Memorable Moments

October 20, 1978: The age of Miami varsity ice hockey begins at Goggin Ice Arena with the Red and White thrashing the arch-rival Cincinnati Bearcats 15-2. Paul Kinney led Miami with four goals while Dave McClintock also tallied a hat trick with three scores.

November 10, 1978: Miami hockey notches its first victory against an NCAA foe, defeating the University of Illinois-Chicago by a 7-4 tally in Goggin Arena. Bill Bok led the way for Miami, tallying two goals and two assists.

February 24, 1979: Gary DeLonge tallies a Miami record eight points in the Red and White's 16-1 thrashing of Cincinnati. DeLonge finishes Miami's inaugural varsity season with 74 points, a single-season record that still stands today.

December 4, 1979: In its second season as a varsity program, Miami earns its first victory over an NCAA Division I opponent, defeating U.S. International 4-3. Rich Kuraly recorded the game-winning goal with less than two minutes to play.

January 19, 1980: In its first victory over an established CCHA foe, Miami defeats Bowling Green 4-3. The win provides a good measure of revenge for the Red and White, which had lost two games to the Falcons by a combined score of 23-1 the previous year.

October 23, 1981: The CCHA era begins for Miami hockey with the Red and White defeating Western Michigan 2-0 in Kalamazoo, Mich. Vern Sketchley and Steve Morris each tallied goals while Dan Kodatsky earned the shutout in goal. Miami went on to collect nine league wins in its inaugural season of CCHA play.

February 20, 1981: Rick Kuraly tallies a Miami record five goals in the Red and White's 15-3 trouncing of Lake Forest College. Kuraly finishes his career two years later as the only Miami player to record more than 100 goals.

March 4, 1983: Miami competes in its first CCHA Quarterfinal game, losing 6-2 to Ohio State. The Red and White bounced back with a 6-4 win the next night behind two goals from Kevin Beaton, but OSU advanced due to its advantage in total goals.

October 21, 1988: In front of a Goggin Arena crowd of 3,248, Miami falls 3-2 to defending national champion Lake Superior State. The Red and White rebounds the following night, knocking off the Lakers 4-3 in front of 3,144, the third-largest crowd in Goggin history. It was the most well attended hockey weekend in Miami history.

March 10-11, 1992: Miami advances to the CCHA Semifinals for the first time in the program's history by sweeping Western Michigan 3-1 and 4-3 on the Broncos home ice. In the 4-3 overtime win, Brian Savage tallied the game winner. The Red and White falls to top-seeded Michigan in its first semifinal appearance two days later.

February 6, 1993: In front of 3,050 Goggin faithful, Miami, ranked No. 3 in the nation, rocks No. 2 rated Michigan 4-3 in overtime. After Michigan ties the game at the 15:05 mark of the third quarter, Jason Mallon strikes early in overtime to send the Red and White on its way to its first CCHA regular-season title.

March 6, 1993: Needing just one point to clinch its first CCHA regular-season title, Miami rallies from two goals down and ties Ferris State 6-6 to capture the CCHA crown. Brian Savage nets the game-tying goal at 17:47 in the third period.

March 11-12, 1993: Led by Brian Savage, who tallies two goals in each contest, the Red and White pounds the rival Ohio State Buckeyes 8-2 and 7-2 to advance to the CCHA semifinals for the second-consecutive season. It marks the first time that Goggin Ice Arena hosts a postseason series.

March 20, 1993: Miami advances to its first and only CCHA final by knocking off Ferris State 4-3 in overtime. Kevyn Adams tallies the game-winning goal in overtime, his second of the game, while current Miami coaches Enrico Blasi and Chris Bergeron also record goals.

March 26, 1993: Five days after falling to Lake Superior State University in its first CCHA Championship appearance, Miami returns to Joe Louis Arena in Detroit, Mich., to face the University of Wisconsin in its first NCAA Tournament appearance. The Red and White cannot overcome two early Badger goals in a 3-1 loss. Stephen Rohr tallies Miami's first NCAA Tournament goal.

February 5, 1994: Miami holds off a late University of Notre Dame rally to defeat the Fighting Irish 6-5 and extend its winning streak to a record 10-games. The streak began Jan. 7 and ended on Feb. 11 with a 4-3 loss to the University of Illinois-Chicago.

March 1, 1997: Miami, ranked sixth nationally, knocks off defending national champion and No. 1-ranked University of Michigan 4-2 in Goggin Arena. The Red and White uses third period goals from Dan Boyle and Adam Copeland to clinch the win and lock up the No. 2 seed for the CCHA Tournament.

Miami's 1976-77 team, though still of club status, was the first Miami hockey team to call Goggin Arena its home. Steve Cady coached the team, which included many players that would be part of Miami's first varsity season two years later.

Memorable Moments

March 22, 1997: After falling in overtime to Michigan State in the CCHA semifinals, the Red and White earns its second at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, where it faces Cornell University. Despite seizing the early lead, Miami is unable to hold off the Big Red, falling 4-2.

November 19-20, 1999: Miami ambushes No. 3 Michigan State in Goggin Arena, shutting down the Spartans 3-2 and 3-0. Freshman goalkeeper David Burleigh holds the Spartans scoreless for over four consecutive periods in the two games.

March 2, 2001: Paced by David Burleigh's career-record tying fifth shutout, Miami defeats Ohio State 3-0 to finish the regular season in a second-place CCHA tie with Michigan. The win also clinches Miami's sixth 20-win season and fourth since joining the CCHA.

October 20, 2001: With an assist, Jason Deskins became the 32nd player in Miami history to record 100+ points in his career. Deskins would go on to register 24 more points and finish in a tie for 14th all-time.

January 18, 2002: With his third shutout of the season at Lake Superior State, David Burleigh took over as Miami's all-time leader in shutouts with eight. Burleigh stopped 32 Laker shots en route to his third whitewash of the season.

Memorable Moments • MIAMI IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

1993 NCAA WEST REGIONAL DETROIT, MICH. WISCONSIN 3, MIAMI 1

After winning the Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season title under head coach George Gwozdecky, Miami was rewarded with its first NCAA Tournament bid.

In a West Regional first-round game, Miami returned to Joe Louis Arena in Detroit, Mich., where it had fallen in the CCHA Tournament Championship game to Lake Superior State University just five days earlier, to face the University of Wisconsin.

The veteran Badgers, who were playing in their sixth consecutive NCAA tournament, wasted little time in introducing Miami to NCAA Championship hockey, rolling out to a 2-0 lead after the first period with goals from Jason Francisco and Dan Plante.

Miami regrouped in the second period, using its first NCAA postseason goal from Stephen Rohr to cut the lead to one goal,

1997 NCAA WEST REGIONAL GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. CORNELL 4, MIAMI 2

After earning its second trip to the NCAA West Regional via an at-large berth, third-seeded Miami faced off against sixth-seeded Cornell University for the second time of the season in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Perhaps inspired by the confidence of a 5-4 win in the two teams' November meeting, Miami struck first and snagged its first NCAA Tournament game lead with an Adam Copeland goal.

The Big Red retaliated in grand fashion, reeling of back-to-back goals to claim a 2-1 lead late in the second period, but Miami wasn't finished. Josh Harrold responded with a game-tying goal less than two minutes after Cornell's go-ahead score.

Unfortunately, the wheels fell off for the Mark Mazzoleni-coached Red and White in the final period as Cornell tallied the and looked poised to tie up the contest.

However, Wisconsin's Jamie Spencer added a security goal early in the third period, and the Badgers held the Red and White at bay for the remainder of the contest.

The loss ended Miami's season with a 27-9-5 record, the most wins by a Miami team. Though the first-round NCAA Tournament loss was disappointing, it ultimately laid the groundwork for a new era of Miami Hockey.

game-winner eight minutes into the third with a Ryan Moynihan goal and tacked on a security goal in the contest's final minute when Miami had pulled its goalkeeper.

Cornell went on to face eventual national champion North Dakota in the second round while Miami returned home with a final record of 27-12-1.

Setting The Standard

Though Miami University ice hockey was officially born as a varsity sport during the 1978-79 season, it was born again during a 1992-93 season that, to this day, has no equal in Miami hockey history.

With three freshmen holding together its defense and a tradition that had never finished higher than fifth in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association laying behind it, the 1992-93 Miami hockey team shocked the collegiate hockey world and set the standard for all Miami teams to follow by winning the program's first CCHA Championship.

The road to the Red and White's first league title began rather quietly in Alaska-Fairbanks with a split, but it rapidly gained momentum when Miami stormed Michigan State's Munn Arena the following week. After never achieving a sweep on the Spartan's home ice in the program's history, Miami rolled out 4-3 and 7-3 victories to send a message to the rest of the conference.

By Christmas, Miami was perched atop the CCHA Standing and ranked in the top five nationally in all four polls. After dropping consecutive games to No. 1-ranked Maine and Lake Superior State at Maine's Dexter Classic, Miami went on a crucial nine-game unbeaten streak that included perhaps the biggest win in the program's history.

With the Red and White ranked third in the nation and atop the CCHA, perennial power Michigan came calling with its No. 2 national ranking and second-place CCHA standing. Powered by a raucous crowd of more than 3,000, Miami stunned the Wolverines in overtime by a 4-3 margin.

The season came down to the wire, with Miami finally clinching its first CCHA Title with two ties in its final two games.

In the postseason, Miami advanced to its first CCHA Tournament championship game before succumbing to Lake Superior State 3-0. Despite the setback, Miami once again broke new ground by earning its first NCAA Tournament berth via an at-large bid.

A slow start doomed the Red and White in its first NCAA Tournament matchup, and, despite a strong showing, Wisconsin ended Miami's dream season with a 3-1 defeat.

Miami right wing Brendan Curley captured his thoughts on the memorable season in a review for the 1993-94 media guide.

"History books will fondly remember the 1992-93 Miami team for its surprising accomplishments. Not only did it erase the frustration of years past, it set a standard for all future teams to emulate."

LUCKY #9

Players wearing the No. 9 Miami jersey have had remarkable success finding the back of the net. Gary DeLonge (left) wore the No. 9 jersey during Miami's inaugural season, in which he set a record with 39 goals. Rick Kuraly took the No. 9 jersey following DeLonge and finished his career as Miami all-time leading scorer, tallying 101 goals during his career.
