Television Coverage

ABC will broadcast the game to a national audience. Bob Wischusen (play-by-play), Brock Huard (color) and Shannon Spake (sideline) will call the game.

Radio Coverage

In its 14th season as a division of IMG College, the Michigan Sports Network represents one of the largest and most-listened to college sports network in the Midwest. Anchored by WWJ-AM (950) in Detroit, the Michigan IMG Radio Network is comprised of 34 affiliate stations in Michigan and Ohio during football season. In addition, U-M football can also be heard on American Armed Forces Radio and is also available on Sirius (channel 136) and XM (channel 195). Jim Brandstatter (play-by-play) and Dan Dierdorf (color) bring the action to you from the booth, with Doug Karsch providing sideline reports and analysis. Jon Jansen hosts the pre-game tailgate show with Karsch and provides halftime and post-game analysis on the network.

Wolverines and Hoosiers

This will be the 64th meeting between Michigan and Indiana. The Wolverines have a 54-9 advantage in the all-time series and are 17-2 in Bloomington against the Hoosiers (16-1 at Memorial Stadium). U-M has won 19 straight games against IU and has claimed victories in 34 of the last 35 contests; last setback came in 1987.

Michigan in the National Polls

The Wolverines are ranked in the national polls for the seventh straight week. U-M is listed 15th in this week's Associated Press national poll and the Amway Coaches poll. Michigan entered the season unranked but following a 31-0 shutout of No. 22 BYU, the team checked into the national rankings at No. 22 the following week at Maryland. The Wolverines have posted a 2-1 mark against teams listed in the top 25 this season.

109th Season of Big Ten Action

- Michigan is in its 109th season of competition in the Big Ten Conference.
- The Wolverines have compiled an impressive 489-199-18 record in conference play and have claimed a league-leading 42 championships.
- U-M also leads the conference with 402 first-team All-Big Ten selections.

U-M In 136th Season of Gridiron Action

- The Wolverine program was established in 1879 when a group of 13 men fielded the first football team in school history and played a pair of off-campus games. U-M defeated Racine 1-0 at White Stocking Park in Chicago, Ill., on May 30, 1879, for the first victory in school history. The Wolverines tied Toronto 0-0 in Detroit to finish the year 1-0-1.
- U-M enters its 132nd year of uninterrupted gridiron action, with 1882 being the only season that the program did not play any varsity games.
- The Wolverines are the sixth-oldest football program in NCAA history.

Michigan-Indiana Series History

- This will be the 64th meeting in the all-time series with Indiana
- The Wolverines lead the all-time series, 54-9, and have won 19 straight games against the Hoosiers
- Michigan has won 34 of the past 35 games between the two schools
- The last U-M loss, a 14-10 setback in Bloomington, came in a match-up of top 20 teams during the 1987 season

Michigan vs. Indiana at Memorial Stadium

- The Wolverines have dominated the series with a 16-1 mark all-time at Memorial Stadium
- The Wolverines have won eight straight games at the facility, including a 42-35 victory in their last appearance at the venue in 2010
- Its only loss in the 17 previous games at Memorial Stadium was a 14-10 setback to the 15th-ranked Hoosiers in 1987
- This will be Jim Harbaugh's first appearance as a head coach at Memorial Stadium; he led U-M to victories against IU in 1985 and 1986

Michigan When Ranked vs. Indiana

- U-M has been ranked in the national polls for all 18 games against Indiana at Memorial Stadium (including this contest)
- This will be the 40th time that Michigan enters a match-up with Indiana ranked in the top 25 of the Associated Press national poll
- The Wolverines have compiled a 37-2 record in those contests, with their only setbacks coming in 1954 and 1987
- Michigan is a perfect 22-0 against Indiana when ranked in the top 10 of the national polls
- U-M has compiled a 2-1 record against the Hoosiers when both teams enter the game listed in the top 25 of the AP poll, winning games in 1968 and 1988 and suffering a loss in 1987

NFL Coaching Pedigree

- Michigan has 85 years of NFL experience among the 10 coaches on staff
- The staff has logged 36 years of NFL coaching experience and 49 years of playing experience
- Eight of Michigan's 10 assistants have coached in the NFL: Jim Harbaugh, Tim Drevno, Jedd Fisch, Jay Harbaugh, Greg Jackson, Greg Mattison, Tyrone Wheatley and Mike Zordich
- Four of the Wolverines coaches played in the NFL, with each of those individuals logging more than 10 years in the league: Harbaugh (15 years), Greg Jackson (12 years), Tyrone Wheatley (10 years) and Mike Zordich (12 years)
- Those four coaches totaled 49 years of playing experience at the NFL level
- This does not include the seven years of NFL experience logged by strength and conditioning coach Kevin Tolbert and the 21 years of coaching experience gained by defensive analyst Dave Adolph

The Team, The Team, The Team

- U-M has won the time of possession battle in seven of nine contests this season and has an average of a 7-minute-plus advantage on the opposition (33:24 to 26:36); the team lost the TOP battle against Michigan State (30:11-29:49) and Minnesota (31:05-28:55)

- Michigan has outscored the opposition, 198-69, over its last six games; did not allow a point in 44 straight defensive possessions before MSU's second quarter TD
- The Wolverines have outscored the opponent, 258-79, over the last 31 quarters, stretching back to the start of the second quarter against Oregon State (Sept. 12)
- The Wolverines have turned the ball over three times in the past four conference games; lost a fumble on the final play of the MSU game and committed two turnovers (one fumble, one interception) at Minnesota
- Michigan scored on offense, defense and special teams against Northwestern; it was the first time since the Indiana game in 2003 that U-M accomplished the feat

Offense:

- The offense has been balanced this season, with the ground game gaining 171.9 yards per contest and the air attack averaging 201.0 yards per game
- Michigan has rushed 362 times for 1,547 yards and 23 touchdowns
- Nine different Wolverines have scored rushing touchdowns this season, led by tailback De'Veon Smith (5), quarterback Jake Rudock (4), tailback Drake Johnson (3) and fullback Sione Houma (3); three others have two rushing scores

MEMORABLE GAMES vs. INDIANA

1979: Quarterback John Wangler threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Anthony Carter as time expired to lift Michigan to a dramatic 27-21 homecoming win over Indiana on Oct. 27, 1979 at Michigan Stadium. U-M led the game 21-7 in the fourth quarter, but the Hoosiers responded with two scores to tie the game, 21-21. Determined not to end the game in a tie, the Wolverines got the ball back at their own 22 with 51 seconds left and proceeded to move the ball down to the Indiana 45-yard line. With six seconds remaining in the game, Wangler hit Carter in stride at the 20-yard line, and Carter zipped his way into the end zone, resulting in one of the most memorable plays in Michigan football history.

2013: Behind record-setting performances from wide receiver Jeremy Gallon and quarterback Devin Gardner, U-M outlasted Indiana 63-47 in an offensive shootout on Oct. 19, 2013 inside Michigan Stadium. The Wolverines amassed a school-record 751 yards of total offense in the victory. Gardner was 21-for-29 passing for a program-record 503 yards and tacked on an additional 81 rushing yards, totaling five touchdowns (3 rush, 2 pass). His school-record 584 yards of total offense fell one yard short of the Big Ten total offense record. Meanwhile, Gallon finished with 14 receptions for 369 yards and two touchdowns, establishing new Big Ten and school records for most receiving yards in a single game. His 369 yards marked the second-highest ever by an FBS receiver.

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2015 (89 Years)

The football program is in its 89th season in the "Big House" in 2015, with a 412-126-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 40 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 264 consecutive games. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927 -- 48,091,774 fans have watched the Wolverines play 553 games (an average of 86,965/game). The stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 264 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation for 38 of the past 40 seasons in attendance.

Jim Harbaugh

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)
7-2 Record at Michigan

Jim Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in University of Michigan football history on Tuesday, Dec. 30. He becomes the sixth former Michigan football player to be named the leader of college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh comes to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC Champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only match-up of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved each of his four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game, and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, to claim the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League Championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

He began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. Harbaugh spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA National Championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for over 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first-team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top-12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and a son, Jack. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to Indiana University men's basketball coach Tom Crean.
