About C-USA

In the world of intercollegiate sports, many considered the formation of Conference USA a bold move. Its formation occurred during a significant period of major conference realignment and restructuring of the NCAA. C-USA established a strong foundation while quickly earning a reputation of successfully competing at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. Capitalizing on the strengths of its 15 distinguished and diverse universities, Conference USA has quickly emerged as one of the nation's top conferences.

The millennium has brought a new look to the league with membership expansion and the introduction of a brand identity program, featuring a family of new marks. East Carolina and TCU joined the league in all sports last season and South Florida will become a football member in 2003. The new marks reflect the urban, progressive and bold nature of the C-USA brand and are part of a comprehensive marketing and promotional program designed to reinforce the conference's athletic and national emergence.

C-USA member institutions span 13 states, more than any other Division I-A conference and are located in 13 major television markets. Along with the ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and SEC, Conference USA is one of the seven conferences that has significant representation in the NCAA governance structure. The conference enjoys prominent national television exposure, NCAA automatic qualifications and major bowl tie-ins.

SUCCESS ON AND OFF THE FIELD

Conference USA performers have achieved success in competition, placing the league among the top conferences in the nation. The league has consistently rated as one of the top basketball leagues in the country, producing 44 postseason teams (24 NCAA and 20 NIT). The conference also enjoys strong fan support, drawing more than 1.5 million fans each year and placing the league among the nation's best in home attendance.

C-USA football, which began competition in 1996, has rated among the top seven conferences in the nation. Seventeen football teams have earned bowl bids in the last six years. C-USA is a member of the Bowl Championship Series, and sends its regular season champion to the AXA Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn., and teams to the GMAC Bowl, the Houston Bowl, the New Orleans Bowl and the new Hawai'i Bowl.

Conference USA women's sports have also enjoyed success. In women's basketball, the league has produced 25 NCAA teams in its first seven campaigns, including one team in the Sweet 16, along with 13 WNIT appearances. In volleyball, the league has earned 16 NCAA bids, with Louisville reaching the Sweet 16 in 1996 and 1998.

In addition, 18 men's and women's soccer teams, 19 baseball teams and six softball teams have earned NCAA Tournament bids. Last season, Tulane made its first appearance at the College World Series. C-USA has also sent two men's soccer teams to the Final Four and two teams to the Women's College World Series. The league has also had numerous NCAA individual and team competitors in golf, tennis and track and field. Overall, Conference USA teams and individuals have made more than 237 NCAA appearances.

Among C-USA's 5,000 student-athletes, there are champions off the playing field as well. In six years, 49 student-athletes earned national Verizon Academic All-America honors, while 106 were named All-District. In addition, more than 6,000 student-athletes have been named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll or received the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom. The conference annually awards six postgraduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award.

ESPN, Inc. and Conference USA recently entered into an exclusive eight-year agreement, beginning with the 2001 season. The multi-faceted agreement, which incorporates ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Regional Television, ESPN.com and ESPN Classic, is highlighted by: ESPN/ESPN2's first-time coverage of C-USA football featuring weeknight games; televising future C-USA Football Championship Games on ABC Sports; men's basketball coverage; syndication and network rights for the conference's football and basketball coverage through ERT; continued exposure for women's basketball, along with volleyball, baseball, soccer and softball, as well as marketing rights.

A PROUD HISTORY

The conference unveiled its name, logo and commissioner on April 24, 1995 in Chicago. Mike Slive was named the first commissioner of Conference USA. Eleven of the institutions began athletic participation in 1995, while Houston joined competition in the fall of 1996. Conference USA added East Carolina (September, 1996) and the United States Military Academy (March, 1997) as football members. ECU began league competition in 1997; Army in 1998 and UAB in 1999. TCU began league play in 2001, along with ECU in all sports, and USF football will begin play in 2003.

Conference USA sponsors 19 sports - baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis, and track and field (indoor and outdoor) for men and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field (indoor and outdoor), and volleyball for women. The league's championship competition is enhanced by NCAA automatic bids in volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis and baseball.

Conference sports compete in a single division, except for men's basketball which currently competes in two. Charlotte, Cincinnati, DePaul, East Carolina, Louisville, Marquette, and Saint Louis comprise the American Division, while Houston, Memphis, South Florida, Southern Miss, TCU, Tulane and UAB make up the National Division.

The Presidents of the member institutions serve as Conference USA's Board of Directors. Dr. Joseph Steger of Cincinnati has served as the chair for the first four years and was succeeded by Dr. J.H. Woodward of Charlotte.
