Track and Field

Dear Coach,

We have changed the format of the 2012 indoor track & field meets we host at the University of Michigan.

The Simmons- Harvey Invitational, traditionally a non scoring open meet for men and women has been changed to a scoring meet (for men) with EMU, CMU, and UD only. The meet will be contested in two sessions as the, (1.) Men's Harvey Invitational, followed by the (2.) Women's Simmons Invitational. This year the meet will be contested on Saturday, January 21. See schedule and format on the following pages.

The Silverston Invitational will continue to be a combined men and women's non scoring event. However, we will have both an age and qualifying mark standard to be able to enter and compete. College teams, please, confirm your intent to compete so that you may enter on Direct Athletics without advanced entry fee payment. This year the meet will be contested Saturday, February 18, See schedule and format on the following pages.

Thanks for your attention to this information. Please, check our website www.mgoblue.com for updates and final meet info.

Looking forward to a great track & field season in 2012!

Sincerely, on behalf of University of Michigan Track & Field Staffs,
