THIS WEEK'S ACTION:

• The University of Memphis Lady Tigers take on the Alabama Crimson Tide Friday, Aug. 29 at 5:00 p.m. The game will take place at Mike Rose Soccer Complex between two games of the men's soccer Memphis Diadora Tournament. One ticket will allow anyone to attend all three contests of the evening. The first men's game pairs UAB vs. Oral Roberts at 3:00 p.m. The Lady Tigers will then face off against Alabama followed by the men's soccer team going head to head with No. 23 Bradley at 7:30 p.m.

SCOUTING THE CRIMSON TIDE:

• The Crimson Tide have a new head coach at the helm as well as a whole new supporting staff. This will be head coach Todd Bramble's first year at the helm in Tuscaloosa.
 • During Bramble's tenure at Clemson, he took the Lady Tigers to the NCAA Tournament every season reaching the NCAA Elite Eight once and the NCAA Sweet 16 twice. In addition, his teams have finished in the top 25 nationally five times and have placed in the top three in the Atlantic Coast Conference three times. Bramble had an 80-51-17 overall record and did not have a losing season at Clemson.

• 18 players and all six of the top scorers return from last season for the Crimson Tide.
 • Bramble also inherits a recruiting class that features eight newcomers. Alabama does face one of its toughest schedules in recent history as it will have to square up against eight teams that made the NCAA tournament last season, including the defending national champions in Southern Cal. Five tournament teams reside in the SEC and three tournament participants will face the Tide in the first five games of the season.

preseason C-USA favorites will have a great 2008 schedule as they compete against four 2007 NCAA College Cup teams and 13 who finished in the top 100 of the NCAA RPI ranking system. Memphis will take six separate road trips playing ten road matches while hosting ten games at Mike Rose Stadium.

- Memphis returns 19 of 27 letterwinners.
- Seniors Kylie Hayes and Emiko Schwab and sophomore Vendula Strnadova were selected by C-USA coaches to the preseason All-Conference USA team.
- The Lady Tigers return nine starters including goalkeeper Elise Kuhar-Pitters who began the 2007 season as a starter but was sidelined for the year with a wrist injury occurring in the first game of the year

COACH BROOKS:

• 2007 Conference USA Head Coach of the Year, Brooks Monaghan (Memphis, 1994), is in his ninth season as the Lady Tigers Head Coach and is the winningest coach in Memphis women's soccer history. Monaghan has been involved with the University of Memphis women's soccer program since its inception in 1995. He began as an assistant coach and four years later took over at the helm as head coach. Monaghan is also the career wins leader at goal keeper for the University of Memphis Men's Soccer team. He racked up 38 victories from 1991-93. He is also the programs career shutout leader(24). Coach Monaghan played professionally with the New Orleans Gamblers in 1995 and 1996, while playing for the Memphis Express in 2002.

PRESEASON:

• Memphis lost to to. 5 ranked Notre Dame 3-1, in an exhibition match up Tue., Aug. 12 at 7:00 p.m in Notre Dame Ind.

• The Lady Tigers then took on Western Kentucky Thur., Aug. 14 at 1:00 p.m. in Bowling Green Ky. The game ended in a 0-0 tie. There was no overtime period.

NEXT WEEK:

• The Lady Tigers will travel south to Oxford, Miss. next Friday to take on Ole Miss in a 7:00 p.m. battle. Memphis then returns home back home to face off against the Miami Hurricanes Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. at Mike Rose Stadium.

GO KYLIE GO:

• Senior Kylie Hays currently leads the list of career goals. Kylie only needs four more points to overtake Memphis assistant coach Jodi Grant (formerly Jodi Fisher) as career points leader. Hayes also tops the list of multiple goal games with seven. Entering her senior year, she already has a place at the top or in reach of several Lady Tiger career records. If Kylie plays in each of the twenty regular season games she will also move into third place on the career games played list. Friday against Arkansas-Little Rock she took three shots putting her ahead of Allison Baker on the career shots list and she needs only 10 more shots to overtake Coach Jodi Grant on the same list. Hayes is also moving her way up the career assists leaderboard. Keep an eye on the Piqua, Ohio, native throughout 2008 as she has the ability to make her place as one of the most decorated Lady Tiger soccer players in its history.

IN THE NET:

• Elise Kuhar-Pitters started 2008 logging all 90 minutes along with a shutout of Arkansas-Little Rock. The defense only allowed three shots to come Kuhar-Pitters' way, but she still held strong throughout stuffing any opportunity for a Trojan goal.

• Last season Kuhar-Pitters started one game logging only 74 minutes in goal before injuring her wrist and sidelining her for the remainder of the year. She returns this season with something to prove as she watched her teammates win a regular season and C-USA Tournament championship as well as qualify for the NCAA College Cup in '07. Two incoming freshmen, Jordan Boyle and Nikki Unland are also fighting for a spot in the net to help the Lady Tigers defend their conference title.

MAKING HISTORY:

• For the first time in Memphis Lady Tigers history, they earned a share of the regular season conference crown with a program best 7-1-1 C-USA record. They also navigated their way to a C-USA Tournament title earning them a bid to play in the NCAA College Cup. While the Lady Tigers' soccer program had several firsts in 2007 they do not have any plans of stopping there. They have started their 2008 campaign with a winning attitude hoping to continue where they left off in 2007.

NINE FRESHMEN:

• The Memphis Lady Tigers will introduce nine newcomers to the 2008 squad. This talented group of freshmen has a large mix of international flavor. Five of the new Lady Tigers call Canada home. Jordan Boyle, Elizabeth Hildebrandt, Julia Ignacio, Kelsey Robson, and Tara Telford are not only new to college life, but must adjust to a new country as well. Four more talented players will also wear a Tigers jersey for the first time this season. Carly Bykerk, Lizzy Simonin, Heather Trotter and Nikki Unland round out the incoming freshman class.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE:

• Led by seniors Maggie Leone and CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine All-America Kate Murphy the defense takes the field this year with the same expectations of dominance from 2007. The Lady Tigers defense allowed a minimal 7.4 shots per game last season and held opponents to a 0.84 goals against average in 2007. Memphis looks to return a seasoned group of defenders that will shut down its opponents in 2008 and help keep every game in reach for the powerful Lady Tiger offense.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE:

• Last season junior defender Kate Murphy was the first female in school history to earn ESPN/CoSIDA All-American first team. She was also named CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District IV team honors and a C-USA All-Academic team honor as well.

GAMETRACKER:

• If you can't make it to the game, you can still follow the Lady Tigers. Every home game can be viewed on Gametracker. Just go to GoTigersGo.com, click on "Gametracker" on the side bar under women's soccer and follow the action from any computer.

LADY TIGERS AIR ON CSTV:

• The Memphis Lady Tigers in 2008 will have live stats on Gametracker, but will also provide tape delayed video with commentary of each game being aired the following day of the matches this season. These games will be available to Tigers All-Access subscribers on www.gotigersgo.com

BROOKS MONAGHAN

With the 2008 season underway, Head Coach Brooks Monaghan began his 9th season as the Lady Tigers head coach victoriously. He now has an all-time coaching record of 80-69-9 at the University of Memphis. Last year he led the Lady Tigers to their first Conference USA Championship title, a share of the C-USA regular season title and an NCAA Championship appearance.
