Mercyhurst (6-20, 2-14 GLIAC) at Gannon (20-5, 14-2 GLIAC)

Game 27: Saturday, February 24
 5:30 p.m./Erie, Pa.

Mercyhurst concludes its season against rival Gannon. Eliminated from the postseason, the Lakers are trying to play the role of spoiler and knock off a Gannon team that has clinched the GLIAC South Division.

Scouting Mercyhurst

Mercyhurst's season has been one of ups-and-downs. Injuries have derailed a team that could have begun to make noise in the GLIAC. Despite that, the Lakers have continued to compete, losing three of their last four games by six points or less. As well, Mercyhurst has had strong individual efforts throughout the year.

Julie Anderson has already been named a CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine First Team Academic All-District performer and is a finalist for All-American. She ranks among the GLIAC leaders in numerous stats and ranks in the top 60 nationally in four categories. She will finish her career against Gannon as one of the best players to ever wear a Mercyhurst uniform.

Other players have begun to build their legacy. Freshmen Mara Dreiser and Lindsay Whipkey have gotten important experience in their first collegiate seasons, each starting numerous times throughout the year.

Sophomore Stephanie Prischak has played a full season after her freshman cam-

Scouting Gannon

Gannon has won 20 games for the first time since the 2001-02 season and has clinched the GLIAC South No. 1 seed. However, the Knights need a win over Mercyhurst to clinch the overall No. 1 seed, ahead of Grand Valley State.

Gannon has a potent offense, ranking second in the GLIAC at 74.2 points per game, and it revolves around Christina Jackson. Although the Knights have multiple weapons on the court, Jackson is averaging 18.0 points and 10.0 rebounds per game, while shooting 53.1 percent from the field.

Casey England is a tremendous three-point shooter, leading the GLIAC in made threes and shooting them at a .470 clip. Tiffany Crocker is typically the player setting up her teammates and she ranks third in the GLIAC with 4.4 assists per contest.

Last Game Vs. Gannon

Looking at the stats prior to Saturday evening's women's basketball game between Erie rivals Mercyhurst and Gannon, few would have believed that Mercyhurst had much hope of slowing down an opponent that was on a roll. Gannon entered at 14-4 overall and led the GLIAC South with an 8-1 conference mark, while the Lakers came in at 6-13 and 2-7 in the division. Mercyhurst fought hard but eventually came up on the short end 81-74.

When the Gannon Knights jumped out on top 32-14, it looked as if the contest would not be one of those classic rivalry games. But Mercyhurst stormed back by forcing Gannon into uncharacteristic turnovers and the Lakers converted on almost every opportunity during a nine minute stretch to end the opening half.

Seniors Katlyn Petit and Julie Anderson began the comeback with back-to-back three-pointers and the Lakers eventually cut the deficit to single digits on another Anderson three-pointer with 4:47 to play to make it 37-28. Anderson then converted on a three-point play but Gannon rebounded with four consecutive points to make it 41-31 with just 2:49 to play in the opening half.

Over the final 1:36, Mercyhurst scored nine straight points, including a steal and lay-up by Stephanie Prischak with six seconds to play that tied the score at 44-44 heading into the locker room.

Mercyhurst finally took its first lead of the game on a Petit jumper 32 seconds into the second half but that lead was short-lived. Gannon scored 10 consecutive points and would never trail again although the Lakers continued to battle.

Prischak hit a pair of jumpers that got the Lakers within four at 54-50 but Gannon continued to keep Mercyhurst just out of reach of the lead for the rest of the half. The Lakers had four shot attempts to cut into a 68-61 deficit with less than six minutes to play but were unable to convert and Mercyhurst could not get closer than five the rest of the way.

Mercyhurst ended the game with five players in double-figures for the first time this season, led by Anderson's 22 points on 7-of-9 shooting and 6-of-7 free-throws. Petit and Prischak ended with 12 points and Mara Dreiser scored a career-high 11, all in the first half. Paris Pugliese came off the bench to add a career-high 11 as well.

The Lakers were hurt on the offensive glass as Gannon had 19 offensive rebounds and turned those into 20 points. As well, the Knights turned 29 Mercyhurst turnovers into 37 points.

Last Game: Big Second Half Pushes Ashland Past Lakers

Priscila Nascimento scored a career-high 15 points, but Ashland scored the first 21 points of the second half to claim a 78-60 win over Mercyhurst in Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) action.

Mercyhurst (6-20, 2-24 GLIAC) trailed by just four at the half, 39-35, but the Lakers failed to score in the second half until a Lindsay Whipkey baseline jumper with 12:04 left as the Eagles built a 60-37 lead. Mercyhurst missed its first nine shots of the half and committed seven turnovers before getting onto the scoreboard.

Ashland (13-13, 6-10 GLIAC) would build the lead to as many as 26, 71-45, with 6:47 to play, but Mercyhurst scored 11 straight to cut it to 15. A jumper by Julie Anderson got Mercyhurst as close as it would get, 71-56, with 3:47 left.

In the first half, the two teams were tied at 14-14 after a pair of Anderson free throws. Ashland then went on a 13-4 run and claimed a 27-18 lead with 6:08 left in the first half before Mercyhurst mounted a run of its own. The Lakers whittled the lead down to just two after a three by Nascimento, but Ashland's Amber Rall hit a twisting jumper in the lane for the 39-35 halftime score.

In addition to Nascimento's career-high 15 points, which included a perfect 6-of-6 mark at the line, Anderson and Mara Dreiser also reached double figures in scoring for the Lakers. Anderson scored 14, snagged a game-high nine boards and led all players with five steals. Dreiser added 10 points.

Rall and Catherine Portyrata scored 19 apiece to lead Ashland. Lacy Romine added 13. Alethea Lamberson dished out seven assists.

Mercyhurst shot just 31 percent in the contest, while the Eagles hit for 49 percent from the field.

The Lakers forced Ashland into 21 turnovers, while committing just 17.

Making Headlines

Mercyhurst senior forward Julie Anderson was one of five players named to the First Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Team.

The voting, which is conducted by Sports Information Directors, named five first team members, five second teamers, and six third teamers. Anderson joined West Virginia Wesleyan's Sarah Grab, IUP's Katie Glaws, Pitt-Johnstown's Jessica Zapf and Shepherd's Tiffany Acker on the first team. All of those athletes are now nominated for the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Team.

Athletes must hold a 3.5 cumulative grade point average or better to be nominated and must excel on the court. As a sophomore, Anderson was named to the Second Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Team.

Doubling Up

During the first eight games of the season, no Mercyhurst player recorded a double-double. But over the past 18 games, the Lakers have averaged one every two games.

Julie Anderson has six of the nine double-doubles and now has 21 for her career. In the team's last game, she had 24 points and a season-high 14 rebounds against Hillsdale on Senior Day. It marked her 23rd career 20+ point outing and her 24th 10+ rebound effort.

Lindsay Whipkey has two of the squad's other double-doubles this year as she posted 18 points and 11 rebounds in the team's win over Mansfield for the first of her career. Against Michigan Tech, Whipkey ended with 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Stephanie Prischak added the final double-double, posting a career-high 13 rebounds to go with 12 points against Ashland. The double-double was the first of her collegiate career.

Hitting The Glass

One area in which Mercyhurst has been particularly impressive this year has been in the rebounding game, where the Lakers rank at the top of the GLIAC with 14.19 offensive rebounds per game. The Lakers had their season-high 20 offensive boards in their home game against Le Moyne and has not had less than 10 in a game all year.

Julie Anderson leads the way with 78 offensive rebounds (3.00 per game) and ranks second in the conference in that category. Lindsay Whipkey is tied for 12th in the GLIAC with 2.12 offensive boards per game. Paris Pugliese has averaged 1.5 offensive rebounds per game in the eleven games she has played since getting her season underway, while Erica Elliott, Katlyn Petit and Stephanie Prischak all have more than 30 offensive boards this year.

The Twenties

Julie Anderson scored 20 or more points in five consecutive games from December 28 through January 13. That was something that had not been achieved by a Mercyhurst player in 13 years. Teresa Szumigala achieved the feat early in the 1993-94 season, scoring 20 or more in six straight games.

Szumigala started her streak with a 27-point outburst December 1, 1993 against Houghton and followed it up with 28 against Millersville, 21 against Le Moyne, 20 against Edinboro, 24 against Clarion, and 24 against California (Pa.).

Szumigala is Mercyhurst's second leading scorer all-time, finishing with 2,024 points -- one of only two players to ever score 2,000 in her career. She was inducted into the Mercyhurst Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

First Time Starters

A number of players have gotten their first collegiate starts this season.

Freshmen Rachel Divosevic and Lindsay Whipkey started in the season opener against Le Moyne in their first games of their careers.

Senior Erica Elliott played in 18 games a year ago off the bench, but got her first start at Mercyhurst against Wheeling Jesuit.

Mara Dreiser made her first career start in the Ohio Valley contest and has now started each of the past four games as well.

The Records Chase

By the time her career is over after the Gannon game, Julie Anderson's name will be littered all over the Mercyhurst record book.

She ranks fifth in career scoring with 1,449 points and fourth in career rebounds with 759. She is already solidly set in third in career steals and fifth in career field-goals made. She also ranks third in career free-throws made and fifth in career free-throw percentage.

Katlyn Petit has moved into the top 10 in career three-pointers made this year, currently tied for sixth. She needs one more to add to her career total of 130 to pass Lonna Dunlap for sole possession of sixth place.

Stephanie Prischak now ranks tied for seventh in career steals average and tied for 10th in career assist average. She also needs to attempt nine more free-throws to qualify for the all-time leaders in free-throw percentage and would currently sit in second place.

Anderson Named GLIAC POW

Mercyhurst College senior forward Julie Anderson was named GLIAC South Player of the Week on December 18 after leading the Lakers to a pair of wins. Anderson averaged 17.0 points and 9.5 rebounds per game as the Lakers beat West Virginia Wesleyan and Mansfield.

Anderson had the 16th double-double of her career in a 79-75 win over West Virginia Wesleyan, posting 16 points and 11 rebounds. She added two assists and made 6-of-8 free-throws in the contest. Anderson followed that up with 18 points, eight rebounds, five steals and a block against Mansfield, making all eight of her free-throw attempts. Mansfield entered the game with a record of 5-1, but the Lakers outscored the Mountaineers 17-9 down the stretch for a 68-60 win.

Academic Success

Three Laker players were named to the GLIAC All-Academic Team a year ago, including returners Julie Anderson and Katlyn Petit. Graduate Cassie Seth was the other player honored with the award.

Lakers Add Two For 2007-08

Mercyhurst women's basketball coach Karin Nicholls announced the signing of two recruits during this year's early signing period. Bethel Park High School senior Samantha Loadman and Butler High School senior Amy Achesinski have each signed National Letters of Intent to play collegiately at Mercyhurst.

Loadman, a 5-foot-10 point guard, is a four year starter for Bethel Park. She was named WPIAL AAAA Section 4 First Team All-Section, South Hills Almanac First Team All-District, South Hills Almanac Rookie of the Year, and Eat N' Park Freshman Player of the Month in December of 2003. As well, she is ranked as the No. 11 Backcourt/Wing Player in Western Pennsylvania by PA Prep Report. Along with her on-court play, Loadman is a National Honor Society member in the classroom and maintains a 4.1 QPA.

Achesinski, a 6-foot post player, was named to the Pittsburgh Post Gazette Fabulous Five in 2006 as one of the top five post players in the area. She averaged 16.6 points and 10.0

rebounds per game, while shooting 75 percent from the free-throw line, as a junior. She broke the 1,000 point mark during her junior year and was selected as a WPIAL AAAA Section 3 All-Section player. She scored in double figures in 23 of 24 games last year and was the team's leading scorer 20 times. As well, she is ranked as the No. 5 Post Player in Western Pennsylvania by PA Prep Report.

#21 Stephanie PRISCHAK

5-10 Sophomore Guard

Erie, Pa.

Villa Maria

2006-07: Started each of the team's first 21 games but an injury held her to nine minutes against Northern Michigan and then kept her from seeing court time against Michigan Tech...Bounced back to finish with 14 points, seven rebounds, three assists and three steals against Wayne State...Shattered her career high with 13 rebounds against Findlay, adding 12 points for the first double-double of her career...Has started every game she has played in during her two year career... Played at least 30 minutes in 18 games this year... Had 12 points, five rebounds and two steals against rival Gannon...Played a career-high 43 minutes in the overtime win against Northwood, finishing with 16 points, five assists and a career-high five steals...Had a career-high nine assists against Florida Southern...Had a huge game in a win over West Virginia Wesleyan, finishing with 17 points, a career-high six assists, six rebounds, three steals and a block...Had a season-high 18 points and added six rebounds and three assists, making a pair of three-pointers, against Ohio Valley... Ranks first on the team with a .913 free-throw percentage...Ranks 11th in the GLIAC in steals and 12th in minutes played...Would be ranked second in career free-throw shooting at Mercyhurst, but has not reached the minimum 100 free-throw attempts yet...Had 12 points and tied a career high with four steals in the win over Wheeling Jesuit.

2005-06: Missed the last 15 games of the season due to injury...started the first 12 and was team's leading scorer at time of injury...First on the team in minutes per game...reached double figures 9 times.
