

Tiger Tennis...

- ◆ Broke into the national rankings for the first time in 26 years in 2001, then spent the entire 2002 season in the national rankings, ranking as high as 54th at the end of the year.

- ◆ Has a top 30 doubles team in senior Ben Stapp and junior Lee Taylor Walker. Stapp and Walker won the doubles title at Middle Tennessee over the No. 1 team from Ole Miss.

- ◆ Has received the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's Team Academic All-American award in each of the past two seasons. Michael LaHaie also received an individual honor from the ITA and had the U of M's highest student-athlete GPA.

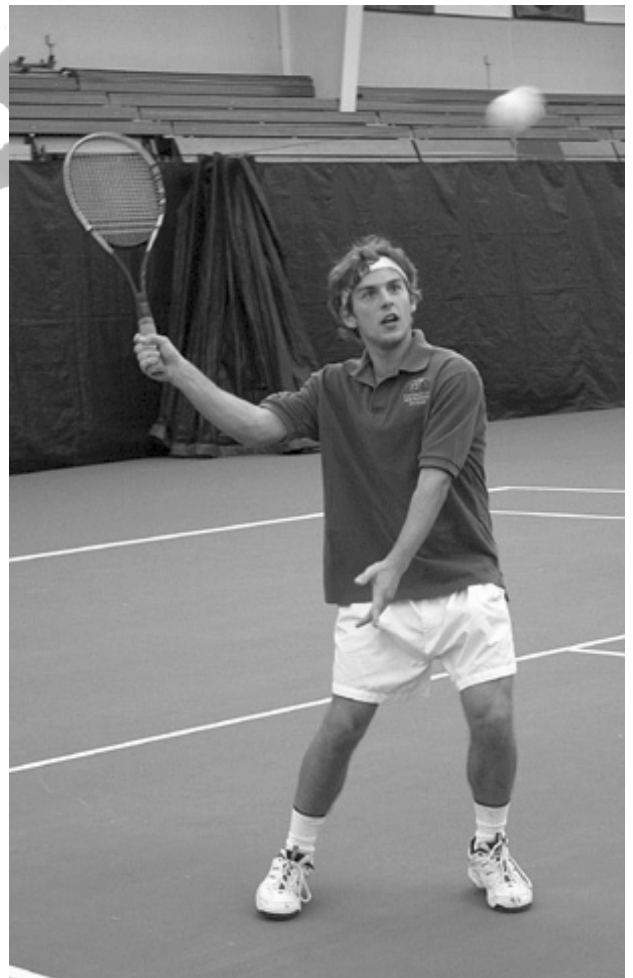

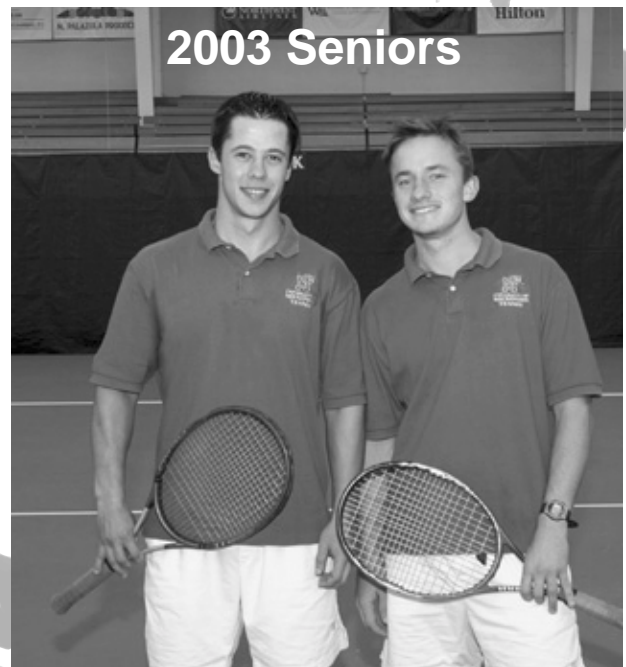

- ◆ In his fifth season, Head Coach Phil Chamberlain has consistently put together one of the nation's most difficult schedules. The 2002 schedule included matches against two of the top five teams in the nation. At one point in the 2002 season, Memphis had beaten four straight nationally-ranked opponents.

- ◆ In 2002, the Tigers won two tournament titles in the spring, sharing the HEB Invitational Title at Corpus Christi and defending their UC-Irvine Team Championship.

- ◆ In 2002, the Tigers received a $500 scholarship donation for winning the team sportsmanship award at the HEB Tournament.

- ◆ Two Tigers were named the C-USA Player of the Week in 2002 -- Michael Chamberlain and Alex Bucewicz. Lee Taylor Walker was named the C-USA Men's Tennis Player of the Month for October of 2002.

- ◆ Plays in one of the country's toughest tennis conferences. At the end of the 2001-2002 season, C-USA had six schools among the nation's top 75 ranked teams.
