What They're Saying about the Wolverines ...

The Team

• "On paper, Michigan looks like one of the best teams in the country. With so much top-end talent on defense, the offense won't be required to be as explosive as many others around the country... If the Wolverines can merely get efficient play from the QB position with limited turnovers, they clearly have the roster required to compete not just for a Big Ten title, but a national championship as well."
Pro Football Focus Season Preview

• "I've been watching #Michigan tape all morning and I'm not even halfway through the roster. Should have double-digit draft picks next spring."
-- @dpbrugler on August 22, 2016
Dane Brugler
Senior NFL Analyst for NFLDraftScouts, CBS Sports

• "I asked 6 NFL scouts for their top senior NFL Draft Prospects:

DL Jonathan Allen (2 votes), TE Jake Butt (2), DL Taco Charlton, CB Desmond King." --
@dpbrugler on August 23, 2016
Dane Brugler
Senior NFL Analyst for NFLDraftScouts, CBS Sports

The Offense

Tight End Jake Butt
• "Smooth route-running allows (Jake) Butt to create separation at the intermediate level, leading to the top receiving grades among returning tight ends (in 2016). While he's not a great blocker, he faces a lot of challenging matchups in Michigan's pro style system, and there are a number of impressive blocks on tape."
Steve Palazzolo of Pro Football Focus
Top NFL Draft Prospects at Each Position for 2017

• "Butt is an instinctive football player. Playing tight end is more about feel, awareness and subtlety than pure speed and athleticism. He's a skilled technician with excellent spatial awareness. He knows how to create separation at the top of his routes. He uses his body to lean on defenders and he snaps out of his break without wasting steps. He is deployed in-line, in the slot as well as split out wide. He routinely beats safeties and even cornerbacks locked in man coverage. He beat an Indiana cornerback up top on a stutter-go route. That's not something you see very often from a big tight end. He has outstanding hands. He attacks the ball in the air (see TD vs. Utah) and wins a lot of 50-50 balls. After the catch, he lacks elite speed but he's nifty to make defenders miss and he has the power to run through tackles. He doesn't go down easily."

• "Butt is a natural pass-catcher that understands the nuances of route-running and creating space. He catches everything and has the potential to be a dominant red-zone weapon. He reminds me of Tyler Eifert coming out of Notre Dame. Both have outstanding size, ball skills and instincts."
Daniel Jeremiah, NFL.com Media Analyst
First Look: Scouting Michigan TE Jake Butt

• "It is hard to find an old-school tight end in today's game, but Butt is a throwback with the size, soft hands and route-running skills to terrorize defenses between the hashes. As a polished route runner with a big body and rugged game, he excels at "box-out" routes (option and Y-stick) over the middle. He overpowers defenders to establish position and uses his length to expand the strike zone for quarterbacks. Although Butt does most of his work at short-to-intermediate range, he flashes enough quickness and burst to run away from defenders on sail routes (15-speed outs) to the boundary. Given his impressive work on critical downs and situations (third-down and red zone), Butt has all of the tools to thrive as a TE1 on any level."
Bucky Brooks, NFL.com Media Analyst
Bucky's Best: Top CFB Pass-Catchers

• "At 6-foot-6 and 250 pounds, Butt has very good speed and fluidity for his size. He will be able to stretch the seam in the NFL -- and make tough catches in traffic. He needs to get stronger as a run-blocker, but he gives solid effort in that area. Butt -- who has the versatility to play in line, flexed out or split out wide -- comes with big, reliable hands."
Todd McShay, ESPN
McShay's Top TE Prospects for 2017

"Matchup tight end" has become a sexy NFL term, but the reality is that those players are usually just undersized tight ends who can't block but have some speed. Butt is a throwback tight end who combines size with outstanding toughness over the middle as a big, reliable target. Butt has vice grips for hands and he fears no traffic in the middle of the field. "
Lance Zierlein, NFL Media Analyst
Top 15 seniors in college football

Wide Receiver Jehu Chesson
• "Michigan WR Jehu Chesson early candidate for All-Tape Team next year. This dude loves mixing it up as a blocker. Jarvis Landry-style." --
@McShay13 on June 14, 2016
Todd McShay, ESPN

• "The Wolverines' WR1 is a silky-smooth playmaker with a polished game. Chesson is not only the best route-runner in college football, but he is a natural pass-catcher with strong hands and exceptional ball skils. The 6-3, 200-pounder routinely comes down with 50-50 balls on the perimeter, exhibiting sneaky strength and superb concentration fending off defenders down the field."
Bucky Brooks, NFL.com Media Analyst
Bucky's Best: Top CFB Pass-Catchers

• "Chesson is loaded with confidence and toughness that comes through when you watch him play. Chesson's speed is just okay and he needs to post a little greater production this season, but I have a hard time believing that NFL scouts won't love his football character and competitive nature from snap to snap. Playing for Jim Harbaugh should also be a feather in his cap as NFL teams will likely get a better feel for Chesson from a former NFL head coach like Harbaugh."
Lance Zierlein, NFL Media Analyst
Top 15 seniors in college football

• "It is tough to study Jehu Chesson on tape without having flashbacks of Mario Manningham. The same blue jersey and No. 86 certainly helps the comparison, but so does the tall, lanky frame with fleet-of-foot athleticism that makes him a dangerous scoring threat....
Chesson is a loose athlete with the galloping speed to easily accelerate in his routes and find open pockets in coverage. He catches the ball well in stride with the locating skills to adjust without slamming on the breaks, creating after the catch with finishing speed and a legitimate fifth gear. Chesson is tough and assertive in traffic and competes with a fearless demeanor that allows him to use his length and attack the ball in a crowd."
Dane Brugler
Senior NFL Analyst for NFLDraftScouts, CBS Sports
Top NFL Draft Prospects: Jehu Chesson revives memories of Mario Manningham

Center Mason Cole
• "Cole has 25 starts at left tackle, but he's moving inside to center this season. He is a very effective run blocker -- particularly on the move -- and he has the length to excel at his new position. Cole projects as a possible Day 2 pick in 2017, but he may be best suited to return to school. He'd benefit from one more offseason of strength training and another year of experience at his new position."
Todd McShay, ESPN
McShay's Top OL Prospects for 2017

Offensive Tackle Erik Magnuson
• "Magnuson moves with a smooth shuffle and wide base, transferring his weight well in his kickslide to mirror edge rushers. He stays low off the snap and prefers to use his hands to control the point of attack and out-leverage and out-power defenders. Magnuson is able to secure downblocks and anchor the shallow depth, driving his legs to finish in the Wolverines' power offense. He has also been praised by the coaching staff for his leadership and consistency during the week...Magnuson enters the 2016 season as one of the top-10 senior offensive tackles in the country."
Dane Brugler
Senior NFL Analyst for NFLDraftScouts, CBS Sports
Top NFL Draft Prospects: Magnuson stands out at right tackle for Michigan

The Defense

The Defensive Line Unit
• "(Michigan has) the nation's best defensive line which includes four players who played at least 330 snaps and graded at 83.0 or higher (in 2015) (DT Maurice Hurst, DT Ryan Glasgow, DT Chris Wormley, DE Taco Charlton)."

Steve Palazzolo of Pro Football Focus

Defensive End Taco Charlton
• "Yet another Michigan defensive lineman to highlight, Charlton was extremely productive on his 389 snaps (in 2015). He was solid against the run with a 79.2 mark, while his pass rushing took a huge step forward at 82.6. After compiling only 11 pressures on 120 rushes in 2014, Charlton notched six sacks, nine QB hits and 26 hurries (41 total pressures) on 229 rushes last season. The Wolverines' defensive line is top heavy with most of their returning talent at defensive tackle, and while Charlton is certainly not slight at 6-6 and 275 pounds, he brings the best edge rushing dynamic on the team. Look for Charlton to play at least 600 snaps this season while continuing to develop into the naton's best edge rushers."

Top 25 Breakout Players of 2016

• "NFL Scouts are very excited about some of the flashes coming off the tape from Charlton. At 6-foot-6 and 285 pounds, with long arms and a muscular build, Charlton has the size to play at defensive end in a 3-4 or 4-3 defense. However, he also has the athleticism and quickness to be considered as a standup linebacker as well. Traits and production go early."

Defensive Tackle Ryan Glasgow
• "The argument could be made that Glasgow has already broken out as he boasted the nation's No. 19 run-stopping grade before going down to injury last season, but since he only played 332 snaps, he still qualifies as a breakout candidate. He's seen the field for 753 snaps the last two seasons, posting a strong +32.7 grade against the run, and last year he improved hiss pass rush grade to +9.0 with a sack, four QB hits and 12 hurries on 179 rushes. Glasgow is part of a loaded defensive line at Michigan that is often difficult to single out the best of the bunch, but he'll plenty of moments as the anchor at nose tackle."

Defensive Tackle Maurice Hurst Jr.
• "Hurst was equally strong rushing the passer as he was against the run last season, producing a high level on his 418 snaps. He can shoot gaps or push the pocker with power and he may be the best player on a loaded Michigan defensive front."

Cornerback Jourdan Lewis
• "(He) plays a feisty brand of man coverage, mirroring receivers and doing a nice job of playing the ball in the air. He's also a good run defender and solid tackler."

Steve Palazzolo of Pro Football Focus
Top NFL Draft Prospects at Each Position for 2017

• "When you're listed at 5-10, 175 pounds, you have to have some sort of trump card to grade out as the nation's top cornerback. For Lewis, it's his knack for knowing exactly when and where the ball is coming. Couple that with his freakishly nimble lower half and you get a shutdown cornerback. In another life the Michigan defensive back would make the NBA's All-Defensive 1st team, but he'll have to settle for being a PFF All-American as it stands. His 15 pass breakups led the FBS in 2015."

Linebacker/Safety Jabrill Peppers
• "Though he'll officially be called a linebacker for Michigan this season, Peppers is still projected as more of a safety in the NFL. Still, the lines are blurring on the two positions depending on the scheme, so perhaps Peppers will be an NFL linebacker by this time next year. Regardless, it's his attacking nature in the run game combined with the athleticism in coverage that makes Peppers a unique player. The ability to play the run, blitz effectively and cover tight ends is covbeted at the next level and Peppers brings those unique skills to the table."

Steve Palazzolo of Pro Football Focus
Top NFL Draft Prospects at Each Position for 2017

• "A former 100- and 200-meter champion from New Jersey, the 6-1, 208-pound Peppers has been the ultimate X-factor guy for the Wolverines and could be an even bigger factor in new DC Don Brown's scheme....Peppers displayed his blazing speed this spring when he clocked a 4.34 40 last month."

Defensive Tackle Chris Wormley
• "Wormley has the versatility to line up both inside and outside, allowing Michigan to run a hybrid front in base and sub-packages. He is an athletic mover with the lateral quickness and range for a 300-pounder to contain and chase. Wormley closes with a head of steam without slowing down through contact, showing tremendous balance to stay controlled before, after and while engaged on blocks. He reads his keys quickly and rarely is fooled by eye candy, extending into blockers with arm length and leverage to drive blockers into the pocket. Wormley also breaks down well in space for a man his size once he stacks the edge to finish tackles. Bottom line: if Wormely can translate all his flashes into snap-to-snap consistency then there is a great chance he lands in the first round next spring."

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2015 (89 Years)

The football program is in its 89th season in the "Big House" in 2015, with a 413-127-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capcity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 40 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 266 consecutive games. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927 -- 48,313,825 fans have watched the Wolverines play 555 games. The stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 266 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation for 38 of the past 40 seasons in attendance.

Jim Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in University of Michigan football history on Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2015. He becomes the sixth former Michigan football player to be named the leader of college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh comes to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC Champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only match-up of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved each of his four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game, and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, to claim the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League Championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

He began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. Harbaugh spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA National Championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for over 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first-team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top-12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and a son, Jack. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to Indiana University men's basketball coach Tom Crean.
