SEASON OPENER

Conference USA opens its 14th season Friday, with all 12 teams on the pitch for at least one non-conference game over the weekend. Nine matches are scheduled for Friday evening, beginning in Greenville, N.C., as East Carolina hosts Western Carolina for a 5 p.m. EDT start. Colorado College, Houston, Memphis, Rice and UTEP also play a home opener Friday night, while SMU will host No. 23 Oklahoma State on Saturday. The other five teams are on the road. Marshall plays a Saturday afternoon contest at St. Bonaventure under new interim coach Kevin Long. Southern Miss and Tulsa also welcomes new coaches (see below), but both will also debut with a pair of road games. UAB is at Clemson on Friday and at Auburn for an interstate rivalry match Sunday. Arguably the toughest opening weekend belongs to UCF, as the Knights also remain in-state to play No. 4 Florida State on Friday and two days later will square off with No. 23 Florida, which is a rematch of the 2007 NCAA Second Round match. The Knights and Gators played to a 0-0 tie, but UF advanced on penalty kicks, 4-3.

C-USA WELCOMES A TRIO OF NEW COACHES

Conference USA welcomes three new head coaches to its ranks this season: Kevin Long (Marshall), Scott Ebke (Southern Miss) and Kyle Cussen (Tulsa). Long was named the Herd's interim head coach on July 24 and replaces Chris Kane. Long came to Marshall after finishing his fifth season as the head coach of the Rider Broncs in 2007 and serving briefly as an assistant at Marshall. Long departed Rider as the winningest coach in the history of the women's soccer program with a 37-48-12 career record. Last season, his team produced nine academic all-conference selections. Ebke becomes the fourth women's soccer coach in the Southern Miss program's 12-year history. He joins the Golden Eagles from Iowa State where he served several positions in his five seasons with the Cyclones, most recently as Interim Head Coach. Ebke previously coached at Mississippi State and Nebraska before joining the Iowa State program in the spring of 2003. Cussen has spent the past 10 years across town as the head women's coach at Oral Roberts University. He recorded an overall record of 110-74-15 in his 10 seasons, while posting an eight-year conference mark of 35-15-8.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE USA TEAM

Defending champion Memphis has been selected by the league's coaches as the preseason favorite to be the Conference USA Women's Soccer Champion in 2008. Colorado College junior forward Emily Beans and teammate Molly Uyenishi, a senior defender, were named the Preseason C-USA Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year for the second consecutive year. The Tigers are coming off their first conference title and first NCAA Women's Soccer Championship appearance. Memphis returns three all-conference selections from a team that earned a school-record 17 wins (17-4-1) in 2007. UCF, who shared the C-USA regular season title with Memphis last season, was picked second in the coaches' preseason vote. The Knights finished with a 15-4-4 overall record and an at-large berth to the NCAA Championship. Colorado College was chosen third by the coaches and tied Memphis for the most selections on the pre-season team. The complete preseason all-conference team is as follows:

Name	Year	Pos.	School	Hometown
Emily Beans	Jr.	F	Colorado College	Griffith, Ind.
Tiffany Brown	So.	F	Colorado College	Sterling, Va.
