STORYLINES:

1. While most of the team competes in Oxford, three RedHawks have qualified for competition at the U.S. Open Championships in San Antonio, Texas. The meet is held by USA Swimming. Two RedHawks are in the pool each day, as backstroker Jason Krasula competes Thursday and Friday, butterfly stroker Scott Robson competes on Friday and Saturday, and breastroker and native Texan Griffin Marshall competes Thursday and Saturday.

2. Miami's swimmers compete this weekend against as many schools, six, as the team has faced all year when the Miami Invite opens Friday.

Six MAC Titles • 2004 MAC Runners-Up

COACH'S CORNER

Pete Lindsay enters his 20th season at Miami having led Miami to 17 top-three finishes at the MAC Championships in his 19 previous seasons. In 1997 and 1999, Lindsay guided Miami to its last two conference titles, and the RedHawks have been the only team to knock Eastern Michigan off the top of the MAC podium since 1980. Last season, Lindsay helped Miami to a 4-1 record in the MAC and boasted a three-time gold medalist in Andrew Keefe, who won the 50, 100 and 200 Free races at the 2004 MAC meet. Lindsay has coached 74 Mid-American Conference individual champions, seven MAC Men's Swimmers of the Year and two of Miami's six MAC Championship teams. He has garnered four MAC Coach of the Year awards, earning the honor in 1991, 1994, 1996 and 1999. Lindsay, who teaches in the physical education department, is the only Miami head coach that is a full-time instructor at the university.
