MIAMI MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

(4-3, 3-1 MAC) 2006 Mid-American Conference Champions

SEASON COMPLETE:

MAC Champions: First Time Since 1999
MAC Swimmer of the Year: Paul Ricard
MAC Diver of the Year: Chris Heaton
MAC Swimming Coach of the Year: Pete Lindsay
Senior Co-Swimmer of the Year: Scott Robson
12 All-MAC Selections: Six First Team, Six Second Team
Two All-MAC Academic Selections

SEASON COMPLETE: Winning its first conference title since 1999, the Mid-American Conference Champion Miami University men's swimming and diving team completed one of the most successful seasons in school history. In unseating six-time defending champion Eastern Michigan and earning its first team crown in six years, Miami won 10-of-20 events at the MAC meet and took home four of the five specialty awards, including the MAC Swimmer and Diver of the Year awards.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Miami's successful 2006 swimming and diving season had many highlights. In addition to winning the MAC title, Miami finished ninth in the Division I Mid-Major Poll and was honored by the College Swim Coaches Association of America for having the 27th-highest GPA (3.03) for Division I men's teams. Miami also had 12 athletes place on the all-conference teams and two student-athletes, junior Andy Amyot and senior Zach Niehaus, earn places on the all-MAC academic team.

THE STREAK IS BROKEN: By winning 10 of the 20 events contested at the Ohio Aquatic Center, Miami broke Eastern Michigan's streak of six consecutive Mid-American Conference Swimming and Diving titles as it finished first at the MAC Championships (March 4). Miami (888.5 points) beat out Eastern Michigan (881 points) by a slim 7.5-point margin, winning its first MAC title since 1999. Miami claimed eight individual titles and two relay crowns as six RedHawks — Paul Ricard, Chris Heaton, Justin Marcy, Michael Donohoe, Griffin Marshall and Theo Kuczek — all won their first career individual MAC titles.

DIVING DOMINANCE: Freshman Chris Heaton became the second Miami diver in as many years to sweep the boards at the conference meet, winning both the 1- and 3-meter diving titles at the 2006 MAC Championships. Heaton joined select company in school history as he became the seventh Miami diver to sweep the diving competition at the MAC meet. Heaton's three-meter dive win came in dramatic fashion, as Heaton hit the board on his second dive, scoring

2.5s and 3s and then missed his third dive for scores of 4. Heaton regrouped for his final dive, performing a forward 2 1/2 with two twists which carries a degree of difficulty of 3.4 (the highest degree of difficulty of any dive performed in the meet) and clinched the title. Heaton was named the 2006 MAC Diver of the Year for his performance.

RICARD CAPS SOLID SEASON: With wins in the 500 freestyle and 1,650 freestyle at the conference meet, Paul Ricard capped a solid junior season that saw him win 16 individual swimming events. At the conference meet, Ricard opened with a first-place and NCAA "B" cut time in the 500 freestyle of 4:26.14. On the final day of competition, Ricard added the 1,650 freestyle crown, breaking his own school record with another "B" cut time of 15:19.40. With the victory, Ricard became Miami's first MAC Champion in the 1,650 freestyle since Dick Clarke in 1987, and he also became the first Miami swimmer to win multiple conference swimming titles since Andrew Keefe won three titles in 2004. Ricard was named the MAC's Most Outstanding Swimmer upon the completion of the meet.

MAC ACCOLADES: Following the completion of the MAC Championships, Miami took home four of the conference's specialty awards, including head coach Pete Lindsay winning his second consecutive MAC Coach of the Year award. Miami also won the swimmer of the year (junior Paul Ricard), the diver of the year (freshman Chris Heaton) and senior swimmer of the year (senior Scott Robson). Miami head diving coach Todd Spohn missed out on the MAC Diving Coach of the Year honor despite having the conference diving champion in both the 1- and 3-meter boards.

MAC ACCOLADES (PART II): Miami placed 12 athletes on the all-conference teams following the MAC Championships, with six on both the first and second teams. Paul Ricard and Chris Heaton headlined the all-MAC first team selections, and they were joined by Justin Marcy, Griffin Marshall, Michael Donohoe and Theo Kuczek. On the all-MAC second team, Miami was represented by Blake Norman, Scott Robson, Andrew O'Neill, Nick DuPuis, Pat Carroll and Andy Amyot. Miami's 12 representatives were the most in the conference, topping Eastern Michigan's 11 selections.
