Scouting ECU
 East Carolina has had a tough go of things in Conference USA this year, having lost all 17 contests to this point. The Pirates dropped road matches to UTEP (3-0) and UCF (3-1) over the weekend to fall to 2-24 on the season. Britney Roper has led the Pirate attack this season with 171 kills (2.14 k/s), but ECU's biggest strength is its blocking. The Pirates average 2.05 blocks per set, led by Kelly Derby, who averages .94 b/s. Zarah Cecich has led the defense for ECU this season with 380 digs, while Kasey Kavanaugh has also registered 241 digs.

Scouting Marshall
 Marshall got off to a rough start in non-conference play, but the Thundering Herd has found its footing in C-USA play, tallying a 7-10 mark to date with wins over some of C-USA's best. Marshall owns wins over Southern Miss, UCF and SMU, but have dropped the last three conference games coming into this weekend. Abby Tomas leads the attack for the Herd, as she has totaled 306 kills (3.12 k/s) so far this season. Cameron Yoho is right behind her with 281 kills (2.87 k/s). while Sammie Bane leads the team with 985 assists. Ryanne Milligan leads the squad with 350 digs.

ECU

2011 NOTES

East Carolina has had a tough go of things in Conference USA this year, having lost all 17 contests to this point. The Pirates dropped road matches to UTEP (3-0) and UCF (3-1) over the weekend to fall to 2-24 on the season. Britney Roper has led the Pirate attack this season with 171 kills (2.14 k/s), but ECU's biggest strength is its blocking. The Pirates average 2.05 blocks per set, led by Kelly Derby, who averages .94 b/s. Zarah Cecich has led the defense for ECU this season with 380 digs, while Kasey Kavanaugh has also registered 241 digs.

LAST OUTING (Sept. 23 2011)

Memphis, Tenn. - The Memphis Tigers picked up their first conference win of the season as they downed the ECU Pirates in three-straight sets (27-25, 25-19, 25-18) Friday night at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse. The win gives the Tigers a 12-3 record on the season and a 1-1 mark in Conference USA action, while the Pirates fall to 2-8 and 0-2 in conference play. Junior Altrese Hawkins lead the way for the Tigers with 11 kills followed by freshman Lauren Hawkins with eight. Junior Hajnalka Molnar continued her nation leading ways in assists, posting 34, while junior Marija Jovanovic led the way in digs with 14.

The Tigers jumped out to an early 3-1 lead in the first set behind two early kills from Altrese Hawkins. Memphis led most of the set until late when the Pirates rallied behind a 6-0 run to tie the game at 24. In the end Memphis would prevail 27-25 on a fifth kill by Hawkins assisted Jovanovic, one of 13 by Molnar in set one.

Memphis would take set two, clawing out a 12-6 lead early that included run of four-straight points for the Tigers. Redshirt junior Vesna Jelic posted five kills in the set with Altrese Hawkins, Marija Jovanovic, and Lauren Hawkins each cheking in with four. ECU would keep it close but the Tigers would eventually take the set 25-19.

The Pirates would come back strong in set three but in the end the Tigers would be too much, taking the win 25-19. Set three saw Vesna Jelic set a career best in services aces with six, besting her previous best of five against UARL earlier this year.

MARSHALL

Marshall got off to a rough start in non-conference play, but the Thundering Herd has found its footing in C-USA play, tallying a 7-10 mark to date with wins over some of C-USA's best. Marshall owns wins over Southern Miss, UCF and SMU, but have dropped the last three conference games coming into this weekend. Abby Tomas leads the attack for the Herd, as she has totaled 306 kills (3.12 k/s) so far this season. Cameron Yoho is right behind her with 281 kills (2.87 k/s). while Sammie Bane leads the team with 985 assists. Ryanne Milligan leads the squad with 350 digs.

LAST OUTING (Sept. 30, 2011)

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - A strong defensive presence helped the Memphis volleyball team improve to 2-1 in Conference USA play and 13-3 overall with a 3-0 (25-22, 25-21, 25-21) win over Marshall on Sunday.

The Tigers held Marshall to .227 hitting thanks in part to five team blocks and 40 digs. Junior Vesna Jelic posted a team-high 10 digs while junior Marija Jovanovic and freshman Aleksandra Petronijevic each tallied nine. Junior Altrese Hawkins paced the Tiger offense with 14 kills. Senior Cameron Yoho led the Thundering Herd with a double-double of 11 digs and 10 kills.

Memphis got off to a strong start in set one with the first three points going to the home team. Hawkins had two early kills to help the Tigers jump out to a 7-3 lead. However, Marshall scored five of the next seven points after finding its offensive rhythm and was finally able to tie the score at 11-11. But the Tiger defense came up big with a powerful block from Lauren Hawkins and Hajnalka Molnar to prevent the Herd from taking the lead. The two teams stayed tight from there with Memphis maintaining a slight advantage but feeling constant pressure from the Herd. That pressure finally paid off for Marshall as it took the lead 19-18 after three straight kills. But the advantage was short-lived as Altrese Hawkins took over the set and powered home four kills in the final seven points to give Memphis the 25-22 win. Hawkins finished the frame with seven kills on .455 hitting.

Set two began the same way as set one, with an early Memphis lead and a powerful attack led by Hawkins. But Marshall quickly got into sync and scored three straight points to go up 5-4. After falling behind, 9-6, the Tigers began making their move, putting together a 5-1 run featuring two aces to regain the lead at 11-10. The Herd tied the score once and had several other opportunities to even the tally, but Memphis stayed strong and took the set, 25-21.

With the Tigers sensing victory and Marshall trying to stay in the match, set three was tight from the opening serve. The Herd used a 3-0 spurt to go in front 9-6 only to see Memphis respond with a 7-1 run to build a 13-10 lead. The advantage quickly became 18-12 as the Tigers stayed on the attack, eventually scoring the 25-21 victory.

WEEKLY NOTES:

Nov. 7-13 Week in Review

- Memphis split a pair of C-USA home games this weekend, defeating Tulane 3-1 on Friday before falling 3-1 to Southern Miss in the final home game of the season Saturday.
 - Altrese Hawkins and Hajnalka Molnar led the Tigers in the win against Tulane. Hawkins downed 24 kills while hitting .439 and Molnar registered a double-double of 55 assists and 13 digs.
 - The Tigers hit the road for two C-USA matches against ECU Friday at 6 p.m. and Marshall Sunday at 1 p.m. Memphis then wraps up its regular season with the season finale on the road against UAB on Wednesday, Nov. 23.

Double-Double

Memphis players having been churning out double-doubles as of late. Hajnalka Molnar registered her team best 10th double-double of the season in a 3-1 victory over Tulane. The junior finished with 55 assists and 13 digs, while Altrese Hawkins came just two digs shy of her own double-double. Hawkins did record a double-double in the Tigers' next game, finishing with 23 kills and 13 digs in a 3-1 loss to Southern Miss. Hawkins now has four double-doubles this season.

Climbing the Ladder

Altrese Hawkins became the 21st person in Memphis Volleyball history to down 1,000 kills in her career. She picked up her 1000th in the first set against Howard. Hawkins' 47 kills over the weekend brings her career total to 1,297, which moves her past three players and into ninth-place on the all-time kills list.

Like a Hawk

Altrese Hawkins continues to ink her name in the Memphis record books. Her newest accomplishment was downing 30 kills in a single match in a 3-2 win over SMU, becoming just the sixth Tiger in Memphis history to do so.

Fab 50

With a 3-1 victory over Tulane, Memphis head coach April Jauregui picked her 56th win at the helm of the program. She now ranks sixth on the all-time coaching wins list.

Triple Dipped

Setter Hajnalka Molnar was awarded C-USA Setter of the Week for the week of Oct. 3, the third time she has earned the honor this season. The recognition came after a weekend where Molnar registered back-to-back double-doubles of assists and digs against Southern Miss and Tulane.

Spiketacular Dominance

The Tigers won nine of 10 sets and three-straight games to claim their third pre-season championship at the Spartan Spiketacular. Memphis was led by tournament MVP Altrese Hawkins, who downed 39 kills and held a .381 hitting percentage during the three games. Marija Jovanovic and Vesna Jelic were also named to the all-tournament teams. Jovanovic was named to the all-tournament team in all four preseason events.

Preseason Power

The Tigers went 11-2 this preseason and claimed tournament titles at the Memphis Invitational, SIU Saluki Invitational and UNCG Spartan Spiketacular, tying the mark from last season.

Great Starts

The Tigers' 11-2 start during the preseason is the program's best since 2006, when Memphis started the season 13-1.

Player of the Week Times Two

Hajnalka Molnar picked up her second C-USA Setter of the Week Honors for the week of Sept. 19. Molnar registered 118 assists in the three matches and netted a tournament-best 49 assists in the victory over Radford. She also accounted for 36 assists and a career-high tying five service aces against UNCG. This is the second Setter of the Week honor for Molnar this season.

Career High Weekend

Several Tigers set new career highs during the Saluki Invitational. Redshirt-junior setter Hajnalka Molnar recorded five service aces against Murray State, a career best, while Cassidy Hawkins set a new career-high with a .833 attack percentage

All-Tournament Performance

Marija Jovanovic was named to the USF Asics/Powerade All-Tournament team after turning in a double-double of 20 kills and 10 digs in the Tigers' five-set loss to San Francisco in the event's championship match. This is the second all-tournament honor this season for Jovanovic, who was also selected to the Memphis Invitational All-Tournament squad. She continued her strong play at the Saluki Invitational, totaling 35 kills, including a double-double of 14 kills and 14 digs against Southern Illinois, en route to being named tournament MVP. She continued her preseason dominance with another all-tournament performance at the Spartan Spiketacular. Jovanovic totaled 34 kills and 24 digs while leading Memphis to three-straight victories and another tournament titles.

Players of the Week (Aug. 29)

After a successful first weekend, Altrese Hawkins and Hajnalka Molnar were each honored by Conference USA as the Offensive Player of the Week and Setter of the Week, respectively.

- Hawkins was named the Memphis Invitational Most Valuable Player after leading the Tigers to four-straight victories. She averaged 4.27 kills per set, including hitting .630 against SEMO en route to leading the Tigers to their 800th program win. For the weekend, she was credited with a .383 hitting efficiency (64K, 13E, 133TA). Hawkins collects her third career Offensive Player of the Week honor.

- Molnar averaged a league-best 13.27 assists per set and posted 35 digs in four matches. The junior played every point in the Tigers' four-straight victories in the Memphis Invitational, leading them to their 800th program win over Southeast Missouri on Friday. This is Molnar's first career Setter of the Week honor.

Freshman Specialist

Redshirt-freshman libero Aleksandra Petronijevic recorded 29 digs against Georgia State in the final match of the Memphis Invitational. The 29 digs in a single match ties Christine Bach and Christen Clayton's mark for ninth all-time in the Memphis record books. Petronijevic was named to the all-tournament team for her performance.

From Serbia with Love

The 2011 Tigers, much like the 2010 team, will have a very European feel. The roster features five players from Serbia (Jovana Barisic, Vesna Jelic, Marija Jovanovic, Maja Kostic, Aleksandra Petronijevic) and one from Hungary (Hajnalka Molnar). Assistant coach Marko Majstorovic is also from Serbia. Five of the six players had a major impact in Memphis' first tournament weekend.

- Jelic recorded 40 digs and 32 kills during the Memphis Invitational, including a double-double of 11 kills and 13 digs in the championship match against Georgia State. She was named to the all-tournament team at the UNCG Spartan Spiketacular after downing 23 kills and picking up 34 digs en route to leading Memphis to its third preseason championship of the season.

- Jovanovic was named a member of the Memphis Invitational All-Tournament Team after downing 55 (3.67 k/s) kills and coming up with 31 digs. She held a .300 hitting percentage and posted a double-double of 15 kills and 16 digs in the championship match against Georgia State. Jovanovic was named to the USF Asics/Powerade All-Tournament Team after turning in a double-double of 20 kills and 10 digs in the Tigers' five-set loss to San Francisco in the event's championship match. She continued her strong play at the Saluki Invitational, totaling 35 kills, including a double-double of 14 kills and 14 digs against Southern Illinois, en route to being named tournament MVP. She continued her preseason dominance with another all-tournament performance at the Spartan Spiketacular. Jovanovic totaled 34 kills and 24 digs while leading Memphis to three-straight victories and another tournament title.

- Petronijevic posted 75 total digs during the Memphis Invitational, including a career-high 29 in the championship match against Georgia State. The 29 digs in a single match ties Christine Bach and Christen Clayton for ninth all-time. Petronijevic was also named to the all-tournament team.

- Molnar was named C-USA's Setter of the Week after a solid performance throughout the Memphis Invitational. The redshirt junior recorded 199 total assists, including 61 in the championship match against Georgia State to lead the Tigers to four-straight victories. Molnar picked up more accolades at the Saluki Invitational, as the setter was named to the all-tournament team after leading Memphis to three-straight 3-0 victories over Green Bay, Murray State and Southern Illinois. Molnar earned her third C-USA Setter of the Week honors for the week of Oct. 3 after posting back-to-back double-doubles against Southern Miss and Tulane.

- Kostic posted nine kills and 35 digs while seeing time in 13 sets throughout the Memphis Invitational. She also recorded eight service aces.

2010 in Review

Coach Jauregui and the Tigers welcomed in nine newcomers from across the globe in 2010 and had a successful campaign while getting everyone adjusted to the Memphis way of doing things. The Tigers posted a 16-16 record, including a 9-3 non-conference mark and won both the Memphis Tiger Invitational and Belmont Invitational pre-season tournaments. Altrese Hawkins was named to Conference USA's All-First Team in addition to being a second-team performer in COBRA Magazine's 2010 post-season awards. Senior Christine Bach accompanied Hawkins on the C-USA All-Academic Team (the second-straight selection for Hawkins and fourth-straight for Bach), while the Tigers earned AVCA's Academic Team Award for the eighth consecutive season. Bach was also named to ESPN's All-Academic District IV First Team, while Hawkins earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honors.

Like a Hawk

Altrese Hawkins continues to rake in the honors, as the redshirt-junior was named to Conference USA's All-Preseason team. The selection comes after her selection to C-USA's All-Conference First Team following the completion of the 2010 season. Hawkins also earned All-Freshman honors after her first season in 2009. Hawkins was selected to COBRA Magazine's All-Preseason First Team. She earns the award after a stellar sophomore season in which she downed 483 kills and held a team-best hitting percentage of .305. She was one of only two Tigers to compete in all 122 sets during the 2010 campaign, highlighted by a 29-kill performance against Southern Miss on Oct. 29. The 29-kill showing ranks eighth in the Memphis record book for the most kills in a single match. Hawkins lived up to the hype, as she was named the Memphis Invitational's MVP and also tabbed C-USA's Offensive Player of the Week for the week of Aug. 29.

800-win Milestone

The University of Memphis Volleyball program, entering its 40th year in 2011, collected its 800th program victory with a 3-1 victory over SEMO on August 26. The Tigers are currently 29th on the all-time NCAA Volleyball wins list.

Juniors Rule

With no seniors of the 2011 roster, the Tigers will rely heavily on their talented junior class of Altrese Hawkins, Cassidy Hawkins, Vesna Jelic, Marija Jovanovic, Maja Kostic, and Hajnalka Molnar, which includes five starters from last year's squad.

vs. Tulane Friday, Nov. 11 Memphis, 3-1

Hawkins and Jovanovic Power Memphis Past Tulane in Four Sets

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Altrese Hawkins and Marija Jovanovic combined for 40 kills and led a Memphis attack that hit .338 en route to a 3-1 (26-24;19-25;25-19;25-21) victory over Tulane Friday night at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse.

The first set proved to be a battle as neither team would lead by more than three points. Tulane took its largest lead of the set at 12-9 after a kill by Izabela Grot, but Memphis responded with a 4-1 run to tie the set at 13. The teams would trade points until two-straight attack errors gave Memphis a 21-18 advantage. Tulane fought back to tie the set at 24, but a kill by Molnar coupled with a Green Wave attack error sealed the set for Memphis, 26-24.

The U of M tallied 17 kills to Tulane's 13 in the second set, was plagued by errors throughout, ultimately dropping a 25-19 decision. Memphis jumped out to a 7-2 lead, but a service error by A. Hawkins swung the momentum the Green Wave's way and the teams were back at 7 all. The teams took turns with the lead before an attack error by A. Hawkins gave Tulane a 17-15 lead. Tulane closed the set on an 8-4 run to win it 25-19.

Tulane and Memphis battled back and forth early in the third set and found themselves tied at nine after an attack error by Vesna Jelic. Memphis went on a run to take a 17-13 advantage after a kill by Hawkins. The Green Wave got as close as 18-15 after a kill by Cori Martone, but Memphis finished the set on a 7-4 run to win 25-19.

The Tigers appeared poised to run away with the fourth set after a Tulane attack error gave Memphis an 8-4 advantage, but the Green Wave battled back and took the lead 10-9 on a kill by Lilly Wolfe. Memphis found its footing, however, and regained the lead at 13-12 after a kill by A. Hawkins. The Green Wave tied the set at 18-18 and 19-19, but Memphis took the lead for good at 20-19 on a kill by Lauren Hawkins. A kill by A. Hawkins sealed the set for Memphis, 25-21 and the match, 3-1.

Tulane was led by Martone (19) and Anna Wruck (13), who each posted double-digit kills. Wolfe turned in 44 assists in the loss, while Nikki Osuna led the defensive effort with 11 digs. Memphis improves to 2-0 against Tulane this season.

vs. Southern Miss Saturday, Nov. 12 So. Miss, 3-1

Southern Miss Rallies to Defeat Memphis 3-1

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Four Golden Eagles registered double-digit kills as Southern Miss rallied to win three-straight sets and defeat Memphis 3-1 (25-21;19-25;21-25;23-25) in the Tigers' final home match of the season. Memphis falls to 17-13 overall and 7-11 in C-USA play, while Southern Miss improves to 15-14 (9-8 C-USA).

Altrese Hawkins led Memphis with a double-double of 23 kills and 13 digs, while Vesna Jelic also recorded a double-double of 13 kills and 13 digs. Marija Jovanovic downed 12 kills and Lauren Hawkins also added eight. Hajnalka Molnar came up one dig short of a double-double, finishing with 54 assists and nine digs, and Aleksandra Petronijevic had a match-high 18 digs.

Memphis hit a commanding .385 in the first set behind seven kills from Jelic. The Tigers took a 7-4 lead in the set after a kill by L. Hawkins, an maintained the lead for the rest of the set. Southern Miss came as close as 19-17 after a kill by Lauren Sears, but Jelic responded with a kill for the Tigers and Memphis won to close the set out, 25-21.

Southern Miss sprinted out to an 8-3 lead in the second set behind four errors by the Tigers. Trailing 15-9, Memphis rallied to cut the deficit to 19-17 and 20-18, but the Golden Eagles finished the set on a 4-1 run to close it out 25-19.

The Tigers came out strong out of the locker room in the third set and jumped out to an early 11-6 lead, which forced Southern Miss to call a timeout. Trailing 14-11, the Golden Eagles reeled off a 7-1 that gave them an 18-15 lead and forced Memphis to call a timeout. Memphis responded with a point out of the timeout when a kill by Katie Meyer cut the Southern Miss lead to 18-16, but the Golden Eagles were able to finish out the set 25-21.

Altrese Hawkins had a dominating 10 kills in the fourth set, but it wasn't enough to extend the match for the Tigers. Memphis started the set slow and found itself trailing 12-5 before it found its footing. The Tigers rallied to tie the match at 16 after a kill by Jovanovic but were never able to take the lead. Southern Miss kept the Tigers at bay, and a kill by Ashley Mell sealed the set 25-23 and the match, 3-1 for the Golden Eagles.

CONFERENCE USA

After marking its 15-year milestone during the 2009-10 season, Conference USA is still going strong. From the beginning, dedication to excellence has been the league's guiding principle and remains today a common thread for a promising future. C-USA is home to 12 nationally prominent, tradition-rich members in East Carolina, Houston, Marshall, Memphis, Rice, SMU, Southern Miss, Tulane, Tulsa, UAB, UCF and UTEP. This combination enhances men's and women's programs that are immersed in athletic success and academic prowess. Together, we are committed to excellence, integrity and leadership in athletics, academics and in our communities.

All C-USA institutions sponsor Division I-A football, along with several other men's and women's athletic programs, many of which compete regularly for NCAA Championships. C-USA sponsors competition in 20 sports - nine for men (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field) and 11 for women (basketball, cross country, golf, rowing, softball, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball).

The league sponsors numerous academic awards, including the Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Commissioner's Academic Medal, indicative of outstanding achievement in the classroom.

C-USA annually awards 12 post-graduate scholarships, along with the Sport Academic Award, Scholar Athletes of the Year and the Institutional Academic Excellence Award. Conference USA also added a Spirit of Service Award, recognizing student-athletes three times a year for a combination of significant community service efforts, good academic standing and participation in their elected sport.
