Alabama A&M Head Coach	•	Salah Yousif
Memphis Head Coach	•	Richie Grant
Location	•	Mike Rose Soccer Complex

Heading Into Wednesday's Match-Up:

Memphis comes into this last week of 2010 looking to end on a positive note. At 3-11-1, the Tigers are looking to close out strong and stand a good chance, hosting 0-10-0 Alabama A&M, Wednesday night.

The Bulldogs, possibly in their last season as an NCAA program, have gone winless and been unable to stop many offenses, allowing 59 goals so far.

That's good news for a Memphis offense that hasn't scored in its past three matches and is without a victory since Oct. 5 against Central Arkansas.

Senior Night will be held Friday, Nov. 5, against UAB. That match will be broadcast on Fox Soccer Channel as the NSCAA "Game of the Week."

Player Spotlight

Rory O'Connor Senior - Defender

O'Connor enters his last week as a member of the Memphis soccer team; the Dublin, Ireland native has started 14 of 15 matches this season and played the full time in eight of them. O'Connor will play his last match under the lights of the Fox Soccer Channel TV cameras, Friday, against UAB.

Tiger soccer notebook

- Tigers drop final C-USA away match at South Carolina
Memphis' men's soccer squad dropped its final C-USA road match of the season losing to the Gamecocks of South Carolina, 3-0. Memphis failed to win a C-USA road match in 2010, the second year in a row the Tigers haven't beaten a conference foe away from home. The Tigers last conference road win came at South Carolina on Oct. 17, 2008, a 2-0 win. Freshman keeper Martin Hunter made five saves in the loss.
- Non-conference tilt at Missouri State goes against the Tigers
In a rough match that featured multiple yellow cards on both sides, the Tigers dropped a 2-0 match to host Missouri State, who used goals from Heath Melugin (12th minute) and Eric Martin (65th minute) to hand freshman keeper Martin Hunter his season's third loss; Hunter did manage three saves on the evening.
- Sixth-ranked SMU tops Tigers
In the first visit by a top-10 team to Mike Rose since 2007, the SMU Mustangs put on a clinic against Memphis, controlling the ball, the tempo and the match in a 3-0 loss for Memphis that was never in doubt. Perennial All-Conference and All-American candidates Arthur Ivo and Juan Castillo each scored a goal for the visiting Mustangs to drop Memphis to 3-9-1.
- Tigers earn draw with Kentucky, earn first C-USA point of 2010.
A second-minute goal by freshman Jamal Keene, the first of his career, would keep the Tigers in the match through regulation and two overtime periods, resulting in a 1-1 draw. Keeper Jordan Leedle would keep the Tigers in the match with five saves against the Wildcats.
- Florida trip yields no results, Tigers fall to FIU
Florida International, a side that had just 11 goals in 10 2010 matches, scored twice and keeper Shane Lopez stopped nine Memphis shots to hand the Tigers the second loss of their Florida road trip, 2-0. After stopping no shots against UCF, keeper Jordan Leedle made four saves against the Panthers, but Lopez kept the Tigers in check and dropped the U of M to 0-4-0 in Conference USA play.
- Memphis falls to UCF in C-USA road opener
The Tigers lost to UCF in a match that was never that close after halftime, ultimately succumbing to a 3-0 defeat. Keeper Jordan Leedle failed to make a save en route to allowing three goals for his season's fifth loss. Memphis mustered just eight shots, with only junior Parker Duncan taking more than one.
- Tigers stop slide behind Collins' Golden Goal
In a very physical match, Memphis escaped with a 2-1 overtime triumph following freshman Liam Collins' 98th-minute goal against Central Arkansas. Sophomore Jordan Leedle picked up his first win since Sept. 10 in the victory, making one save. The spirit of the win was dampened by a freak accident involving junior Thomas Shannon, who is now out for the season with a leg injury.

Tiger soccer notebook

- Memphis gives fifth-ranked Tulsa everything they can handle, fall 2-1.
The Tigers fought valiantly but fell to fifth-ranked Tulsa, 2-1, in the second conference match at Mike Rose Soccer Complex. Junior Parker Duncan got his season's third goal, on an assist from junior midfielder Cody McCoy for McCoy's first career point. The 2-1 defeat was the fourth match in a row the Tigers dropped by that score.
- Host SIU-Edwardsville tames Tigers in final match of tournament
The host Cougars used two goals from their bench players to stave off a late Memphis rally and win the SIU-Edwardsville Tournament. Redshirt freshman Mark Sherrod scored his first career goal for the Tigers, in the 81st minute after the Tigers were already behind a 2-0 deficit. A furious late rally fell short, dooming keeper Jordan Leedle to earn his season's third loss.
- UMKC hands Tigers third loss in a row
Behind two goals from junior Jimmy Simon, the UMKC Kangaroos defeated the Memphis Tigers, 2-1 in each team's opening match of the SIU-Edwardsville Tournament. Junior defender Thomas Shannon scored his season's third goal, and his fifth successful penalty kick conversion in a row dating back to last season.
- Freshman Van Dyck named Top-100 in nation
Freshman defender Maxim Van Dyck has been named one of the top 100 freshmen in the nation by TopDrawerSoccer.com. Van Dyck has started every game for the Tigers at left back this season, assisting on two goals and becoming a primary taker of corner kicks and throw-ins.
- Marshall upends Tigers in first Conference USA match
Matt Risher's header in the 93rd minute gave Marshall the win in Memphis' first Conference USA tilt of 2010. Freshman Martin Hunter took the loss in his first career start in goal for the Tigers. Freshman B.J. Williams came off the bench late in the first half and netted his first career goal in a Memphis uniform.
- Tigers fall to Charlotte, earn split at UAB tournament
Memphis' offense never got going and Charlotte pounded the Tiger net with 11 shots on goal en route to a decisive 4-0 victory. Sophomore Jordan Leedle was saddled with his second loss of the season and an anemic Memphis attack never produced, taking just three shots in the entire match.
- Memphis pounds North Florida in "Soccer for a Cure" Opener
In a performance that will be remembered in the tournament's history, the Tigers put on a dominating performance against the Ospreys of North Florida, producing a 6-0 beating. Junior Thomas Shannon had two goals, and was joined by classmate Parker Duncan, junior transfer Tiago Reichert, sophomore Hugo Mondragon and freshman Austin Gross in the scoring column. Defensively, sophomore Jordan Leedle stymied the Ospreys, earning his second clean sheet of the season. The victory was marred only by an injury to Reichert, who will miss the remainder of the season due to an ACL injury.
- Oral Roberts spoils second home match
After scoring four goals to open the season, the Tigers were stymied in the second match, falling 1-0 to Oral Roberts. Sophomore Jordan Leedle had three saves but was bested by Oral Roberts' 2009 leading scorer, Jarrett Hamilton, in the 65th minute for his first loss of 2010.
- Tigers dominate Bruins in season-opening tilt
Behind keeper Jordan Leedle's first career shut-out, the Memphis Tigers upended Belmont, 4-0, to open the regular season with a victory for the first time since 2007. Freshmen Liam Collins and Austin Gross each had a goal in their first collegiate match, while junior Parker Duncan added a goal and an assist. Sophomore Hugo Mondragon rounded out the scoring with his third career goal.
- Christian Brothers downs Memphis in final preseason clash
In a physical match that featured seven cards and an ejection, the Tigers dropped their last preseason test at home to Christian Brothers University, 1-0. The Bucs used a goal from Adam Toras to defeat the Tigers, who stayed in the match-up to the final whistle thanks to stellar goal keeping from sophomore Jordan Leedle.
- Tigers defeat Botafogo in Copa Memphis
The University of Memphis played host to Brazilian club power Botafogo's under-19 squad at Mike Rose in its third preseason contest, coming away with a 1-0 victory. Junior defender Thomas Shannon scored the match's lone goal on corner kick from freshman defender Maxim Van Dyck, who was one of three freshmen to make the start for the Tigers.
- Conference USA names Memphis as host of 2010 Men's Soccer Championship
Per a vote by the conference Athletics Directors, the University of Memphis has been named as the host of the 2010 Conference USA Men's Soccer Championship, Nov. 10-14. This will be Memphis and the Mike Rose Soccer Complex's second time to host the tournament, with the last bid coming in 2003.
- Alumni Weekend a Huge Success
Former Memphis stars such as Sebastian Vecchio, Dayton

O'Brien and Tripp Harkins descended upon the Memphis campus, August 21, to participate in Alumni Weekend. The weekend included a barbecue and a game against the current Tiger squad, which defeated the former stars, 3-0, behind two goals from redshirt freshman Mark Sherrod and a goal from freshman Gordy Gurson.

- Tigers draw with Lambuth in preseason opener

Just a few days into camp, the Tigers scrimmaged the Lambuth Eagles at their Park Avenue Campus field. The match ended in a 1-1 draw, with JJ Greer coming off the bench to score for the Tigers. The defense allowed only one shot on goal, a free kick that beat freshman keeper Martin Hunter.

- Coaches Show Returns to Airwaves

Richie Grant's weekly soccer radio show, with co-host Peter Edmiston, has returned to the radio after a two-year hiatus. The show, in which Grant and Edmiston discuss soccer on the local, national and international level, returned to the air in April. It airs on 560 AM in Memphis, while fans outside the Memphis area can hear the show on www.sports56whbq.com

- Grant approaches career wins mark

Heading in to 2010, head coach Richie Grant stood just eight wins away from tying his predecessor, Chris Bartels (1988-98) for first on the all-time career victories list with 110. Grant replaced Bartels in 1999 after three first-place finishes in four years with Lambuth.

- Tiger's defeat Christian Brothers in 10th Annual Tim McCage Cup

Cross-town rival Christian Brothers trekked to Echles Field to compete for the 10th Annual Tim McCage Cup, the annual spring match between the Tigers and the Bucs. The Tigers came away victorious, 2-1, thanks to first-half goals from Gardner-Webb transfer Dennis Kennetz Jr. and Parker Duncan. Jordan Leedle, the only keeper the Tigers had in the spring season, came up with two saves to earn the victory for the Tigers.

- Sherrod makes long-awaited debut

Redshirt freshman forward Mark Sherrod made his debut for Memphis soccer during the spring season after missing the fall due to injury. Sherrod, who was named an ESPN Rise third-team All-American as a high school senior, scored in the Tigers "Battle for the Bones" spring match against UAB. Sherrod also had four shots and two shots on goal against Christian Brothers in the spring exhibition season.

- Record Crowd at Mike Rose for "Kicks for a Cause"

A school record 1,584 people packed Mike Rose Soccer Complex for the Tigers first annual "Kicks for a Cause" match against Ireland's Colaiste Ide Prep program, March 24. The event cost 2 dollars to get in, with all proceeds going to the American Red Cross's disaster relief efforts in Haiti. Though playing Colaiste Ide to a tie, the night was still a success at the Tigers raised $2,918 for the cause. Though not an official match that will count as an all-time attendance record, it was the first match ever that brought over 1,000 fans to the Mike Rose Soccer Complex.

POSITION BREAKDOWN

• Forwards

Projected Starters

F 2 Mark Sherrod (R. Fr.) Knoxville, Tenn.
 F 19 Parker Duncan (Jr.) Johnson City, Tenn.

Bench

F 21 J.J. Greer (So.) Memphis, Tenn.
 F 8 Austin Gross (Fr.) Tulsa, Okla.
 F 3 Gordy Gurson (Fr.) Buffalo Grove, Ill.

A strong group at the top of the depth chart will hopefully be complemented by a freshman or two for this season's Tigers squad. Though departed senior Brian Farrell and his 10 career goals will be missed, sophomore J.J. Greer, from Memphis, and junior Johnson City product Parker Duncan, last season's starters, return; with the much-anticipated debut of redshirt freshman Mark Sherrod, from Knoxville, goals should be plentiful this season.

A trio of newcomers will vie for whatever playing time is available after the top three, with freshmen Austin Gross and Gordy Gurson eager to prove themselves. Junior transfer Tiago Reichert will miss the remainder of the season due to an ACL injury.

• MIDFIELDERS

Projected Starters

RM 17 Andreas Guentner (So.) Regensburg, Germany
 DM 10 Cody McCoy (Jr.) Knoxville, Tenn.
 CM 4 Liam Collins (Fr.) Skibbereen, Ireland
 LM 21 JJ Greer (So.) Memphis, Tenn.

Bench

MF 3 Eric Trujillo (Sr.) Southaven, Miss.
 LM 19 Parker Duncan (Jr.) Johnson City, Tenn.
 MF 11 Jordan Johnson (So.) Hendersonville, Tenn.
 MF 6 Hugo Mondragon (So.) Houston, Tex.
 MF 12 Dennis Kennetz, Jr. (Tr. So.) Memphis, Tenn.
 MF 24 Adam Thornton (R. Fr.) Vicksburg, Miss.

 MF 3 Gordy Gurson (Fr.) Buffalo Grove, Ill.
 MF 14 Jamal Keene (Fr.) Atlanta, Ga.
 MF 20 B.J. Williams (Fr.) Flora, Miss.

The Tigers return five players that saw significant action in 2009: juniors Cody McCoy and Parker Duncan, as well as sophomores Andreas Guentner, Hugo Mondragon and Jordan Johnson all saw action in midfield for last year's Memphis squad. Senior Eric Trujillo also returns, but saw only one game on the pitch last season.

Coming in to the fold this year are six players who could see the pitch sooner rather than later: freshmen Liam Collins, Gordy Gurson, Jamal Keene and B.J. Williams, redshirt frosh Adam Thornton and transfer Dennis Kennetz Jr., who hails from Memphis, will all be counted on to push the upper classmen in practice and give them a rest during matches.

• Defenders

Projected Starters

LB 9 Maxim Van Dyck (Fr.) Blankenberge, Belgium

CB 5 Rory O'Connor (Sr.) Dublin, Ireland

CB 23 Chris Porter (R. So.) Flowood, Miss.

RB 13 11 Jordan Johnson (So.) Hendersonville, Tenn.

Bench

D 6 Hugo Mondragon (R. So) Houston, Tex.

D 12 Dennis Kennetz, Jr. (Tr. So.) Memphis, Tenn.

D 17 Andreas Guentner (So.) Regensburg, Germany

D 13 Will Garcia (Fr.) Waller Tex

D 24 Adam Thornton (Fr.) Vicksburg, Miss.

D 18 Tanner Thompson (Fr.) Knoxville, Tenn.

After losing all-C-USA selection Rick Alleman to graduation, Richie Grant will rely on a very young backline in 2010. Rory O'Connor, one of two seniors on the 2010 Tiger's, returns to manage the defense and keep the heat off the new keeper.

Sophomores Jordan Johnson, Hugo Mondragon and Andreas Guentner return and will see time at the midfield and defensively. Redshirt sophomore Chris Porter, a former Mr. Soccer in Mississippi, will be counted on to regain his form after missing 2009 with injury.

Freshmen Adam Thornton, Will Garcia, Tanner Thompson and Belgian Maxim Van Dyck will vie for playing time and experience in 2010.

Junior Thomas Shannon will miss the remainder of the season due to an injury suffered against Central Arkansas.

• GOALKEEPERS

Projected Starter

GK 22 Jordan Leedle (RS-Fr.) Franklin, Tenn.

Bench

GK 1 Martin Hunter (Fr.) Newcastle upon Tyne, England

In replacing departed Michael Goodlett, who finished his career third all-time in goals against average, the Tigers will turn to two mostly unproven commodities in the net. Redshirt freshman Jordan Leedle has the upper hand, having spent two seasons in the Memphis program, but he has made only one appearance during his time with the Tigers. Freshman Martin Hunter will certainly give Leedle everything he can handle during the impending battle to see who will be the Tigers last line of defense in 2010.

About the Blazers

The Blazers enter their match with Memphis in a dogfight to gain admittance into the C-USA Tournament. After upsetting UCF, who had been unbeaten in conference play, 2-1 last week, UAB is in the drivers seat for its fate. With Marshall and Memphis to play in the final week of C-USA action, the Blazers will need a win against the Tigers and at least a draw with the Thundering Herd to remain in contention.

UAB will need a strong final week from junior forward Babayele Sodade, who leads the Blazers with eight goals and eighteen points in 15 matches.
