodlett went down with an injury. Leedle, a freshman from Franklin, Tenn., was the starter in goal for Memphis against Bradley.
