Tigers Face First True Road Tests at Southern Miss and UCF this Weekend

The Memphis volleyball team will get its first taste of life on the road this weekend when it travels to Southern Miss and UCF for a pair of Conference USA matches, October 2-4. The Tigers (2-14, 0-3 C-USA) will battle the Golden Eagles at 7 p.m. on Friday. First serve for Sunday's contest at UCF is slated for 12 p.m. EST.

Tigers Tales

Memphis has lost seven-straight, but looked rejuvenated with the clearance of freshman outside hitter Maja Jovanovic. The Tigers are winless in two road matches this year. They were swept at Missouri State and Western Kentucky.

Redshirt freshman Altrese Hawkins leads the team with 147 kills and 2.67 kills per set, while sophomore middle blocker Carolyn Baker hits a team-best .250. Junior outside hitter Katlin English is a close second on the club with 145 kills, while senior outside Lauren Thompson rounds out the Tiger's trio of hitters with at least 100 kills. Junior setter Christine Bach runs the offense with a team-high 391 assists (7.89 apts).

Junior libero Becky Shaffer leads the Memphis defense and ranks fourth in Conference USA with 245 digs (4.45 dps). Bach and defensive specialist Rachel Theard have picked up 166 and 134 digs, respectively. Baker leads the Tigers' frontline efforts with 45 total blocks.

Scouting Southern Miss

Friday night's match will be the Conference USA home opener for Southern Miss, who enters the weekend's action with a 14-3 overall mark and a 2-1 record in C-USA play. The Golden Eagles' 14 wins ranks as second-most in the league (behind Marshall's 15). USM, 3-0 at home, got the season off to a fast 14-1 start that included a 13-match win streak.

Defense is the strength of the Golden Eagles game. USM boasts the conference's top defense, holding opposing teams to a combined .127 average. That effort is due largely to the play of the frontrow-backrow tandem of middle blocker Sara Jane Bowden and libero Maia Ivanova. Bowden leads the team and ranks 10th in C-USA with 0.97 blocks per set (56 TB). Ivanova patrols the backrow and paces the club with 4.21 digs per set—good for seventh in the league. She is the only Golden Eagles player with over 200

Last Time vs. Southern Miss

Southern Miss (13-11; 3-8 C-USA) 20 11 25 20
 Memphis (15-10; 6-5 C-USA) 25 25 22 25

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Senior setter Laura Côté posted her second consecutive double-double with 46 assists and 14 digs and Memphis was solid on both sides of the net as it pushed past Southern Miss, 3-1, in C-USA action.

Côté had three efficient options in the contest, led by Emily Underwood. After connecting for a career-high 21 kills on Friday, the middle hitter struck for a match-best 15 kills, hit .414 and made four total blocks. She got offensive help from Tiger outsides Katlin English and Lauren Thompson. English fired away for 14 kills, while Thompson finished with 13.

When it wasn't the Tiger offense, it was the defense as Memphis out blocked Southern Miss 14-3. Casey Sines finished the day with a career-best 10 total blocks, while Rebekah Strickland made five block assists. Côté joined Underwood with four total rejections. Christine Bach picked up a match-best 21 digs in the contest to help Memphis hold USM to .136 hitting.

All-Time Series vs. Southern Miss

Memphis is 23-12 all-time against Southern Miss. The Tigers and Golden Eagles split the 2008 season series. The Tigers avenged a 3-1 loss early in the season with a four-set victory over USM on October 26. The October 12 loss to Southern Miss was the first for Memphis since the 2003 season. It also snapped a seven-match win streak against the Golden Eagles.

Scouting the UCF Knights

With eight letterwinners back from last year's club that went 15-17, the UCF Knights have shown considerable improvement this season. They enter the weekend with an even 8-8 mark, but are winless in three C-USA matches. The Knight jumped out to a fast start, winning its first five matches, but are currently reeling in the midst of a six-match losing streak.

The Knights are led by seniors Erin Campbell and Andee Youngblood. Campbell, who notched her 1,000th career kill and 1,000th versus ECU last weekend, is the team leader in kills, with 217. She ranks eighth in the conference in that category and is one of just five players league-wide with over 200 kills. Campbell averages 3.50 kills per set. Freshman Sara Rex is the club's most efficient hitter, hitting .412 with 71 kills. Youngblood has doled out 580 assists (9.35 aps). Freshman Nicole Riedel leads the team and ranks sixth in the league with 0.33 service aces per set.

The Knights hold opponents to a .190 attack percentage. Rex leads the defensive stand with 47 total blocks. Her 0.98 blocks per set average ranks eighth in C-USA. Libero Meredith Murphy leads the Knights and ranks fifth in the league with 4.31 digs per set.

 Memphis (14-10; 5-5 C-USA) 25 25 16 21 15

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Middle blocker Emily Underwood put down a career-high 21 kills and made eight block assists, while senior setter Laura Côté posted her first double-double of the year with 52 assists and 15 digs as Memphis held off a late rally by UCF to clinch a 3-2 win in C-USA action, at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse. Memphis improved to 14-10 on the year and 5-5 in league play.

In addition to the play of Underwood and Côté, Memphis got a strong performance from Thompson. The reserve outside hitter recorded 13 kills, including seven in the fourth set.

Defensively, Christine Bach led the way with a match-high 22 digs. In a blocking war, it was Memphis who emerged on top, out blocking UCF 17-14. Underwood and freshman middle Casey Sines both had eight block assists, while Strickland had six and Côté, five. UCF's Erin Campbell posted four solo rejects.

All-Time Series vs. UCF

Memphis holds a 10-6 advantage over UCF in the all-time series between the two institutions. The series dates back to the 1979 season, when UCF handed Memphis a 2-1 defeat. Memphis came away with 2-0 sweeps in 1980 and '81.

Hawkins, who touches 10-5, leads the team with 147 kills and 2.67 kills per set. She has downed 10 or more kills nine times this year, including in each of the last six. Hawkins is quickly putting together one of the most prolific rookie campaigns in Memphis volleyball history. Musical Positions

The setter and backrow positions have been a "revolving door" for the Tigers this year. After playing libero for the first three matches of the year, junior Christine Bach took over the setter role, for freshman Stephanie Pauls. Becky Shaffer assumed the libero responsibilities and senior Rachel Theard moved into the defensive specialist spot. Pauls returned to make the start versus UALR, moving Bach and Shaffer back to libero and defensive specialist, respectively. When Pauls went down with a concussion injury, Bach was moved back to setter, and Shaffer (libero) and Theard (defensive specialist) again took over the backrow defensive positions.

Hoovie!

Junior Becky Shaffer has settled into her new role as the libero smoothly and leads the club with 267 digs. Since moving from defensive specialist to libero in the third match of the season, Shaffer has recorded 10 or more digs 10 times, including reaching that mark in five of the last six outings. Shaffer posted a career-high 27 digs in the Tigers' C-USA opener versus UAB on September 17.

Head Coach April Jauregui

Hometown Orange County, Calif.
 High School Brethren Christian
 Alma Mater . Memphis, 2001 (Communications & Political Science)
 Ohio University, 2002 (MS- Organizational Communications)

On Mar. 5, 2008, former University of Memphis assistant coach and Academic All-American player April Jauregui was named the head volleyball coach at Memphis, replacing its longest-tenured and all-time winningest coach Carrie Yerty.

The eighth head coach in the 38-year history of Tiger volleyball, Jauregui (pronounced How-duh-gee) took the reins of the Memphis volleyball program after a three-year stint as an assistant under Yerty. As the assistant, she served as the outside hitters coach, as well as being responsible for the program's recruiting efforts. Jauregui familiarity with the program made the transition from assistant coach to head coach a smooth one. She also brings a youthful energy and excitement to the program, as well as seven years of coaching experience at three Division I institutions (Ohio, Lamae and Memphis).

Taking over the volleyball program at her alma mater is a dream fulfilled for Jauregui, who continues to build on the past successes of Memphis volleyball and is making a strong effort to raise the program to elite status.

Jauregui showed that she was up to the challenge of guiding the Memphis program, as she led an inexperienced Tiger squad to a 17-14 mark with just one senior and five newcomers on the roster. Three Tigers (Christine Bach, Carolyn Baker and Emily Underwood) earned C-USA postseason awards in her first year.

Upon the completion of her volleyball career and graduation from the University of Memphis in 2001, Jauregui moved on to Ohio University, where she served as the Bobcats' volunteer assistant in the fall of 2001, while working towards her master's degree. While at Ohio, Jauregui oversaw the program's recruiting and travel. On the court, she was in charge of coaching the Bobcat outside hitters. After a solid first year, Jauregui took on added responsibilities as a full-time assistant under former Bobcats head coach Mike Lessinger in 2002. In her two seasons with the OU program, Jauregui helped the Bobcats to a 36-25 mark, including a 25-9 finish in 2002. That 2002 squad won the program's first-ever MAC Tournament match en route to advancing to the semifinals of the league's tournament.

Prior to taking the assistant post at Memphis, the Orange County, Calif., native spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons as an assistant coach under former U of M assistant Fiona Simmons at Lamar University.

Jauregui made the return to her alma mater in 2005 and quickly took charge of the Tigers outside hitters. Her impact was immediately felt as Memphis posted over 1,800 kills in three of the last four seasons. Former Memphis outside hitter Ashley Liford posted a pair of the program's top performances from an outside en route to an All-C-USA season in 2007 under Jauregui's instruction.

The former Memphis star began her coaching career at the club level while still a student-athlete at Memphis. She led the Memphis Jr.'s and later coached Spike Volleyball Club in Nashville, Tenn.

The former April Harriman was a standout outside hitter for Yerty at Memphis from 1997-2000. A highly-decorated player on the court, she still ranks 18th all-time at Memphis with 1,071 career kills. Over her four-year career, Jauregui played in 129 matches and averaged over 250 kills per season. She led her 2000 club with 494 kills (a mark that still stands in the program's top 10). One of five Tiger volleyball players to ever record 30 kills in a match, Jauregui became the third to do so when she slammed down 30 kills in a win over cross-town foe Christian Brothers in the 2000 season.

A true student-athlete, she also excelled in the classroom as an eight-time Dean's List student. She was selected as the University of Memphis' top female athlete in 2000 when she earned the Elma Roane Award. She also was tabbed the University's Female Student-Athlete of the Year Award in 2000. A four-time recipient of the Conference USA Commissioner's Medal, Jauregui earned an honor that no other Tiger had ever received in 2000 when she was tabbed a CoSIDA Academic First Team All-District performer and also became Memphis volleyball's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American.

She graduated from Memphis Summa Cum Laude in 2001 with a degree in communications and political science. She completed her master's studies in organizational communication at Ohio University in the spring of 2002.

Jauregui came to Memphis after a storied high school career at Brethren Christian in Los Angeles. A two-time all-league performer, Jauregui departed the BCHS program with the single-match records for kills, blocks, aces and digs. Jauregui became the school's first female athlete to go to school on an athletic scholarship when she made the decision to come to Memphis. Jauregui was the salutatorian of her class at BCHS and was named the California Intercollegiate Federation's Scholar Athlete of the Year for the 1996-97 school year.

Jauregui also lettered on the hardwood, earning honorable mention honors as a forward.

Jauregui is married to Gabriel Jauregui, who is a special education teacher and a freshman/junior varsity volleyball coach at Cordova High School.

Bach Picks Up 31 Digs on Opening Day

Christine Bach got her season started in fine fashion. The junior set a Memphis volleyball Opening record by making 31 digs in the season-opener versus Evansville. Bach 30-plus dig outing was a record-setting third time she had picked up 30 or more digs. The Dresden, Germany, native made a program-record 37 digs versus IUPUI on September 5, 2008. She recorded her first 30-dig night with 35 digs in a win over SMU on November 2, 2007.

Slow Start

Memphis' 0-7 start was the slowest in school history. The Tigers have since gone 2-7, but still hold the dubious record for the slowest start in school history. The previous record-low start came in 1982 when the Tigers started the year 4-12 through the first 16 contests. The '82 Tigers went 15-26. Memphis got off to an identical 4-12 start in a 12-23-1 campaign in 1976.

IR

Memphis has been dealt a pair of tough blows midway through the season. The Tigers, who have dealt with various team illnesses throughout the year, were dealt a crushing blow when middle blocker Emily Underwood was sidelined with a season-ending back injury. Sophomore setter Stephanie Pauls is also on the injury list after suffering a concussion in a five-set loss to UALR on September 19.

Home not so Sweet for Tigers

Memphis has found success hard to come by at home this year. The Tigers and 0-9 at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse this year. They have been swept in four of the nine losses. Dating back to last season's 3-0 loss to UAB on November 16, Memphis has dropped 11-straight match at home. The U of M's last home win was a sweep of East Carolina back on November 2, 2008.

Double Up

Sixteen matches into the season, Memphis has posted more double-doubles than it did the entire 2008 season. Led by Christine Bach's team-high six double-doubles, Memphis has posted 12 double-double performances in 2009.

Tryin' to Keep the Streak Alive

With 15 matches remaining on the 2009 regular season schedule, Memphis, 2-14, find itself fighting to produce its ninth-straight season with a .500 or better finish. To clinch that feat, the Tigers must go at least 13-2 to round out the regular season, and then post two wins in the C-USA Tournament.

Dig Pink

On Oct. 9, the University of Memphis volleyball team will join the Side-Out Foundation to promote Breast health education in the community as well as raising funds to help eradicate Breast Cancer. The Tigers will host East Carolina in their annual Dig Pink match with the first serve for the contest set for 7 p.m. at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse. Admission will be free for those wearing pink.

For more information about the event, please contact University of Memphis marketing assistant, Nicole Imbrogno at n.imbrogno@memphis.edu or (901) 678.1792. To donate to the cause, log onto Memphis volleyball's Dig Pink team page at https://www.side-out.org/application/teams/team_page/1560. The proceeds from all donations will benefit the Side-Out Foundation, a national 501(c)(3) located in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area.

Underwood Earns Preseason All-C-USA Honors

Junior middle blocker Emily Underwood was named to the 2009 Conference USA Volleyball Preseason Team as voted on by the league's 12 head coaches.

One of three middle blockers in the league to make the squad, Underwood led the Memphis and C-USA in blocking, while finishing seventh in the nation with 1.45 blocks per set. The Port Elgin, Ontario, Canada, native made 20 solo blocks and 173 block assists en route to picking up Second Team All-C-USA honors. She wrapped up her sophomore campaign ranked second on Memphis' single-season total blocks and block assists lists.

Schedule tough

With 13 matches against teams that registered 20 or more wins, and contests at NCAA participants Missouri State, Tulane, UAB and Western Kentucky, this year's schedule is one of the most competitive that the Tigers have ever played.

Tigers on the Tube

Tiger volleyball will make an appearance on TV during the regular season, as the Tigers' match at East Carolina will air on a tape-delay basis on November 10. The Tigers had one televised home match last year in the Elma Roane Fieldhouse.
