Musical Positions

The setter and backrow positions have been a "revolving door" for the Tigers this year. After playing libero for the first three matches of the year, junior Christine Bach took over the setter role, for freshman Stephanie Pauls. Becky Shaffer assumed the libero responsibilities and senior Rachel Theard moved into the defensive specialist spot. Pauls returned to make the start versus UALR, moving Bach and Shaffer back to libero and defensive specialist, respectively. When Pauls went down with a concussion injury, Bach was moved back to setter, and Shaffer (libero) and Theard (defensive specialist) again took over the backrow defensive positions.

Head Coach April Jauregui

Hometown ..... Orange County, Calif.
High School ..... Brethren Christian
Alma Mater . Memphis, 2001 (Communications & Political Science)
..... Ohio University, 2002 (MS- Organizational Communications)

On Mar. 5, 2008, former University of Memphis assistant coach and Academic All-American player April Jauregui was named the head volleyball coach at Memphis, replacing its longest-tenured and all-time winningest coach Carrie Yerty.

The eighth head coach in the 38-year history of Tiger volleyball, Jauregui (pronounced How-duh-gee) took the reins of the Memphis volleyball program after a three-year stint as an assistant under Yerty. As the assistant, she served as the outside hitters coach, as well as being responsible for the program's recruiting efforts. Jauregui familiarity with the program made the transition from assistant coach to head coach a smooth one. She also brings a youthful energy and excitement to the program, as well as seven years of coaching experience at three Division I institutions (Ohio, Lamae and Memphis).

Taking over the volleyball program at her alma mater is a dream fulfilled for Jauregui, who continues to build on the past successes of Memphis volleyball and is making a strong effort to raise the program to elite status.

Jauregui showed that she was up to the challenge of guiding the Memphis program, as she led an inexperienced Tiger squad to a 17-14 mark with just one senior and five newcomers on the roster. Three Tigers (Christine Bach, Carolyn Baker and Emily Underwood) earned C-USA postseason awards in her first year.

Upon the completion of her volleyball career and graduation from the University of Memphis in 2001, Jauregui moved on to Ohio University, where she served as the Bobcats' volunteer assistant in the fall of 2001, while working towards her master's degree. While at Ohio, Jauregui oversaw the program's recruiting and travel. On the court, she was in charge of coaching the Bobcat outside hitters. After a solid first year, Jauregui took on added responsibilities as a full-time assistant under former Bobcats head coach Mike Lessinger in 2002. In her two seasons with the OU program, Jauregui helped the Bobcats to a 36-25 mark, including a 25-9 finish in 2002. That 2002 squad won the program's first-ever MAC Tournament match en route to advancing to the semifinals of the league's tournament.

Prior to taking the assistant post at Memphis, the Orange County, Calif., native spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons as an assistant coach under former U of M assistant Fiona Simmons at Lamar University.

Jauregui made the return to her alma mater in 2005 and quickly took charge of the Tigers outside hitters. Her impact was immediately felt as Memphis posted over 1,800 kills in three of the last four seasons. Former Memphis outside hitter Ashley Liford posted a pair of the program's top performances from an outside en route to an All-C-USA season in 2007 under Jauregui's instruction.

The former Memphis star began her coaching career at the club level while still a student-athlete at Memphis. She led the Memphis Jr.'s and later coached Spike Volleyball Club in Nashville, Tenn.

The former April Harriman was a standout outside hitter for Yerty at Memphis from 1997-2000. A highly-decorated player on the court, she still ranks 18th all-time at Memphis with 1,071 career kills. Over her four-year career, Jauregui played in 129 matches and averaged over 250 kills per season. She led her 2000 club with 494 kills (a mark that still stands in the program's top 10). One of five Tiger volleyball players to ever record 30 kills in a match, Jauregui became the third to do so when she slammed down 30 kills in a win over cross-town foe Christian Brothers in the 2000 season.

A true student-athlete, she also excelled in the classroom as an eight-time Dean's List student. She was selected as the University of Memphis' top female athlete in 2000 when she earned the Elma Roane Award. She also was tabbed the University's Female Student-Athlete of the Year Award in 2000. A four-time recipient of the Conference USA Commissioner's Medal, Jauregui earned an honor that no other Tiger had ever received in 2000 when she was tabbed a CoSIDA Academic First Team All-District performer and also became Memphis volleyball's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American.

She graduated from Memphis Summa Cum Laude in 2001 with a degree in communications and political science. She completed her master's studies in organizational communication at Ohio University in the spring of 2002.

Jauregui came to Memphis after a storied high school career at Brethren Christian in Los Angeles. A two-time all-league performer, Jauregui departed the BCHS program with the single-match records for kills, blocks, aces and digs. Jauregui became the school's first female athlete to go to school on an athletic scholarship when she made the decision to come to Memphis. Jauregui was the salutatorian of her class at BCHS and was named the California Intercollegiate Federation's Scholar Athlete of the Year for the 1996-97 school year.

Jauregui also lettered on the hardwood, earning honorable mention honors as a forward.

Jauregui is married to Gabriel Jauregui, who is a special education teacher and a freshman/junior varsity volleyball coach at Cordova High School.

With 18 digs vs. UCF on Sunday, Shaffer moved into eighth-place on the program's single-season digs top-10 list.

Bach Picks Up 31 Digs on Opening Day

Christine Bach got her season started in fine fashion, setting a Memphis volleyball Opening record with 31 digs in the season-opener versus Evansville. Bach 30-plus dig outing was a record-setting third time she had picked up 30 or more digs. The Dresden, Germany, native made a program-record 37 digs versus IUPUI on September 5, 2008. She recorded her first 30-dig night with 35 digs in a win over SMU on November 2, 2007.

Bach Moves Into Tiger's Top-10

With 261 digs this season, setter Christine Bach has moved into ninth-place all-time at Memphis with 1,278 career digs. The Dresden, Germany, native has put up two of the program's top-three backrow seasons with 489 digs (3rd) as a freshman in '07 and 528 digs (2nd) last year.

Slow Start

Memphis' 0-7 start was the slowest in school history. The previous record-low start came in 1982 when the Tigers started the year 0-5. The '82 Tigers went 15-26.

Need a Strong Finish

With a 6-22 record and just three matches remaining, the 2009 Tigers are in jeopardy of setting the record for the fewest wins in a single season. That record currently belongs to the 1996 team that won just eight matches and lost a school-record 27. While the record losses is out of reach after Sunday's win, the Tigers must claim victory in two of the final three matches to avoid being the fewest wins mark.

IR

Memphis has been dealt a pair of tough blows midway through the season. The Tigers, who have dealt with various team illnesses throughout the year, were dealt a crushing blow when middle blocker Emily Underwood was sidelined with a season-ending back injury. Sophomore setter Stephanie Pauls is also on the injury list after suffering a concussion in a five-set loss to UALR on September 19.

Rocky Road

The Tigers have found life on the road to be a tough one this year. Memphis is 0-8 and has won just one set on the road. The Tigers, who have been swept at Missouri State, Western Kentucky, UCF, Tulsa, SMU, UTEP and Tulane, hit just .126 in road matches. Memphis won its lone set in a 3-1 loss at Southern Miss.

Double Up

Led by Christine Bach's team-high 10 double-doubles, Memphis has posted 19 double-double performances in 2009. Here's a look:

All Good Things Must Come to an End

The 2009 season marks the end of an era in Memphis volleyball history. This year ends a string of eight-straight seasons in which the Tigers have finished with a record of .500 or better. Memphis's last losing season came in a 13-20 campaign in 2000.

Dig Pink

On Oct. 9, the Memphis volleyball team joined the Side-Out Foundation to promote Breast health education in the community as well as raising funds to help eradicate Breast Cancer. The Tigers defeated East Carolina, 3-0 in the contest.

For more information about contributing to the cause, contact University of Memphis marketing assistant, Nicole Imbrogno at n.imbrogno@memphis.edu or (901) 678.1792. ## Underwood Earns Preseason All-C-USA Honors

Junior middle blocker Emily Underwood was named to the 2009 C-USA Volleyball Preseason Team as voted on by the league's head coaches. One of three middle blockers in C-USA to make the squad, Underwood led the Memphis and the league in blocking, while finishing seventh nationally with 1.45 blocks per set. The Port Elgin, Ontario, Canada, native made 20 solo blocks and 173 block assists en route to Second Team All-C-USA honors. She wrapped up her sophomore campaign ranked second on Memphis' single-season total blocks and block assists lists.

Schedule tough

With 13 matches against teams that registered 20 or more wins, and contests at NCAA participants Missouri State, Tulane, UAB and Western Kentucky, this year's schedule is one of the most competitive that the Tigers have ever played.

Tigers on the Tube

Tiger volleyball will make an appearance on TV on November 6, as the Tigers' match at East Carolina will air on a tape-delay basis on November 10. The Tigers had one televised home match last year in the Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

Memphis is 1-2 in TV matches. The Tigers
