(AP) Quarterback Chris Nickson rushed for a career-high 166 yards and two touchdowns and passed for another TD to lead Vanderbilt to a 34-13 victory over Miami. Miami's lone lead against the Commodores came on a 37-yard field goal by Nathan Parseghian early in the first quarter. Vanderbilt when ahead 7-3 when Nickson and Sean Walker hooked up for a 49-yard completion and then a 4-yard touchdown pass. Moore's interception on the RedHawks' ensuing possession led to a 42-yard field goal by Bryant Hahnfeldt. Moore later returned a punt 91 yards to the Miami 1, and Nickson plunged in from there to put the Commodores on top 17-3. The RedHawks answered with a 30-yard touchdown pass from Daniel Raudabaugh to Eugene Harris. But Vanderbilt countered in just three plays, including a 59-yard run by Nickson and a 14-yard touchdown run by Nickson.

Two quick University of Michigan scores to start the game proved to be enough as Miami University's football team fell to the Wolverines 16-6 at Michigan Stadium, dropping the RedHawks to 0-5 all-time against the Wolverines. The Wolverines held a 10-0 lead by the 8:53 mark of the first quarter, but the RedHawks shrunk the gap while holding Michigan scoreless for nearly 45 minutes. A pair of field goals by Nathan Parseghian put the RedHawks within four. Parseghian hit a 27-yard field goal at 3:58 in the second quarter and then connected on a 23-yard attempt at 6:37 in the third quarter. Miami continued to hold the Wolverines scoreless until Brandon Minor dove into the endzone after a 15-yard run at 8:21 in the fourth quarter for a Michigan touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good, leaving the score at 16-6 in favor of Michigan.

Despite 235 yards passing from Daniel Raudabaugh, Miami was unable to overcome a costly turnover and four Cincinnati touchdown plays of 20-yards or more, falling to the Bearcats, 45-20. Raudabaugh went 28-of-42 with two touchdowns. His one interception was a costly one, as it was returned 72 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter by Mike Mickens. Chris Givens and Armand Robinson each caught touchdown passes from Raudabaugh with Givens' 34-yard touchdown closing the UC lead to 24-20 with 10 minutes left in the third quarter. Andre Bratton posted his first career 100-yard rushing game, but Ohio's Chris Garrett answered by topping the century mark as well, leading the Bobcats to a 41-26 victory over the RedHawks. Miami forced Ohio to punt on the opening possession of the second half, and Matt Schulte's rugby-style kick went directly into Mickey Mann for the block.
